Free Cooking School Set Friday

On stage demonstrations of food preparation and cooking, valuable door prizes, and a fashion show should attract hundreds of area residents to the Wayne city auditorium Friday afternoon, Feb. 16, for a Homemakers School.

The school is being sponsored by The Wayne Herald, with local merchants providing valuable door prizes and the use of several name brand appliances.

A spokesman for the newspaper said a full house is anticipated and persons should plan to arrive early for the free program. Doors will open at 1 p.m.

Miss Mary Youngbeck, a well-known home economist, will be the featured attraction of the two and a half hour program.

Miss Youngbeck will prepare several recipes and share the latest ideas in homemaking. All of the recipes will be prepared before the audience using the most modern and convenient appliances.

Miss Youngbeck works as a home economist for Homemakers Schools in Madison, Wis., a part of Rural Gravure Service, Inc. She presently travels North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska, Montana and Colorado, driving 40 to 50,000 miles annually.

She is a graduate of North Dakota State University with a degree in home economics education, and previously taught high school home economics in Fordville, N. D.

Wayne area homemakers will be assisting Miss Youngbeck with stage demonstrations. Master of ceremonies will be Wayne Chamber of Commerce Executive Gary Van Meter.

In addition to the cooking demonstrations, dozens of door prizes will be awarded, including 20 bags of groceries. Each person attending will receive a gift bag containing a free cookbook, money saving coupons plus many other favors.

The Wayne Herald plans to have its recipe book printed and ready for sale on that day. The book contains some 600 recipes submitted by Wayne Herald readers during the past year.

During the brief intermission, area homemakers will be treated to a fashion show, narrated by Mary Ann Brenden and featuring the latest models from Wayne's five clothing stores, including the J.M. McDonald Co., Kuhns Department Store, Swans' Womens Apparel, Swan-

McClellan Clothing and Surber's Clothing.

During the style show, background music will be provided by Bill Rizer, Hospe's Mr. Music, Norfolk, playing a Kimball organ.

"We are planning a great afternoon of fun, ideas and excitement for the entire family," said Bill Carlson, who is heading up the program for The Wayne Herald. Carlson added that it will be a worthwhile event, entertaining and educational.

Drake University Band Director Guest Conductor

Don Marcouiller, director of bands and professor of music at Drake University, Des Moines, Ia., has been named as guest conductor for the Fourth Annual Wayne State College Band Festival scheduled for Feb. 17 at WSC.

High school musicians from nearly 20 high schools are expected to participate, including students from Battle Creek, Bloomfield, Cedar Rapids, Cole ridge, Hastings St. Cecilia, Humphrey, Laurel, Logan View, Hooper and Newman Grove.

Other schools scheduled to participate include Omaha Creighton Prep, Omaha Marlan, Omaha Rancall, Pierce, Sutherland, Verdigre, Wausa, Wilsonville, Yutan and Dow City-Arlon, Iowa.

Marcouiller has presented concerts and marching band clinics annually throughout the United States and has served as a past president of the College Band Directors National Association, North Central Division; the Iowa Bandmasters association; the Des Moines Civic Music Association and the Iowa Music Educators Association.

Set Aside Signup Set

Signup for the 1979 Feed Grain Set Aside program will begin Feb. 15 and end April 14, according to the USDA service center.

Officials said final dates to report planted and diverted acreage are May 15 for fall-seeded crops and July 15 for spring-seeded crops.

Officials also said the total program benefits under the set aside program will be the same as they were in 1978. The diversion payments plus the deficiency payment could be the same for both years, they said.

The deficiency payment is made when the national average market price is less than target price. The target price was $2.10 in 1978 and is $2.20 in 1979.

The diversion payment is less than 1978 but the target price has been increased as noted. Therefore, a deficiency payment in 1979 will be paid if the national average market price is below $2.20 a bushel.

Other program benefits include eligibility for CCC grain loans and low yield disaster payments. The CCC grain loan guarantee is $1.96 a bushel for corn in Wayne County.

In 1978, program participants were restricted to planting no more corn than they had the prior year. This restriction has been eliminated for 1979.

WSC Offers CLEP Tests

Willow Creek Project Given Go-Ahead by Commissioners

A $3 million-plus grant for the proposed Willow Creek flood control and recreation project southwest of Pierce, received the approval of the Nebraska Natural Resources Commission.

