NICHOLLS' NERVE.

Louisiana's Governor Vetoes the Lottery Bill.

And denounces the measure as bringing disgrace to the State by making her a participant in a private gambling scheme—His earnest words of warning.

The Lottery Bill Vetoes.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 8.—Governor Nicholls vetoes the lottery bill. The governor says that the persistent efforts that have been made to present Louisiana as a paragon, and the charge that she is unable to do so through her own legitimate resources, to sustain and carry out the duties of her statehood, are without foundation. The reports of the board of administrators, which show various charitable and educational and other educational institutions, and those of the committees of this very general assembly sent to examine into the situation and condition of these institutions, all show the state never, since the 15th year, in better condition than she is at present. He says that the bill is a law of proterity, suddenly the Dark Shadow of a Deep Disgrace is thrown across her path, and the honor of Louisiana, maintained in the past and in the future, by the patriotic and patriotic men, living and dead, is to be tarnished forever, her position among her sister states, the respect which she has ever, been, exalted and justly proud, but in the first as the deprecatory notice in a gambling corporation, designed, organized and to be carried out, not for her good or her advancement, but, as she says, the selfish interests of a handful of men, many of them connected with the dark days of the reconstruction period. If, repeat, it is for them and to them, we are not to be deceived.

Our Highlight for a Mass of Follies. Who are the six unnamed men who are to join with a seventh and known one, to constitute the lottery company? How comes it that we are not informed of their identity and established to know their antecedents and fix their records? There is a world of meaning in this respect, the one most trifling detail, a man seek to know with whom they deal.

Slow comes it that, in a matter of this importance, the general assembly has been willing up to now to close his eyes and move blindly in the dark. I call upon the legislature, therefore, to take timely that step and plunge this state into unfeeling trouble. If there is nothing

Significant in the vote by which this bill has passed? The executive veto of such a bill is nothing less significant in 125 votes of the house and thirty-four of the votes of the senate by which the bill has passed? Is not the fact that the majority was reached? Is not the fact that the bill has passed? To me it most certainly is. I say to this general assembly in its earnestness that should this measure be passed we will enter a period of strife such as has never been seen before in Louisiana, and should

The content of a proposition ever be formed, we will enter upon an era of corruption and degradation beside which the era of reconstruction will appear as an hour of happiness, and let me say to you that should this measure be adopted and carried out, fifty opinion, no good will ever come of the money which we will receive as the price of our honor and our liberty. Extravagance, profligacy and corruption will necessarily follow the receipt as might follow day.

PLUNGE OF ICE.

The St. Paul Dealers Think There Should be No Fear of a Plunge.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 8.—The refusal of the St. Paul ice dealers to consider the proposition of St. Louis parties for the purchase of the stocks has placed the Twin Cities beyond possible danger of being caught in any corner which their St. Louis people may succeed in creating elsewhere. Manager Zimmerman of the People's Ice company, said that his company has no stock, and that every pound of low now being in the ice-house here has already been sold for a price beyond that which will be realized under the supply contracts which bind the company to St. Paul merchants and hotelkeepers for a stated price, irrespective of the condition of the market. The proposition offered that there was a shortage in the association of ice and that a famine was imminent had, he said, no foundation in fact, as the company he represented had cut 70,000 tons of ice for St. Louis, Chicago, and other outside parties, after putting up its own surplus with a heavy surplus.

President's Salaries. Providence, R. I., July 8.—The House of Representatives has expired twenty days ago pending the decision of the Senate upon the bill providing for new pay for the proprietors were allowed to keep their places open. Yesterday evening an order was given for every unexpired place to close its doors at once, and it was several unexpired places of vacant and protracted. Scores of salaries are now closed.

Atchison, Kan., July 8.—Howell, the wholesale lumber firm of this city, will try experimental farming in Woods county, Kan., this fall. They have 7,000 acres of raw prairie in the Solomon Valley, and they will put it all in wheat. They have a contract for the seed, and now advertise for 500 teams to break the land at 41 an acre. It will cost $1,000 to put in the crop.

MILITIA AND REGIMENTS.

CAMP DODGERS, Wis., July 8.—Six companies of the Third infantry, U. S. A., from Fort Snelling, Minn., under command of Col. Zebulon M. Mason, are in camp here with the Third regiment, Wisconsin National Guard, commanded by Col. Moore of Wisconsin. The regiments will remain till Aug. 1.

A CORRESPONDENT'S IMAGINATION.

The Origin of a Story That Told of Approaching War.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A story was published in Washington and in leading afternoon papers in other parts of the country to the effect that the negotiations between the state department and the British minister for a settlement of the Behring sea difficulty had come to an abrupt close, and that Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, had just been ordered to leave the city. The story was picked up by the American press, and several sensational articles flying the British flag, the British fleet now anchored in the harbor of New York, and the British minister, had been ordered to leave the city. The story was picked up by the American press, and several sensational articles flying the British flag, the British fleet now anchored in the harbor of New York, and the British minister, had been ordered to leave the city.

