Insurance quote, vehicle purchase highlight agenda

By Clara Osten
clara@wayneherald.com

The cost of the district's property and casualty insurance and the purchase of a new vehicle to transport students were among the items on the agenda during the October meeting of the Wayne Community Schools' Board of Education.

Cap Peterson with Northeast Nebraska Insurance Agency, explained the district's coverage, which is provided by EMC Insurance Companies.

He told the board members that one of the components of the policy involves Worker's Compensation.

Because of the district's recent history of fewer claims, and the fact that the district has gone through the company's safety program, the cost of the Workers' Compensation portion of the package will be approximately $5,000 less for the coming year.

Board member Lynn Junck said he felt it would be a good idea to have the insurance package go out for bids. While it is too late for this to take place before the coming year, board members did agree that they should consider doing so in the coming year.

Following Peterson's presentation, the board voted to accept the quote of $108,606.00 from EMC Insurance Companies. This number may change slightly, based on the number of vehicles the district has insured and the total payroll for the coming year.

A bid of $28,191 was accepted for the purchase of a 2016 Ford Expedition for the district. This vehicle will be paid for with depreciation funds. A 2005 mini van will be traded in and vehicles within the district. See School Board, Page 4A

Wakefield's Balloon Days activities announced

The 14th annual Balloon Festival will take place in Wakefield Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 20 - 22.

The majority of the activities that are part of Balloon Days will take place on school grounds at Wakefield Community Schools; however, several events are scheduled for other areas of the community. All activities are dependent on the weather.

Friday, Oct. 20 will see the "Kite Guy" at Wakefield Elementary School all day.

A Balloon Launch is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. on Friday. It will be followed by a Legion Steak Fry from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Legion Hall, located at 211 Main.

Saturday's events begin with Omelets at School (free will donation) from 7:30 to 10 a.m. at the school and a Balloon Launch at 7:30 a.m.

Throughout the day various food vendors will be available and the "Kite Guy" will be at the school.

A Fun Color Run/Walk will start at the Park. Registration is at 7 a.m. with the Run beginning at 8 a.m.

Marla Matikin as the Contessa will be at the Little Red Hen Theatre at 10:30 a.m.

Kids Color Wakefield is scheduled from 10 a.m. to noon.

A Car Show and Street Faire will be held on Main Street from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and the Museum/Depot will be open during the same hours.

A parade will take place at 2:30 p.m. along Main Street, with registration and lineup beginning at the swimming pool.

Another balloon launch is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. on Saturday and the popular Night Glow is scheduled for dusk.

Saturday will end with a Firemen's Street Dance featuring "Rachel Price" from 8 p.m. to midnight.

On Sunday, Oct. 22 a balloon launch is scheduled for 7:30 a.m. and a breakfast for pilots at 10:30 a.m.

Mission trip offers eye opening experience

By Calyn Dunklau
calyn@wayneherald.com

On Sept. 13, Kessy Hanson and her son Kingston flew out of the United States to London and eventually onto Sri Lanka, an island off the coast of India. The two took a roadtrip from the airport in Colombo to Jaffna where they would be working.

Having seen information from a friend regarding "The Dust Project," a missions organization that raises money for and builds homes for families in Sri Lanka, Hanson decided it would be the perfect time to help a family in need and show her son that life is very different outside of Wayne, America.

"The whole trip was two weeks after you added in flying and the couple of days we did the sightseeing," Hanson said. "The other group members arrived on Sept. 18 to start work on the house."

Aside from a run in with an aggressive monkey, sightseeing went well for them. Sigiri was conquered, and they both took an elephant ride among visiting temples and seeing the city for a couple days before they got down to business building a home.

A family of five was receiving a small home, with just two bedrooms, but it was a major upgrade compared to what they had which was a one room hut. The children had began staying at a nearby orphanage simply for their safety as poisonous snakes and scorpions are attracted to body heat and during the night kids sleeping on the ground made perfect sleeping conditions for said dangers.

The home Hanson worked on was the first home to have an indoor toilet, which was a great amenity for the family but it also meant significantly more work was needed to complete the home.

The group Hanson and her son worked with was largely made up of women, which came as a shock to some of the local workers.

"We were women in tanktops and hats working just as hard as they were," she said. "The workers would pull out their phones to record us."

She helped with the brick laying itself, stacking and cementing which isn't an easy task in the heat and humidity of the jungle.

Hanson said her son got stuck with some of the more unsavory jobs due to his size.

"There was a ledge at the orphanage that he got shoved up into because he was the only one that fit. It needed painted but there was no air movement and Sri Lanka is hot, but he was a trooper."

And he got to be a kid. Hanson sent him off to play with the local kids each afternoon when they were out of school, where he learned to play cricket with rocks and palm-leaf stem bats.

"He was one very white boy surrounded by kids much darker than him and it wasn't an issue. They were all just kids playing."

Over and over Hanson said they were reminded how good life is here.

"There were beggars and peddlers outside of our hotel. Armed guards were there to keep them back. People tried to sell things like rocks that were pretty or, like when we climbed Sigiri there were people there just trying to help me up the stairs for a few rupees."

Hanson said that was a huge part in why she chose to include her 11 year old son in the trip and it's what she tried to explain to her younger son Ryden.

"When we got back home we talked and I told him that I saw the starving kids and that's why I tell him to finish his food," Hanson said.

The progress on the house was the fastest any group had done so far, but it's not finished. Local workers will continue working and another group will come back when more money is raised to finish it.

To finish out their trip, Hanson and her son were invited to church on Sept. 24. During the service, she said they were asked to come forward to be prayed over.

One of the most moving moments of the entire trip happened in the minutes that ensued, where members of the congregation laid hands on the workers and prayed over them.

"They prayed for our hands and for our backs and then, mind you everyone is dirty, barefoot or in flip flops, everyone got down on their knees and laid hands on our dirty feet and prayed for our feet. And I just lost it."

She recalled the biblical story of Jesus washing his disciple's feet and how that resonated with what happened in the church service.

Goodbyes were difficult, Hanson said. "The girls in the orphanage nearby never know when people are going to come. And when you leave, they get reserved and pull back. You can see it in their eyes."

And she will eventually be back to experience it all again, whether in a year or two or when her younger son is 11.

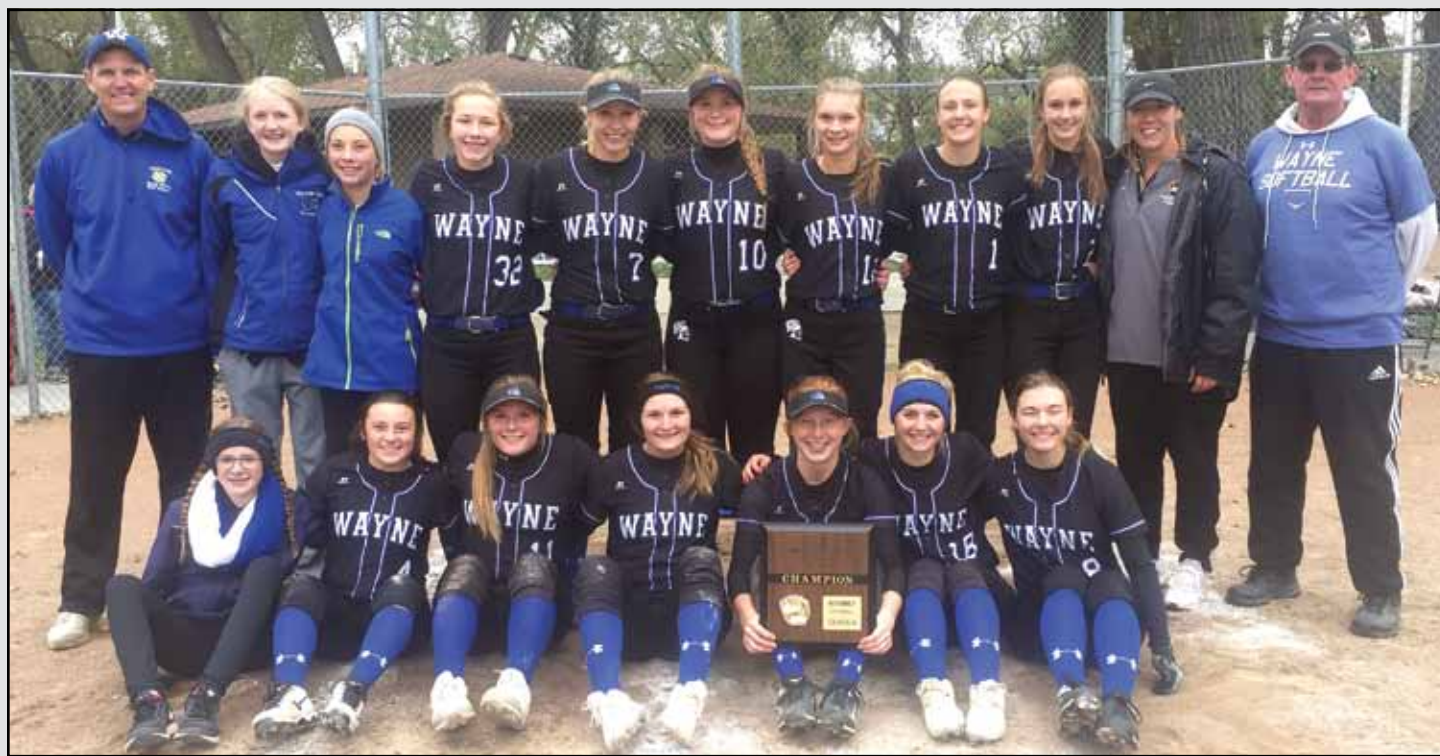

"He wanted to go so badly so we had to put a date on it. When he turns 11 like Kingston was for this, we are going back. I want to come back sooner but for sure when Rye is older."

Look for a story focused on The Dust Project and how the Hansons got involved with it in next week's paper on the Faith Page.

Pink Flamingo Nite

The annual Pink Flamingo event was held last Thursday at Our Savior Lutheran Church. Speakers, vendors, a fashion show and plenty of guests to talk to made the night a success. Speaker Jolene Lichty spoke of her journey. Turn to page 8B for more photos from the night.

Alice Ross

Alice Ross, 98, formerly of Laurel, died Tuesday, Oct. 3, 2017 in Spokane, Wash.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 17 at the Laurel United Methodist Church, 302 Elm Street in Laurel, followed by interment of her remains at the Laurel Cemetery.

Alice Muriel Moore was born Oct. 30, 1918 near Butte. Her parents, Joseph V. and Elva Kenaston Moore, farmed near Butte and later near Laurel. Alice graduated from Coleridge High School in 1936 and studied at Stetson University in DeLand, Fla. and the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. Alice served as a high school teacher in several rural Nebraska communities. Alice married Paul L. Ross in 1943. During Paul's deployment with the US Navy in World War II, Alice lived near his base at Providence, R.I., and was employed at a factory making supplies for the war effort. After the war, Alice and Paul farmed near Laurel. In 1963 they moved to Odebolt, Iowa. Alice was very active in the Odebolt United Methodist church, teaching Sunday school, and serving in choir and the United Methodist Women. Alice served as librarian at the Odebolt Public Library. In 2000, Alice and Paul moved to the Spokane, Wash. area to be near their children and grandchildren. Alice was a kind, thoughtful, and loving wife and mother who enjoyed music, sewing, gardening, literature, and college athletics, particularly the Nebraska Cornhuskers and the Gonzaga Bulldogs.

Survivors include her five sons: Joe, of Anchorage Alaska; Paul, of Carbondale, Kan.; Andy, of Dallas, Texas; Tom, of Deer Lake, Wash.; and Tim, of Denver, Colo.; two sisters, Dorothy DeMarco of Columbus and Polly Stover of Rockford, Ill.; nine grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Paul; and her brother, Don Moore.

Annual Octubafest planned at Wayne State College

Crisp, cool autumn reverberates with rich sound during the 11th Annual Octubafest presented by Wayne State College Department of Music. The free performances take place in Ley Theatre, located in the Brandenburg Education Building, Wednesday through Friday, Oct. 18-20. All events feature WSC staff accompanist Shelly Armstrong.

The series begins Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. with a Guest Tuba Recital by Dr. David Earll, Assistant Professor of Tuba, Euphonium, and Trombone at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville. Earll performs and lectures throughout the United States and abroad. Compositions for solo tuba are highlighted with piano, audio-tape and narration. WSC Instructor of Low Brass, Dr. Josh Calkin joins Earll on stage for a tuba duet. The repertoire includes works by Ray Luedeke, John Stevens and Mike Forbes.

Calkin presents a Faculty Tuba Recital with an orchestral flair on Thursday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. Compositions include works by Barbara York, Thom Ritter George and Calkin's arrangement of an Antonio Vivaldi violin concerto.