The board members, meeting in Lincoln, voted unanimously to allocate funds, according to Ray Hartung, administrative coordinator for the Nebraska Resources Development fund which will supply the money.

Approval has been anticipated because of an advisory board that administers the state development fund last month recommended the Willow Creek project to the commissioners.

Willow Creek meets the four standards by which the commission measures projects: environmental acceptability and technical, economical and financial feasibility, advisory board members concluded. The full commission agreed with the board, according to Hartung.

The project's sponsor is the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources district of which Wayne county is a part.

Money for the Nebraska Resources Development fund is appropriated annually by the Legislature.

Willow Creek will now be placed on a prioritized list of projects around the state destined to receive development fund grants, Hartung said. Some money for Willow Creek will be available in July after the Legislature appropriates funds, he added.

The grant was for $3,016,125 and will finance 58 percent of the $5.2 million project cost. A grant from the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission is expected to pay 23 percent ($1.2 million), while local funds would finance the remaining 19 percent ($1 million).

Lower Elkhorn NRD board members have already voted to proceed, providing the state and federal sources pick up 75 percent of the project cost. The game commission is expected to allocate funds if it receives from the federal government next spring.

Hartung said project opponents from the Pierce area attended the meeting in Lincoln. The NRD was represented by its manager, Steve Olfmans, Norfolk.

Opponents have filed suit in Pierce County District Court to stop the project. The case is scheduled for trial Feb. 26.

Plans call for construction of a 1,700-acre park that includes a 615-acre lake. The recreation area would include an arboretum, equestrian center, scenic overlook, boat ramps, three beaches for swimming, bathhouses, camping and picnic areas and an interpretative center.

Sculpts Ice

Cold Weather Fine for Caffey

BY RICK POMERVILLE
WSC DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

Jon Caffey's art works don't last long during the summer months. He has a problem storing them. The cold winter that has gripped the Wayneland area this year has solved Caffey's problem.

Caffey, a 20-year-old assistant food manager for gladioux Foods at Wayne State College, forms sculptured animal figures from 300 pound blocks of pressure frozen ice. The works, once completed, will melt quickly unless stored in cold areas.

"It's art work, but it is also a piece of ice," Caffey said. "Naturally if it's not kept cold it will only last six to eight hours. It's really a shame."

Caffey has stored a number of his works this winter on the Wayne State campus. Various figures decorate the corridors including sculptured horses, lions, and seahorses. Caffey completes his works indoors, however, using a chain saw, wood chisels, and an ice chopper as his major tools.

"The chain saw helps me cut large pieces of ice away," he said. "Otherwise I take my time or I won't get a perfect piece."

Caffey has been carving works for a hobby and as part of his job. He learned the art while attending chef school at the Culinary Institute of America in New York. He used the majority of the sculptures for decorations at dinners, parties, and wedding receptions.

"Probably the most unusual one I have ever done was a fish which was filled with shrimp," he said. "The most I have ever done at one time was 16 for a hotel party in Washington, D.C."

To add to the decorative value of the works, Caffey places vegetables in the eyes and other areas and places colored lights around his works.

"The ice really catches the colored lights which really makes the figures beautiful," Caffey said.

WHILE MOST residents in the Wayneland area are cursing the ice and cold, the weather makes a perfect "studio" for Jon Caffey

WSC Students to Model UN

A delegation of Wayne State College students will represent Denmark this year at the 1979 "National Model United Nations Seminar," April 9 through 15 in New York City.

Decision making by WSC students at the model UN is not unusual. WSC has participated in the annual program since 1975. Participating students act as professional diplomats at the seminar, working with delegations from colleges and universities from throughout the United States. Each delegation attempts to achieve outlined objectives through diplomatic discussions for the country they are assigned to represent.

Enrollment is still open for those interested in participating with the WSC delegation. Participants will attend a series of informative seminars, scheduled at 6:30 p.m., Wednesdays, March 7 to April 8 at WSC. The delegation will depart April 8 from Wayne for New York for a mission briefing from the Denmark delegate to the U.S. Model United Nations seminars.

The basic cost for the program is $245 for Nebraska residents, including three college credits, transportation. See MODEL, Page 10

FCIC Program Sets Policies

The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC) is again accepting applications for all-risk insurance protection program in Wayne county on corn, oats, and soybeans for 1979.

