ALBERT TAKES THE PEER'S OATH

The Government Retreat in the Congress
— A New Batch of Carilians — An Opinion on Silver Legislation in America —
The African Deal.

LONDON, June 24. — Sir Percy Anderson is receiving great credit here for his success in the negotiations with Germany. There is still, however, an unsettled factor in the adjustment of the African question which causes no little anxiety to official minds, and that is, what the people of Natal will do when the chief and people of that country claim a title and no doubt a British subject. The people now in any circumstances, helpless savages, but much further advanced in the arts, both of war and peace, than the adjoining tribes and, should they be used for general purposes, submit to Germany, they would put that empire to the expense of a costly war, and the unsuccessful result of this way they will have the sympathy of a good share of the English people, especially those of the aristocracy, in the company which was recently obtained through the influence of Strömberg certain rights in Natal, which the British government now proposes to sacrifice, as it is sacrificing the rights of the inhabitants of Heligoland. The exemption from military service for twenty years for the people of Heligoland is not affording much consolation to the residents of that island, who will and their creditors, and that they term the surrender of a free British colony to German despotism.

The Duke of Cleverly.

LONDON, June 24. — The house of lords was filled with papers and other privileged persons on the occasion of the administration of the poor's oath to the newly created Duke of Clarence (Prince Albert Victor of Wales). The queen's message to the lords, formally announcing the restoration of the duke to the throne, and establishing his status in the peerage, was read in the presence of the duke. It is noted that he takes precedence after the Duke of Comaunt, the Duke of Devon, and the Duke of Devon, in this order.

A Government Retreat.

LONDON, June 24. — In the house of commons Sir James Ferguson stated that information of the intention of England to resume the protection of Zululand had been sent to the government of France. The note had not reached Mr. Ribot when parliament met on Saturday.

What the Heligolanders Want.

BERLIN, June 24. — The inhabitants of Heligoland are reported to fear that the Germans will build a permanent fortification which will destroy the summer resort, and the health of the inmates who come here in large numbers. The island is owned by the British government and Germany will not erect fortifications there without consulting England.

President Menendez Dies.

SAN SALVADOR, June 24. — President Menendez died suddenly Sunday night as a result of the contraction of a fever. During the past week he had been suffering from a fever, and several other officers were killed at the battle of Cerro. The leader of the revolution is now in command. All is quiet at present.

An Opinion on Proposed Silver Legislation.

The Strikes. June 24. — Mr. Blair of Loveland, in answer to the views of the silver question, writes that while the American silver bill will injure the cause of international friendship, but neither a political nor a financial loss.

American Capitalists and British Bankers.

Local. June 24. — A syndicate of American capitalists and British bankers has been formed with Mr. J. G. Galt as chairman, for the purpose of buying the iron works of the principal American cities. The capital of the syndicate has been $1,000,000 and the company will shortly be floated.

AN ILLINOIS CENTRAL STRIKE.

Thirty-five Freight Crows and Teams Dressed to Quarrel.

CHICAGO, June 24. — Thirty-five freight crews, each comprising a conductor and two brakemen, carrying men from Illinois and Iowa divisions of the Illinois Central railroad, struck to secure the dismissal of the division superintendent E. G. Russell and the reinstatement of Oliver Berry and L. E. Pruby, reinstater and assistant treasurer, respectively. The men, who have been on strike since last August, have discharged men without cause and has acted as a sportsman with respect to the men who are evening tenders. The strike was precipitated by Russell's interference with sending out freight crews last Friday. A committee from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Superintendant Caldwell. The superintendent was willing to reinstate Trummer but discharged by superintendent Russell. The men demand the reinstatement of the two men. The men will not yield, however, and the strike will continue. The men still. The strikers, however, permitted four trains bearing perishable goods to pass, so that it might be caused.

The Mahoning pit to get below the fire where the men may be found.

Fire in a Penitentiary.

BRIDGEVILLE, June 24. — The upper portion of the work-shop of the Rigoo penitentiary, which cost $20,000, was blown up a loss on the building of $30,000. Contractors interested in the work being done on the contract were not there. Over 60 prisoners were at work in the workshop when the fire was discovered. They made an attempt to escape and were taken to the main building and locked up in their cells without trouble. THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1920.

In the course of a column article on the court house the Watchman makes that statement that the vaults in which the records are kept are airtight. If Bro. Panabaker will just take a look at those vaults the next time he is in Wayne he will see that he is mistaken. The vaults are not airtight at every time it rains, the water runs in, when it rains the wind blows through them. The doors do not fit and will not close, and can not be locked, and if the court house should burn the chances are ten to one that every county record would be totally destroyed.

