Tax rates announced at Wayne County Commissioners meeting

By Sarah Lentz
editor@wayneherald.com

The Wayne County Commissioners held their first October meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 2, in a new location. The commissioners will now meet in the Wayne County Courtroom on the second floor of the courthouse. The commissioners discussed 2018 tax rates and roads.

Wayne County's tax rate will have a small increase in 2018's fiscal year. Last year, the tax rate was $0.24 for every $100 of actual valuation. This year, the rate will be about $0.25 for every $100 of actual valuation. The County's total tax request for 2018 was $4,771,776.30, split between the general fund ($4,321,776.30), road and bridge improvement ($50,000) and County improvement fund ($400,000).

The Villages of Carroll, Hoskins and Winside all had tax rate decreases, with Winside seeing the largest decrease. The Village of Winside paid off the bond for the Fire Hall, which allowed the tax rate for 2018 to drop by about $0.12 for every $100 of actual valuation. The City of Wayne's tax rate remains relatively unchanged.

Highway superintendent, Mark Casey, gave a report to the commissioners. Commissioners Randy Larson, Dean Burbach and Jim Rabe authorized Casey to sign a letter to Northeast Nebraska Public Power adding Buy America requirements to the utility agreement for the on-going Temme Bridge project west of Wayne.

Casey gave updates on County bridges. Throughout the month of September, Casey performed nearly 50 inspections. A maintenance list is in the process of being compiled based on the inspections.

The Sholes Wind project is moving along. Towers are expected to begin going up at some point this month and all towers are expected to be up by Dec. 20 of this year.

The next Wayne County Commissioners meeting will be held at 9 a.m. on Oct. 16 at the Wayne County Courthouse.

Youth learn about safe hunting procedures during last year's Youth Mentor Hunt.

"We encourage all youth who meet the requirements to register to participate even if they have participated in the past. We especially encourage those who have not had an opportunity to participate in previous hunts to sign up for this year's hunt. This year's hunt will be limited to 16 youth.

The day's activities will get started at 12:30 p.m. and should be wrapped up by 5 p.m. with numerous activities during the afternoon, including the opportunity to participate in a live hunt.

Darin Greunke with the Sharpshooters 4-H Club will also be on hand to give the youth a chance at some long range air rifle shooting.

Each youth taking part in the event will receive a hunting vest which is provided by Nebraska Game and Parks and Pheasants Forever, a blaze orange hat, and will be entered in a drawing to win a shotgun which teer hunters from Pheasants Forever coach youth on the importance of firearm safety, wildlife habitat and hunting technique.

Along with the need for youth to participate, there is also a need for adult volunteers to serve as mentors for the youth. This is a great opportunity for the youth and adults to learn some things and have some fun in the great outdoors.

"These kids are the next generation of sportsmen and we would like to teach them the importance of firearm safety and also the importance of wildlife habitat," Reinhardt said.

For more information or to sign up or to volunteer to help with the hunt, contact Tim Reinhardt at (402)518-0597 and don't forget to check out our chapter's facebook page- Logan Creek Pheasants Forever Chapter #303.

Park closings, water and sewer rates highlight council meeting

By Clara Osten
clara@wayneherald.com

Two park areas in the city of Wayne will be closed at night following a vote cast by Wayne Mayor Jill Brodersen at the Oct. 2 meeting of the Wayne City Council.

Council members again debated whether to place closing hours on all parks in the city, just selected parks or have no park closings at all.

Council member Jason Karsky read a prepared statement expressing his opinion on the park closings.

He said that while he agreed with the closing of the Summer Sports Complex/Rugby Field and the Hank Overin Baseball Complex, he felt it should be "all or nothing" in regard to the parks in the city of Wayne.

"I would like to treat all parks equally and give law enforcement officers the ability to do their jobs," Karsky told the council.

Council member Cale Giese, who introduced the language into the ordinance to have set hours at the two areas indicated, said that he felt that if future data indicates activity taking place in parks in the city, the issue could be re-visited.

Council member Matt Eischeid said he agreed with having an "all or nothing" ordinance and said it was the city's responsibility to provide a safe community for residents.

Police Chief Marlen Chinn said that having closing hours for the parks would give officers the right to approach those in the parks after the park is closed.

Mayor Brodersen said the wording on the current ordinance "is a start and we can adjust. This may be an evolving ordinance."

During the vote, Council members Jason Karsky, Matt Eischeid, Rod Greve and Jennifer Sievers voted against the current language and Council members Nick Muir, Terri Buck, Jon Haase and Cale Giese voted in favor. Mayor Brodersen broke the tie by voting in favor of the current language. This means the Summer Sports area and the Hank Overin baseball complex will be open from 5 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day.

Council members listened to a presentation from Randy Hellbusch with the Nebraska Rural Water Association on the water and sewer rate study recently completed.

Hellbusch thanked the city for its membership in the association for more than 30 years and said a number of communities are looking at the rates they are charging for these services.

He explained the income and expenses for the water department, including an annual contribution of $150,000 to the sewer department. He talked about the possibility of the city installing a new transmission line and drilling a new well.

The last water rate increase for the city of Wayne was in October of 2015 and Hellbusch said he felt that "it is easier for the public to handle several smaller increases over a three-year period, rather than one large rate increase."

He proposed raising the water rates from the current $16 per month service charge and $1.60 for each 1,000 gallons of usage to $20 per month service charge and $1.75 for each 1,000 gallons. This is expected to result in an increase of $5 to $6 per month in the water bill for the average customer.

In regard to the sewer rates, Hellbusch told the council the rate study indicated that the past year was an expensive one for the city because of the addition of equipment and the city has "tremendous debt because of the new plant. At the present time, you are not keeping up with expenses and not where you need to be."

He proposed the city raise sewer rates from the current $8 per month service plus $6.35 for each 1,000 gallons used to $10 per month service charge and $7.62 per 1,000 gallons used.

Sewer rates were last raised in April of 2016.

City staff was directed to move forward in preparing the necessary documents to implement these increases.

Council members gave third reading approval to an ordinance that will allow for the installation of fences on private property up to eight feet in height. The property owner would need to provide the city with documentation on the need for the increased height of the fence.

Approval was given for a change order on the "Second Street Storm Sewer Improvement Project" in the amount of $19,616.00 and an increase of 10 plus days for substantial completion of the project. The additional cost comes from the fact that additional quantities of materials are needed for completion.

Chris Woehrer with Robert Woehler & Sons Construction spoke to the council and said that a gas line had just been found under the alley and needs to be dealt with before the project can move forward. This is expected to take an additional week.

A resolution was passed accepting the bid from Grossenburg Implement for $22,200 for the purchase of a John Deere 4066M Compact Utility Tractor.

The Wayne City Council will next meet in regular session on Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 5:30 p.m. in council chambers.

Harley Reinoehl

Harley Dale Reinoehl, 70, of Blair, died Tuesday, Sept. 25, 2018, at home in Elkhorn, of Lymphoma, surrounded by family.

Visitation was held Sunday, Sept. 30 at Kremer Funeral Home in Omaha. Services for Harley and Patsy will be on Friday, Oct. 5 at 10:30 a.m. at the United Methodist Church in Laurel, with the Rev. Isaac Chua officiating. Burial will be at the Laurel Cemetery with military rites by the Laurel Veterans Posts 4504 and 54. Visitation will be on Thursday, at church, from 5 - 7:30 p.m.

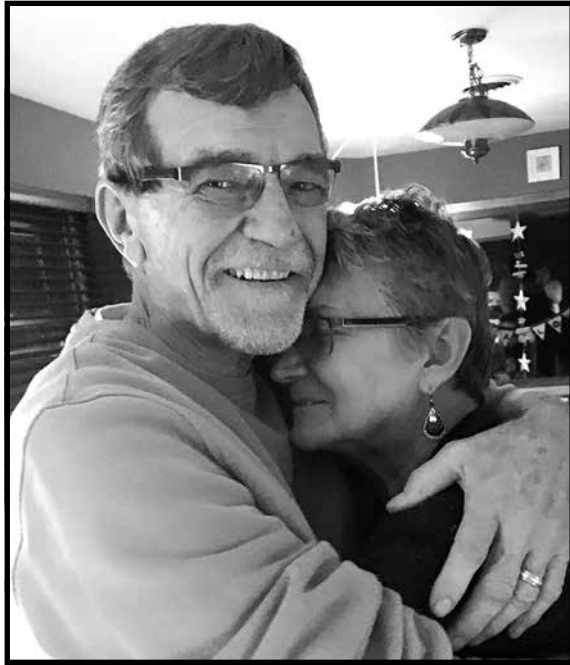

Arrangements are under the direction of the Wintz Funeral Home in Laurel.

Harley Dale Reinoehl was born Jan. 17, 1948 in Sioux City, Iowa. Harley was raised near Maiden's Leap in Niobrara, the youngest of three children born to Gale and Eva (Kemnitz) Reinoehl. It was here that he developed his love of cars when he remodeled a four-door sedan into a convertible to drive around the farm at the age of 10. He learned more about cars when he began working at Bobby Jones' gas station in Niobrara at the age of 13. Following graduation from Niobrara Public High School, Harley joined the United States Navy. He served aboard the USS Holland for two years in Rota, Spain where he was a pattern maker. He learned carpentry and engineering skills making wood patterns to be cast for maintenance of the ship. He returned to Niobrara in March of 1971 where he began working for Ralph Simpson Electric. It was here that he learned electricity while working on the Devil's Nest resort. In June of that same year Harley met Patsy Lea Burns. They were married on Oct. 9, 1971, after a brief whirlwind romance that left them hand in hand, two weeks shy of 47 years. Harley and Patsy moved to Laurel in 1974 where they raised their family. He worked briefly as a hired man for his father-in-law until he was recruited to work for the City of Laurel in 1975. He retired as City Administrator in 2006 when they moved to Lakeland Estates near Blair.