Octubafest concludes Friday, Oct. 20 with a 7:30 p.m. Low Brass Studio Recital. WSC students display artistry through trombone, euphonium and tuba solos. The repertoire incorporates works by Félix Alexandre Guilman, Bendetto Marcello, Johann Galliard, Don Haddad, Václav Nelhybel and others.

Richard 'Dick' Carlson

Richard D. Carlson, 82, of Wayne, died Saturday, Oct. 7, 2017 at a Sioux City, Iowa hospital.

Services will be held Thursday, Oct. 12 at 1:30 p.m. at Concord Evangelical Free Church in Concord.

Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. Memorials may be directed to the Carlson family for later designation. Arrangements are with Hasemann Funeral Home in Wayne. Richard Duane Carlson was born March 19, 1935 in Wisner to Reuben and Josephine (Melker) Carlson. He married Jeannette McPherran on May 24, 1953. To this union six children were born. They divorced in 1991. Richard married Doris Montgomery on August 23, 2008. Richard's life's work was long and diverse and included farming with his dad, working at a dairy, an auto salvage company, and for a plumber. He started Carlson Construction Company at age 19, built the Billy Sunday Tabernacle in Sioux City, Iowa, 43 homes in the Wayne area, four post offices, five telephone buildings, and numerous other buildings in northeast Nebraska. He was the first building inspector for the City of Wayne, taught vocational classes at Northeast Nebraska Community College, and subcontracted with People's Natural Gas Company for 33 years installing gas service lines, mains, and system upgrades. He was a master builder, master plumber, master electrician, and an inventor. His greatest passion was all things related to fish. He started Carlson Clearwater Fish Farms in 1979 as a side business and enjoyed building the business and many friendships with suppliers and customers until his passing. He enjoyed providing fish for the annual Boys and Girls Club fishing derby in Des Moines, Iowa, then watching the kids catch the tagged fish to claim prizes and scholarships.

Richard enjoyed gardening, wildlife, and especially watching Purple Martins return each year to the birdhouses his father built. He received his private pilot's license in the shortest time ever (at the time) in the State of Nebraska. He owned a four-seat 150 Stinson Voyager airplane and also flew twin engine and high performance planes.

Survivors include his wife, Doris (Montgomery) Carlson; his siblings: Beverly (Neal) Van Fossen of Rosemead, Calif.; Elzira Fritz of Clifton, Colo.; Phyllis (Clarence "Tank") Wellbrock of Bullhead City, Ariz.; Ronald (Bitsy) Carlson of Boulder, Colo. and Steve (Maxine) Carlson of Belgrade, Mont.; former wife: Jeannette (Carlson) Boyer of Wisconsin Rapids, Wisc.; their children: Cindia (Brian) Lessmann of Lincoln, Rich (Judy) Carlson of Cedar City, Utah, Marvel (Terry) Rahn of Wakefield, Connie (Stanley) Dohmen of Springfield, David (Bobby) Carlson of Owasso, Okla., and Jo (Jeff) Peters of Wisconsin Rapids, Wisc.; 15 grandchildren: 14 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Marvel J. Carlson; granddaughter, April L. Dohmen; great-grandson, Troy T. Dohmen; brother-in-law, Don Fritz; niece, Sandra Wellbrock; and nephew, Terry Wellbrock.

Pallbearers will be Ken Prokop, Larry Sievers, Ed Brogie, Vernie Gill, Luke Thompson and Brent Pick.

Wayne State adds Online Master's Program in Special Education

Wayne State College has announced it will offer a fully online Master of Science in Education degree in special education (SPED) beginning in the summer of 2018.

Through this advanced degree program, four different tracks will be available for people interested in a career and graduate level training in special education, according to Dr. Nicholas Shudak, Dean of the School of Education and Counseling.

"The online SPED program will be of interest to certified teachers looking to add a SPED endorsement to their certificate; to teachers with a SPED endorsement seeking an advanced degree to broaden and deepen their knowledge; to special education professionals who are interested in a leadership and administrative role as a special education supervisor; and to those who have their bachelor's degree and are looking to begin a teaching career in special education," Shudak said.

According to the Nebraska Department of Education, the number of special education teaching positions left unfilled or filled by those that were not fully qualified was 23.7 percent during the 2016-17 school year. The United States Department of Education also reports there is a national shortage of special education teachers. The fully online program options can assist school systems in hiring fully qualified special education teachers.

"This program is the result of concerted efforts between regional teachers, school leaders and the college to address the dire shortage in having qualified professionals serving students with exceptionalities," said Dr. Casey Hurner, Chair of the Educational Foundations and Leadership Department.

"The online communities developed through the four tracks will allow for candidates to develop their culturally sustaining pedagogies and advocate for the needs of diverse learners," said Drs. Hurner and Laura Franklin, both special education faculty at Wayne State College.

For those interested in learning more about the dates and delivery of this program at Wayne State College, contact the School of Education and Counseling at the following email: onlinesped@wsc.edu.

Open house event

J. R. Moss, Executive Director of Careage Campus of Care, welcomed those in attendance at last week's Chamber Coffee. Moss talked about changes that have taken place at the facility recently and highlighted the Physical Therapy area. The entire facility completed a week-long Commit to be Fit challenge that included different activities each day. Those taking part logged the number of steps they took and engaged in healthy lifestyle events. Following the Chamber Coffee those in attendance were able to take tours of the facility.

Pumpkin decorating contest, display planned at Wayne Public Library

"Tis the Season of Orange and Black" and the third annual Pumpkin Decorating Contest has been scheduled for Oct. 26 - 31 at the Wayne Public Library.

A fun way to celebrate the fall season and Halloween is to decorate a pumpkin. The library staff invites individuals, church, civic, and youth groups, businesses, college students, school students, preschools and city and rural folks to decorate a pumpkin or squash for display at the library during the last week of October.

"Use your imagination and create a silly, scary, artsy, colorful, strange, eerie, out-of-the-ordinary, glamorous or any kind of pumpkin you would like. We do ask that you not carve the pumpkin; just decorate the outside of the pumpkin. Bring your work of art to the library by the 26th, and it will be displayed through the end of the month," said Rita McLean, Adult Services Librarian at the library.

Winners will be selected Oct. 31 by guest judges. Prizes will be awarded. "Be sure to "Trick or Treat" at the library from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. that day and check out the prize winners! It could be you, McLean said.

All pumpkins will need to be picked up by the close of the library on Friday, Nov. 3 or they will be thrown away.

Area partners gather to discuss goals

A group of approximately 30 people were on hand for a Joint Partners Meeting on Oct. 10 to discuss goals and the future of the city of Wayne.

Hosted by Wayne Area Economic Development (WAED), the group included representatives from the WAED Board, the city of Wayne, Wayne Community Schools, Wayne State College, Providence Medical Center, Northeast Power and regional economic development directors.

The focus of the hour and a half meeting was finding ways to engage people to become involved with and in the community, which was listed as the top goal for 2016-2017.

Discussion included how to include members of the community representing different demographics, include low income and language learners.

Superintendent Mark Lenihan told the group that nearly 40 percent of the district's students qualify for free/reduced meals and those with language learning issues are creating a challenge for the school. Several in attendance offered suggestions on how to get more people involved in community activities and ways to promote volunteerism.

Common goals and the future of the City of Wayne were discussion points in a recent Joint Partners meeting.

Luke Virgil, Executive Director of WAED, asked for volunteers from those in attendance to be a part of a steering committee to move forward with a plan, what will include measurable data, to achieve this goal.

"We are all in this together," said Dr. Marysz Rames, President of Wayne State College, at the conclusion of the meeting.

Karen Hansen

Hansen is named 'Reader of the Week' by public library

Karen Hansen was named 'Reader of the Week' this week by the Wayne Public Library.

What is the last book you read? (Or a recent read)? Title & Author Behind Closed Doors by B.A. Paris It was a psychological thriller similar to Gone Girl or Girl on the Train.

Who is your favorite author? I don't really have a favorite but I have been a long time fan of Stephen King and John Grisham.

Why do you read? I have loved to read as long as I remember. I remember moving to Wayne when I was 10 and that's when I discovered there was an endless supply of books to read and I felt so happy.

Have you ever had to give up on a book?

50 pages in and if it hasn't gotten my interest, I'm on to the next book.

Name a book you would recommend and tell everyone why they should read it.

Probably my two favorites of all time, which I read and reread as a teenager, were Hawaii by James Michener and Gone With the Wind by Margaret Mitchell. They are both wonderful historical classics. Today I enjoy psychological mysteries and almost any true crime story.

Is there anything else you'd like to comment on about your passion for reading?

I feel fortunate to have passed on my love of reading to my children and hopefully to my grandchildren. If you learn to read well as a child it will lead to a successful high school and college education. Read every day to your kids and if you are lucky to your grandchildren! They will thank you someday.

Biography - Something about yourself.

I grew up in Wayne and graduated from Wayne High and attended Wayne State College. I have been married for 48 years to my husband, Gene, and we have four grown children and four grandchildren. I recently retired after working for nine years in the Wayne School system and after 20 years with the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resource District.

One of the most exciting things about retiring for me was the opportunity to get back to reading more books! I also volunteer at Providence Medical Center three days a week and recommend that opportunity to anyone interested in giving back to your community.

The other candidates included Abbie Bloom, Chloe Hauptmann, Madysyn Holloway, McKenzie Ohlrich and Ashley Wolfram for queen and Zach Dietrich, Logan Hansen, Timothy Heydon, Ethan Rogers and Charles Stanley for king.

 trict's fleet will be re-assigned to different areas.

The school's foundation accepted a check from Wayne Area Economic Development. The money represents the proceeds from the recent Taste of Victory Tailgate event in which 'celebrity' chefs provided food and those attending voted for their favorite foods with their money.

A total of $1,326 was raised during this year's event.

Bids were accepted for refuse removal from Gill Hauling and the subscription for Sparq Data Solutions Tier 2 services.

The refuse bid is $20 per month higher than the district is currently paying. The Sparq bid will include services to put the board's policies online as well as maintain the site.

Reports from each of the administrators included information on activities during the first quarter of this school year. These ranged from Parent-Teacher Conferences to the athletics seasons.

for the 2017-2018 school year. He said that a total of 48 students have opted out of the district for various reasons and 54 have opted into the district. The district receives approximately $9,000 for each student who opts into the district.

Lenihan also told the board that the renovation project is nearing completion; however, some painting still remains, as well as the final punch list.

The board will next meet in regular session on Monday, Nov. 13 at 5 p.m. in the junior-senior high school library.

Solid defense, ground attack carry Wildcats in homecoming game

Wayne State held Southwest Minnesota State to a pair of field goals while senior running back Rashad Trimble rushed for 159 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown to spark the Wildcats in a 20-6 homecoming win Saturday over Southwest Minnesota State Saturday at Cunningham Field.

The Wildcats put together a pair of lengthy drives in the first and second quarters, but had to settle for field goals on both possessions. An 11-play, 74-yard drive late in the first quarter resulted in a 24-yard field goal from Ethan Knudson, and he added a 25-yard field goal early in the second quarter to cap an 11-play, 67-yard drive to make it 6-0.

Southwest got on the scoreboard with seven seconds remaining in the first half as Skyler Crew connected on a 37-yard field goal to make the score 6-3 at intermission.

Wayne State then controlled the time of possession in the third quarter, hanging on to the ball for more than 10 1/2 minutes. They used a 15-play, 80-yard drive that finished with a two-yard scoring pass from quarterback Zach Osborn to Nate Rogers, giving Wayne State a 13-3 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Southwest Minnesota State put together a scoring drive in the fourth quarter and had a first-and-goal at the Wildcat 7-yard line, but the Wildcat defense forced the Mustangs into a field goal of 25 yards from Crew to trim the Wildcat lead to 13-6 with 6:52 remaining.

Trimble gave the Wildcats an insurance touchdown late in the fourth quarter, as the senior turned the corner and raced 52 yards down the left sideline with 3:54 to go to put the game out of reach. He finished the game with 159 yards on 25 carries and one score for his second 100-yard effort of the season.

Osborn, who missed last week's game at Augustana with a left foot injury, completed 14-of-30 passes for 147 yards with two interceptions and one touchdown.

The top Wildcat receiver was Layne Sullivan with seven receptions for 47 yards followed by Rogers with three catches for 35 yards and one TD. With his 22nd career TD reception, Rogers is now tied with Frederick Bruno (2007-10) for third place all-time in touchdown receptions at Wayne State.

Emile Hope, Kolbie Foster and Tyler Thomsen each recorded eight tackles to lead the Wildcat effort defensively. Aaron Wright added four solo tackles and one interception.