Insurance is provided against loss of production resulting from drought, excessive rain, fire, flood, freeze, frost, hail, insect infestation, lightning, plant disease, wind, winterkill, and any other unavoidable causes of loss due to adverse weather conditions occurring within the insurance period.

"Crop insurance represents a service designed to promote financial stability for farmers in Wayne county," federal crop insurance district director Robert Rieger said.

Rieger also stated this type of insurance cannot be obtained elsewhere. Citing some of the benefits, he said: "We will insure for the approximate cost of production, guaranteeing the farmer protection for his dollar investment. The policy, unless terminated, will automatically See COUNCIL, Page 10

Richer and fuller

Omaha
Dear Editor:
As the newest "daughter" in David J. Hamer's family, I feel very honored to be one of his. Those who know him, be it either briefly as his new friends in California or as his old friends in Nebraska, all agree that he is richer and fuller because we know him.

We knew if we had kind of a problem we could take to "The Judge" but he is not a legal. In his quiet manner he would listen and give encouragement and when needed, would give the best advice and counsel he knew. He was wise and compassionate and was loved by people of all ages.

I have been told that many Welsh people do not have a sense of humor — but the Judge was one who did. When Princess Margaret was rumored to be getting married years ago, he said, "She could come over here and I will marry Maggie to whomever she wishes."

His 82 years of life were filled with many treasures. As a very young man he came to America to have a better life. He left his mother and father, brothers and sisters so far away to come to this country where he settled in Nebraska. He found his most precious jewel and married her. They had 60 plus years together; through good years and bad, up hill and down hill, but always together hand in hand.

Three diamonds in the rough were soon his, too. His three sons were his pride and joy. They were raised by giving them an example to pattern their own lives with wisdom beyond their years. The boys' accomplishments were an extension of his own life and they in turn were proud of their parents and whatever recognition and accomplishments came to them. As each of his sons married, his Treasure Chest grew with 3 more precious gems, each one different and each one special to Dad.

His widest selection of precious stones were gradually added to over the years. He was "Grandpa" to 6 grandsons and 1 granddaughter. All of these children by 1 grandson, who preceded him in death at a very young age, have had those special trips that only he would take them on. The most exciting and adventuresome the boys remember were the "trips to the dump with Grandpa." He has watched these grandchildren grow into adults and he knows that they are only beginning their own adult life but that they, too, will grow in wisdom and knowledge as he did.

The years he worked in Wayne county, first as clerk of the district court and later as county judge, were some of his most rewarding years. He was never too busy when someone needed him. When issuing a marriage license he would visit with the couple and in his own special way, "give the young fellow one more chance to change his mind." He was most happy to marry anyone, making each ceremony special for them. His traffic court procedure had a purpose as well as the appearance of being busy. He wanted to be apprehended the second time to appear before Judge Hamer. His court room was a place of refuge, or it could be a battle ground over an estate, but it was always a place of welcome.

We have known him, and loved him, and we will miss him. But because of him, our lives have been blessed and enriched. Because of him we shall be better men and women in this world and the next. The Lord blessed us with the life of David John Hamer and may we all live to his great expectations and love. For now he is at Peace with our Lord, Jesus Christ, and will be adding more gems to his collection of precious stones. — Mrs. David J. Hamer, Jr.

Overcoming the marriage penalty

(Third in a series of five articles from the Nebraska Society of Certified Public Accountants on preparing 1978 Federal Income Tax Returns.)

Tax treatment that is fair for everyone continues to elude even the most determined tax reformers. Once again Congress has worked long and hard at re-shuffling the tax laws, still no one would describe the results as a new deal, equitable to all.

An example of old inequities that persists is the "marriage penalty," which causes married couples to pay more taxes than two unmarried individuals with the same income, exemptions and deductions. This was not an intended result. It was an inadvertent side effect of efforts to correct a previous imbalance resulting from still earlier adjustments in the tax code.

The chain of unsuccessful attempts at achieving fair treatment for married and unmarried alike began in 1948, when it was decided that families should be treated as single economic units, with family income taxed as though each spouse had earned half of it, thus sharply reducing the tax rate in cases where one spouse, in fact, earned the bulk of the income. The income-splitting option gave such families an advantage over those in which both spouses earned roughly equal incomes, and an even bigger advantage over single individuals. The latter proscribed this treatment and continued to do so until 1971, when Congress granted a more favorable rate for the single individual, thus putting the shoe on the other foot once more.