Harley was a free spirit whose hobbies include hosting big family gatherings, playing and listening to music, classic car restoration, burning rubber, carpentry, landscaping, pond installation, masonry, home remodeling, furniture building and restoration, sign making, dog rearing, spending time with family and generally figuring out how things work by simply tinkering with them. His passion and willingness to share his knowledge was utilized by those close to him until the day he passed. "Did Harley say it was okay" was the confirmation to move forward on any and all projects. He was the jack of all trades and master of most. Harley and Pat's greatest life joys are hearing the laughter of family and friends in their home bursting with people, telling and hearing wild tales while building something special and creative; whether it was a Pontiac Firebird, an oak hutch or a lifetime of memories. Their generosity and love for each other is their legacy.

Survivors include his beloved wife, Pat Reinoehl; daughter, Heidi and Jason Claussen of Wayne; son, Jeremy and Christy (Blakeney) Reinoehl of Elkhorn; son, Jared and Sara (Jones) Reinoehl of Bennington; grandchildren Theodore and Jay Harley Claussen; Jaden, Ella and Addison Reinoehl; Eva, Jackson and Blakeney Reinoehl; siblings Gary Reinoehl and sister and brother-in-law Glenna and Marvin Soucek of Verdigris; Jean Muller and Steve Burns of Omaha, Monte and Linda Burns, Tom and Lori Burns of Laurel, Betty and Bob Rager of Emerson, Don and Lori Burns of Norfolk, Ken and Chris Burns of Phoenix, Ariz. and Judy and Don Jorgensen of Randolph; and many, many nieces and nephews.

Looking Ahead in Wayne

By Wes Blecke,
City Administrator

City Council Meetings

Regular Wayne City Council meetings are at 5:30 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays of each month in City Hall at Third and Pearl Streets. Name one thing you'd rather do on a Tuesday night than come see your City government at work!

Second Street Upgrades

The Second Street project is nearing completion. This storm sewer upgrade will help much of the west side of Main Street in the Downtown area to drain better during large rain falls. Plus it will replace a block of paved street between Logan and Nebraska streets.

This project had an alternate bid included with it to either replace the displaced bricks with poured concrete or placed back to brick. The City Council chose to replace the bricks with bricks. This was about a $30,000 alternate as labor is much more with brick laying. Without the alternate approved, all bricks torn up with this project would have been replaced with concrete.

What is your preference as a community member knowing there is at least an initial cost (as we could argue about the longevity of bricks) for replacing back with brick? Please let the City know if you would like to see the brick streets preserved as we have more of these types of projects in the future.

Water and Sewer Rate Study

A water/sewer rate consultant was at the last Council meeting to discuss the future of rates for the City's water and sewer departments. The recommended action by the consultant was to pass an ordinance in the near future to raise rates by a small margin each of the next three years. The consultant said this is typically much more palatable for customers than to raise it dramatically every few years.

The Council directed staff to bring them an ordinance to further discuss rates.

Lowe's helps to 'Keep Northeast Nebraska Beautiful' with $5,000 community improvement grant

Keep America Beautiful, the nation's iconic community improvement nonprofit organization, announced the organization is providing Keep Northeast Nebraska Beautiful with a $5,000 grant as part of the 2018 Keep America Beautiful/Lowe's Community Partners Grant Program. The 2018 Keep America Beautiful/Lowe's Community Partners Grant Program engages local volunteers, working alongside Lowe's Heroes volunteers, to take action on projects that focus on critical, local needs.

KNNB's grant will improve the beauty John G Neihardt Historic Site in Bancroft Nebraska.

Keep Northeast Nebraska Beautiful is a local Keep America Beautiful affiliate covering an 11-county catchment area and provides public education on reducing waste and supplies to help eliminate litter. Activities support its mission to "foster and advance environmental stewardship through the reduction and abatement of litter, recycling, education and beautification".

"This project will complete the landscaping around the sculpture of Dr. Neihardt and the Lakota Holy Man, Black Elk, adding a pollinator garden of Native plants nearby," said Dr. Jon Cerny, President of the John G Neihardt Foundation Board of Directors.

In addition to the John G Neihardt Foundation's grant initiative, Lowe's is supporting more than 40 other Keep America Beautiful grant-funded community service projects in 2018 as well as Keep America Beautiful's Great American Cleanup. Since the partnership began in 2011, Lowe's has contributed nearly $8 million, with more than 2,100 Lowe's Heroes volunteers helping Keep America Beautiful improve local communities.

"These targeted grant projects will provide significant benefits in many areas of the country, both urban and rural, that often are neglected," said Keep America Beautiful President and CEO Helen Lowman. "Our network of affiliates has been particularly creative in using these grassroots grants to develop and deliver programs that embrace their community members, while transforming often neglected public spaces into beautiful places."

The project will also refurbish the 4 perennial beds in the Sacred Hoop, add new trees and shrubs, and improve the appearance of the main entrance. Plantings will take in mid-October with the assistance of local volunteers from the community and high school. This is the first Lowe's project in Bancroft

"At Lowe's, we want to help people love where they live in the communities where our employees and customers live and work," said Julie Yenichek, Lowe's director of community relations. Wayne Lions Club conducts vision screening, plans upcoming event

Three members of the Wayne Lions Club visited St. Mary's Catholic School to conduct a vision screening for students on Sept. 18.

Lions Club volunteers Mary Ettel, Hilbert Johs and Teresa Bartlett used a state-of-the-art vision screening device, which is 85-90 percent accurate in detecting vision problems. The screening process only takes minutes per child, requires no preparation or medication and is totally painless and as simple as having a picture taken.

The group screened a total of 48 students. Screening results distributed to parents indicated if further eye examination was recommended.

The Wayne Lions Club will be participating with the Northeast Nebraska Department of Health as a part of the World Heart Day event, offering vision screening on Saturday, Oct. 6 from 2 to 4 p.m. The screening will take place at the Northeast Nebraska Health Department office, 215 N. Pearl Street in Wayne.

Earlier this year, the club did a vision screening event at Rainbow World in Wayne. In addition, the Lions generally do eye screenings in the fall at Wayne Community Schools. The eye health of youth is important to the Lions and vision screening is an important tool to make sure youth have vision problems diagnosed and addressed promptly.

The Nebraska Lions Club website (<http://www.md38.com/nlf-sight.html>) explains the importance of vision screening for children, "The first few years of a child's life are critical in the development of good vision. Preschoolers should have their vision checked for issues such as misaligned eyes, and problems that need correction with eyeglasses. These problems are not always evident by simply looking at a child. Young children often compensate for vision problems so well that parents, teachers, and pediatricians are unaware of a problem. By the time a child is old enough to be in primary grades, many of these common vision-robbing conditions can no longer be effectively treated. Amblyopia, also known as lazy eye, can develop when an undetected vision problem goes untreated during a child's formative years. The incidence of amblyopia in the United States is estimated to be three to five percent of the population. Vision problems can also result in learning difficulties as a child enters the primary grades.

Because the eye is almost completely developed by the time a child is six years old, early detection of vision issues is mandatory in enabling critical physical and mental development and preventing sight-robbing diseases. Less than 20 percent of children receive a comprehensive eye exam prior to age six. Studies show that during a child's first 12 years, 80 percent of all learning is obtained visually. And down the road, studies indicate 70 percent of juvenile delinquents are found to have a vision problem."

The Wayne Lions Club is available to screen children at area daycares with parental permission and the participation of staff.

Anyone who would like to learn more about Lions Clubs or the vision screening process is asked to contact Lion Hilbert Johs, johshj@hotmail.com at or join the group at a Lions meeting the first Tuesday of each month at Taco's and More at 6:30 p.m.

Chamber Coffee

Chamber Coffee was hosted by Johnnie Byrd Brewing Company on Friday, Sept. 28. Coincidentally, it happened to be "National Drink Beer Day" although the hardest beverage served at the event was the coffee. Greg Ptacek, owner of Johnnie Byrd updated the community about the business, including the new beer garden in front of the building.

Additional events scheduled for World Heart Day in Wayne

The Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department (NNPHD), Wayne Area Economic Development Office, Providence Medical Center, and Rotary and Rotaract Clubs of Wayne, in conjunction with Wayne State College (WSC) Cardiac Rehab, Personal Public and Global Health, Foods & Nutrition and Spanish Translation classes, are working together to present "Heart Your Hometown", World Heart Day 2018 on Saturday Oct. 6.

The goal of this event is to provide family friendly activities to celebrate community and families, promote Wayne area businesses and heart health awareness.

The event is funded by NNPHD and Service-Learning at WSC.

Since 2007, members of the Cardiac Rehab class at Wayne State College have provided blood pressure screenings and heart health promotion as a Service-Learning component to the class. It has gradually grown to include more classes and community partners.

Working with community partners last spring, Deborah Schmucker and Daniel Estrella, two students doing Public and Global Health Practicum, conceptualized an event in which the businesses, community and schools would join together to raise awareness about heart health.

"Heart Your Hometown" World Heart Day 2018 is the creative outcome of their labors. On Saturday Oct. 6, Micah's Closet will sponsor a 5K Fun Run and a One Mile Coat Walk. Registration starts at 12:30 p.m. and the Run/Walk starts at 1 p.m. Between 2 - 4 p.m. Main Street Wayne will be the place to be with business promotions, games for children of all ages, hands-only CPR, child car seat inspections, fluoride treatments, and various health screenings and information, provided by the WSC classes and Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department.

Wayne Rotary and Rotaract Clubs will provide a Do-It-Yourself Bike tune-up and Blue Cat Art Gallery will inspire sidewalk art for all ages.

Health information will be provided in both English and Spanish, with Spanish interpreters for Blood Pressure, Blood Glucose screening and other health services available. These services are provided by NNPHD, students from Latinos Uniting and the Spanish Translation Class. They serve not only Spanish speaking participants, but are a chance for English speakers to practice their Spanish with native speakers and make new friends in the community.

The following activities will take place at or near the Northeast Nebraska Public Health Department Office at 215 Pearl Street.

Oral Health Screening and Fluoride Varnish for all children five years old or younger and their families.

Vision Screenings for children and families - sponsored by the Lions Club

Car Seat Safety Checks will be conducted next to the NNPHD building by a SafeKids certified Technician.

To wrap up the day, at 4 p.m. the Majestic Theater will show "Osmosis Jones", a free movie, sponsored by NNPHD, WSC Service-Learning, and the Majestic Theater. Throughout the afternoon, there will be "Heart Your Hometown" World Heart Day information tables by the Majestic Theater, with free NNPHD recycle shopping bags and punch cards with the incentive to visit/participate in at least five activities for a 10 percent discount for area businesses through the month of October.