The Wildcats (4-2, 2-0 NSIC South) have a short week will be at home for a Thursday night NSIC contest against No. 6 ranked Sioux Falls, with kickoff set for 7 p.m. at Bob Cunningham Field.

This scene never gets old for Wayne High softball fans, as the Blue Devils celebrate with the district championship trophy after Monday's 8-0 win over David City/East Butler in the B-4 district finals in Wisner. Wayne was scheduled to play Gretna in the first round of the state tournament in Hastings on Wednesday.

Perfect end to district title for Wayne softball

Back-to-back no-hitters help Devils win B-4 title

By MICHAEL CARNES
For The Herald

WISNER — The weather wasn't perfect Monday afternoon, but Tori Kniesche sure was.

The sophomore hurler threw two no-hitters in the B-4 district tournament, capping the day with a five-inning perfect game as Wayne beat David City/East Butler 8-0 to earn the school's 14th trip to state in the 15-year history of the program.

Kniesche's two gems not only put the Blue Devils in the state tournament, but put her in the state record books. She threw her ninth and 10th no-hitters of the season to set a new Class B record, bettering the old record of nine set by Ashley Hegemann of Elkhorn in 2007.

"It's awesome," she said after the team's celebration on the main field at Wisner City Park. "I have to thank my team because they really came through. Jenna (Trenhaile) had an amazing hit and everybody started hitting and it was just great and I have a lot of confidence in my defense behind me."

Among her comrades on defense were seniors Trenhaile, Kennedy Maly and Jamie Gamble, who were excited to continue the team's tradition of success and make it to state in each of their four years in the program.

"It's a great feeling," Trenhaile said. "There was some pressure but we knew if we kept working hard and doing what we've been doing we could be successful. It's just a great feeling right now."

"This is a good feeling," Gamble added. "It's our fourth year and we're really happy we made it. There was definitely some pressure, but we knew we could get it done."

"State, baby, State!" exclaimed Maly. "It's just a really good feeling and it just gets better every year."

Coach Rob Sweetland, who has been the head coach from the beginning, certainly echoed the feeling. "This never gets old," he said. "Even after all these years when you still get butterflies the night before and you don't sleep much. We knew we'd handled these teams before coming in, but these teams didn't lay down for us and we finally were able to break through and calm down after that."

The Blue Devils started the day with an 8-0 win over Wisner-Pilger that saw Kniesche give up just two walks while striking out 11. A Wisner-Pilger runner reached base on an error to lead off the second inning to account for the only other Gator to reach base in the game.

Wayne got a run in the first inning on a double by Annie Kniesche, scoring Kennedy Maly. They got another run in the second on an RBI single by Abby Ankeny that scored Sidney Biggerstaff.

Wayne got two more in the third when Kayla Fleming came home on an error and Jamie Gamble singled home Biggerstaff, added another run in the fourth when Josie Thompson came home on a double steal, then put it out of reach in the fifth with RBI singles by Gamble, Ankeny and Thompson.

Wayne's bottom of the lineup was hot as Gamble, Ankeny and Thompson each had two hits to lead Wayne's 11-hit attack in the district semifinal. Jenna Trenhaile, Kennedy Maly and Tori Kniesche also had hits.

In the championship game, Wayne had opportunities to score early on, but baserunning mistakes kept the Blue Devils from breaking the ice as David City/East Butler played the top-seeded Wayne team to a scoreless tie through the first four innings.

Allen's Summer Jackson spikes the ball past a Whiting defender during a triangular at Allen High School last week. The Lady Eagles won both matches, defeating Whiting and Winnebago in straight sets.

Allen wins two in home triangular

The Allen Lady Eagles won both ends of a home triangular on Tuesday before dropping a three-set match at Hartington-Newcastle.

Allen made quick work of Whiting (Iowa) and Winnebago in a home triangular Tuesday, beating Whiting 25-7, 25-18 and handling Winnebago 25-20, 25-9.

In the Whiting matchup, Bri Hingst had seven kills, Haley Stapleton added four and Summer Jackson had three. Cassidy Thomas had 15 assists. Jackson and Hingst each had three aces. Hingst had 13 digs and Thomas added nine.

Against Winnebago, Jackson had five kills, Desi Martell added four and Thomas and Hingst both had three. Thomas had 17 assists. Hingst and Carly Dickens both had four ace serves. Hingst led the defense with 16 digs.

On Thursday, Allen dropped a three-set decision at Hartington-Newcastle, 27-25, 25-21, 26-24.

Hingst had 11 kills, Martell added six and Stapleton had four for the Lady Eagles. Thomas had 27 assists. Summer Jackson had four ace serves and Hingst added two. Stapleton had 28 digs, Thomas had 19, Hingst had 16, Dickens had 15 and Jackson had 13.

Allen hosted Whiting (Iowa) on Tuesday and will play host to Winside on Thursday.

WSC soccer earns academic award

For the third straight year, the Wayne State College women's soccer team received the United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Award for the 2016-17 academic year. To qualify for the award, a team must have a grade point average of 3.0 or better for the entire academic year. Wayne State College finished the 2016-17 academic year with a 3.5 grade point average and had 15 of its 24 players register an individual grade point average of 3.5 or better. Wayne State was one of seven schools from the NSIC to receive the academic honor and had the second-highest team GPA, trailing only Bemidji State (3.57).

Wildcats stay at No. 21 in latest AVCA poll

The Wayne State volleyball team remained 21st in the latest American Volleyball Coaches Association Div. II coaches poll. The Wildcats are one of six Northern Sun Conference teams in the top 25 ranking this week and are in the poll for the 109th consecutive ranking since Sept. 28, 2009. Wayne State extended its win streak to five matches last weekend with road wins at University of Mary and Minot State. They are home this weekend, hosting No. 9 Northern State Friday at 6 p.m. and MSU Moorhead Saturday in a 1 p.m. contest at Rice Auditorium.

JV volleyballers win two in road triangular

The Wayne JV volleyball team swept Boone Central/Newman Grove and Pierce in straight sets in a triangular held at Pierce. The Blue Devils defeated the Cardinals 25-22, 26-24 before downing the host Bluejays 25-18, 25-16.

Junior high gridders post wins at Pierce

The Wayne seventh grade football team defeated previously-unbeaten Pierce 22-14 to finish the season undefeated at 6-0. Calvin Starzl passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third. Ashton Munsel and Daniel Judd each caught a touchdown pass while Alex Phelps converted two 2-point conversions. Defensively, the tackle leader was Eli Barner. In eighth grade action, the Blue devils won 46-12. Touchdowns were scored by Toby Braun, Brandon Bartos and Tanner Walling. The leading receiver was James Dorcey while Brenden Swanson and Mason Frevert were the defensive leaders. The eighth graders finished the season at 4-2.

Trick play helps West Point-Beemer Cadets rain on Wayne's homecoming

By MICHAEL CARNES
For The Herald

On a wet and windy Friday night, West Point-Beemer kept themselves in the game with a solid running attack.

And then came the pass. On a fourth down play with less than a minute to go in the fourth quarter, the Cadets turned to the trick play chapter in their playbook and quarterback Cole Hughes pitched the ball right to running back Hunter Pilakowski. Pilakowski ran right and stopped, lofting a pass to a wide open Ben Vander Griend in the end zone with :52 left.

That play helped the visiting Cadets escape Wayne State College's Memorial Stadium with a rain-drenched 32-28 over Wayne High, sending the Blue Devils to their second straight loss after a 5-0 start and raining on their homecoming celebration.

The Cadets scored early in the second quarter on a 17-yard run by Pilakowski, but Wayne answered later in the period when Juan Vergara hit paydirt on a two-yard run to make it a 7-6 game.

On the first play of the ensuing drive, West Point-Beemer hit a big play on the Wayne defense as Gage Vance found a seam and raced 80 yards for the score to make it 13-6.

Wayne came right back late in the half, scoring on a one-yard run by Beau Bowers. Bowers ran in the two-point conversion to give Wayne a 14-13 halftime advantage.

The Blue Devils took to the air on their first drive of the second half, as Bowers found Ryan Jaixen open for a 32-yard touchdown pass for a 22-13 advantage.

West Point-Beemer scored again on a two-yard run by Pilakowski, but with time running out in the third period, Bowers lofted a pass in the rain to Mason Lee, who made a jumping catch in the end zone over a Cadet defender for a score that gave Wayne a 28-20 lead going into the fourth quarter and appeared poised to take lead with less than six minutes left, but missed a short field goal that gave Wayne the ball with a chance to seal the win.

West Point-Beemer's defense held on the next drive, and the Cadets moved down the field with a chance to win the game. The Cadets fumbled two snaps on the final series, setting up a fourth-and-long that led to the decisive play. Bowers was picked off on Wayne's final opportunity with time running out to end the game.

Bowers was 7-of-14 for 136 yards with two touchdowns. Lee had 63 yards on two receptions and Jaixen had 45 yards on three catches. Zane Jackson caught one pass for 23 yards and O'Reilly hauled in a five-yard connection.

On the ground, Vergara rushed 18 times for 89 yards. O'Reilly had 24 yards on eight carries. Bowers had 18 yards on eight tries and Casey Koenig had 18 yards on four carries.

On defense, O'Reilly, Jackson and Justin Dean each had eight total tackles on the night. Bowers, Vergara and Koenig each had five stops and Kaden Kneiff and Garrett Schaefer each had four stops.

Next up for the 5-2 Blue Devils is top-ranked Norfolk Catholic, providing another tough test for the Blue Devils' 7 p.m. home finale Friday at Memorial Stadium.

Wakefield kick returner Dylan Harder is off to the races for a 64-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, with some blocking help from Clay Christensen (5). The seventh-ranked Trojans returned two kicks for scores, but couldn't outscore top-ranked Creighton in a 70-38 decision Thursday at Eaton Field.

Trojans out-scored by Creighton in soggy game

A day's worth of rain didn't slow down two of the top teams in Class D-1 Thursday at Eaton Field.

In a game that included four kickoff returns for touchdowns and seven scores in the opening period, Top-ranked Creighton pulled away in the second half to hand seventh-ranked Wakefield its first loss of the year in a 70-38 decision.

Wakefield coach Mike Hassler was proud of his team's effort.

"I'm extremely proud of the boys," he said. "They came out and played their rear ends off and that's all I can ask. I thought we were very physical and stood toe to toe with the best team in our class for three quarters. In the end we were just a little too beat up injury-wise and had one too many mental break downs. My hat's off to Creighton, they are an excellent football squad and deserve to be where they are at."

Creighton scored on the opening drive to take the early lead, but it didn't last long as Dylan Harder returned the ensuing kickoff 64 yards for a score to tie it at 6-6.

Creighton answered Wakefield's special teams play with one of their own and added another touchdown to lead 18-6, but Wakefield's special teams struck again when Esgar Godinez returned a kickoff 73 yards for a score. He scored on a 15-yard run after a Creighton punt and the game was once again tied at 18-18.

Bryce Zimmerer scored a pair of touchdowns for Creighton to make it a 34-18 game, but Wakefield bounced back when Solomon Peitz hit Julio Sanchez with a 23-yard pass to make it a six-point game.

Creighton's special teams struck again on the ensuing kickoff, however, as Thad Hazen returned his second kick for a score to make it 40-24 at the half.

Wakefield would get the lead back down to 10 on their first drive of the second half, with Peitz finding Julio Sanchez for a 23-yard score, but the Bulldogs scored four more times to put the game out of reach before Wakefield scored again on a Peitz-to-Justin Erb 25-yard connection to close out the scoring.

"Creighton's offense is tough," Hassler said of the Bulldogs' offense, which put up 436 yards in total offense. "They have some fast skills guys and their line is big and physical. They run it well and it's hard to shut down all their threats. We got a few big stops in the third quarter and got ourselves back into the game, but injuries just really caught up with us in the fourth quarter and we just couldn't keep up with them."

The Trojans played well on offense and special teams, but losing Sanchez to a knee injury late in the third hurt the Wakefield offensive attack.

"We did some really nice things to move the ball," he said. "We put in some wrinkles just for Creighton that I thought we took advantage of. When we had Julio Sanchez go down with a knee injury towards the end of the third quarter, that really swung the tide. We already had to shuffle our line going into the game due to injury, and Julio's injury pretty much put us down to one formation for the remainder of the game and limited us to what we could do for the fourth quarter. The boys never quit, though, they played through some tough breaks."

Peitz was 6-of-18 for 132 yards and three touchdowns in the passing department for the 5-1 Trojans. Harder caught two passes for 79 yards, Sanchez had two catches for 28 yards, Erb caught a 25-yard touchdown pass and Godinez caught one pass for zero yards.