Among those who are spoken of for representative to congress from this district, it is likely that the wisest course would be to elect the nearest neighbor, Hon. Gen. W. E. Dorey. Judge Norris is not a candidate, and would not have it if it was tendered to him.

To above is from an article in the Ponca Journal, and coming from Judge Norris' home paper it might be supposed that the reference to him is by authority. It is not, however, and is in no way countenanced by Judge Norris. While it is known that he is not a candidate, and will make no effort to secure the nomination at this time, to state that he positively would not accept a nomination if it was tendered to him, is placing him in a false position. As we have before stated, it might be that the judge would not particularly wish the nomination this year, but we do not believe that he would feel justified in refusing it if tendered to him. The people in the Journal is that while it does not wish to take the position of openly opposing Judge Norris, it is a matter of right not very friendly to him and does not wish him nominated.

The W. C. P. U. column is after us again. Now we had no idea, and certainly did not intimate that it was the prohibitionists who violated the liquor law in Wayne last year, nor that they consumed any of the liquor which some of them certainly did that stands in the line. The article referred to a local condition, and simply stated; what everyone who knows anything about the matter at all, knows is true; that Wayne was less progressive last year than in any other in its history, with fewer public and private improvements, with as much or more drunkenness, and much more violation of the law. It was not a question of who did the things the liquor companies do, but whether they were due. In this particular instance they invited a comparison, and got it. Now, one thing more. The uttering of moral blunders, which are unimportant, and which every one endorses, no more proves that prohibition is practical, or effective, or desirable, than it proves that the moon is made of green cheese. Of course all men should obey the law; but that is no argument that prohibition should be enacted. Of course all men should be good citizens and live up to all the requirements of the moral code, but that has nothing to do with the question of prohibition. The only question is as to whether high license or prohibition is the better method of dealing with the liquor traffic, and it is nonsense to say that a man is dishonest, or in favor of intemperance, or bad government, or that he is in sympathy with the vicious or criminal element of society because he adopts one view and opposes the other.

A red ribbon club at Lincoln is hunting sobriety by appointing Francis Murphy and awarding any temperance worker who refuses to work for prohibition. There are lots of people in the world who believe that a man can't possibly be good unless he's good their way. It isn't a pretence on their part; either, they actually believe it. They can't help it; they don't know any better.

Upon killing him it was found to be a large blue snake, one of the most venomous serpents in existence, and the first one ever killed in Nebraska.

The hail storm last Sunday night was very severe. Chris Thomson lost 30 acres of oats, a lot of millet and about 100 acres of corn badly damaged. A number of other farmers have lost good heavily. Hail peeled the cotton-wood trees and mowed the grass to the ground. The stone fell so thick and fast that they killed 40 turkeys for Mr. Thompson.

The Great Slugger Held for Prize Fighting.

A SENSATION IN D. P. CIRCLES.

Thirty McElhenny, the Late Purchasing Agent of the Frank, secured the Halfway War—discussing the Lottery—Warring Street Ballgame.

PERTUS, Miss, June 24.—The Grand Jury found an indictment against Sullivan for prize fighting. It will be called on today and a day fixed for trial. A petition to Judge Terrell is being numerously signed by leading citizens praying that a fine, without imprisonment, be imposed upon Sullivan.

Mike Donagan was also indicted for aiding and abetting a prize fight.

Thirty McElhenny.

OMAHA, June 24.—Late Saturday evening, Judge Kelly, general attorney of the Union Pacific, filed a petition in the clerk's office of the federal circuit court instituting suit against Ches. H. McElhenny, late purchasing agent of that company, for $50,000 which it is alleged belongs to that company, and which he has deprived of by unlawful means.

The suit was instituted after the claim had been obtained through fraudulent purchases of transfer from G. H. Barnes & Co. of St. Louis. At that time the suit was filed against the property that McElhenny was known to possess.

McElhenny is now in the custody of the First and Third States National banks, a new house valued at $12,500 in the erection on Love avenue, and let at the corner of Georgia avenue and Hickory street, some furniture and fixtures in Council Bluffs. Many other alleged crooked transactions have been cleared up, but McElhenny says he had not been able, as yet, to secure sufficient proof to justify him in bringing suit for a greater amount than that last alleged referred to.

The Croker Investigation.