An Information Table by the Majestic, with activities information, free bags courtesy NNPHD, and discount punch cards will be available starting at 1:30, and WSC Students Wearing "World Heart Day Buttons" around Main Street will also have information for participants.

For more information on the event go to: www.facebook.com/WSCWorldHeartDay/.

Haven House recognizes Domestic Violence Awareness Month

The first Domestic Violence Awareness Month was held in October of 1987, since then the month of October has been a time for creating greater awareness of domestic violence. Across the nation domestic violence agencies hold events and organize activities to create awareness of domestic violence.

Domestic violence occurs in every community, and effects people of all different backgrounds. According to National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, a woman is abused every nine seconds in the United States. Every year between 3.3-10 million children witness domestic violence in the United States, and those effects can last a lifetime, according to Nebraska Domestic Violence Sexual Assault Coalition. Domestic violence is not just a private family matter; it is a crime that affects our entire community.

Haven House is celebrating its 40th year of serving domestic violence and sexual assault survivors. During the month of October Haven House encourages you to attend awareness month activities in the area.

Haven House and Wayne State College will be hosting a Domestic Violence Vigil on the evening of Oct. 21. More details will follow on Haven House's Facebook page and WSC campus outlets.

Thought provoking displays will be showcased at the Courthouses in our five county area. Learn more about domestic violence, speak out against domestic violence and provide awareness in your community, help a friend, family, or community member who is involved in a domestic violence relationship, and support your local domestic violence agency. The purple ribbon is used as a symbol of Domestic Violence Awareness Month; Haven House encourage the public to wear a purple ribbon to show support for ending domestic violence.

For more information about Domestic Violence Awareness month and ways to participate, call Haven House at 1-800-440-4633 or visit our website at havenhousefsc.org.

The Wayne High softball team won the Mid State Conference title Saturday in O'Neill, defeating Guardian Angels CC 12-0 in the championship. They will be the top seed and host of the C-5 district tournament that starts Thursday at the Summer Sports Complex.

Blue Devils make quick work, earn conference title

Wayne wasted no time in cold, drizzly weather Saturday, wrapping up the Mid State Conference softball title with two three-inning blowouts.

In the opener, the Blue Devils did all their damage on host O'Neill in the first inning, as the top-seeded Blue Devils cranked out 14 runs on their way to a 14-0 shutout.

Maysn Dorey and Allison Claussen both had doubles to highlight the Wayne attack. Wayne had just six hits in the game, but Kendall Dorey had three RBI's and Claussen, Maysn Dorey and Tori Kniesche each drove in two runs.

Kniesche silenced O'Neill in a three-inning perfect game, striking out the O'Neill lineup on just 39 pitches.

In the championship game, Wayne touched Guardian Angels Central Catholic for six runs in the first and four more in the second before ending the game on the run rule with a three-inning, 12-0 win. Again, Wayne needed just six hits to put up their runs. Sidney Biggerstaff and Kendall Dorey both had two hits and Dorey and Claussen each had two RBI's. Aliyah Schulz scored three runs and Biggerstaff, Dorey, Kayla Fleming and Annie Kniesche each scored twice.

Tori Kniesche threw a second three-inning no-hitter, striking out eight and walking one in just 50 pitches.

In action Tuesday, Wayne's softball matchup with Logan View/Scribner-Snyder was moved from Scribner to Wayne, but that didn't stop the Blue Devils from posting a 13-0 shutout.

Wayne hit three home runs in the win Tuesday, the first coming off the bat of Biggerstaff, who hit a two-run long fly to center to highlight a seven-run first inning for the Blue Devils.

In the second inning, senior Annie Kniesche led off with a double and came home on younger sister Tori Kniesche's home run to right field, part of a three-run second inning that made it 10-0.

Wayne's third dinger of the night came in the fourth. Abby Ankeny led off with a walk and Kendall Dorey singled, setting up Claussen for her second home run of the season, a shot over the wall in left, to score the final three runs of the game.

Tori Kniesche threw her fifth no-hitter of the season in the win, striking out 11 and walking one in four innings of work. She led the offense with two hits and four RBI's. Claussen and Annie Kniesche also had two hits as part of a 10-hit attack that saw 10 different players score runs.

On Thursday, Wayne scored six runs in the sixth inning to break away with an 8-0 win over fifth-ranked Guardian Angels Central Catholic in a showdown of top 10 teams Thursday at Timmerman Park in West Point.

The game was scoreless until the fourth, when Ankeny drew a bases-loaded walk to score Annie Kniesche, who started a run of four consecutive free passes for the Blue Devils.

Wayne added another run in the fifth when Kniesche doubled home Maysn Dorey, then broke the game open with six runs in the sixth inning. Josie Thompson started the big inning with a bases-loaded walk, followed by a two-run single by Dorey that scored Kendall Dorey and Claussen. Kayla Fleming added a two-run single that scored Thompson and Maysn Dorey, and Biggerstaff brought Fleming home with a single to cap the rally and the defense shut down GACC to end the game on the eight-run rule.

Maysn Dorey had two hits and two RBI's and scored twice to lead the Blue Devils. Fleming also had two RBI's as eight different players accounted for at least one of Wayne's nine hits.

Tori Kniesche threw another masterpiece, throwing a one-hit shutout with 16 strikeouts and one walk in just 91 pitches.

The 27-0 Blue Devils close the regular season Tuesday at South Sioux City. They will be the top seed for the C-5 district tournament that begins Thursday at the Summer Sports Complex.

Forsberg added eight, Schutte had seven and Jasmine Galvin had five.

On Thursday, LCC earned a four-set win over Creighton, winning 25-16, 23-25, 25-20, 25-17.

Maxon led the net attack with 12 kills, Wolfgram and Benson each added eight and Hall, Forsberg and Ehlers had seven apiece. Ehlers and Hall led the passing with 18 and 14 assists, respectively, while Maxon had five and Wolfgram and Forsberg each had three.

Forsberg had three blocks and Maxon added two at the net. Wolfgram and Hall each had 14 digs, Schutte added 13, Maxon had 11, Forsberg added nine and Ehlers had eight.

LCC hosted Hartington-Newcastle on Tuesday and will host Bloomfield on Thursday.

Nelsen earns district medal, trip to state

By MICHAEL CARNES
For The Herald

NORFOLK — Wayne High's hopes for a team spot in the state golf tournament came up short, but senior Hana Nelsen earned a trip as an individual during C-3 district action Monday at the Norfolk Country Club.

The Blue Devil senior played a steady round in less than ideal weather conditions Monday morning, shooting a 54 on the front and a 51 on the back to place eighth overall with a 105 and lead the Blue Devils to a fifth-place team finish.

"I told the girls that the thing today was that we needed to battle because there were some things they'd have on their scorecard that they weren't used to seeing," coach Josh Johnson said after the tournament. "They'd have a bad hole and come back and try to fire away the next hole and I was proud of the girls' play today."

Nelsen said there were a few shots that got away from her during the round, but she was happy to be able to finish in the top 10 and earn a trip to next week's state tournament in North Platte.

"I'm really excited," she said. "It was a really good day and a challenge with the rain this morning, but I'm really excited and proud of myself. There were a couple of strokes I could have done better on and couple of times I got in the sand, but overall I think I did pretty well."

Hansen said she is looking forward to competing Monday and Tuesday in North Platte and fulfilling one of her goals for the season.

"It's really exciting," she said. "It's been one of my goals this year, trying to get better and qualify for state, and it's nice that it actually happened."

Johnson said Nelsen was a steady player, not only on Monday, but throughout the season.

"It's always nice to have a senior who's put in the hard work over the years and battled through the elements on a tough course and be able to make it," he said. "I was really happy for her. She's been that way all year long, kind of a steady-Eddie player who hits it down the middle and is pretty good around the greens. She's been in the 101-106 range all year long, so this was kind of her day and I thought she'd have a chance if she played her game."

Natalie Bentjen, who had medaled at every meet this season for the Blue Devils, was left on the outside looking in after shooting a 114 and missing the 10-player cut.

"There were a few things that got her today and were some things we don't normally see," Johnson said.

"I think there are 38 sand bunkers on this course, and the last one she had some trouble getting out of, but for a sophomore to be there all year long says a ton about where her game is at right now."

Rounding out Wayne's round was Lutt with a 120, Manz with a 127 and Suuntamaa with a 137. C-3 District at Norfolk CC Team Standings (Top 3 to state): Battle Creek 426, Norfolk Catho-

Rounding out Wayne's team effort were senior Marrison Lutt with a 119, Cassidy Manz with a 137 and Anna-Sofia Suuntamaa with a 143.

Laurel-Concord-Coleridge was last among the 11 full teams in the district. Glenda Vance led the Lady Bears with a 126, Jayden Kinkaid shot 138, Hope Swanson carded a 162 and Brianna Campbell finished with a 222.

The Wayne High girls finished fourth in the Mid State Conference meet on Thursday at Wayne Country Club and had two top-10 finishes on the day.

Bentjen and Nelsen both earned all-conference honors. Bentjen finished ninth with a 101 and Nelsen was two shots back in 10th place with a 103.

Wildcat soccer gets first-ever win over Duluth

It took 18 tries, but the Wayne State women's soccer team finally got a win over Minnesota Duluth on Sunday.

Goals from Megan Phillips and Christina Stasi gave Wayne State its first-ever win over the Bulldogs, posting a 2-0 win in a series where Wayne State has only managed two ties in the previous 17 meetings between the two teams.

Alyssa Bagley got an early test in the match, recording a save in the first eight minutes of action. Four minutes later, the Wildcats were on the scoreboard when Samantha Phillips' free kick found her sister, Megan Phillips, who shot from a tough angle and put the ball in the back post for her first goal of the year and her sister's first assist of the season.

In the second half, Stasi took control of a loose ball, weaved through two defenders and put a curling shot from 25 yards away that went into the upper-right corner to get her first goal of the year and give Wayne State the two-goal advantage.