On the ground, Godinez led with 72 yards on 15 carries, Noah Lamprecht had 19 yards on seven tries and Hrder had 10 yards on three carries.

Defensively, Peitz had 12 tackles, Sanchez and Blake Heimann both had 11, Lamprecht had 10 and Ben Chase had two quarterback sacks and a fumble recovery.

Wakefield hosts LCC on Friday at Eaton Field, and Hassler said he'll be interested to see how his team comes back from a loss for the first time this season.

"Now we get to see how mentally tough we are coming off of a loss," he said. "It can be really hard to rebound emotionally and mentally after playing such a big game. We'll focus on doing what we do best and prepare for a young but very athletic Laurel-Concord-Coleridge team. We know that there are only two games remaining in our season, so this season needs to be finished off without any regrets."

Hope Cummins slams a kill past the Niobrara-Verdigre defense during Winside's three-set win at home last week.

On defense, Bargstadt had four blocks and Hope Cummins had three. Bargstadt led with 15 digs, Brogren had 14, Behmer had 10 and Olander, Wolfe and Haylee Cummins each had nine.

In the Randolph match, Bargstadt had 10 kills, Olander had seven and Hope Cummins had five to lead the attack. Wolfe had 16 assists and Behmer had eight. Hope Cummins had four blocks and Bargstadt added two. Escalante had six ace serves, Hope Cummins added three and Wolfe had two.

On defense, Bargstadt had 17 digs, Olander added 16, Haylee Cummins had 12, Wolfe had 11 and Escalante had eight.

Winside plays at Allen on Thursday and is at the Hartington Invitational on Saturday. They close the regular season with a triangular Tuesday at Emerson-Hubbard.

WSC women ninth, men sixth at Briar Cliff

The Wayne State cross country teams ran well Saturday in the Briar Cliff Invitational, held at the Adams Nature Preserve in McCook Lake, S.D.

In women's action Molly McCartney recorded a 26th place finish to lead the Wildcats, who finished ninth out of 13 teams with a team score of 264 points. Her time was 20:26 in the 162-woman race.

Other Wildcat runners were Kim Lowman (66th, 22:03), Brianna Crouch (96th, 22:52), Josephine Peitz (113th, 23:26), Sabrina Sack (130th, 24:09) and Mary Alderson (146th, 26:17).

In men's action, Antoine Bardou placed eighth to lead the Wayne State men to a sixth-place finish with 160 points.

Bardou covered the 8,000-meter course in a time of 26:17 to lead the Wildcats, while Jack Doughty was 28th at 27:14 and Isaias Solorio finished right behind in 32nd at 27:25.

Also running were Brock Hegarty (54th, 28:12), Nathan Pearson (82nd, 29:07), Bailey Peckhan (92nd, 29:20) and Nathan Hiemer (130th, 31:38).

The next meet for Wayne State College will be Saturday, Oct. 21 at the Northern Sun Conference Championships in Glyndon, Minn., hosted by MSU Moorhead.

Wayne netters win three over conference foes

The Wayne High volleyball team set themselves up well for the conference tournament later this month with three wins over Mid State Conference rivals this past week.

On Tuesday, Wayne won both of their games in a triangular at Pierce, beating the host Bluejays (25-14, 25-19) and Boone Central/Newman Grove (25-11, 25-15).

In the Pierce game, Ashton Boyer had nine kills, Lauren Pick added six and Kylie Hammer had five. Allyson Avery had 14 assists and Erin O'Reilly had eight. Hammer had 10 digs, Emily Armstrong and Korrina Niemann each had nine and O'Reilly had five. Hailey Backer and Boyer each added three.

Against Boone Central, Hammer had eight kills, Katelyn Grone added five, Armstrong had four and Pick, Boyer and Shania Anderson each had three. Armstrong had three ace serves. Boyer had eight digs, Hammer had seven, Armstrong had six and Backer and Niemann both had five.

Wayne took care of business on the road with a three-set win over Crofton Thursday, winning 25-15, 26-24, 30-28.

Lauren Pick had a match-high 12 kills to lead Wayne, while Armstrong added seven, Hammer had six and Boyer and Anderson each had five. Avery had 20 assists and O'Reilly added 13. Defensively, Pick and Avery each had two blocks. Hammer had 24 digs, Armstrong added 18, Niemann had 17, Boyer had 14 and Backer had 12.

Wayne hosted Battle Creek on Tuesday in their home finale.

They will be at O'Neil for a triangular Saturday and play at Lutheran High Northeast on Tuesday in their final tune-up before conference play.

"We talked about it during the game and I told the girls to just keep their composure and look for pitches to hit," Sweetland said. "We just needed to not panic because we were hitting the ball hard and they were making some plays so that we couldn't string anything together. We just stuck to it and kept riding Tori and made plays behind her."

The game was scoreless until the fourth, when Wayne broke through with six runs. Josie Thompson drew a bases-loaded walk and Maysyn Dorey followed with a bases-clearing double, setting the stage for Trenhaile, who drilled the first pitch just over the 230-foot sign in left center for a two-run homer to make it 6-0.

In the fifth, Wayne finished the job with a leadoff single by Annie Kniesche, who moved to third on a fielding error. She came home on Tori Kniesche's double to center. Fleming, running for Kniesche, came home on a single by Gamble to end the game and send Wayne to the state tournament.

Tori Kniesche set down all 15 batters she faced, 10 of them by strikeout, needing just 66 pitches to complete her second perfect game of the season and set a new Class B record with her 10th no-hitter of the year.

"She just had her stuff today," Sweetland said. "She was able to change levels and hit it inside and outside. Her changeup was a little off, but it was just a fantastic performance today for her."

Trenhaile and Annie Kniesche and Gamble each had two hits in the win as Wayne knocked out 10 hits.

The 28-3 Blue Devils are unofficially the fourth seed for the state tournament that starts Wednesday in Hastings, and Sweetland said the team has performed well even after losing a number of key players to graduation last year.

"We just kept preaching to the girls about playing where your feet are at and not thinking ahead, and these girls understand that and know they belong at state and want to go in with a chip on their shoulder and try to surprise some people."

Wayne is unofficially scheduled (at press time) to play Gretna in the opening round on Wednesday at 2 p.m., and Sweetland likes the way the bracket is set up for his team. "It's not a terrible matchup," he said. "Gretna has some good hitters and good athletes, but they're a team I think we can hang with. If Tori is doing what she's doing and we can make plays behind her and keep it close, our bats have spoke for themselves this year and once they get going, it's tough to stop us."

Trojans bounce back with five-set home win

After being swept by Ponca on the road, the Wakefield volleyball team came back with an exciting five-set win over Laurel-Concord-Coleridge.

On Tuesday, the Trojans dropped a three-set match at Ponca, losing 25-10, 25-21, 25-16.

Devaney Brown had 13 kills and Jessica Borg added 12 for the Trojans. Breanna Chase had 17 assists and Borg added 10. Jamie Dolph led the defense with 18 digs, Brown had 14, Chase and Rachel Brudigam each had 12 and Borg had 11.

The Trojans bounced back Saturday, winning an exciting match over LCC at Wakefield High School, 25-14, 18-25, 25-22, 14-25, 15-12.

Borg had a season-high 17 kills to lead the Trojan attack, while Emma Pommer and Brown each added eight. Chase had seven kills and Brudigam put down a pair. Chase had 22 assists and Borg added 12. Borg had four ace serves, Brown added three and Dolph had two.

Defensively, Pommer had five blocks and Borg added three. Brown had 23 digs, Brudigam and Borg both had 20, Lopez had 18, Dolph had 16 and Chase added 15.

Wakefield hosted Emerson-Hubard on Tuesday and will host a triangular next Thursday, Oct. 19 with Winnebago and Homer.

Wildcats take care of business in North Dakota

The 21st ranked Wayne State volleyball team headed north and made easy work of Minot State and University of Mary on their North Dakota swing over the weekend.

On Friday, the Wildcats used 10 kills from senior Erin Gross while forcing 24 Mary attack errors as the in a 25-18, 25-19 and 25-17 sweep of University of Mary at Bismarck, N.D.

Wayne State rallied late to take the first set. The Wildcats trailed early 10-4 and later by an 18-15 count, but scored six straight points highlighted by back-to-back kills from sophomore Katie Stephens to take the lead for good at 21-18. Stephens and Erin Gross paced Wayne State in the first set with four kills apiece.

The second set was close again early with seven ties and three lead changes. With the score tied at 17-17, the Wildcats scored three straight points to grab the lead at 20-17. The Wildcats closed the set strong with a service ace from Stephens along with kills from Tarrin Beller and Gross, who led Wayne State with five kills on just seven attacks while Megan Gebhardt had two service aces.

The third set saw the Wildcats force 11 attack errors on Mary that included eight blocks as Wayne State finished the three-game sweep. Alyssa Ballenger led the Wildcats in kills with four.

Gross led Wayne State in kills with 10 while posting a .300 attack percentage. Ballenger added seven kills with Stephens accounting for six. Stephens, Jaci Brahmer and Beller each recorded five blocks. Maddie Duffy and Gebhardt each had two service aces while Gebhardt handed out 30 set assists. Stephens also led the Wildcats with eight digs followed by Haley Kauth and Duffy with seven each.

On Saturday, Brahmer and Gross combined for 35 kills and a .392 attack percentage to lead Wayne State to a 25-18, 23-25, 25-23 and 25-15 win at Minot State.

The first set saw nine ties and two lead changes before the Wildcats pulled away to take the first set. Gross had five kills and one block to pace the Wildcats.

Minot State came back in the second set, as the Beavers used a .326 hitting percentage to tie the match at a set apiece. After a Minot State timeout with the score tied 23-23, the Beavers used a Hayley Swain kill and Wildcat attack error to get the win.

Wayne State bounced back in the third set thanks to seven kills from Brahmer, then held the Beavers to a .000 hitting percentage and forced nine attack errors in the fourth set to close out the match.

Gross had a career-high 20 kills to go with two blocks to lead the Wildcats, followed by Brahmer hitting .448 with 15 kills and three blocks. Ballenger contributed nine kills while Beller and Katie Stephens added seven kills each.

Gebhardt tied a season-high with 51 assists while Kauth finished with 19 digs. Duffy and Bree Ackermann each had two service aces.

Wayne State (12-6, 6-3 NSIC) will be at home this weekend, hosting No. 13 Northern State Friday at 6 p.m. and MSU Moorhead Saturday in a 1 p.m. contest.

Bears fall on homecoming to Wildcats

LAUREL — LCC hung tough with visiting Hartington-Newcastle for the first half, but the visitors scored three times in the third quarter to come away with a 46-14 win over the Bears on their homecoming Friday at Haskell Field.

After spotting the visitors the game's first two scores, LCC got on the board midway through the first period when Noah Schutte's one-hand grab of a long pass set up a one-yard sneak by quarterback Izac Reifenrath to make it a 14-8 game.

Hartington-Newcastle answered with a score of their own later in the period to take a 20-8 into the locker room, then used their defense to score again after a fumble was scooped up and returned for a touchdown to make it 26-8.

LCC rebounded and scored on a 47-yard pass by Reifenrath to Cael Hartung, making it a 26-14 game. The visitors came right back with a score of their own, then added two more down the stretch to pull away with the win.

Offensively, Reifenrath was 5-of-12 passing for 79 yards. Hartung and Schutte both caught two balls for 52 and 26 yards, respectively, while Dylan Reimers caught one pass for one yard.

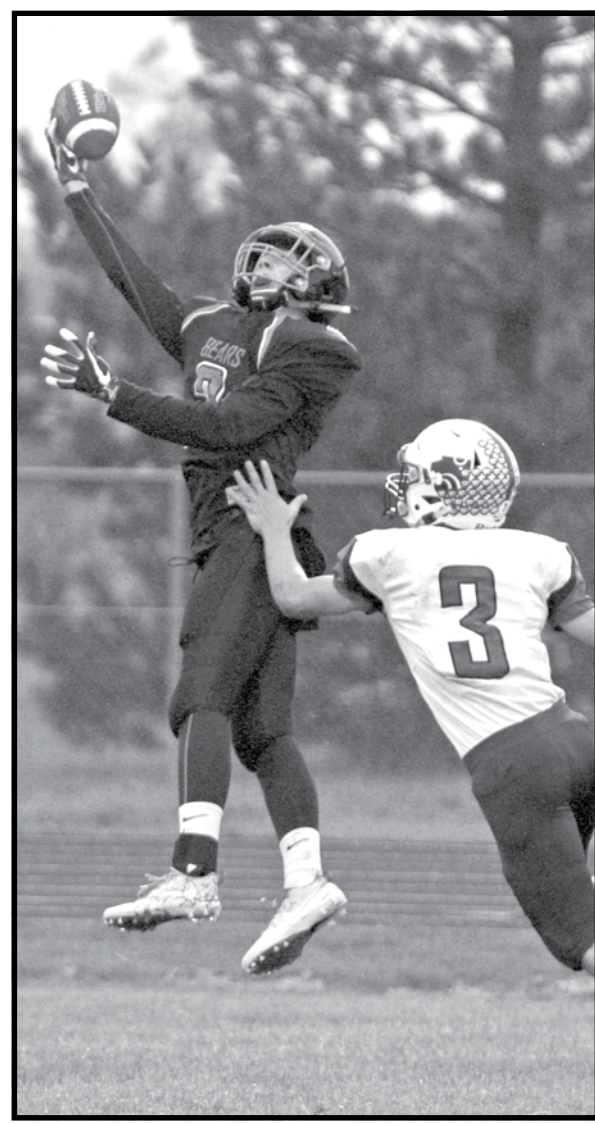

On the ground, Kobe Heitman led with 71 yards on 14 carries and Hartung added 45 yards on seven tries. Austin Brandt had 34 yards on 13 carries.