Since 1971 it has been working couples' turn to protest, and they have been doing so as successive administrations have wrestled with the problem, so far to no avail.

Congress has resisted various solutions that have been offered, partly because it feared they would lead to excessive loss of tax revenues, but chiefly because changing the rules would violate the principle of progressivity, which requires that taxes be levied according to the ability to pay.

With the issue unresolved, what can married couples who both have incomes do to minimize their taxes? Forget about filing singly; the marriage penalty for that is even worse than with a joint return. Forget also getting a "quickie" divorce in December and then remarrying in January so that at year end you are "single." Internal Revenue Service has ruled such divorces, obtained solely for tax reasons, are a sham and has decided they do not alter a couple's tax status.

What, then, can working couples do? First, they can be extra diligent in identifying business deductions. With two people employed in the family there is twice as much likelihood of job-related deductions, such as business travel and entertainment.

If you have children or a disabled adult you have to hire someone to look after so that both of you can hold jobs, look into the child care credit. With two or more qualifying dependents this credit could be worth as much as $800, depending on your income level.

If one of you began working again in just the past year or so, it's possible that your combined incomes have taken a big jump in 1978. If so, you may be eligible for income averaging. This permits you to calculate your tax bill for the current year by assuming that you earned the income over a five year period; i.e., the current and preceding four years.

If one of you is self-employed, consider protecting your income from being taxed now by putting it in a Keogh-type pension fund. Or if either of you is not covered by a pension or profit-sharing plan, you might be able to defer until retirement the taxes on some income by setting up an Individual Retirement Account.

Give extra attention to the tax aspects of your investments. There is a world of difference among ways of financing your future. Many far-out investment schemes do not really shelter you from taxes; they simply push the taxes into another year, when your tax rate may be even higher than it is now. But there are tax shelters that are perfectly sound — real estate and petroleum development ventures, for example, that offer tax breaks because Congress intended that they should. Talk over investments with your financial advisor — in advance.

Working couples, and other taxpayers with higher than ordinary incomes, have reason to be concerned not just with their 1978 taxes but with those in future years, as well. For them, tax planning is a year-around necessity.

We're looking forward to the cooking school Friday sponsored by the Wayne Herald.

CHB
Because of our part-time bachelor situation (wife and family to join us sometime — perhaps following the spring thaw if it ever comes), we have a special interest. We have tried our hand at all sorts of good things cooking-wise with disastrous results.

CHB
While most of our culinary efforts have gone up in a blur of hot smoke, we have learned to salvage some by sticking our head over the smoldering mess and inhaling deeply.

CHB
Our first question of Miss Youngbeck, home economist who is conducting the school, is: "How to boil water without melting the pot?" Basic, but important, as we are fast running out of pots.

CHB
Our mood is about as cool as the weather. And our visit to the National Weather Service in Norfolk was interesting but not encouraging. We're past the stage of ignoring the weather. It's just too much for us to handle.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc., has some timely tips about observing this phenomenon. The society advises using only indirect methods such as watching television.

Makes sense. Or use the indirect pinhole method. A simple projector can be made with two pieces of white cardboard. A pinhole or pencilhole in the top piece serves to project and focus the image of the eclipse on the second piece. The size of the image can be changed by altering the distance between the two pieces of the cardboard. Above all... DO NOT LOOK AT THE SUN THROUGH THE PINHOLE.

And we think it's untimely to schedule a total solar eclipse Feb. 26. It grieves us to have to sun covered up even for the short time of the eclipse.

And with a great deal of envy, we report that Al Wittig, progressive owner of Wittig's Food Market, paid less than $2 last month for fuel. ## All but forgotten hero

Captain Emmitt Crawford is one of Nebraska's all but forgotten heroes. Even the established fact that the town of Crawford in Dawes County was named in his honor has been denied and the honor accorded to Captain Jack Crawford, the poet-satirist. ("Perky's Names of Nebraska Locations," currently published by the Nebraska State Historical Society in its Nebraska History magazine, contains information on the origin and meaning of Nebraska towns, counties, post offices, railroad stations, Pony Express stations, and state line points.)

Yet in April, 1886, thousands of Nebraskans traveled to Kearney to attend Emmet Crawford's funeral. Newspapers when he came to the Northern Plains to come on trains, in carriages, on horseback and afoot.