The Wildcats spent the rest of the second half defending their lead from a flurry of Bulldog shots. Minnesota Duluth's 10 shots in the second half were matched with six Bagley saves as the Wildcats recorded their third shutout of the year.

Bagley ended the day with a career-high eight saves. Phillips, Stasi, and Carleigh Wilson ended the match with a shot on goal each. Minnesota Duluth held a 6-2 advantage in corner kicks, while holding a 17-5 edge in shots.

On a chilly Friday afternoon, it was visiting St. Cloud State that left the field with three points and a 2-1 overtime win over Wayne State.

In a game of few chances, it was the Wildcats who struck first in the 13th minute. Sophie Ketchmark got onto the scoresheet for the first time this season after guiding the ball over the line from a Natalie Rech throw-in that bounced over the Huskies' defense and goalkeeper. Rech tallied her second assist on the year, both coming from set pieces.

Wayne State was inches away from doubling their advantage only four minutes later. Christina Stasi did well to create space and latch on to a volley just inside of the box before coming off the crossbar. The rebound fell favorably to Rylie Wehner as she put the second shot off the crossbar in a matter of seconds.

Remaining action in the first half became a battle for possession in the midfield, with neither side creating more than one chance in the last 20 minutes of the half. The Wildcats outshot the Huskies 5-3 in the first half, while Rachel Grisham recorded the only save in the opening 45 minutes.

In a relatively comfortable first 54 minutes of the game for the Wildcat defense, an appeal for a handball in the box was awarded and the center ref pointed to the penalty spot. St. Cloud's Maria Witte calmly passed the ball to the left netting, tying the game at 1-1. Chances came fewer than in the first half, and after 90 minutes, the teams headed into overtime to try to create a game-winner.

St. Cloud State turned out to be the side to find the winner in the 95th minute, after Monica Majeski was sent through two-on-one with Grisham. Majeski passed across goal to Nicole Friis who had the easiest of tap-ins to send the Huskies home with a win.

Ketchmark and Wehner both had two shots for the Wildcats, while Grisham finished the day with two saves. Wayne State held a 5-3 advantage in corner kicks.

In Sunday action, Wayne State (2-6-1, 2-4-1 NSIC) will be on the road next weekend, visiting Upper Iowa Friday at 3 p.m. and Winona State Sunday at 1 p.m.

Eagles go to 4-1 with 28-12 win at home

Sometimes father DOES know best.

Friday's district football matchup between Allen and Hartington-Newcastle at Isom-Hill Field had a little more on the line than a battle of district foes, as father Dave Uldrich matched wits with his son, Corey.

Dad's Eagles came out on top in a 28-12 decision over his son's team, putting the Eagles at .500 in district play on Allen's homecoming.

"The team came together and had real focus, played with intensity, and trusted the process with their responsibilities tonight," the elder Uldrich said of his team's effort against his son's team. "We bent but did not break. The offensive line did a very nice job creating running lanes. This was what we needed to see tonight — the momentum from this game, and their focus forward combined moving forward, is what we needed to generate to make a serious run for the playoffs. It was very fulfilling to see the kids full of excitement and the feeling of true accomplishment."

Allen's defense came to life early, holding the Wildcats after they drove deep into Allen territory. The Eagle offense responded with a nice drive of its own, capped by a five-yard surge by Lukas Oswald, who followed the pile of blockers into the end zone and found Anthony Isom for the two-point conversion pass to give Allen the 8-0 advantage.

The Wildcats came back in the second period to come within two on a short run by Ethan Koch, but Allen responded with another long drive that ended with a three-yard scoring run by Kyle Smith to make it 14-6 at intermission.

Smith scored a second touchdown in the third period to extend the lead to 14, and Allen put it out of reach in the fourth quarter when the defense came through, forcing a fumble that Devin Twohig recovered in the end zone for a touchdown.

Smith led the Eagles' ground attack with 154 yards on 24 carries, while Isom had 32 yards on eight tries. Noah Carr added 20 yards on nine carries and Oswald had 10 carries for 13 yards while going 2-for-2 in passing for 57 yards. Smith's one pass attempt was good for 12 yards to Twohig, who had two receptions for 47 yards. Smith caught a 22-yard pass.

Defensively, Brogan Jones led the Eagles with 16 total tackles and Devin Hoensing and Josh Grone each had 11. Twohig, Smith and Carr each added nine tackles, Isaac Verzani had seven and Isom had six.

The 4-1 Eagles are back home for the final time in the regular season on Friday, hosting Wausa in a 7 p.m. matchup.

Wildcats sweep St. Cloud, swept by Duluth

The Wayne State volleyball team came home with a weekend split with a win at St. Cloud State and a loss at No. 5 Minnesota Duluth.

On Friday, middle blocker Jaci Brahmmer had a team-high 12 kills with no errors and a .706 attack percentage to go with six blocks in leading Wayne State College past St. Cloud State 25-20, 25-19, 25-19 Friday in Northern Sun Conference volleyball played in St. Cloud, Minn.

The first set was a close battle early with 10 ties and five lead changes until a late Wildcat surge gave Wayne State the opening set. WSCU held a 15-13 lead, but WSC rescued off six straight points capped by a Morgan Alexander service ace that put the 'Cats in front for good at 19-15. The Wildcats forced 10 Husky attack errors in the set and finished with 10 kills and no attack errors.

Wayne State cruised in the second set, building early leads of 6-1 and 10-2. Brahmmer had four kills and two blocks while Tarrin Beller and Alyssa Ballenger both recorded service aces in the set as Wayne State held the Huskies to an .085 attack percentage forcing eight more errors.

St. Cloud State led the first part of the third set, leading 11-8 and 13-11 before Wayne State caught fire to close out the sweep. Kills by Maddie Knobbe and Brahmmer tied the score at 13-13 and another ace from Alexander gave the Wildcats the lead for good at 14-13. Consecutive Wildcat blocks put Wayne State in front 16-13 and the Huskies were never in it after that.

Brahmer paced Wayne State

with her 12 kills on 17 attacks and no errors for a .706 attack percentage. She also led in blocks with six. Ballenger followed with six kills while Beller, Knobbe and Katie Stephens each had five. Kauth led the Wildcats with 17 digs followed by Maddie Duffy with 12 and Alexander with 10. Alexander and Ballenger each recorded two service aces while senior setter Megan Gebhardt handed out 27 set assists.

On Saturday, fifth-ranked Minnesota Duluth hit a scorching .387 with 48 kills and just 12 attack errors to take down Wayne State College 25-14, 25-13, 25-18 in Duluth, Minn.

The host Bulldogs came out swinging in the first set, recording 19 kills and just one attack error for a .667 attack percentage to take the opening set, then forced Wayne State into 10 attack errors in the second set to take the 2-0 advantage.

Wayne State came out strong in the third set and held the lead most of the way, but a late surge by the host Bulldogs allowed them to come back. The Wildcats built a 16-12 lead against the Bulldogs, but Duluth rallied with nine straight points to take a 21-16 lead and went on to finish the three-game sweep.

Wayne State was held to a .049 attack percentage with 26 kills, 21 errors and 102 attacks while Duluth hit a sizzling .387 with 48 kills and just 12 errors on 93 attacks. The Wildcats held a 7-5 edge in blocks over the Bulldogs.

Ballenger led Wayne State in kills with seven followed by Brahmmer with five. Beller had five blocks with Gebhardt credited with 21 set assists. Duffy recorded eight digs.

In non-conference play Tuesday, the Wildcats made quick work of Chadron State at home, riding Stephens' match-high 12 kills to a 25-11, 25-18, 25-18 sweep.

The Wildcats came out attacking early in the first set, taking a 6-2 lead following a Beller service ace. Wayne State extended the lead to 11-6 on a kill from Brahmmer and recorded 16 kills and a .424 attack percentage to take the first set.

The second set was much closer with WSC needing a late rally to stave off the Eagles. Wayne State never trailed, but Chadron State rallied to force tie scores at 14-14 and 18-18. Wayne State used a block by Brahmmer and Gebhardt and a service ace from Kauth to take a 20-18 lead scored the next five points to close out the second set.

The Wildcats led from start to finish in the third set to complete the sweep. The Wildcats built an 11-5 lead to force a Chadron State timeout and extended the lead to 20-10 before finishing the match and completing the three-game sweep.

Stephens led Wayne State with 12 kills followed by sophomore Beller and Knobbe with nine apiece. Sophomore Duffy paced the Wildcats in digs with 15 followed by Kauth and Gebhardt with nine each. Brahmmer and Gebhardt each had two blocks.

Special teams lifts Beavers past Wildcats

Bemidji State used two key plays on special teams in the third quarter to come away with a 27-10 win over Wayne State during the Wildcats' Homecoming/Hall of Fame Game Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

The game was a defensive battle that saw less than 500 yards combined between the two teams and 18 punts, 11 of them by Wayne State.

Bemidji State scored on their first drive of the game, driving just 29 yards on five plays with Andrew Lackowski finding the end zone from one yard out giving the Beavers a 7-0 lead with 13:04 to play first quarter.

The lone score in the second quarter was a Wayne State field goal of 27 yards by Ethan Knudsen at the 9:08 mark, making the score 7-3 at halftime.

Bemidji State received the ball to start the second half and Gunner Olszewski returned the kickoff 64 yards to set up the Beavers at the Wildcat 28. Quarterback Jared Henning scored on a three-yard rush to put BSU in front 13-3 after a failed PAT attempt.

Later in the quarter on a Wildcat punt, Olszewski fielded the ball at the five yard line and broke loose and, as he was getting tackled at the BSU 44, tossed the ball to Michael Junker who completed the punt return for a Beaver touchdown, giving the Beavers a 20-3 lead with 6:00 to play in the third quarter.

Bemidji State's longest drive of the game, 47 yards, resulted in another score early in the fourth quarter as Lackowski found paydirt again on a one-yard plunge to give the Beavers a 27-3 advantage.

Wayne State closed out the scoring with a six play, 55-yard drive as running back Marlon Warren capped the drive with a 12-yard scoring run.

Bemidji State outgained Wayne State in the contest 260-224. The Beavers had 215 yard rushing and only 45 passing while WSC was limited to 29 yards on the ground and had 195 passing.