Reifenrath led the LCC defense with 14 total tackles, Heitman and Zach Dietrich had had nine, Austin Hall had eight, Wyatt Taylor had six and Cutter Haberman had five.

The Bears play Wakefield in a district matchup Friday at 7 p.m. at Eaton Field.

Allen's Kyle Smith stiff-arms Winside's Dominic Reed on his way to a first down for the Eagles during Friday's 70-20 win over the Wildcats.

Eagles get back in win column with 70-20 win over Winside

The Allen football team needed to get back on track after two tough losses in district play. Mission accomplished.

The Eagles pulled away in the second half and managed a 70-20 win over Winside to improve to 4-2 overall and 1-2 in district play.

The Eagles have not been at full team strength for the past three games, according to coach Dave Ulldrich, and still played down from full strength, but a good running attack, and timely pass catches kept the ball in their hands and points being scored.

"We eliminated some errors, but not all of them for sure," he said. "The defense played more physically today, and will need to continue to do that. We got some momentum started for next week, and we will continue to work on cleaning up the things that have been our weaknesses, and be ready next week."

The Eagles got on the board on the initial drive of the game when Blake McCorkindale raced over from 16 yards out. Kyle Smith hit Devin Twohig with the two-point pass.

Following a muffed punt by the Eagles, Winside scored on a Brandon Watters one-yard run to tie the game at 8-8.

That is when the Eagles regrouped and rolled even more, scoring on their next five possessions, to roll to a 48-20 lead at halftime.

McCorkindale scored a second time to put the Eagles up 16-8 on a seven-yard run. Winside retaliated with a 51-yard pass connection to cut the score to 16-14.

Two Kyle Smith runs of 12 and 25 yards pushed the lead to 32-14 early in the second period, and then Smith hit Devin Twohig for two more scores to make it 48-14 before Winside hit a 27-yard pass just before halftime to close the margin to 48-20.

Three second-half touchdowns by freshmen quarterbacks — Kobe Kumm from 12 and 1 yards out, and Reed Hingst from a yard away — were the only scores of the second half as reserves took control.

Leading the Eagles offensively was Kyle Smith, who rushed 13 times for 147 yards and two scores. He also went 5-of-8 passing for 130 yards and two scores. Blake McCorkindale added 105 yards and two scores, Devin Twohig collected four passes for 83 yards and two scores, while Kobe Kumm rushed 13 times for 63 yards and two scores.

Defensively, Smith led the Eagles with seven stops.

Watters was 15-of-25 for 165 yards and two touchdowns in the passing department. Ellis had a big night, catching 13 passes for 115 yards. William Bullard caught one pass for 35 yards and Matthew Frederick had one catch for 15 yards. Watters had 24 yards on 20 carries, while Ellis had 18 yards in seven tries.

On defense, Watters led 2-4 Winside with 15.5 tackles, Ellis had 6.5, Michael Jensen had six, Matthew Frederick had 5.5, Jon Escante had five and Dominic Reed had three.

Winside's Koby Ellis makes a great over-the-shoulder catch as Allen's Noah Carr falls while defending the play. Ellis went for a touchdown on the play for the Wildcats, who dropped a 70-20 decision at Allen on Friday.

Next action for Allen is Friday at Emerson-Hubbard at 3 p.m., while Winside plays at Wausa in a 7 p.m. contest.

Team recognition

Wayne State College Athletic Director Mike Powicki (left) and Dr. Marysz Rames, Wayne State College President, congratulate the 2006 Wayne State College women's cross country team for their inclusion in the hall of fame during homecoming, Oct. 7. The 2006 women's cross country team won the Northern Sun Conference Championship in St. Paul, Minn. It is the first and only cross country conference championship for the Wayne State women. WSC had five of the top 12 runners in the race (all freshmen). Megan Zavorka (second), Melissa Schmit (third), Sarah Thomsen (eighth), Molly Gibson (11th) and Megan Knudson (12th). Two weeks later, the team finished 10th in the NCAA North Central Regional Championship hosted by WSC at the Wayne Country Club. From left are: Megan (Knudson) Brink, Melissa (Schmit) Davis, Megan Zavorka Thomas, Molly (Gibson) Mills and Sarah (Thomsen) Walsh.

Wildcat soccer team drops pair of conference tilts

No. 11 ranked Minnesota State scored three goals in three minutes near the 70-minute mark to break open a close contest as the Maverick pulled away for a 4-0 win Friday afternoon over Wayne State College at Bob Cunningham Field in Wayne.

Wayne State battled Minnesota State tough in the first half despite being outshot 8-2. The Mavericks struck for the first goal at the 29:55 mark for a 1-0 lead at intermission.

The score remained 1-0 until Minnesota State scored three goals in three minutes to take control of the game. The first goal came at 68:49 with another following 63 seconds later. The third goal came at the 71:50 mark and the Mavericks went on to post the shutout.

Minnesota State finished with a 19-5 advantage in shots including 8-3 in shots on goal. The Mavericks held a 5-1 edge in corner kicks on WSC while both teams were called for eight fouls.

Hannah Knight, Bryana Garcia and Christina Stasi were each credited with shots on goal for the Wildcats.

Goalkeeper Rachel Grisham allowed four goals and was credited with two saves while Sydney Rogers played the final 18 minutes and recorded two saves.

On Sunday, Concordia-St. Paul scored in the first minute of overtime to come from behind and defeat Wayne State 2-1 in women's soccer action Sunday in St. Paul, Minn.

Wayne State scored less than five minutes into the game to take an early 1-0 lead. Knight scored off a cross from Alexis Strothers, marking Knight's second goal of the season.

The score stayed that way until midway through the second half when the Golden Bears got the equalizer in the 68th minute as Brooke Salo found the top right of the net off a pass from Jordan Rowan-Stafford.

Wayne State had a chance to win the game late after earning a corner kick with 10 seconds left in regulation, but could not find the back of the net.

In overtime, Concordia-St. Paul wasted no time as Kiara Myers slipped past the Wildcat defenders and scored the game-winner 33 seconds into the period to complete the comeback.

Knight led Wayne State with the lone goal for the Wildcats. Rylie Wehner added two shots and one shot on goal while five other Wildcats each had one shot in the contest. Grisham was credited with two saves in goal.

Wayne State (3-5-4, 2-4-3 NSIC) will be on the road again next weekend for Northern Sun Conference games at Bemidji State Saturday at 1 p.m. and Minnesota Crookston Sunday at 1 p.m.

NOTICE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, Case CI 17-34, CENTRAL PROPERTIES, Plaintiff, vs. NATHANIAL R. FERRY a/k/a NATHANIAL FERRY, JEFFREY L. HROUDA, Trustee, LEE J. TORKELSON, LOUISE A. TORKELSON; JOHN DOE AND MARY DOE; and all other persons/entities UNKNOWN claiming any right, interest or title in the real estate described herein.

To: Jeffrey L. Hrouda; John Doe and Mary Doe; and all other persons/entities UNKNOWN having or claiming any right, interest or title in That part of the Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 3, Township 25 North, Range 3 East of the 6th P.M., Wayne County, Nebraska, bounded as follows: On the Westerly side by Southerly extension of the West line of Block 7 in Winside; on the Northerly side by the Southerly line of said Block 7; on the Easterly side the Southerly extension of the West line of the alley in said Block 7; and on the Southerly side by the center line of the main track of the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company (formerly the Chicago St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railway Company), as said main track is now located, or as located prior to its removal.

You have been sued by Central Properties. The object of the plaintiff's Complaint is to foreclose on Tax Sale Certificate No. 14-017 for the delinquent taxes on the real estate described above. The taxes due under the certificate are for the 2012 taxes plus interest at the rate of 14% per annum. The Complaint asks the court to find that the taxes are a lien against the real estate, as provided by law, and that upon establishment of such lien, the real estate, which may remain unredeemed, be sold at public sale to satisfy the decree so entered, together with interest and costs, including attorney's fees as provided for and by Nebraska Revised Statute §77-1909, as amended, and that the defendants be forever barred of all claims upon, interest in, right or title to, lien upon or equity of redemption in the real estate upon confirmation of the sale. To defend this lawsuit, an appropriate written response must be filed with the District Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, 510 N. Pearl Street, Wayne, Nebraska 68787, within 30 days of the last publication of this notice. If you fail to respond, the court may enter a judgment for the relief demanded in the Complaint.

WAYNE COUNTY BOARD PROCEEDINGS

Wayne, Nebraska
October 3, 2017

The Wayne County Board of Equalization meeting was called to order by Chairman Larson at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 3, 2017, in the upstairs conference room of the Courthouse. Chairman Larson, Members Burbach and Rabe, Attorney Pieper, Sheriff Dwinell, and Clerk Finn were present. Notice of this meeting was published in the Wayne Herald, a legal newspaper, on September 28, 2017. A current copy of the Open Meetings Act was posted and accessible to the public.

A motion to approve the agenda was made by Rabe and seconded by Burbach. Roll call vote: Rabe, Burbach, Larson – aye; motion carried.

The 2017-18 tax rates were discussed. A motion was made by Rabe and seconded by Burbach to set the following tax rates for the 2017-18 fiscal year. Roll call vote: Rabe, Burbach, Larson – aye; motion carried.

Nebraska Bank & Trust, Wayne
A motion to approve the consent agenda was made by Burbach and seconded by Larson. Roll call vote: Burbach, Larson, Rabe – aye; motion carried.

A motion to approve the regular agenda was made by Larson and seconded by Burbach. Roll call vote: Larson, Burbach, Rabe – aye; motion carried.

A motion to approve the claims was made by Larson and seconded by Burbach. Roll call vote: Larson, Burbach, Rabe – aye; motion carried.

A motion was made by Larson and seconded by Burbach to adopt Resolution No. 17-19 offering cash-in-lieu of health insurance through a program administered by First Concord Benefits Group. Roll call vote: Larson, Burbach, Rabe – aye; motion carried.

Resolution No. 17-19: "WHEREAS, the Commissioners of Wayne County consent to adoption of Cash-In-Lieu as an option to our group medical insurance available to the elected officials and full-time employees of Wayne County, Nebraska, and

WHEREAS, those elected officials and full time employees of Wayne County, Nebraska electing to participate in the Cash-In-Lieu option, after presenting notice of Proof of Coverage and submitting a signed Affidavit of Other Coverage to the Commissioners of Wayne County, Nebraska be eligible for said cash-in-lieu benefits in the amount of $375.00 per employee and/or spouse monthly.

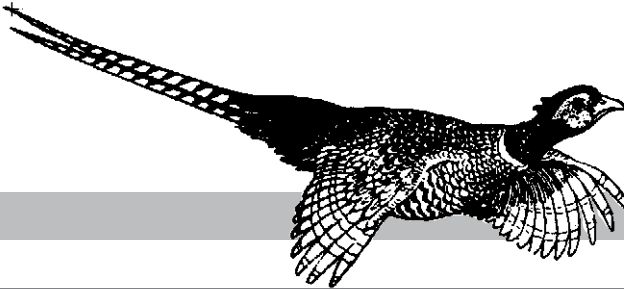

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Wayne County Commissioners that the Cash-In-Lieu Option offered by First Concord Benefits Group be offered to those elected officials and full-time Wayne County employees wishing to participate according to the above requirements. Said Cash-In-Lieu payment shall be addressed as monthly income, and all withholding requirements will be administered accordingly.

This policy will go into effect of January 1, 2018."
A Section 125 Administrative Agreement with First Concord Benefits Group, L.L.C. for developing and administering a cafeteria plan, dependent care assistance plan, and medical reimbursement plan was approved on a motion by Larson and second by Burbach. Roll call vote: Larson, Burbach, Rabe – aye; motion carried.

