So far as the Merchant's Carnival and Mrs. Wagner are concerned, THE HERALD carries very little. We subscribed $1.50, thinking it was for the benefit of the ladies' aid society, as we had no other reason for subscribing, and we paid the cash as we did not share in the printing. We got bit, but had the choice of biting or letting it alone. Of the particulars concerning the transaction we know very little, and are glad of it. It's past.

OLD COURT HOUSE BONDS.

A great many of the farmers of Wayne county have the idea that the old court house bonds amounting to $15,000 are unpaid, but that everyone interested may know the exact condition we have taken pains to investigate the matter. We find that $12,500 of the bonds have been paid and cancelled and that the money is on hand to pay the remaining $2,500 as soon as presented. Therefore the bonds may be said to be paid, as the $2,500 remaining unpaid does not draw interest since falling due. Hence our citizens in the eastern portion of the county will certainly not vote against the new court house bond question on this account. We hope the farmers will be just in the matter and do the right thing. Wayne will do her share after the bonds carry.

SHOT TO KILL.

Sunday's Omaha Bee contains a vivid account of the shooting of Miss Iola Childs, a former Wayne girl. Miss Childs had been cashier in the Bishop restaurant on Capital Avenue in the city for about a year, and it seems that Mrs. Bishop, wife of the proprietor, had become jealous of Miss Childs, thinking the latter was receiving too much attention from her husband. For some time this jealousy had existed, but did not break out in all its madness until Saturday night, when Mrs. Bishop, in walking past the restaurant noticed her husband trying to console Miss Childs, who seemed greatly agitated over some matter. When Miss Childs, accompanied by her sister, left the restaurant for home, Mrs. Bishop followed her to the corner of 16th street and shot her in the back of the head. The girl fell to the walk and the enraged woman stepped up and emptied every chamber of her revolver at her intended victim, none of which took effect, however. Two other persons were hit by flying bullets, but neither were seriously wounded.

Miss Childs was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, where the bullet which fractured the skull but had not entered the brain, was removed, and it is thought she will recover. Mrs. Bishop was at once arrested and her only regret seemed to be that she had not killed her intended victim.

A BLINDING BLIZZARD.

The oldest inhabitant is compelled to go back of the calendar in search of a worse snow storm than that which visited this section Monday and Tuesday, in the month of October. It is true the thermometer did not register very low, but the wind pushed the damp snow through everything and made it as disagreeable for pedestrians as it well could be, tied up business, delayed the trains, stuck the Norfolk train in a drift near Hoskins, which was dug out in time to arrive in Wayne Tuesday evening. Conductor Luce brought the Bloomfield train in on time Tuesday morning, and then made the run to Edmerson and returned in place of the Black Hills passenger, but did not return to Bloomfield until Wednesday morning. Although the storm was severe the weather was not cold enough to cause much loss of life to stock.

"HOW DO YOU LIKE IT."

A few weeks ago a short item appearing in THE HERALD, in response to an item in the Coleridge Blade, should have read "Many of the fusion leaders here," etc., but it was made to read through an oversight of the proof reader, "Most of the fusionists here," referring to their paying their obligations, and because it so read the Blade which draws its subsistence and inspiration from the fusion teat of Cedar county, made a great ado about it. However, such fusion sheets as the Blade and Stanton Register never tire of calling republicans thieves and liars other names because a couple of state officials violated their trusts. Of course that is not "slandering one's neighbors," but it is a terrible thing for republican newspapers to come back at these trifling anything sheets and give them a dose of their own medicine. Nevertheless, these two papers and others of like ilk, are respectfully referred to the following articles which show the same of the fusion defaming officials. How do you like the mess, anyhow?

"To show that the claim of 'holier than thou,' made by the fusionists, rests on a sham foundation, it is only necessary to print a partial list of the popocratic bounty treasurers who have been 'paid' the hands of their former employers in the last eight years. The quantities mentioned below are only a few of the many in the same condition in the state, but the list will prove an eye opener to the people who are inclined to believe many of the things said by the reformers in their speeches."