New York, June 24.—The croker investigation Mr. Croker stated that to Florence Croker, the first $5,000 had led to the house about a year without drawing interest. She had a check for $5,000 which was given it was decided to drop the property on Oak street and Fortieth street for Florida. Mr. Croker said he had not shared in the returns of the register's, county clerk, or sheriff's office. He had not asked Register Kelly, nor subsequently Register Steward, to contribute to the investigation. He could not remember what Hewitt, Whitaker, Grant, Bookkeeper, or others had paid into Treasury but he did not know that the gamblers or liquor dealers had contributed.

Frank's conviction. In regard to the superior court judge, he said, "I should not be the administrator of the law, but that I should not be a judge."

He admitted recommending Thomas's resignation, but said he was not a member of the committee. This ended Mr. Croker's examination.

A check was called and said it was not true, as McElhenny had testified that Mr. Croker had been ordered to go for when going to Europe. She said neither law—she had a check for $5,000. Mr. Croker had given them $23,000.

She never heard Mr. Grant speak of his obligations to her. When the money was paid to Florence, she had $20,000 and sent it to her—she said until it was repaid. The committee then returned until Wednesday, when Mr. Croker's mother will be called.

Discussing the Lottery.

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 24.—The State's Baton Rouge special says: The lottery money was discussed in the house. Mr. Harter, the lottery, made a speech in which he referred to the bitterness of the fight on the question, saying he had been threatened throughout by those who ought to be his friends. He referred to the charges of corruption made against members, and said that there should be no more demands that the lottery be sold or sold to settled in a Democratic caucus, but that he was not willing to be bound but was willing to meet gentlemen in the other side in an effort to settle this matter in a friendly spirit.

Mr. Harris said he had no objection to Mr. Harter's view without his knowledge and he would be sent up to the clerk's desk and he had read. It said that if the lottery was sold by the legislature to the people he would advance $1,000,000 in 1880 to leave building and repairing in all different parts of the state the same in 1891.

Warring Street Railway Companies.

HELENA, Mont., June 24.—Main street was the scene of a lively railroad war at the city council's expense. The board granted a franchise to Col. Broadwater to extend his electric street car line by Main street. The franchise exists which was granted to Wallace and Thornburgh about two years ago. The latter have no time to work whatever. Broadwater's men started the work on the extension from both ends simultaneously. Wallace got the move by hiring a force of laborers and starting from the center of the proposed line. Laboring men were offered $2 an hour. Wallace's people are being frustrated by the city council for Judge J. L. Hunt, who granted an injunction against Broadwater who, giving bonds, continued work and is presently laying his tracks. No violence in the carrying out of the injunction, but the courts for adjudication.

At It Again.

FORT DODGE, Ia., June 24.—Frank Cobby, of mind pipe form, whose opinion of the prohibition law made his name famous all over the state is now engaged in the original package business in a wholesale way at Milwaukee, Wis., and is said to be the largest business of the kind in the state.

A Franco-British Alliance.

BRUSSELS, June 24.—The report of the Franco-Russian alliance is confirmed by the Magdeburg Zeitung.

By All Odds

The most generally used medicine is Ayer's Pills. It is a remedy for the various diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels. These pills have cured their sufferer's cases, then not only to be easy and pleasant to take, but preserve their health.

Ayer's Pills

prose effective.

In the summer of 1884 I was sent to the Annapolis hospital with chronic diarrhea. While there, I became so reduced that I could not get up and was compelled to write everything I wanted to say. I was then having some 20 or 25 pills per day. The doctors ordered a medicine that I was satisfied would be of no benefit to me. I did not take it, but purchased my pills to get some of Dr. Ayer's Pills. About the middle of the afternoon I took six of these pills, and by midnight bed felt better. In the morning the doctors came again, and after discussing my symptoms were more favorable, gave me a different medicine, which I did not take, but took four more of the pills, and the next day the doctors came to see me, and I then took more pills a day or two—after that of this time I considered myself cured and that Ayer's Pills had saved my life. Mr. Jackson of Toledo, Ohio, has written me, and said he had taken Ayer's Pills, and had cured his chronic diarrhea, and said he had taken Ayer's Pills, and had cured his chronic diarrhea.

The Best

I have ever used for headaches, and they will be a charm in relieving any disagreeable symptoms in the stomach after eating.

—Mrs. M. J. Ferguson, Pullman, Va.

"I have used your pills for many years, and find no better relief until I commenced taking your pills. They have cured my chronic headache." —George W. Moorey, Walla Walla, Wash. Doing nicely (and so did I).