Blue Devils post fourth-quarter comeback in 28-16 road win

The Wayne High football team used a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes to come from behind and defeat Logan View/Scribner-Snyder 26-16 in an exciting district matchup Friday at Logan View High School.

It was a close game throughout the first half as the two teams played to a 14-14 draw through the first 24 minutes.

Wayne opened the scoring on a three-yard run by Casey Koenig, with Juan Vergara's two-point conversion giving Wayne the 8-0 advantage.

After a long pass for a score by LV/S-S got them within a point, Wayne struck back with a 61-yard pitch-and-catch between Tyler Gilliland and Marcus Fertig to make it a 14-7 game.

The hosts used another long pass play to tie the game at intermission, then got their defense involved for a safety to take a 16-14 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Wayne took the lead for good when Gilliland and Fertig connected a second time from 11 yards out, then put the game away on a half-back pass from Juan Vergara to Kaleb Anderson to help bring the Blue Devils back to .500 at 3-3 on the season.

Vergara led the Wayne ground game with 125 yards on 27 carries, while Koenig added 62 yards on 15 tries. Reid Korth carried once for nine yards and Anderson had a two-yard carry.

Gilliland was 6-of-8 for 90 yards and two scores in the passing department. Both of Fertig's catches totaled 72 yards and went for touchdowns. Anderson caught two passes for 19 yards and Vergara had three catches for 18 yards.

Defensively, Korth led the Blue Devils with 10 total tackles, Kaden Kneiff had seven, Koenig added six and Vergara, Fertig, Victor Knie-sche, Cade Janke and Gunnar Jorgensen each had four.

The Blue Devils face a key district test on Friday, as they host West Point-Beemer for homecoming Friday at 7 p.m. at Wayne State College's Memorial Stadium.

Big second half propels LCC to 56-18 win

Laurel-Concord-Coleridge used a big second half to come from behind and defeat Madison 56-18 in area football action Friday at Madison.

The two teams traded blows in the first half. LCC got a 14-yard pass from Izac Reifenrath to Ty Erwin and a 15-yard run by Erwin to lead 14-6, but two long touchdown runs gave the Dragons the momentum with an 18-14 lead at intermission.

The Bears came out on fire in the second half, scoring 42 unanswered points.

LCC took the lead for good on a

29-yard Reifenrath-to-Erwin connection, then got short scoring runs by Reifenrath, Nolan Ohlrich and Austin Brandt to cap a 28-point third quarter that turned a four-point halftime deficit into a 24-point cushion.

Reifenrath and Erwin would make a third scoring connection in the fourth quarter, and Brandt closed the scoring with a six-yard run to help LCC improve to 3-2 on the season.

Brandt was the leading rusher for the Bears, finishing with 128 yards on 21 carries. Reifenrath rushed for 87 yards on 16 carries and was 6-of-11 passing for 91 yards and three touchdowns. Erwin caught all three scores to highlight his four-catch, 70-yard effort.

Defensively, Cael Hartung and Wyatt Taylor led the Bears with 10 tackles apiece, while Brandt, Noah Stone and Cutter Haberman each had nine.

LCC is home Friday to face Lutheran High Northeast at 7 p.m.

Northeast Community College Women's Soccer team held Hawkeye Community College scoreless in their Sept. 26 match.

Northeast women blank Hawkeye Community College

Two quick goals in the first period proved to be the difference for the Northeast Community College women's soccer team on Wednesday.

Ellie Gess and Tayler Ohu scored in the third and fourth minute to push the Hawks (5-4-1, 5-1 ICCAC) to victory over Hawkeye Community College in ICCAC play in Waterloo, Iowa.

"We came out really strong possessing the ball and building up our attack," head coach Chad Miller said. "We were able to get two goals quickly which was nice, but then I felt we got a little complacent and relaxed a little too much."

Gess finished with five shots, three shots on goal and a goal. Ohu tallied two shots, two shots on goal for the Hawks. Goalie Lizzy McCalla added four saves in the net.

The Hawks out-shot the Red Tails 21-10.

"In the second half, we had really great chances to add to the score, but their goalie did a great job closing down those chances," Miller added. "We have been creating goals in the past few games. As we get further into conference, we have to make sure we take advantage of every opportunity."

The Hawks continue conference action, traveling to Southeastern Community College at 4 p.m. Saturday in Burlington, Iowa.

Manufacturing jobs grow Nebraska

October is Manufacturing Month and the State of Nebraska has something big to celebrate: Job growth. According to the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, employment growth expanded 1.7 percent year-over-year this July for the fastest growth rate since March 2012. The biggest driver behind that growth was employment in the manufacturing industry, which jumped 4.5 percent for the biggest growth rate since August 1995.

Gov. Pete Ricketts

Each October we celebrate Manufacturing Month because it is Nebraska's second largest industry, behind agriculture and ahead of tourism. Throughout the month we will be celebrating our manufacturers, who are making world-class equipment and growing great job opportunities across our state. To highlight manufacturing's impact on our economy, the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce and I will be visiting manufacturing plants in Hastings and Lyons this week. Later this month, I will also address the Chamber's annual manufacturing summit.

Manufacturing is growing in Nebraska because of the great business climate we have. CNBC rates Nebraska the second best state for cost of doing business. National organizations say we are third best for wage growth, fourth best state overall for business, fifth lowest for unemployment, and the sixth most fiscally stable. All of this has helped Nebraska achieve the distinction of being the top state in the nation for new economic development projects per capita for the last two years in a row. During manufacturing month, we will be carrying this message to communities around the state and I will be highlighting three ways we can grow manufacturing: develop our people, cut red tape, and deliver tax relief.

Developing our people is a key to growing opportunity in manufacturing. Right now, Nebraska has tens of thousands of open jobs, and many of these openings are in manufacturing. My administration has been focused on creating awareness about these opportunities and helping young Nebraskans get skills to take advantage of them. We have launched the Developing Youth Talent Initiative (DYTI), which supports partnerships between local Nebraska businesses and public schools to engage students in manufacturing and information technology career exploration programs. Since its first year, 23 school districts have participated in DYTI, and the program has served around 7,000 students. DYTI metrics from previous grant recipients, such as Flowserve in Hastings, indicate a significant increase in student interest and participation. For example, Hastings High School had a 16 percent increase in enrollment in Skills and Technical Sciences classes from incoming freshman who participated in a full year of DYTI programs in the 8th grade.

Cutting red tape will also unleash growth in manufacturing. Forbes not only ranks Nebraska the fourth best overall state for business, but also the fourth best state for our overall regulatory climate. As Governor, I have been working to make state government run more like a business. To this end, we have trained all 12,000 teammates in my agencies in process improvement skills so each teammate can look for opportunities to deliver better customer service at a lower cost. For example, the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality has put some air and water permits online, speeding up the process for companies that are building things and making things who need these to do business. For our air construction permits, we have reduced the turnaround time from 188 days to 88 days. In some cases, the agency is now able to deliver permits in a single day. When companies receive their permits faster, they can create jobs more quickly.

Finally, tax relief puts more money back into the pockets of hardworking Nebraskans and those who create job opportunities. Each year I have been Governor, I have made tax relief a priority in my budget recommendations to the Legislature. Over the past few years, the Legislature and I have delivered over $840 million in property tax relief, by increasing the Property Tax Credit Relief Fund. Overall, the State of Nebraska delivered over $2 billion in property tax relief and aid to local governments in the 2017-18 fiscal year, up from $1.9 billion the previous year. This is a big commitment from the state to property taxpayers that I will recommend building upon in my next budget.

By developing our people, getting rid of red tape and cutting taxes, we can continue to grow jobs and opportunities in the manufacturing sector. This will not happen by accident. It requires the Legislature, state agencies, and others to help get government out of the way and to build our growth-oriented business climate. If you have further ideas on how we can grow manufacturing, I hope you will email me at pete.ricketts@nebraska.gov or call 402-471-2244.

Capitol View Let's gather around the table and have some leftovers

By J.L. SCHMIDT
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

The Legislature convenes in a few months. It's a long session in a non-election year, traditionally the best time to talk about that 800-pound elephant in the room, taxes.

Yes, we're having leftovers, but everything is on the table. Or should be to deal with the problem of property taxes. And, the entire Legislature should join the newly minted Revenue Committee at the table. The governor and lobbyists should respectfully await their turns.

The state's two largest think tanks have already weighed in. As expected, the conservative Platte Institute says the problem is sales tax exemptions. Director Jim Vokal of Omaha said those exemptions already cost the state $4.8 billion a year. Removing some of them would bring in more revenue for property tax relief.

Meanwhile, the folks at Open Sky propose tweaks to tax incentives and credits. In 2017, businesses received $360 million in tax abatements from 11 state incentive programs that were supposed to create new jobs and spur economic activity.

Open Sky says the state's largest business tax incentive program — The Nebraska Advantage Act — was created in 2005 to allow businesses to earn income tax credits and exemptions against sales and personal property taxes by increasing investment and/or employment in Nebraska. The act sunsets in 2020, but the ramifications could continue for decades.

