Norfolk News—Illustrative of the basis on which the recent assessment in Madison county was made, a gentlemen said to The News the other day. "I own a farm which I value at each of the same amount as "my residence are three times -the amount of the taxes on my farm." It may be all right to assess town property higher than farm property on the theory that property in the same property of the taxes on the property of the farmers, able to pay taxes than the farmers, but it is not soon of in principle. Every resident in Madison county should have equally in the burlenne and privileges of citizenship.

Wisner Chronicle-Miss Mabel Peck, a voug lady of about 18, whose parents live on a farm not 4ar from Blair, where the Elkhorn track crosses a creek, was the means of saving a reight train during the rain storm of Saturday afternoon. She had accidently noticed that the flood had washed away a portion of the bridge over the creek, and she at ones went back on the track toward Blair to give warning to an approaching freight train, which she knew to be nearly due.

Elsa succeeded in stopping the train in real men. It was a very long freight grain, and the loss must have been treat but for the timely discovery and prompt action of the girl.

Emerson Era—Trustworthy ad ises from the Winnebago agency ad reservation show that a sufficien 30 more cames-being necessary on the paner which witness their consent to the sale of 000 acres adjoining town. Some of the Vinnebapore and some of the Omshas have epoken of selling all their land and going to she indimiteration, but it is not likely that any large proportion of them will ever be willing to go. The Wilmenbegoes the willing to go. The Wilmenbegoes that gree produces the selling area interest in their farming than ever before. They have more taking more interest in Company and have broken more prairie this spring than the will be the selling will be turned even followers of sad, a large part of sad, a large part of side a large part of side a large part of side as the selling into the working of affairs. Gen. Butler was recently asked how he was pleased with the administration. He replied: "Every American dition output to statistic persons of the same victors was statistic triumph. All of Harrison's amount ments are excellent. The only complaint that I hear is that the president does for remove the democrate fast snough. The rule which he has adopted, permitting capable political opposents to serve out their terms, sught to make him strong with the people. Harrison is all right." how he was pleased with the adminis-

This does not seem to be a good year for prohibition. Last week Pennsylvania refused by an overwhelm-ing majority to adopt a prohibitory amendment, and Rhode Island by a majority of six thousand greater than the necessary three-fifths, repealed the prohibition amendment that had been in force in that state sinc Following the decisive defeat of prohibition in New Hampsire the sult in these states indicates a gen f that the country is n ready for prohibition, and that a rigid license system will better control the liquor traffic.

Burnett made a business trip to Norfolk Monday evening.

W. H. McClusky made a busine trip to Kandolph last week.

Don't forget the western red cedar osts at McCluskey & Needham's.

There is liable to be a charivari, and cigars in Winside next week. Commissioner Carter has been to Wayne for the past week on business

Well boys we had a pleasant shave this week. That is away ahead of shaving yourself.

J. C. Marvin's house is completed and will be occupied in about 10

The smiling face of postmaster Miller looks at us through the brass bars of the new post office.

Art Fletcher, our liveryman, has purchased a fine new buggy to add to his livery. We will come out in style.

A little excitement was caused last Friday by the work train running off the track at the switch. No damage done.

done.

J. W. Tillson has just received a lot of fine buggies and curriages, and is just rustling the Champion binders to beat everything.

Now we have it and are sure to keep it. Something the people of Winside have long been in. In-need of, and that is a barber. J. E. Barnett, in Norfalk has opened a barber shop and pool room in the blue tront first door west of Dr. Cherry's drug store. He has a temperance bar and cigars.

And will not fall.

Wisside is again ahead and has the finest post office in the county. Our postmaster has purchased from the Yale Lock Co. a new set of call and lock boxes. It is a Beauty and an ornament to any town, and we are proud of it.

The school election in Harcock precinct resulted in the election of Perrin Long for treasurer. Wisside in using to have a school house, and don't you forget it.

We again have railroad men in town, this time bridge carpenters who are repairing the bridges in this sec-tion after raising the track.

Miss Wright, of Wayne, will be at Winside Fridays and Saturdays and aill give music lessons, piano or or-gan, to a limited number of pupils at able terms.

Our town is at present without care enters. Ireland & Hayes with then genters. Tream of Plays with their gang of men left here last Thursday to build four houses for H. N. Miller seven miles from Bandolph. They expect to be absent—about six weeks