"The people... have not forgotten that during the troublesome days of 1874, when grasshoppers destroyed the crops of the feeble settlements along the Platte River, Lieutenant Emmitt Crawford nearly wore himself out carrying government relief to the sufferers.

"Neither have they forgotten that in every contest with the Sioux, Cheyenne and other hostile Indians, who in those days menaced the property of our growing state, Crawford was foremost among the gallant soldiers to whom was entrusted the task of our defense.

Crawford was an experienced soldier when he came to the Northern Plains to campaign against the Sioux. Born in 1844 at Philadelphia, he was mustered into service as a private in the Pennsylvania infantry and fought in many of the major battles of the Civil War. Resources at the Nebraska State Historical Society and the pages of its Nebraska History attest that post-war service on the frontier was also hazardous. In military annals, Crawford's name figures in what is commonly known as the "Flagpole Incident" at the Red Cloud Agency, which began when an attempt was made by Agent J. Saville to set up a flagpole inside the agency stockade. The following summarized account appeared in Nebraska History in 1961.

"A considerable force of Northern Indians, the non-agency hunting bands who had come to winter on free government beef, entered the stockade to destroy the pine trunk that was to fly the national standard. Agent Saville's attempts to prevent the Northern warriors from chopping the pole to pieces proved fruitless, and he sent an appeal for assistance to nearby Fort Robinson.

"In his haste, the excited Saville neglected to emphasize to the military authorities either the violent attitude displayed by the Indians or the large number of warriors involved in the demonstration. Only a single troop of cavalry was sent to Saville's aid. Before this detachment could reach the agency it was surrounded by a huge crowd of angry Sioux who shouted insults at the soldiers and did everything possible to provoke them into firing and precipitating an engagement. A fight was narrowly averted by the intervention of the agency Sioux. These Ogilals, permanent residents at Red Cloud Agency, beat back the Northern Indians with war clubs, whips, and gun butts, and opened a path for the soldiers to reach the stockade."

Emmitt Crawford's death did not occur in Nebraska. In 1882 the Third Cavalry was returned to Arizona because of Apache unrest, and Crawford and others were given "the most dangerous duty that ever falls to the lot of soldiers to perform." Named commandant of a sprawling reservation, Crawford was instructed to work closely with the civil agent to maintain peace and make the Indians self-sustaining and to enlist and train Apaches for service as scouts.

On the morning of Jan. 11, 1886, while leading a detachment of Apache scouts in pursuit of a band headed by Geronimo near Nacori, Mexico, the 41-year-old captain was mortally wounded. He was shot by a Mexican while standing on a rock, in full view of both American and Mexican soldiers during a period of truce. He died of his wound ten days later and was buried in the wilds of northern Mexico. His body was later returned to Kearney, Nebraska, for burial but has since been transferred to Arlington National Cemetery. Of him, one of his comrades wrote:

"Crawford was born a thousand years too late... Mentally, morally and physically he would have been an ideal knight of King Arthur's Court. Six feet one, gray eyed, untiring, he was an ideal cavalryman and devoted to his troop, as were the men of it to him. He had a keen sense of humor but something had saddened his early life and I never knew him to laugh aloud... Modest, self-effacing, kindly, he delighted in assigning to his subordinates opportunities and credit he might well have taken to himself — a very rare trait in an officer of any army. His expressed wish was that he might die in the act of saving the lives of others. He got his wish, the only reward he ever received for as dangerous, arduous, and thankless a job as ever befell any man."

Stuck wheel dangerous

If a wheel on your car gets stuck in mud, snow or ice this winter, don't try to free it by racing the engine, the Tire Industry Safety Council warns.

Why? Under those conditions the free-spinning wheel on the other end of the axle is whirling at twice the speed shown on your speedometer. If your vehicle has a conventional differential gear. As a result tremendous centrifugal force develops quickly and the tire can actually explode in a matter of seconds.

"Spinning your wheels in snow, ice, mud or other large objects under the wheels on the drive axle. They can fly out and cause personal injury or damage to the vehicle. Blankets provide little traction and may fly out from under the wheel or wrap around the axle."

"Gently rock the vehicle backwards and forwards. Repeatedly shift the gear lever from drive to reverse on automatic transmissions or reverse to second on manual transmissions while applying moderate pressure to the accelerator."