County.	Popocrat's Shortage.
Stanton.....	$ 9,800
Howard.....	17,000
Platte.....	30,000
Custer.....	15,000

Sheridan.....	25,000
Keith.....	5,000
Keith.....	9,000
Harlan.....	13,124
Hamilton.....	6,500
Gosper.....	5,000

Total.....$170,384

This is only a partial list, but many of them are aggravated cases, and the indications are that the pilfering officials stole all they could. In Platte county the treasurer was a banker, related to Senator Allen, and connected closely with the Platte county ring that now has so many representatives drawing salaries from the state. When the shortage was discovered the judge, county attorney and other officials were popocrats, and no move was made to prosecute the defaulter. The part of the money owing to the county has since been paid up by the bondsmen, but a little over $13,000 is still due the state. A popocratic attorney general has been in office nearly two years, and instead of prosecuting the defaulter, appears to be protecting him on account of his high political and family relations.—Journal

One of the most remarkable lectures now before the American public is Dr. J. P. D. John's famous reply to Col. Ingersoll, "Did Man Make God or Did God Make Man." Judging from the Associated Press accounts as well as from the lengthy and flattering notices given this lecture by the Metropolitan Press, we infer that no reply to Col. Ingersoll has ever met with the universal favor that has been accorded this production. We copy the following editorial from the Chicago Inter Ocean: "Dr. J. P. D. John, ex-president of De Pauw university, made a great point in the courtesy with which he treated the great Agnostic, in his reply at Steinway Hall last night. Mere abuse of Col. Ingersoll counts for no more than Col. Ingersoll's tongue lashings count against the Christian religion, but the Colonel is disarmed when an opponent meets him in the spirit of courtesy and fairness." Dr. John will deliver this great lecture in Wayne on the evening of Oct. 25th at the M. E. church.

FOR A NEW COURT HOUSE!

A Few Arguments from the Pen of H. H. Moses.

To the Editors and publishers of our county papers. It will probably be remembered that several months ago I wrote an article on the court house subject which was published in your papers, and in which I called the attention of the residents and property owners of Wayne county to the extreme danger to our titles by keeping the records and files of the county, in the building now used for county purposes. I again ask the privilege of talking to your readers through your papers on the same subject.

It should be remembered that many years ago a certain gentleman donated to the county one of the most valuable and eligible blocks in the town of Wayne for a court house site. This donation however was upon the expressed condition that a court house should be erected on the lot on or before the year 1902. Unless this condition is complied with by the county the title to the lot will revert to the donors, and all improvements made on it will be lost to the county. It takes considerable time to go through all the forms required by law to get a public building of this character started and considerable time to complete it and its progress is liable to repeated delays, caused by inability to procure the necessary materials on short notice. The time is now so short that ordinary prudence demands, that no time shall now be lost. Have the voters of the county considered the loss to the county if the condition is not complied with? In the judgement of some of the most experienced real estate dealers of Wayne that block is to-day worth five thousand dollars. The jail erected thereon by the county is worth one thousand dollars at the lowest estimate.

Will you tax payers through indifference and stupidity allow this six thousand dollars to be lost? It is almost one quarter of the cost of a good commodious court house.

There is however a danger far exceeding any one of those, to which I have not yet called to your attention. The building now occupied for county purposes is dangerous to the persons and lives of those who occupy the rooms, and those who go there on business. I am told by those who now perform official duties as well as by those whose terms of office have expired that in times of high winds the top of the building will swing from north to south fully one foot and its appearance is so alarming that the occupants of the offices leave for safety. This action is constantly drawing and loosening the nails and spikes and every day making the building less safe. Again the joice above on which rests the floor of the court room are so light that when ever there is quite a number of people in the room the joice so sag that the ceiling below opens sufficient to let a man's finger into the cracks. In such condition if there should be an alarm of fire or any thing else which should cause a stampede the extraordinary force caused by a rush of all to reach the outside of the building, would undoubtedly cause the floor to go down on the heads of those below, and in cold weather, when fire is in the stoves, the old timber box would certainly take fire, and we would have a holocaust fearful to contemplate. Suppose you say to yourself, I'll not be among the cremated because I will keep away from the old "rattle trap," you can hardly be indifferent to the suffering of others especially if you contributed to cause the injuries by your neglect of those duties which belong to you as a citizen and property owner. But this is not all, Jurors and witnesses are compelled by processes issued from court to attend at trial in the court rooms. The officers are compelled to perform their official duties in the offices furnished by the county. And can there be any doubt as to the moral and legal obligation of the county to furnish a safe court room and safe offices? And if instead, the county furnishes notoriously unsafe places can there be any doubt that the county is guilty of the grossest kind of negligence. Is it not, in fact, criminal negligence. And further more if some persons should suffer injuries through this gross neglect, is it not pretty certain that Wayne county would have some pretty lively law suits on its hands. While I was practicing law I was attorney for several years of a rail road company and defended it in a large number of cases brought against the company for injuries caused by the negligence of the company, and many large judgements were recovered against it. One case I now have in mind where an engineer brought an action for personal injuries and on the first trial he recovered a verdict for twenty five thousand dollars. We got the court to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial. On the next trial the jury returned a verdict for twenty seven thousand dollars, and the court would not disturb the verdict and the company paid the same with all the costs. If the tax payers of Wayne county should have a few of such judgements saddled upon them, would it not be pretty certain that they would come to the conclusion that in neglecting to furnish a safe building for the transaction of the county business they had been "penny wise, and pound foolish." I apprehend that some one will say these things which you mention are mere contingencies, they may never happen.