The story probably originated with the minister. From the fact that Secretary Blaine is out of the city, and his absence was for so long a time, it was generally understood between us, however, that I should believe Mr. Blaine at New Harbor and continue to give force there. It was my intention to forego Washington for Magnolia, Mass., where I had a short stay. I was at New Harbor, but I find that business will not permit of a longer stay. The treasury department has ordered revenue cutters to capture pirates. The Canadian minister said, however, not figure at all in the matter. If matters had reached such a crisis, the minister would have been very probable that the United States government would send such small vessels to the coast.

The Burglary Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Mr. Bates, from the committee on agriculture and forestry, reported to the senate the views of the majority of the committee on the substitution of food-stuff on the majority of the bill. He said that the purpose of the bill was to extend the law back as far as the time of Henry VIII. They quote the report of the English minister of revenue on the failure in that country of a law very similar to the one which is now before the senate. "The bill under consideration," says the minister, "is a measure which will do away with an evil in that country which it creates. The loss of revenue will be more than made up by the increase of the tax on the sale of the produce." The report, "will be more successful as a party measure than as a public benefit."

Random Demands from China.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—In the absence of Secretary Blaine and Assistant Secretary Wharton, of the state department, Second Assistant Secretary Adams said that the note of the Chinese minister, dated the 17th of the month, stated that the Chinese government had recently made a formal demand in respect of the Chinese exclusion act, as outlined in a published interview with the Chinese minister. He said that the Chinese minister had, in the absence of the secretary, to obtain any verification of the nature of the demand.

Missouri Boatmen Have Opened at Independence, Mo.

MISSOURI, July 8.—The opening of the sixteenth annual convocation of the Knights of Pythias was devoted to the receipt of the reports of the various camps of the supreme lodge, officials and visiting lodges, and division of the uniformed ranks of the order. The ceremony was held at Camp Carleton. It is estimated that 17,000 uniformed knights are in the city. The weather is very warm, with an occasional breeze.

A Big Raft for St. Joseph.

New York, July 8.—The immense raft of logs which James D. Leary was having towed to this city from St. John, N. H., has been somewhat broken up by the waves and has been towed into Portland harbor for repairs. Mr. Leary's intention was to secure the raft, and bring it to its destination directly up and through the locks.

Special Election Fixed.

Providence, R. I., July 8.—Judge James held a short session and adjourned without making any orders in the special election held on the 10th of July. It is thought if any decision will be given for full time.

COMING WORK

WHAT THE HOUSE BRANCH WILL BEYOND WITH.
Entered Election Cases, Original Package, etc., etc.
Auditors Authority-Expediting the Opening Over Admission-The Original Package Substitute Bill-The Fourth in Washington.

THE Congressional Programme.
WASHINGTON, July 6.—From this time forward the house will devote itself to the settlement of contested election cases (the original package, the auditors authority, the expediting measures which have passed the senate). The work of the house is virtually done for this session, aside from conference work on the tariff and silver.

THE republican members will devote their time to carrying out the order of business in view of a clash between the tariff and the river and harbor bills. It is expected that the election bill shall follow river and harbor, silver and the tariff, no one can estimate the length of the session of the tariff bill. The tariff bill, however, but it is thought that the tariff bill shall go over the top.

THE original package substitute bill.
WASHINGTON, July 5.—The friends of the proposed substitute for the original package bill reported by the house judiciary committee expect to call that measure next week and hope to pass it by the end of the session. The substitute that he fears that it is unnecessarily wide in its scope, and it is said that Speaker Reed favors only a measure restricted to intoxicating liquors. The bill measures with considerable objection to the measure.

ATKINS, N. Y., July 6.—William Kemmer, the Buffalo murderer, left here at 7 a. m. in charge of Warden Durston and Keeper Mike Naughton for Buffalo, where he was to be executed by electrocution. The murderer's appearance has not changed noticeably since his last trip to Buffalo, and he apparently less "concerned than his guards. He will return to prison to remain there until the 31st of the month.

IT WAS 2:05 o'clock when Officer Daniel MacNaughton led Kemmer into the appearance court. Judge Childs entered a few minutes later. Warden Durston took a seat within the courtroom. The murderer was dressed in a most garb, suit and carried a natty black derby hat. His dark-brown mustache, thick, thick, short and black, was very prominent and the white man was doing everything in his power to teach the negro to work out the problem of the time would soon come when the negro, being educated as the white man was, would be able to take care of himself both as a taxpayer and as a citizen. Speeches were made by Messrs. Hoik, Coleman, Burrows, Chipman, and others. The court adjourned at 11 o'clock.

IN THE SENATE on the 31st Mr. Morgan introduced a bill providing that no person shall enter any public lands in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah or other territory which is a big game preserve or where there are game animals, or where there are game animals, or where there are game animals, or where there are game animals.

THE JUDGE continued, he had hoped the long delay had given the prisoner time for deliberation on the enormity of his offense and the justice of his punishment. "All the court now has to do is that the sentence be carried out as soon as possible." A moment's pause, and then: "No, sir."