"Carry a bag of sand, salt or material used in animal litter boxes to use under the wheels of the drive axle."

"For safety's sake, extreme caution should be exercised when you are stuck, especially when one tire is free-spinning or elevated so it is not in contact with the road or ground," Lovell advised.

Randy's Recap

According to Randy Mascoll

THIS MISERABLE WINTER weather has put a damper on area basketball and wrestling. Every team has run into a conflict with weather and has either had games cancelled or rescheduled. It has also put a kink in my schedule.

Some of the games I had on my schedule were cancelled and now the regular seasons are over for most of the basketball and wrestling teams.

Beginning tonight, district basketball opens for the girls teams in Classes C and D. Allen plays at Pender, Wakefield is at West Point, Winslow is at Norfolk and Laurel is at Plainview. The Wayne girls will play next week at Platte College, Columbus. District pairings are printed elsewhere in today's sports section.

In wrestling, Winslow and Wakefield had district action this weekend at Elgin Pope John. Wayne competed in districts earlier in the week at Omaha Ryan.

The State Wrestling Tournament is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Bob Devaney Sports Complex in Lincoln. Although this column was written before the results of Winslow and Wakefield districts, I'm sure the area will be well represented at state. Following is a schedule of the competition at the state tourney, for anyone interested in driving down:

Thursday: 11 a.m. — First round, Classes B and C; 2:30 p.m. — First round, Classes A and D; 7:30 — Quarterfinals of Classes B and C; 9:30 — Quarterfinals of Classes A and D.

Friday: 11 a.m. — First round of consolation, Class B and C; 12:30 — First round consolation, Classes A and D; 2 p.m. — Second round consolation, Classes A and D; 4:30 — Semifinals of championship round, all classes; 8:30 — Consolation semifinals, all classes; 10:30 — Fifth place matches, all classes.

Saturday: 11 a.m. — Consolation finals, all classes; 1 p.m. — Championship finals, all classes. If unable to attend, I believe that the meet finals will be telecast on Nebraska Public Television as in the past. I've been to the state tourneys in the past and have really enjoyed them so I plan to be back down there again this year, especially with area wrestlers in the running.

CHARITY BASKETBALL GAMES seem to be popular this time of year. The KTCH Short Circuit Circus is at it again, this time playing the Wayne High faculty. The basketball game is scheduled to be played, Tuesday, March 6 at 7 p.m. in the Wayne High gym.

Donations will be accepted at the game and tickets will be sold in advance to help pay for a baseball pitching machine for Wayne High School. The Second Guessers are sponsoring the game.

In the future, the Wayne Herald basketball team is planning to play the Wayne Fire Department for charity. I'll print more information on that, later when details are more complete.

WHILE GRAPPLERS AND round ballers are finishing up their seasons, baseball players, track competitors and golfers are looking ahead to their seasons. The official date for athletes to begin formal practice for these sports is Feb. 26, as set by the Nebraska School Activities Association.

MEANWHILE, Wayne State athletes have been practicing baseball and softball for awhile and WSC coaches Steve Anson and Sue Kovar will be facing the problem of cutting the size of their teams down.

I RECEIVED WORD that the Wayne State Fall Sports catalog received an award for 10th place in NAIA competition. The catalog was compiled by Rick Pomeroy and Dick Manley of the college. I've found the catalog useful and informing in the past, when I needed some information about fall sports. It's nice to hear, they earned some honors of their efforts.

THE PLAYER OF THE WEEK award this week goes to Dean Onken of the Wayne State Wildcats. Coach Bill Ivey selected Onken on his flip play during the past four or five ballgames and the Second Guessers presented him as award. Ivey said that Onken ranks in the top five percent in character, as a person and as a basketball player.

DEAN ONKEN

WSC WILDCAT FANS are hoping that the Cats can defeat Peru State and Chadron State in the future games. Wayne lost a tough game to Chadron last week and will need a win against the Eagles badly on Feb. 27. If Chadron loses to Kearney and Wayne beats Peru, the winner of the Wayne-Chadron game will qualify for NAIA District 11 playoffs. If Chadron beats Kearney, that will throw a wrench into the situation.

Walthill Nips Wayne

Free Throws Kill Last Surge

Walthill's Russ Stansberry hit a pair of free throws in the final 30 seconds to secure a 64-60 win for Walthill over Wayne Friday night at the Wayne High gym.