The building may never take fire, or if it does they may be time to remove the records and other valuables. The building may never collapse or if it does it may be when there are no persons in there. The court room may never be so full as to cause the floor to go down. In nearly every instance when corporations have been mulcted in damages for neglect to do that which ought, to have been done, they reasoned in the same way. An instance now occurs to mind. There was a defection brake on a freight car. The company being short of cars at that point, wanted very much to use that car. The yard master thought that as there would be other cars on the train with sound brakes, the brake on this one would probably not be used or if used it might not give way, or if it did give way no injuries would result. But all these contingencies did happen. The brake was used; it gave way, and for that cause the brakeman was thrown from the car and received injuries for which the company paid him damage more than the car was worth. I might mention other cases that occurred in my practice but this is sufficient to show that it does not pay to run chances when it puts in jeopardy the lives and limbs of people.

The commissioners realizing the expense and inconvenience of transacting the county business in this old building and the danger to files, records and human life from its continued use, have taken the necessary steps to submit to you voters whether the funds shall be provided to build a court house. The responsibility is now with you. The sum to be raised for the purpose is no more than is required to build a good safe commodious court house suitable for the transaction of the public business without unnecessary or useless ostentation. If the house is built with this sum, every dollar in it will be as much to the benefit of the most remote resident of the county, as to any citizen of Wayne. There is no question upon which the vote of this county will pass at the coming election, of more importance to him than this one of building a court house. Each voter should therefore determine in his mind, that whether he votes for any thing else, he will vote for providing the wherewith to build a court house. And furthermore, every thoughtful man should make it his business to remind his neighbor of it, and see that he does not forget to vote on this matter and to vote right.

H. H. MOSES.

NOTICE OF ELECTION TO VOTE BONDS FOR COURT HOUSE.

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1898, at the general election held in the County of Wayne, in the State of Nebraska, there will be submitted to the vote of the people of said county the following proposition:

"Shall the County of Wayne, in the State of Nebraska, by its Board of County Commissioners, issue its negotiable coupon bonds in the amount of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), of the denomination of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) each, to be dated December 1st, 1898, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. (5 per cent.) per annum, interest payable semi-annually on June 1st and December 1st of each year. The principal of said bonds to be due in installments as follows: Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) December 1st, 1904, and Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($250.00) the first day of December annually thereafter, to and including December 1st, 1913, until the full amount paid; the principal and interest payable at State of Nebraska Fiscal Agency in the city of New York, for the purpose of the construction, erection and completion of a Court House at the county seat of said county, upon Block Two (2), Crawford & Brown's addition to the town of Wayne, known as the "Court House Block," for County purposes and all the amount for which said Court House may be legally used."

"And shall said Board of County Commissioners, or other officers charged with the levying and collection of taxes, levy annually a tax as provided by law, in addition to all other taxes, sufficient to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as the same becomes due and payable, and appropriate the money realized from the sale of said bonds for the construction and completion of such Court House?"

Carried Down Stream. When a man enters a new and difficult place in his working career, spurring all his energies to accomplish some critical passage in his business journey, and only finds his health giving way and feels himself sinking in the current of disease, then it is the time when the marvelous rejuvenating properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will prove an unfailing means of rescue and restoration.

It is a very simple though eminently scientific medicine. It is not a mere stimulant like so many malt extracts, restores healthy power by reviving the nutrient sources of vitality in the nutritive system. It causes the blood to be purified, blood-making organisms to manufacture good blood abundantly and rapidly, so that the waste of disease and nerve fiber entailed by hard labor, or other a speedy upbuilding of fresh energy and strength.

A prominent and venerable Illinois physician, Dr. J. C. G. of New York, Adams Co., writing to Dr. Pierce, says: "I send herewith thirty-one (31) cents in stamps for 'The People's Common Sense Medical Advice' in the form of a book. With this postage for so valuable a work I am glad to give you my high appreciation of the vast amount of good that you have rendered the public. A correct measure of your usefulness here has been, and never will be estimated by the public; no, not even by the multitude of afflicted humanity that has been relieved and cured by your medicine. Whenever I go or have been in the United States, I have never been without it, and am using Dr. Pierce's medicines with satisfaction, for all conditions for which they are recommended. Never in my life have I seen so often their good effects, I am also enticed with confidence in their action, and I am confident, for which they are recommended, is not common for regular physicians to endorse and recommend. I have no equivocation or hesitancy in so saying. The quick constipation cure - Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets - never advised."