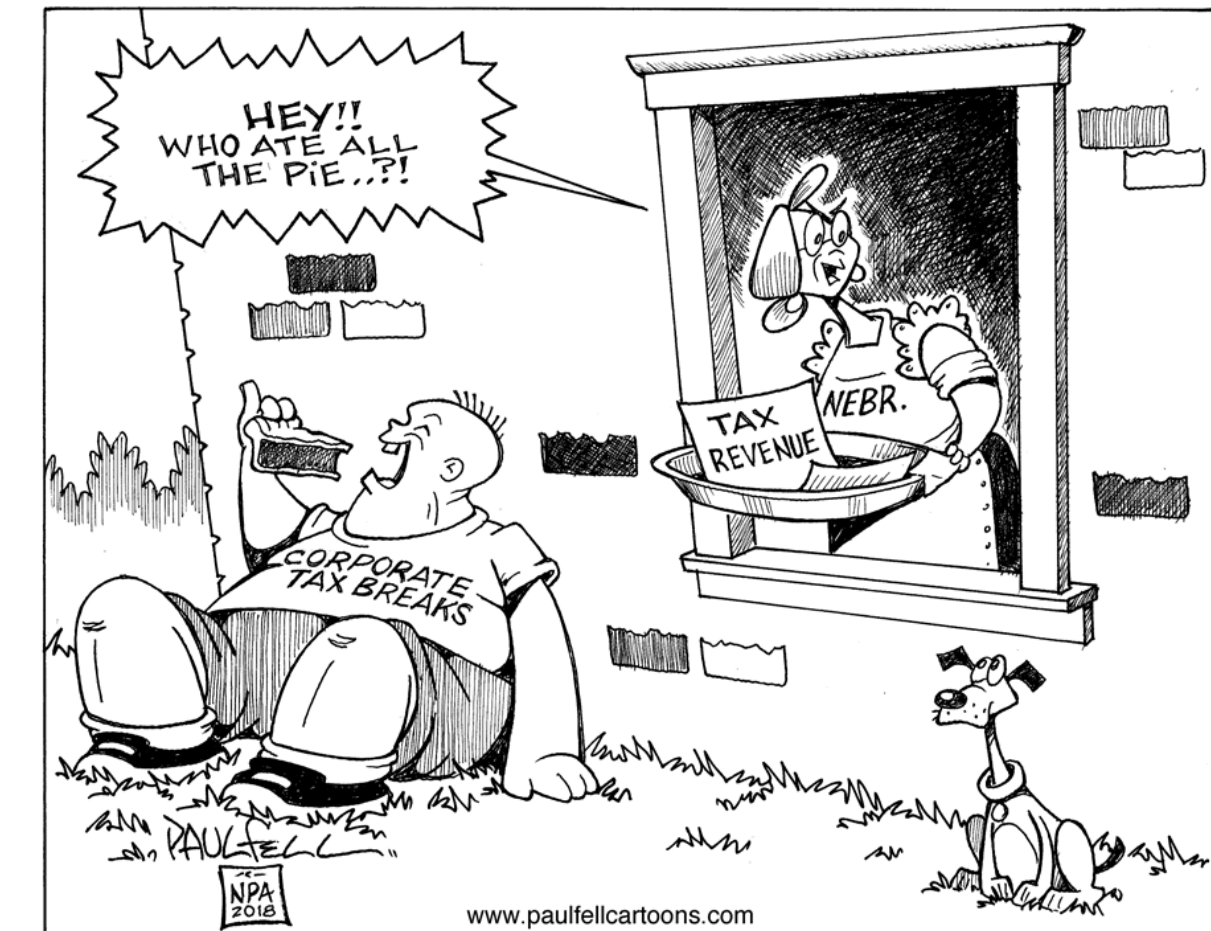

The effectiveness of the program has been hard to determine. In 2016, the Legislature's Performance Audit Committee found it cost the state between $24,000 and $320,000 to create a single job under The Nebraska Advantage Act. When the incentive was proposed, it was initially projected to cost between $24 million and $60 million annually. But, in 2017 that number was $160 million. The Department of Revenue projects that even when economic job growth caused by the program is factored in, Nebraska Advantage will result in a cumulative net revenue loss of

Think about budget as election looms

Senator Lydia Brasch and I attended the E15 Now bus at the Siouxland Ethanol business on Sept. 26. Siouxland Ethanol turns area corn into 85 million gallon of biofuels annually. Ethanol is a great fuel alternative for Nebraska citizens and Nebraska farmers alike, it's great for our environment, it's great for the consumer to have choices. I was happy to support taking steps to deregulating higher-octane blends so ethanol can be used throughout the whole year, not just three seasons.

On Sunday, Sept. 30, Governor Ricketts held his second annual Nebraska Steak Fry. The event hosted Governor Greg Abbott of Texas, Governor Eric Holcomb of Indiana, and Governor Kim Reynolds of Iowa. Governor Ricketts put on an awesome celebration of Nebraska's number one industry, agriculture. As a farmer and rancher, it was exciting to share our world class beef and corn, among other awesome food and local music, with the visiting governors. I am thankful for Governor Ricketts being such a huge sup-

$996.5 million by 2027. National employment research expert Dr. Timothy Bartik found business tax breaks have little correlation with employment or future economic growth, can be excessively costly, and may not have the promised effects. In a national report on incentive use, Bartik found Nebraska ranked as high as fifth nationally in one measure of tax incentive volume. He also found Nebraska's business incentives are greater than the U.S. average by 79 percent and aren't broadly provided to firms that pay high wages or invest in research and development.

Back in 1987, senators enacted a package of tax changes in response to ConAgra's threat to leave the state, including the enactment of Nebraska's first business incentive program under LB 775. That measure cost Gov. Kay Orr a re-election bid. ConAgra left the state in 2015.

In addition to the business incentives, LB775 also marked a shift to a single-sales factor state which means that Nebraska taxes the state's multi-state corporations based only on the percentage of their total sales that take place in the state and not on such factors as the value of their facilities or what they pay in salaries, which are considered in some other states. About half the country has since adopted that policy. Companies and high-income individuals received major tax savings under those changes — many of which are still in effect and will continue to reduce state revenue for at least seven more years. In 2016, those incentives cost $122 million.

Sales tax exemptions and tax credits are the big targets in the coming discussion. But, it's complicated. There will be five new faces on the Revenue Committee and three people are vying for the chairmanship. One of them, Sen. Curt Friesen of Henderson, said "everything's on the table." He admits "the sales tax is the only possibility to generate revenue" and newly authorized collection of state sales taxes for online purchases made by Nebraskans could be part of a compromise solution.

Senator Mike McDonnell said he too favors "putting all sales tax exemptions on the table" during consideration. The Omaha Democrat, who is not a member of the committee, said he has been urged to take a role to help broker a tax reform solution and is prepared to work with the governor and his legislative colleagues to that end.

If and when such an agreement is reached, it will have to be filibuster and veto proof as well. Of course, there's always the issue of whose ox is getting gored. Let's hope this is the year that we can all get past that!

Legislative Update

ensure funding for the expansion population. Nevada has seen Medicaid enrollment increase by 90 percent and spending increase by 93 percent in the last four years. Between 2014 and 2023, Nevada will spend an additional $5.4 billion on Medicaid expansion. In Ohio, it was predicted 447,000 Ohioans would sign up for Medicaid expansion by 2020. As of 2017, 720,000 people had enrolled under the expansion. Ohio's Medicaid spending has risen 35 percent in the last four years, averaging $437 million per month. In order to cover the increasing costs of expansion, Oregon approved taxes on hospitals, health insurers, and managed care companies in an unusual special election in January 2018. The temporary two-year tax increase is a short-term fix that, if not supplemented by a larger and long-term tax increase, will leave Oregonians in the exact same position in two years - wondering where they will get more funding or cut services. Please consider all of the consequences of Medicaid expansion when heading to the polls in November. This unfunded mandate on Nebraska taxpayers is not sustainable.

I want to encourage my constituents to reach out to me, I look forward to hearing from you!

Dr. Angela Miller-Niles played three movements from "Moments Musicaux, op.16" by Sergei Rachmaninoff. Dr. Karl Kolbeck shared a composition entitled "Eternal Garden; Four Songs for Clarinet and Piano" by David Maslanka. In addition to her own piece, Dr. Angela Miller-Niles accompanied Dr. Farr and Dr. Kolbeck.

Pastor Teresa Bartlett said, "We were delighted to participate with Wayne State by hosting this concert. The performances were outstanding and a fitting way to mark the International Day of Peace."

Following the concert, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall where an appreciative audience mingled with the performers.

Altona women's group meets

First Trinity Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Altona met Sept. 28 at the Wisner Care Center.

The Rev. Timothy Booth gave the lesson, "Loving Despite Limitations." He told those in attendance "our great vocation is being a Christian who fears, loves and trusts in God above all things. Grace and holiness come together on the cross.

We are set free in Jesus; the tough part is to do things for people when they don't deserve it."

Darlene Bowers presided at the business meeting. The LWML Pledge was recited by all as the mite box offering was taken. A report on the District Convention was given by Clara Heinemann.

The birthday song was sung for Darlene Bowers.

The meeting closed with all singing the table prayer, "Feed Thy Children, God Most Holy" and all praying The Lord's Prayer.

There will be no meeting in October as the Wayne Zone LWML Rally will be held at Hope Lutheran in South Sioux City on Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Hostess for the meeting was Darlene Bowers.

'See You at the Pole'

Students at Wayne High School participated in See You at the Pole on Wednesday, Sept. 26. See You at the Pole began in 1990 with 10 students who wanted to pray at their school. Since then, the global day of student prayers continues. Students meet at their flag poles on the fourth Wednesday in September to lift up their schools, teachers, friends and family. Students at Wayne Elementary School also participated, with about 40 students gathered around the flag pole there.

Take time to rest and spend time with God

A little while ago I was doing some reading and the author cited this verse from the Old Testament prophet Jeremiah. It is age-old wisdom, but too often ignored. "Thus says the Lord: 'Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls.'" (Jeremiah 6:16, ESV).

I think most of us would like to "find rest for our souls." We'd like to experience a sense of satisfaction, contentment, and peace. But notice where it comes from. We are told to "stand."

That means to stop our aimless wandering, our corporate climbing, and our selfish pursuits. We need to stop for a moment or two and just stand. Stop the furious running and just stand for a while.

Then we are told to "look." Take time to observe what's going on around you and within you. Pay attention to the details, the beauty, the wonder. Think about what you are doing and where you are going. Take time to notice your surroundings, what's going on, so you can make an informed decision.

While we're standing there we're supposed to ask. We need to pray and seek God's wisdom and direction. And doesn't "ask" imply that we're actually going to listen to the answer? And notice that soul rest isn't necessarily found in innovation and the newest and latest, but in the ancient, well-worn, almost-forgotten paths. The past is a friend. It's not a hitching post, but it is a guide post. Learn from those who have gone before. God's way is a good way. Not necessarily the easy way, but it is the good way. He promises to give you an abundant life; a life that is emotionally healthy, relationally satisfying and spiritually life-giving.

Once you've had your solitude, once you've spent time with God, seeking His guidance, then you can walk. It does no good to discover the way and keep going the wrong way. Hearing from God requires obedience to what He says.