Wayne had a chance to tie the game with 31 seconds left but a three-second violation turned the ball over to Walthill. Trailing by two points, the Blue Devils tried to steal the ball and fouled Russ Stansberry. His two free throws made the score 64-60 and time had nearly elapsed for Wayne.

The Blue Devils hurried down court in a last attempt to stay alive but Brad Emry's 25-foot jumper bounced out of the hoop and John Miller grabbed the rebound for the Blue Jays, who ran out the clock.

Walthill, the number one team in Class D won an earlier decision from Wayne in the finals of the Wayne State Tournament with two Wayne starters out and this time, the Blue Devils were out for revenge. Wayne slapped on a man-to-man defense and held four of Walthill's players to a standstill in the first quarter.

The fourth player, Ed Stansberry, made up for his teammates play, however by hitting five baskets in five attempts for 10 points in the first quarter. Tony Rezek, with six points, led a balanced Wayne offense in the first quarter to establish a 20-14 lead.

The Blue Devils, who had trouble breaking Walthill's full court press in the first period, had trouble scoring in the second quarter. The Blue Jays outscored Wayne 20-8 in the period to turn the game around. Stansberry continued to lead the Walthill surge with 10 points in the second stanza.

Wayne held John and Perry Miller. Walthill's scoring threats, to only six total points in the first half but Stansberry had done the damage. The Blue Devils fell behind in the second quarter, but stayed within six at 34-28 at half.

Wayne's offensive attack worked well in the third period with Perry Nelson scoring eight points to lead the team. Every time the Blue Devils cut the lead to two points, Walthill responded with an immediate basket. Rezek, Jeff Zeiss, Brad Emry and Tom Ginn all took turns putting Wayne within one basket but that was as close as they could get.

Ginn closed the gap to 40-58 with 2:04 remaining and 1:30 later, Ginn and Emry teamed up to steal the ball from Walthill during a game delay pattern. Ginn passed to Emry on the fast break for the assist and Emry put in the layup for a 62-60 count. That was as close as the score got.

Ginn was Wayne's leading scorer with 14 points and in the second half, he held Ed Stansberry scoreless with a fine defensive effort. Nelson followed with 12 points and Rezek added 10.

Walthill had four players in double figures: Perry Miller, 14; Ed Stansberry, 20; Russ Stansberry, 12; John Miller, 16.

After the game, Wayne coach Bill Sharpe said that this probably felt the worst of all losses. "We had to play them man-to-man and we couldn't match up with them. The second quarter killed us. We played four bad minutes late in the second quarter and that cost us." Sharpe said that he felt both teams played a good game, but said that Wayne just couldn't shoot quite as high of a percentage. Nelson, who missed numerous games because of illness, was slightly weak and tired on the court.

"Ginn did a good job on Stansberry in the second half," Sharpe said. "Then, the Millers took over. The offensive boards were a big advantage to us but Walthill is quick to deal with. They have a good ball club."

Wayne shot 41 percent from the field while Walthill blazed the nets for 52 percent. Four Wayne players dominated the rebound category with Nelson tallying 10, Rezek, 9; Ginn, 8; Emry, 6.