Highway Superintendent Mark Casey reported on various projects including:

- Bridge inspections for September are complete.
  - The state is updating the bridge load ratings for special haul vehicles that look like a straight truck with additional axles. Many bridges with three truck images on their rating signs will have their ratings go down a ton or two.
  - Bridge No. C009000331 was closed during fracture critical bridge inspections. Replacement of the bridge using county soft-match credit rather than waiting for federal-aid bridge funds to pay the county's share was proposed. Action on that proposal was tabled because the project would gain less than a year. The bridge will be reopened with a reduced rating based on its current condition.
  - A final walk-through is being scheduled for Carroll Northeast Project C-90(261) Bridge No. C009001220. Signage and guard rails are installed.
- Emergency Manager Nic Kennitz invited the board to attend a debris management workshop that will be held at the Wayne Fire Hall on October 19th.
- Topics discussed under Comments, Concerns, Questions:
- Visibility issues resulting from parked vehicles or snow piles on the north corner of the east parking terrace at the courthouse were discussed during the Safety Committee meeting. The committee also discussed tornado shelters at the Carroll and Winside maintenance sheds.
  - A cash value payment of $50,547.67 was received from EMC Insurance for damage to the county shed at 123 South Lincoln Street in Wayne. Recoverable depreciation will be available once repairs are made.

Wind energy – not a good idea

Dear Editor:
Natural gas at fracking sites is so abundant that it is a safety hazard. Economically speaking, it is cheaper to flare it than it is to harvest it for the market. Natural gas, its elusive nature and the random seepage thereof, is a liability and a serious safety concern for a driller. So while we have grand level gas flares burning at fracking sites, why do we think building wind turbines at 500 feet is a good idea? Harvesting wind, to me, was once an intriguing idea. I had the ideal location and a high voltage transmission line nearby. Sharing this "windfall" with a developer was not the plan. I was going to own a turbine, a big one. I calculated annual production using a wholesale Nebraska power value of $0.025/kwh combined with a 20 percent dependability factor. (Maximum dependability experienced to date by an in-state company for a wind farm spread over 200 miles.) The energy of my excitement dissipated. With no consideration of interest, repairs/maintenance, government funds, or standby power charges, it would take about 29.5 years to recover all-inclusive first cost. Electric rates would have to increase at least by a factor of 10 to get this investment into the realm of consideration. How would you like to pay your monthly power bill every 3 days? Obama once said, "electric rates must necessarily go up." Furthermore, Warren Buffet state in the May 14, 2014 U.S. News and World Report, "I will do anything that is basically covered by law to reduce Berkshire's tax rate. For example, on wind energy, we get a tax credit if we build a lot of wind farms. That's the only reason to build them. They don't make sense without the tax credit." In lieu of magnified electrical rates, the intense subsidization (with your money) of wind energy creates artificial financial competition for our tried, true, consistent and dependable power producers. In Europe for example, many conventional power producers have gone bankrupt. It's hard to compete with substandard, inconsistent, undependable subsidized power. As a landowner, I would be skeptical of a issuing a wind lease to a developer. Leases can and probably will be collateralized, and are legally attached to your deed. Furthermore, the leases can and have been sold like commodities to anyone both foreign and domestic. Who knows, you might meet Kim Jong-un driving out of your cornfield someday if he needs some U.S. tax credits. Simply speaking, wind: a good idea gone bad.

Positive steps in Whiteclay

By J.L. SCHMIDT
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

The national disgrace of beer sales in Whiteclay, Nebraska, appears to be over, at least for now. The four stores -- which yearly sold about 4 millions of cans of beer to residents of the alcohol-free nearby Pine Ridge Indian Reservation a couple miles across the South Dakota border -- were shut down in April when the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission denied their licenses. The Nebraska Supreme Court recently denied the storeowners' bid to reopen, based on a technical flaw in their appeal. That decision ensured the stores, the only businesses in the village of 14 people, will remain closed for now. The storeowners could appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court or file suit against the state in federal court. It remains unclear what's next.

But for now: business and retail people are debating the merits of free enterprise; Native American activists are celebrating an end to the 20-year struggle to get the stores closed; and lawmakers and social activists are looking for ways to help people lead healthy and productive lives again.

Nebraska Attorney General Doug Peterson framed it best. He said the Supreme Court decision "affords an opportunity to write a hopeful chapter in the story of Whiteclay."

Winnemago activist Frank LaMere said the court decision ranks with the 1876 Battle of Little Bighorn as one of the most significant wins ever for the Lakota people. He said it marks a red-letter day in Oglala Lakota history.

The court's 17-page opinion did not weigh in on the issues of rampant alcoholism on Pine Ridge or lawlessness in Whiteclay. Instead, the justices determined that a fatal legal flaw (jurisdictional grounds) had doomed the beer storeown-ers' appeal of the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission's decision to deny their liquor licenses earlier this year.

David Domina, attorney for Sheridan County residents opposing the stores, argued the storeowners hadn't correctly appealed to the court because they didn't include his clients in the case. The high court agreed and said a Lincoln judge's order reversing the Liquor Commission's decision was void.

He said the decision means that the shame of Whiteclay is over and obstacles have been removed from the road to recovery for the Oglala Lakota Sioux Nation and the Pine Ridge Reservation.

Now it's up to a legislative task force led by state Senators Patty Pansing Brooks of Lincoln and Tom Brewer of Gordon to draw up plans for new business development and human services in Whiteclay. The group has already completed one visit to the area and more are planned. Brewer, a Native American, said the healing of a town once called "The Skid Row of the Plains" has begun.

LaMere called for a day of healing and reconciliation on the Sunday before Thanksgiving to allow people to give thanks and seek forgiveness for allowing Whiteclay to devastate people for so long. He encouraged Native Americans to pray for themselves.

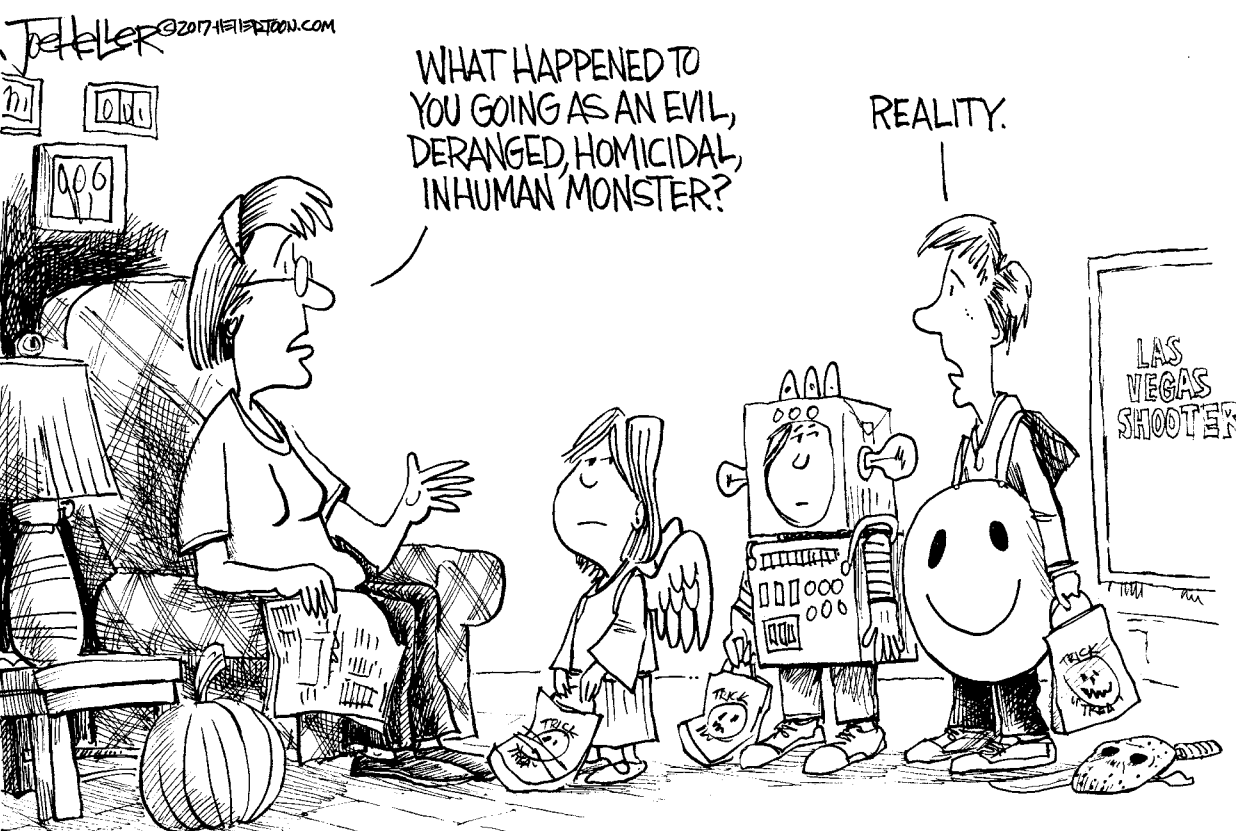

The Whiteclay Task Force recently heard testimony about the challenges facing the village. And they heard about the problems dealing with some of the worst victims -- children with fetal alcohol spectrum disorders. Nora Boesem said she and her husband have adopted 12 children with FASD after learning that assistance for such children is very limited.

When the family had some of them as foster children, Boesem said she was told they were lucky they hadn't adopted them and could send them back. She told the committee a lot of her adopted children are products of Whiteclay, and their parents are products of Whiteclay.

Let the work on the hopeful chapter begin.

Dose of reality

Las Vegas is still on my brain, and seeing the cartoon above made it all the worse. Math was never my strong point, but even I can add. Deranged person + access to firearms = mass casualties. I'd love for a bipartisan solution to come to light. Something that makes sense. Something that both sides can look at and agree upon. Whether you are pro-gun, anti-gun or somewhere in the middle, I think we can all agree that there truly is a problem somewhere in this equation. How quickly we put aside political differences and dig into the problem, is still undetermined. I simply hope we aren't too late again.

The multi-purpose role of public power

By Pat Pope
NPPD President & CEO
in recognition of Public Power Month

When you work in an industry like public power, it is easy to understand the adage, "History repeats itself."

More than 125 years after the City of Crete began lighting its streets in 1887, using direct current generated by a turbine at a dam of the Big Blue River, Central City became the first city to generate electricity with a community solar array.

In the next few years, NPPD expects to take hydrogen, as the byproduct of a unique manufacturing process, and use it to generate carbon-free electricity. Monolith Materials, the company NPPD is working with for this innovative solution, plans to initially employ 40-50 people and approximately 100 people when the facility expands in the Hallam area. The initiative has characteristics of the visionary canal projects constructed during the Depression era, which diverted water off the Platte River system for irrigation, jobs, and hydropower.

The hydropower projects of the 1930s were promoted, in part, by key leaders, such as U.S. Senator George W. Norris of McCook, who believed public power was the best model for ensuring all consumers received electricity, and he advocated using readily available resources, like water. Wind energy is also a renewable resource, yet NPPD's responsibility is to ensure customers have electricity whenever they need it, and we will draw upon our other resources, like nuclear and coal, to make sure we deliver.

I can't compare myself to Sen. Norris, but as President and CEO of NPPD, I do share some of his perspective and vision about projects that benefit the state. For instance, he viewed a river valley in terms of its "... multipurpose usage -- to provide flood control, irrigation, electricity to rural customers, recreational opportunities, navigations, and more."

NPPD exists to serve our customers and our business decisions replicate the multi-use benefit Norris believed in. We support communities pursuing solar projects which have environmental and local benefits. We are pursuing the use of electricity as a "transportation fuel" and are researching versatile charging stations that can be used by more than one model of car. And we are finding more convenient and mobile ways to do business with NPPD, ultimately reducing costs.

NPPD's promise is to "enhance the quality of life in Nebraska, now and in the future." We don't do it for money, because public power is not-for-profit. We don't do it for fame, because even in doing the right thing, someone will tell us it is wrong. But we will always work to ensure Nebraskans receive safe, reliable, low-cost and sustainable electricity needed to power the state's good life.

Fall Legislative Forum schedule set Wayne's scheduled October 19 at Elkhorn Valley Bank

LINCOLN – Beginning Aug. 28, Nebraska Chamber of Commerce & Industry staff will begin traveling the state to present the Chamber's 2017 legislative forums.

State Chamber staff will visit a total of 25 Nebraska communities.

For well over three decades, the State Chamber has conducted these legislative forums in cooperation with local chambers of commerce across Nebraska.

The forums allow the State Chamber to gather input from business leaders on issues of concern, while staff provides summaries of recent state legislation and reviews how Nebraska is performing in critical areas of economic competitiveness.