When you've taken the time to be with God and to hear from God, then as you walk with God you will find that rest for your soul. And interestingly, maybe even surprisingly, rest comes not from stopping and standing, but from walking the ancient, God-provided paths.

Trinity Lutheran School in Hoskins to host story night

Trinity Lutheran School has announced they will be hosting Bedtime Story Night after the success of last year's event.

Bedtime Story Night is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 18.

Last year, this became one of our newest favorite school events, and the school is excited to bring it back again. All children from through Grade 3 are invited to Trinity Lutheran School, at 212 West 4th Street in Hoskins, for a night of popcorn, stories and lots of fun.

Doors to school will open at 6:45 p.m. Stories will begin at 7 p.m. Children are encouraged to wear their pajamas, bring their favorite stuffed animal, and be ready to eat snacks and enjoy a variety of books before settling in to sleep for the night. According to Trinity Lutheran's newsletter, the event should conclude by 7:30 p.m.

A Word In Faith

By Troy Reynolds
Pastor, Journey Christian Church

As you walk those "ancient paths" you will discover is that Jesus is enough. He has and will always be enough. That's why He said, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:29, NIV).

So, here's the challenge for you. Take time today to stop for a moment or two. Quiet your heart and your mind. Spend some time with God, seeking His wisdom, listening for His answer, and resting in His grace and mercy. May you find "rest for your soul."

WHAT TO DO IF YOU GET THE FLU

- I'm guessing that the flu isn't on your top-10 wish list, right? But just in case you get sick this flu season, here's a list of 10 things you can do to help ease your symptoms—and to stop the flu in its tracks and protect others.
- 1. Stock up. A few supplies may make it a bit easier to manage the flu. It's best to have these on hand before you get sick. Otherwise, send a healthy member of your family out on an errand, if you can.
 - Acetaminophen, ibuprofen, or naproxen for reducing fevers and easing aches
 - A thermometer
 - Cough syrup or cough drops
 - Saline nose drops or sprays
 - Drinks such as fruit juices or tea (avoid caffeine)
 - Easy-to-eat foods such as clear soups, crackers, or applesauce^{1,2}
 - 2. Stay home! The first day you have symptoms, you may be tempted to venture out to work or school. Please don't! Not only do you need the rest, but this is also when you're most contagious.¹ Try to nap—and read or binge-watch your favorite television episodes.
 - 3. Prevent the spread. In addition to staying home, wash your hands often and cover your cough and sneeze into your sleeve.²
 - 4. Drink fluids, breathe steam. This is a great way to thin your mucus, making it easier to cough up. This may help prevent a lung infection. Using a humidifier (a cool mist) or breathing in steam from a hot shower may also help ease congestion.¹
 - 5. Calm your cough. It can be exhausting, I know. Try over-the-counter (OTC) cough medicines—an expectorant helps thin mucus. Do not give a child under age 4 any type of cough medicine. Sucking on lozenges may also help your cough or scratchy throat.¹
 - 6. Ease nose woes. You—or your kids—can try saline nose drops or sprays to ease nasal congestion. First, put a few drops into one nostril. Then gently blow the mucus and saline out. Repeat on the other side.¹
 - 7. Treat other symptoms. Sure, a fever—along with chills and aches—is a sign your body is fighting off the virus. But that doesn't mean you need to suffer in silence. Ask me if you have any questions about which fever reducer to take. But don't forget: Never give aspirin to someone younger than 19—it can lead to a serious illness.¹
 - 8. Ask about antivirals. Your health care provider may advise you to take one. If you do this within 48 hours of when symptoms begin, you have a fighting chance of reducing their impact.^{1,2}
 - 9. Know when to seek medical help. If you or a loved one has any of these symptoms, call the doctor: •Dark urine; •Dizziness; •Fever of 100 degrees F for 3 or more days; •Returning fever or sore throat after feeling better
More serious symptoms require immediate medical care:
•Wheezing or shortness of breath; •Coughing up blood; •Chest pain or pressure; •Balance problems or confusion³
 - 10. Talk to me! And of course it goes without saying: If you need guidance about any products—or any questions whatsoever—let me know, and I'll try to steer you in the right direction
- Nothing herein constitutes medical advice, diagnosis or treatment, or is a substitute for professional advice. You should always seek the advice of your physician or other medical professional if you have questions or concerns about a medical condition.

LENRD board adopts voluntary Integrated Management Plan

Being proactive in the conjunctive management of groundwater and surface water is what led the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District (LENRD) Board of Directors to implement a voluntary Integrated Management Plan (IMP) for the protection of the resources. The citizens of the LENRD depend on abundant water resources for domestic, agricultural, and industrial uses, all of which contribute to the economy of the district. Water resources are also important for wildlife habitat and recreational uses such as fishing, hunting, boat-and water supplies. A primary action of the Coalition was to voluntarily develop a Lower Platte Basin Water Management Plan, which was adopted by all parties as of Jan. 10, 2018.

The LENRD continued to move forward with their individual plan, and developed a Stakeholder Advisory Committee consisting of representatives from: Agriculture, Industry, Public Water Supply, Domestic well owners, Environmental, as well as County and City officials. This Committee met in 2014 and 2015 to help prioritize goals and

Women to 'Shine' at Northeast's AG-ceptional conference

Women in agriculture will have the opportunity to shine bright at an upcoming conference. Registration is currently underway for the 10th annual Northeast Community College AG-ceptional Women's Conference - a day-long event to be held on Friday, Nov 16, in the Lifelong Learning Center on the Northeast campus in Norfolk. The conference's theme is "Do What Makes Your Soul Shine."

The AG-ceptional Women's Conference is northeast Nebraska's premier event for women in agriculture, attracting over 400 women who come together for a full day of networking, professional development and personal growth opportunities. The conference sells out each year, so participants are strongly encouraged to register early.

The opening session will feature a keynote speaker who will discuss issues impacting the industry of agriculture. Damian Mason is a businessman, agriculturist, speaker, podcaster, writer and consultant who offers a high-energy presentation that's both current and comedic, insightful and entertaining. His discussion will include challenges and opportunities for the ag industry, such as why affluent customers oppose GMOs, why suburbia shops at Whole Foods, why the "cheap food argument" is outdated, how agriculture can thrive by realizing there are two sets of global consumers and why agriculture's future is bright.

Since 1994, Mason has spoken to nearly 2,000 audiences in all 50 states and seven foreign countries.

The AG-ceptional Women's Conference will feature over 20 speakers who will share their experiences and expertise on a range of topics, including a discussion on defining items of the IMP. The district continued to work with the NDNR to develop a working draft over the next several years.

The NDNR and the LENRD jointly held a public meeting to discuss and answer public questions on the IMP on Aug. 9. A public hearing was then held on Aug. 23, where public testimony on the final version of the plan was recorded. After reviewing the testimony, the LENRD board voted to approve the IMP at their Sept. 27 board meeting.

Management Plan

LENRD Assistant Manager Brian Bruckner said, "The purpose of this voluntary IMP is to achieve and sustain a long-term balance between water uses and water supplies. Protection of existing users is also a major factor since there is still available water in the Basin, and the District is continuing to add new users on an annual basis. This will be achieved through coordinated management of hydrologically connected groundwater and surface water resources. The voluntary IMP is considered a proactive approach to protecting available water supplies to better ensure that the resource will be available for future generations and also makes the District eligible to apply for grant funding through the NDNR Water Sustainability Fund."

The closing session of the conference will feature Pat McGill, speaker, trainer, adjunct professor of education and author. With a passion for people, education, business and community, McGill created Beresford FIRST, an organization that supports business while enriching the heart and soul of the Beresford, SD, community. She is also the founder of WE - Women Entrepreneurs in the Iowa Great Lakes and Women Energized with WE groups in the Midwest.

In other action, the board authorized LENRD General Manager Mike Sousek to sign the contract with JEO Consulting Group to update the District's Hazard Mitigation Plan.

The board also authorized the signing of an interlocal agreement for obtaining seedling trees and shrubs with the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts for the LENRD's Conservation Tree Program.

She will present on "The 5 Powers of Rural," where women discover they are like some other women, but not like any other woman.

The registration fee for the 2018 AG-ceptional Women's Conference is $39. The fee includes breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack. Organizers said the cost of the attending the conference remains affordable due to the many sponsors of the event.

To register or learn more about the conference, go online to www.northeast.edu/ageptional. For additional information, call Corinne Morris, conference director, at (402) 844-7361 or contact ageptional@northeast.edu.

In other business, staff was authorized to solicit bids for flow meter maintenance on mechanical meters in Madison and Antelope Counties for 776 meters and will sign a contract with the lowest responsible bidder.

The next committee meeting will be held on Thursday, Oct. 11 at 7 p.m.. The next board meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the LENRD office in Norfolk.

The LENRD serves all or parts of 15-counties in northeast Nebraska. Visit the LENRD website to sign up for emails from the district. Like LENRD on Facebook, and follow them on Twitter - Protecting Lives, Protecting Property, Protecting the Future - www.lenrd.org.

Watching grandson in action is fun

Not only am I the wife of a published author, but now, he's a celebrity, too!

We have been following that Lutheran High football team, wishing we could see a live game. This Friday offered an opportunity, as it was played at 3 p.m. to accommodate the Norfolk game that night. So, Sue offered to drive us there and back in one day.

Memorial Field has a wonderful handicapped area north of the main bleachers, complete with a ramp and some stationary benches, with room for wheelchairs, etc. The Big Farmer wore his winter jacket and Ann put a blue fuzzy blanket over his legs and he was cozy. We also had a great view of the field, especially in the first half, when LHNE was heading towards the north goal posts. (Actually, in eight-man, they don't aim for the goal posts, since the field is 80 feet long, as opposed to 100. The goal is marked with a G.)

Calvin Watts, number 2, made the first touchdown; he's a pretty fast guy. And then, Connor Wilcox, a defensive lineman, scored! But, before we knew it, Jaxson Kant also made one and the announcer said, "Jaxson would like to dedicate that touchdown to his Grandpa, Mike Meierhenry, on his 88th birthday, which he is celebrating today!" So, of course, everyone clapped and Mike grinned. But he told Jaxson later that he felt just like a celebrity.

On Saturday, as we watched the Huskers go down to defeat again, I could not help wishing that the quarterback had as much protection as Jaxson does! Those guys on the line know just what their assignments are. And Jaxson made a couple of neat passes, too, to his favorite receiver, Ben. So it was a fun day and a good game to see.

Elkhorn Valley has only 12 guys out for football, and one was injured! In spite of that, they never gave up. They have some good athletes, and they worked hard the whole game. In these small schools, a lot of guys play both ways. It takes guts!

A couple other teams we are watching this year are Centennial, where the QB and one of his receivers have been starting for four years. So far, they are unbeaten, and we have a hunch they will be meeting Norfolk Catholic in the state finals. Keep an eye out for them. York, last year's state champs, have already lost two games, but we still expect them to go far in the play offs.

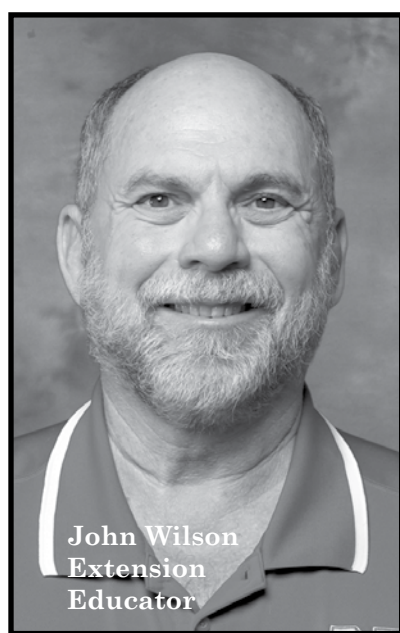

Another small school we like is Randolph, and they are unbeaten. That quarterback is the same age and grade as Jaxson, and we have known him since he was just a little kid. Actually, they are both still little kids to me; I have trouble believing they are old enough to be playing high school football! But they do make the games fun to watch; and we were glad it didn't rain Friday, and wasn't even windy! A fun day, for sure.

Now is the time to control noxious weeds

October is the best month of the year to control our three most common noxious weeds... leafy spurge, Canada thistle and musk thistle. This is the time of year when these plants build up food reserves in their roots for next year's growth. Herbicides applied at this time are also translocated to the roots, providing better control than when applied in the spring. Another advantage is many plants that might be injured by drift, but not noxious weeds, will be killed by a light frost.

Fall is always a good time to control noxious weeds as I stated earlier, but this year it will be a great time because recent rains will insure they are growing rapidly which makes them more susceptible to herbicides. Ideally, pick a day to treat them when the forecast high gets up to 70 degrees F or higher for a couple days after your treatment for the best control.

On any of these weeds, you will never get complete control with a single application, but fall is a good time to start your noxious weed control program. This may allow you to cut out or spot treat individual plants with a herbicide next spring. Even if you do a good job of control between fall and spring treatments, it is important to monitor the areas where noxious weeds were a problem because the seed may remain viable in the soil for several years.

John Wilson

Of the three noxious weeds mentioned, you need to treat leafy spurge right away. We've already missed part of the time when controls are effective in the fall (late September), but you can still get good control if treated in early October. Leafy spurge is not as tolerant of frost, so you need to be sure you treat it while there is still healthy green growth to absorb any herbicides you apply.

Next on your list for controlling should be Canada thistle. This perennial weed is the most difficult of the three to control. It may take repeated fall and spring applications. Canada thistle usually is found in patches because it spreads by underground "roots" called rhizomes as well as by seed. So when you spray a patch of Canada thistles, be sure to spray another 15-20 feet beyond the last plants in the patch you see to get any new shoots just coming up through the grass.

Musk thistle is the easiest of these three noxious weeds to control. It is easier to control because it has a two-year life cycle instead of coming up from roots year after year like leafy spurge or Canada thistle. The first year in its life cycle, musk thistles form a rosette that looks like a big prickly dandelion. In the second year, the rosette grows a little more in early spring and then it bolts, or sends up a flower stalk. After it is done flowering and the seed has been produced, the plant dies.

It is best if you control the rosettes in the fall and then treat any that survived next spring. It is harder to see the rosettes because they may be hidden by the grass. But if you had musk thistles last year, go back to the same areas and look for them. If they were allowed to mature, you may still find some dead flowering stalks to help you identify where rosettes might be growing.

You can treat musk thistles now and on into early November before the ground freezes. If you wait until later in the fall, your choice of effective herbicides becomes more limited. Different products are more effective on each of these weeds and even the time of application may make a difference in which product will work best for you.

Controlling noxious weeds is not a pleasant task and it may take you several years to really see a lot of improvement. However, the sooner you start, the sooner you will see success. So if you have noxious weeds on your farm, this fall would be a great time to start bringing them under control.

For more information on controlling noxious weeds, contact your local Nebraska Extension office or your county weed control superintendent.

The Easton World Archery Center in Yankton hosted the fifth annual NFAA Outdoor National Target Championships Sept. 15-16.

Archers from all over the country attended, including both professional and regular NFAA members. It was a two-day outdoor shoot featuring an NFAA 900 Round on Day 1 and an NFAA Classic 600 Round on Day 2 with a cash payout for professional archers.

On Saturday the five Wayne County Archers in attendance started with 30 arrows at 30 yards, then 30 arrows at 20 yards, and last 30 arrows at 10 yards.

According to Coach Eric Frye, "It was very hot and windy but they made adjustments to try to compensate and at the end of a very long day we had two in first place, one in third place, and two in sixth place. Sunday was also very hot and windy but the shooting started with 20 arrows at 10 yards and moved out to 20, then 30 yards. Luckily, the day was a bit shorter with shooting being done around 2 p.m. Equipment and weather were factors along with a whirlwind of activity at such a large event, but everyone there was very excited and surprised at how well a local group of kids held up at a national contest."

Carter Anson finished fourth in Male Cub Bowhunter, Alexis Frye finished sixth in Female Cub Freestyle, Brayden Lurz finished sixth in Male Cub Freestyle, Bryce Lurz finished as National Champion in Male Cub Bare Bow, and Bailey Lurz finished as National Champion in Female Cub Bare Bow.

Coach Frye said "I am very happy with how our kids finished with the weather and the long days. It's a great opportunity for them to get to compete at this level. All five finished within the top 6 of their divisions and we are all very proud."

Bailey Lurz, Bryce Lurz and Brayden Lurz.

How Soil Sampling Helps the Budget Process

Last week, I tried to help you understand how cutting back your crop removal rates would affect two things, your budget, and your yield. Throughout that entire discussion, I decided to simplify things; work under that assumption that we have consistent fertility needs across our entire field. Of course, that assumption is an oversimplification. We know that even on flat fields, there can be, and often is wide swings in soil fertility level. Whether from erosion, differences in cropping history, old farmstead locations, or a plethora of other reasons. So as we continue to be mindful about how we allocate our resources, we need to think about how and why we apply the rates we do. And the answer to those questions is intensive soil sampling.

Far too often, we tend to think about soil sampling as a line item expense. Something to do when times are good, but can be delayed when budgets are tighter. That couldn't be further from the truth, especially for those that are in their second, third, or even fourth cycle of soil sampling. I could talk about this all day in a superficial sense, or we could just get down to the numbers.

At CVA, we have a few choices in soil sampling types depending on where you are. Those choices include Grid or Zone Samples. On the Grid side, you can choose to pay in a single year, or over three years. With the three-year payment option, your cost per acre is about 1 bushel of corn at today's price for a re-grid or slightly little more for a new grid. On the Zone side, things are somewhat different because we sample every year in our four-year cycle, but for our Standard Lidar Zone we are about 1.3 bushels per acre, and for our advanced zones that use EC Data and RTK elevation, it is about 1.9 bushels per acre.

Now, of course, intensive soil sampling doesn't give us its full potential unless we use Variable Rate application to apply nutrients, so let's assume that we are going to Variable Rate Multiple Products and have a VR Prescription charge add as well. So we could have a re-grid package that costs us 1.9 bu/A per year to apply, up to an Advanced Zone package that was 2.75 bu/A per year. The real question becomes, how likely is it that intensive soil sampling and VR Fertilizer application will save me more than my 2.75 bushels max spend?

To find that answer, let's look at the International Plant Nutrition Institute. I have talked about them before as a resource to look at trends and averages when it comes to soil test levels. So I went ahead and queried the 2015 results for Nebraska, Iowa, and Kansas (far not as there was seldom more than a 2% difference in the average vs. any ones states values) for Phosphorus, Potassium, and pH.

When I look at Phosphorus, 17.4% of all the samples came in at or above 50 ppm. That means that levels would support less than full crop removal, and certainly in some instances no crop removal. 17.4% of our acres not needing Phosphate (on average) would equate to a 2 bushel per acre savings. Potassium has 24.3% of test over 320 ppm. There are many different philosophies on how to decide when and where to apply Potash, but I am confident that those acres would qualify for less than no crop removal. That 24.3% of acres on average not needing K would save us the equivalent of another 1.4 bu/A. When I look at pH, 43.4% of acres need no Lime application at this time. That would equate to an average savings of 3.5 bu/Acre.

So in just those three nutrient categories, you can see how the averages say the savings should be around 6.9 bu per acre, while sampling costs are between 1.9-2.8 bushels per acre. That of course pencils out to the average savings coming in over 4bu/A. This also is only looking at placing crop removal needs for maximum efficiency and minimum expense. Intensive soil sampling will also identify areas with deficiencies that are costing us yield due to low nutrient levels or low pH. Addressing those deviancies will undoubtedly also improve bottom-line performance.

The total samples for Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas the IPNI had reported to them for soil fertility values was almost 1.8 million in 2015. That, of course, means that these numbers may not hold true for every parcel of ground that you farm, but the overall trends should match up with your neighborhood. Throwing a full rate of crop removal out on every acre of your farm may still be the right thing to do in 2019, or it could be overkill. The only way we will know for sure is with a good soil sampling program. So please, keep this in mind as you work towards getting your crops out this fall, the averages say that not only is intensive sampling and VRT a good idea in these economic times, but averages say that your field is going to pay you to do it.