This year's State Chamber forums will include a review of:

- Important legislation from the 2017 session of the Nebraska Legislature;
- Issues awaiting the Legislature in 2018; and
- The latest state rankings in areas important to the business community.

Chamber of commerce members, along with members of the news media, are encouraged to attend. State senators have also been invited.

Nebraska Chamber President Barry Kennedy said: "From workforce and housing challenges, to taxes and regulations, the business community has its share of challenges. But there is also much reason for optimism. These forums will provide local business leaders an opportunity to convey their concerns to the State Chamber, while highlighting ways state leaders can address the issues affecting the private sector."

To make reservations, contact your local chamber of commerce. Wayne's session will take place Thursday, Oct. 19 at noon in the Elkhorn Valley Bank (411 E. 7th St.). Contact: Irene Fletcher at (402) 375-2240 for additional information. Senator Joni Albrecht has confirmed her attendance at the event.

The State Chamber is Nebraska's largest statewide business association, and has served as the voice of Nebraska's business community since 1912.

Security Bank in Laurel named top Extraordinary Bank in U.S.

Security Bank was named the top extraordinary bank in the United States by The Institute for Extraordinary Banking™ on September 12th, 2017 in Minneapolis, MN. The bank has locations in Laurel, Osmond, Allen, Hartington and Coleridge, NE.

Security Bank was recognized with the Institute's top honor after competing against three other bank finalists. The finalists were chosen based on their performance in five areas of banking — philanthropy, customer service, thought leadership, workplace culture, and financial literacy education. The Institute for Extraordinary Banking™ made a donation on behalf of the bank to the Unstoppable Foundation to fund the construction of a school in Africa and awarded Security Bank with a new car to use in community service and promotional events.

"We are honored to receive this award and it is really a tribute to our staff, our customers and the five communities that we have the honor to serve," said Keith Knudsen, Security Bank President and CEO.

The Extraordinary Banking™ Awards exist to highlight the vital, yet often overlooked, role that local, community banks play in our economy. Consumers use the Grammys to guide their music purchases, the Emmys to lead them to the best of television, and the Tonys to highlight outstanding live theater...

And now, consumers have the Bankys™ as their guide to discovering the very best, most extraordinary banks in their communities, and in the country. The Bankys™ recognize the top 1% of banks—The Best Banks in America™.

Dixon County Democrats host state party chair in public meeting in Wakefield

Dixon County Democrats will host Nebraska Democratic Party Chair Jane Kleeb in Wakefield on Oct. 29. Kleeb will provide updates on various issues concerning rural Nebraskans.

The event will start at 2:00 p.m. at the Legion Hall in Wakefield. It is open to the public, and refreshments will be provided.

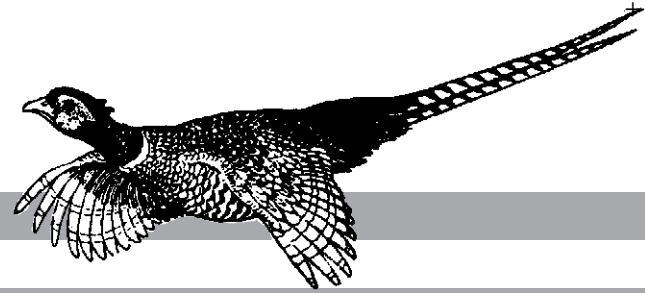

Kleeb will focus the discussion on four areas: rural issues concerning local voters, work on the Unity Reform Commission and ways to bring together divided sides, progress on the Keystone XL pipeline, and 2018 candidates running for office in Nebraska. A question-and-answer session will be held, time permitting.

Kleeb is an experienced grassroots organizer, manager, political strategist, and nonprofit entrepreneur who deeply understands the need to address issues facing rural and urban communities. Kleeb started her term as the Nebraska Democratic Party Chair in December 2016.

Feed your young athlete for maximum performance

Pierce County

Ann Fenton

Extension Educator

UNL Extension

Eating healthfully helps an athlete to reach maximum potential. Good stamina and energy are a result of eating healthy meals on a regular basis. The timing of meals and choice of food can also have an impact on physical performance.

One of the most important things for a young athlete to know is that the energy they use on game day actually comes from the food they have eaten over the past several days so it is important to eat well every day, not just on game day. Eating well every day means eating a variety of foods from all of the food groups. To get a general recommendation for amounts needed from each group, go to ChooseMyPlate.gov.

On game day, two to four hours before the game, have a lean protein and carbohydrate source along with a low-fiber fruit like juice, peaches, cherries or melon. High fiber could cause an upset stomach during the game. An example of the lean protein with carbohydrate meal could be a turkey sandwich or cereal with milk.

If the young athlete hasn't eaten within four hours of game time, a pre-game snack two hours or so before the game is important. Some examples of a good snack include cereal with low-fat milk, yogurt, graham crackers with fruit, and pudding with whole wheat crackers. All athletes have to decide what will settle best on their stomach. Stomach problems occur most often in running sports because of the up and down motion. Stomach problems also occur more often in young athletes and athletes who are tense. A snack less than one hour before the game is more likely to cause stomach upset. (There are instances though when eating during exercise can have a benefit.)

Games and hard practices can take a toll on the body. Recovery of the body is important for the next practice or game. A good breakfast is important every day, but it is especially important after a hard practice or a game. That breakfast will help the body to recover so it is ready for the next event.

A well-nourished athlete is an athlete that is able to perform at his/her absolute best. Keep healthy foods on hand so your young athlete is ready for a winning performance.

Betty Wittig presents published works at Acme meeting

Members of the Acme Club met Oct. 2 following noon lunch at the Senior Center.

Betty Wittig presented before the meeting and told of the events that led up to her publication of two books: Anthology of Poetry and the story of her life up until the point when it was published, titled, Pleasant Memories by Betty Ione Bivens.

The books were the result of projects accomplished while a student. Pleasant Memories is a letter written to an imaginary friend telling about Betty's family history and about her life growing up in the Sedgewick, Colo. area, near Sidney, Neb. and South Divide.

The story included her father's death by drowning when she was only 10 years old and her little brother's birth following her father's death.

Betty grew up with a very close family that included aunts, uncles, and cousins, as well as her mother, brothers and sisters. When Betty was young, she worked for a lady who was handicapped, and later when in high school, worked for a family with two boys that included many different duties involved in that household. Betty's book included many photos that were added to pages that were left intentionally blank so that they could be added following publishing.

The Anthology of Poetry was published as a school project when Betty was a junior in high school. It was amazing to hear that the cost for publishing the bound edition of a book at that time was 95 cents.

The business meeting was called to order following the speaker's presentation.

The Thought for the Day was presented by Betty Wittig and says, "Generosity is a condition of the heart, not the wallet." Following roll call, business reports, and penny collection, members enjoyed treats and coffee brought in by Betty for our enjoyment.

Ruth Victor brought a copy of Titan Magazine, which includes an article and photos of her young great-grandchildren displaying the tractors painted on their chests by their grandfather.

The next meeting will be Monday, Oct. 16, with Pat Straight presenting.

The inviting colors of fall

Many people are drawn to fall colors. Fall colors are warm, vibrant, extraordinarily rich, and energetic. I wonder how appealing we are as Christians.

When I think about the color of the fall leaves, red is bold and vibrant. There's just something about the trees that are full of red leaves glistening in the sun. It's just extraordinary. They stick out and you notice them.

Red brings up the thought of passion. No matter where we are in our Christian walk, I think we all could do with a little more passion for Christ. We should stick out in a good way. We should reflect all that brilliance of Christ.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matthew 5:16

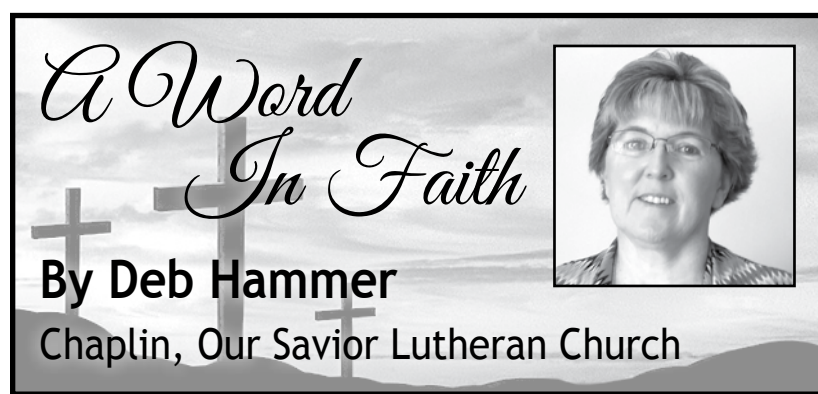

The color orange is so beautiful in the fall. We see it in not just the fall leaves, but in those beautiful pumpkins as well. Orange reflects warmth and symbolizes thoughtfulness and sincerity. As Christians that's something we should portray. We should be that warm inviting person who cares about others.

And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. Ephesians 4:32

The yellow color of fall makes me happy. Yellow stirs up joy and cheerfulness. If we have Christ, we should have joy in our hearts and that joy should shine so others may see Christ's light shining from us.

The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes. Psalm 19:8

If we didn't have all that brown in the midst of the bright fall colors, I doubt if they'd be so brilliant. Brown represents stability and it anchors all those other beautiful colors of fall. In Christ, we have our anchor. Others

A Word In Faith

By Deb Hammer

Chaplin, Our Savior Lutheran Church

ers can see if we are living for Christ and depending on Him in our lives. It comes out in our actions and behavior.

As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Colossians 2:6,7 Showing Christ through our behavior is so important in our witness to others. Our "colors" do matter. How we act and behave is what people see when they look at us.

I hope we can all grow to have a beautiful, warm, and inviting life in Christ. I hope we can all let our colors reflect Christianity so it won't be hidden from the world.

So, what colors are you projecting? How are you living your life as witnesses to others?

Learning about fire prevention

As part of Fire Prevention Week activities, members of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department visited Fishers of Kids Preschool to share information about fire safety. Above, firefighters pose with the three-year old class. Below, the four and five-year old class got to sit on the bumper of a fire truck to get their pictures taken.

Wert attends ELCA convention

Dorothy Wert was elected to represent the Women of the ELCA of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne as a voting member to the Nebraska Women of the ELCA convention at Carol Joy Holling near Ashland on Sept. 28-29 with a Retreat day on Saturday, Sept. 30.

Women of the ELCA is the women's organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

The Nebraska convention/retreat theme was "As children of God, we all face changes, challenges, choices." The featured Biblical text was "Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, 'This is the way: walk in it.'" Isaiah 30:21.

The first afternoon of the convention was filled with workshops, such as "Sharpening Our Listening Skills," "Sole Hope," "Nebraska's Immigrant Story," "Human Trafficking," "Faith," "Sexism" and "Justice," plus free time for touring the camp.

These were followed by a meal and an old fashioned Hymn Sing, "An Evening wit Katy Luther" and German refreshments.

Friday morning started with the business meeting for the voting members, followed by more opportunities for workshops which included Generational IQ, Yoga for All Levels, Building Community Inside and Out and Growing Deeper with Free Online Resources at Your Fingertips, or time to work in the Servant Room making fleece blankets for LWR.

Ely Smith, past treasurer of the Churchwide Executive Board of the Women of the ELCA was present. She is from Firecrest, Wash. She embraces the opportunity to share the women's organization with women all over the world, helping to promote peace and justice, and helping women live out the mission statement, with God's help.

Friday evening convention attendees spent time following the banquet listing to "2 Gals and a Guitar" and enjoyed chocolate and other treats.

Saturday was more of a retreat day that started with Bible Study led by Camp's Pastor, Paula Lawhead, and a message from Nebraska Synod Bishop Brian Maas. There were many different activities available, including yoga, Drum Circle, Prayer Life Tools, Photography as a Spiritual Practice, Luther's Catechism, A Mixed Medial Spiritual Practice (collage making), Radical Hospitality and Canoes, Kayaks and Paddleboats.

The weekend ended with worship with communion and the installation of the 2017-2019 officers.

Deb Hammer begins ministry at Pilger church

The Rev. Jeanne Madsen, senior pastor at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Wayne, blessed Deb Hammer to be set apart for ministry as St. Peter's Parish Ministry Associate (PMA) in a special service Oct. 1 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Pilger.

Deb is currently working to complete the Parish Ministry Associate Program of the Nebraska Synod. The program seeks to help identify the gifts God has given God's people and help equip those people for the ministry of sharing the Good News among all people.

Bishop Maas authorized Deb to serve the sacraments of Baptism and Communion at St. Peter's. It is our privilege to recognize and support those who are engaged in the work of our shared ministry between St. Peter's Lutheran Church and Our Savior Lutheran Church of Wayne.

Deb will serve St. Peter's in partnership with Rev. Jeanne Madsen.

She also serves as Director of Senior Ministry and Chaplain at Our Savior Lutheran Church. She is originally from Snyder and moved to Wayne in 1979. Deb attended Wayne State College and on Oct. 15, 1983 married Kevin Hammer at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Deb has a daughter, three step-children and nine grandchildren.

Winside St. Paul's Ladies Aid conducts October meeting

Winside St Paul's Ladies Aid & LWML met Oct. 4 with 15 members, nine guests - Chrissi Jaeger, Emily Jaeger, Lynnette Granfield, Deb Stueckrath, Cindy Claussen, Linda Granfield, Deb Krause, Nikki and Raelyn Stueckrath, and Pastor Goodman present.

President Pat Janke opened the meeting, welcomed the guests, and everyone recited the League Pledge.

A memorial service was held in remembrance of departed member, Shelly Jaeger.

Mrs. Janke had the devotion on 'Don't tell me what a friend I have in Jesus, until I see what a friend I have in you'.

After the devotion everyone sang the hymn 'Take My Life and Let It Be'.

Pastor Goodman had Bible study on 'The Reformation'.

Secretary Janice Mundil read the secretary's report. After one correction was made, that the birthday song was also sung for Gertrude Valhkamp in September, the report was approved as read.

Treasurer Lorraine Prince read the treasurer's report, which was approved as read.

Communication: Pastor updated members on how missionary Jana Inglehart was doing after the two hurricanes went through The Dominican Republic. There was a lot of flooding and loss of some homes in the area, but thanks to God the seminary is in a safe place, on high grounds surrounded by mountains.

Mrs. Janke reminded us about the Winside Community Towel Drive, Oct. 4 - 15. The Orphan Grain Train will be accepting donations of new or gently used bath towels to be delivered to hurricane victims. A donation box will be at our church.

Bev Voss gave a report on visiting the shut-ins in September. Janice Mundil will visit the shut-ins in October.

Election of officer for the secretary's position was held and DeLana Marotz was voted in.

The birthday song was sung for LuAnna Westerhaus, and a birthday card was sent to her.

A thinking of you card was sent to Bonnie Frevert, and a get well card was sent to Pam Minds.

Lorraine Prince took roll call.

The meeting was closed with 'The Lord's Prayer' and table prayer.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, Nov. 1.

Students gain experience judging land

Wayne FFA participated in their first FFA competition of the year on Oct. 3 near Emerson.

Wayne FFA members competed in the Northeast District Land Evaluation. In this contest, students judge soil depth, surface texture, permeability, slope, surface thickness, erosion, land capability classes, cropland uses, and fertilizer & soil amendments for four different sites throughout the field.

During the competition, Maysn Dorey and Brennen O'Reilly earned white ribbons.

Sharp Shooters shoot silhouettes in Broken Bow

Five members of the Sharp Shooters 4-H Club road tripped to Pressey Wildlife Management Area south of Broken Bow on Sept. 30 to compete in the 40th annual Nebraska Youth Small-bore Silhouette Invitational.

This event is sponsored by the Nebraska Game and Parks, Hunter Education division. To compete, each shooter must have passed a firearm hunter education course and present their Hunter Ed Card at check in.

For the first time in the shoot history, competitors were greeted at the range with intermittent rain. Coupled with gusty winds, this made for interesting shooting conditions. Luckily, the rain ended mid-morning.

Silhouettes are animal shaped metal plates shot at various distances with .22 cal (small-bore) rifles. All are shot from the standing position - chickens at 40 meters, pigs at 60 meters, turkeys at 77 meters and rams at 100 meters.

Each shooter gets 2 1/2 minutes to shoot five shots at a bank of five targets, one shot per target. With two banks per animal, this is a total of 40 shots taken on the day.

James Simpson, son of Jeff and Colleen Simpson of Wayne, ended the day hitting 31 targets. In doing so, James scored five hits in a row on chickens and pigs. James finished third in the state and received High Boy trophy.

Other shooters from Wayne County included Emily Eilers, daughter of Erin and Mindi Eilers of Wayne, knocking down 22 targets; Joshua Greunke, son of Darin and Staci Greunke of Winside, hitting 15 animals; Sam Perry, son of Angie Sonder of Carroll, clipping 13; and Aubrie Edwards, daughter of Justin and Robin Edwards of Winside, scoring 9 hits.

The Wayne County Sharp Shooters team consisting of James, Emily, Joshua and Sam finished second in the 4-H team race, earning a trophy and medals.

In an additional contest that day, Justin and Mason Edwards shot in the "Stars and Stripes" match. This competition is for younger siblings of shooters paired up with a parent who get to shoot five shots each on each animal for fun.

Another category is the "Fame and Glory," where parents and/or coaches pair up to also shoot at five animals each for fun. Coach Darin Greunke and Erin Eilers paired up for a strong showing but failed to place.

"Despite the weather, the kids shot well and had a great time."

said Darin Greunke, Leader and Coach of the Sharp Shooters. "Basically, we had three new shooters competing at Pressey. For them to adjust to rain and wind made for some interesting shots."

For more information about the Sharp Shooters 4-H Club and the 4-H Shooting Sports program, contact Darin Greunke at (402) 286-4895 or the Wayne County Extension Office.

Recovering from knee replacement surgery

I can hear rain and wind outside the kitchen window as I write. We obviously do not need more rain! My farmer friends are itching to get into the fields. Ann sent photos of Jaxson's football uniform from Friday's game and I don't quite see how it will ever be white again. AND, how can they wear those shoes again?? what a mess.

I planned to start this with a headline that said; "oops, she did it again.." But I'm never sure I'm using the right pop reference, so thought I'd better not. I did do the second knee replacement last week; the first was twelve years ago.

In some ways, things have improved. They use some kind of "cocktail" that keeps that joint pain-free for up to forty-eight hours. AND, I had a spinal anesthesia, which is so much better than a general. BUT, it still hurts, still swells, and still gets stiff. I had my first therapy session today, and of course, he put me through my paces. For the record, I did get bent to 93. But there is a long way to go.

The Farmer's Wife
By: Pat Meierhenry

Kay has been a brick! Just home from Ireland, she took me to the hospital and waited until it was finished, cared for her Dad, and kept her siblings informed.

On Saturday, she went home to Ashland, and had Jon and Sue tag team. She's been back to cook dinner every day since, so we've told her to take tomorrow off! Big of us, right? We have left overs!!

Because she had not seen her nieces and nephews for a long time, she insisted on having them here for supper on Friday, instead of canceling, which is what I had planned to do. Everyone brought a boy friend or gal friend, so she ended up with a table full. Lots of laughter, which is always good medicine.

I have all the papers caught up, and a short book about the Lost Boys of Sudan read; last night, I reread Marvin Olasky's story of going from a card carrying Communist to a Bible toting Christian, which is amazing, of course.

So, we pray for sunshine, and take the pain pills, and appreciate all the help, prayers, and warm thoughts. Next week will be better, I hope!!

Serviceship hosts wanted by UNL for summer of 2018

LINCOLN, NEB – Calling all Nebraska communities! The Rural Futures Institute (RFI) at the University of Nebraska (NU) is accepting community applications for 2018 RFI Student Serviceship, a program that places high-capacity NU students throughout the state to work, live and serve. The application deadline is Nov. 20, 2017.

A hybrid between service learning and traditional internships, "serviceships" provide communities with tangible results on important self-defined projects while giving students resume-building work and insight into the career and life opportunities in rural places.

"This program is designed to help motivated communities move critical strategies and projects forward," said RFI Founding Executive Director Chuck Schroeder. "We select and train some of the University's most ambitious student leaders—the biggest thinkers, highest achievers and most enthusiastic doers—so rural communities can reach their goals. And, with stellar students and partners, we have accomplished meaningful results."

Since 2013, 38 NU students have worked and served in 19 Nebraska communities for a total estimated economic impact of $331,590. They have also logged 581 volunteer hours at an estimated impact of $13,688.

The students, who are recruited by RFI from a variety of disciplines at all four NU campuses, complete a rigorous one-week training course with NU faculty and community leaders, preparing them to serve in many roles with entities throughout a community.

Through the application process, rural community host teams articulate their community's vision and purpose while scoping and defining projects for intern pairs to work on and lead during the 10-week summer internship. Host teams, which include subject-matter experts and leadership mentors, must also identify funding for the students' stipends, housing, office space and materials.

RFI is proud to partner with Nebraska Community Foundation in the community recruitment and application process. Using the tools of philanthropy, community development and economic development, NCF works with a network of more than 200 Nebraska communities to build strong, progressive hometowns.

Details and application are available at ruralfutures.nebraska.edu/serviceship/.

Grain Marketing workshop upcoming, buggy fall nuisances discussed

Ag Happenings
Keith Jarvi
Extension
Educator

A free Grain Marketing Workshop will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 14 at the Wayne Fire Hall.

This workshop is funded by the Nebraska Corn Board. The workshop is from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and lunch is provided. The workshop is limited to 40 participants. Nebraska Extension Educators will present strategies for using futures and options to protect farmers from adverse market movements. The workshops feature the Marketing in a New Era simulator and the Grain Marketing Plan smartphone application.

Register by visiting go.unl.edu/marketingworkshops or by calling Wayne County Extension at (402) 375-3310.

It's that time again. What is that itty-bitty black blanket-bug that is biting me? And why are those big lady bee-gles taking a taste out of my poor hide?

Well the tiny black bug about the size of a period is called a minute (as in small) pirate bug, and the big lady beetle is of course the Asian lady beetle.

These insects are actually beneficial predators of soybean aphids in soybean fields. Now however, as the soybean fields are drying up and losing their leaves, these insects are moving about trying to find other meals before winter arrives.

For some reason they like to land on humans and take a test bite. Minute pirate bugs have very tiny needle like mouthparts, and when they drill into you it is amazing that such a tiny insect has such an irritating bite.

The best thing to do is wear long pants and sleeves, since they don't seem to respond to repellents such as DEET very well. A good frost will lay them low but who knows when that will happen.

What do crickets, millipedes, Asian lady beetles, box elder bugs, wolf spiders, and other creepy crawlies all have in common this time of the year? You have probably figured it out; they are looking for a cozy place to hole up for the winter.

Crickets are a critical part of our ecosystem. They feed on a lot of different plants, decaying organic matter and even other dead insects. They are also a valuable food source for other animals such as spiders, birds, and snakes.

Millipedes are thin, hard shelled worm-like arthropods with many legs. They feed on organic matter and are efficient recyclers of plant material. Millipedes are less annoying but still will enter your house and dry up into a hard shell for you to clean up.

The next most common invader is the Asian lady beetle, which is beneficial for much of the year since they feed on soybean aphids and other harmful insects.

However, at this time of the year, these critters begin to enter buildings, and if you happen to have a cricket sneak into your house and start chirping in the middle of the night it can drive you crazy.

Asian lady beetles will congregate in large numbers and if you have a nice overwintering site, they will enter by the hundreds or even thousands. They have a disagreeable odor and can stain areas when you crush them.

Any cool snap will begin to drive these bugs into looking for better quarters, so now is the time to prepare for these annoyances. Look for any gaps in windows, doors, cracks in foundations, and any other openings which will give easy access.

Fill the gaps with foam sealant or any other method that will prevent entry. Outside, if you have heavy mulch, boards, and wood piles around the foundation, these make excellent hiding places and areas where these critters can stage up for a home invasion. Remove these hiding areas if you can.

An insecticide "barrier" may be created by spraying the exterior of structures along the foundation with a wide band of about 4-5 feet. Spray about 2 feet up into the foundation as well.

Local event raises money for wetlands and waterfowl conservation

The Wayne Area Chapter of Ducks Unlimited will host its 13th annual Auction and Member Banquet fundraiser for wetlands and waterfowl conservation on Friday November 10th, 2017. The Banquet will take place at the Wayne National Guard Armory, 700 E 7th St, Wayne Ne.

Tickets are available by contacting Kent Bearnes at 402-360-5005.

Kent Bearnes Laurel Nebraska, chairman of the organized Wayne Area Chapter of Ducks Unlimited committee, said that this event will give local residents an opportunity to get involved in a practical conservation program and have a good time as well.

"Ducks unlimited is the world's largest wetlands, waterfowl, and wildlife conservation organization," said Bearnes. "Our organization has conserved more than 13 million acres of wetlands and related waterfowl habitat since 1937, thanks to contributions from more than a million supporters from across the continent."

Come help celebrate 80 years of Ducks Unlimited.

"Join us for a great dinner, exciting prizes, and good time for you and your family while helping support wetlands conservation."

For more information, contact Kent Bearnes at 402-360-5005.