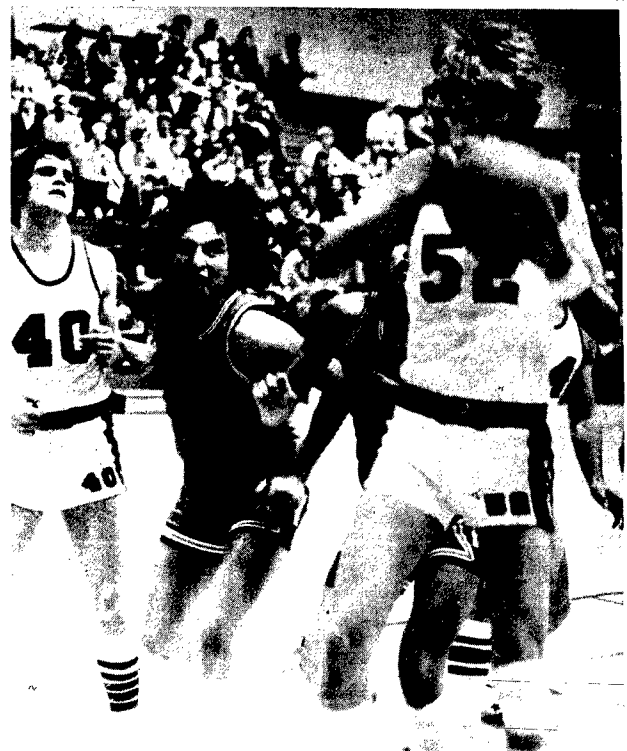

Wayne's record is now 9-6 while Walthill moves to 17-1. The Wayne reserves won the opener, 38-47. Kevin Nissen, Tod Heler and Steve Sorensen all scored in double figures to lead Wayne. The Blue Devils found themselves holding a slim second quarter lead, but a strong third period opened the game up.

Wayne scorers: Jerry Morris, 7; Jeff Sperry, 2; Stuart Nissen, 4; Hejer, 12; Scott Wessel, 6; Sorensen, 10; Todd Skokan, 2; Kevin Nissen, 13; Tim Pfeiffer, 2.

Wayne hosted Elkhorn Saturday night and is scheduled to play at Lyons tomorrow (Tuesday), and Pierce Friday.

Kay Anderson Scoring Spree Leads Allen Still Unbeaten — Barely!

Laurel Girls Past Wakefield

Kay Anderson continued her hot streak as she scored 18 points to help lead the Laurel Bears past Wakefield 56-42 in area girls basketball action, Thursday night.

Laurel got the early lead 18-10 after the first quarter but Wakefield came back within two at 32-30 at halftime. Laurel won the battle in the final two periods 9-6 and 15-10 to win the area match-up.

Three Trojans Kathy Gustafson, Kelly Murphy and Ardie Barker fouled out in the game as they played aggressively on defense. Two of the three fouled out in the third quarter, hurting Wakefield's hopes.

Kay Anderson and Lisa Galvin took advantage of the Wakefield situation as they combined for 30 points. Jolene Bartels and Donna Kieckhafer led the Trojans with 10 points each. Laurel's record is 7-7, while Wakefield falls to 4-10.

The Bears open district play tomorrow (Tuesday) against Wynot in Plainville at 6:30 while the Trojans play Pender tonight at 6:30 in West Point.

Laurel coach, Ev Jensen was pleased with the play of his team, especially Anderson. "Kay Anderson is coming on strong. She has been playing real well and helping pick up the play of the team. This was the best game we played since Christmas. We got a lot of hustle going."

Wakefield coach Elie Studder wasn't quite as pleased with her team's play but did recognize the play of Kieckhafer. "Donna Kieckhafer had a great game. She kept the team going after some of our players fouled out. Jolene Bartels had a good rebound game. The fouls hurt us. We had three girls foul out and two of them fouled out in the third quarter."

Kieckhafer's 10 points was her season high. Bartels led Wakefield with eight rebounds and Donna Mann and Anderson led Laurel with 12 rebounds each. Both teams scored about 30 percent from the field.

Wakefield won the reserve game 34-33 in overtime. The game was tied at 30 after regulation, but Kris Mitchell and Tracy Biggestaf each scored two points to lead the JV Trojans to the win. Wakefield scor-

It went down to the last second of the final game, but the Allen High girls ended their regular season undefeated at 11-0 with a 26-25 squeaker over visiting Coleridge, Thursday night.

The Eagles led 9-4 after the first quarter but Coleridge tied the game up at 14-14 at halftime. The game became an even greater defensive struggle in the third period when the visitors outscored Allen 4-2. The Eagles, who trailed 18-16 going into the fourth quarter finally got back in the lead and held on for a one-point win.

Lisa Erwin led the Eagles with 12 points and she and Pam Brownell shared the rebounding leadership with nine each. Allen host 33 percent from the field and managed only 34 shots for the entire game.

"Coleridge played aggressive ball, they played very fine defense," Allen coach Steve McManigal said. "They took our patterns away from us and made it difficult to score. We only got half as many shots as usual."

"It was a defensive battle all the way," McManigal continued. "Our defense played well. Our free throw percentage was way down at 28 percent. But, it was a win. Now our games get important," the coach said looking toward districts.

The Eagles, champions of the Lewis Division of the Lewis and Clark Conference, were scheduled to meet Harrington, Clark champions, Saturday at 6:30 in Rice Auditorium, Wayne State College. The winner of that game captured the Conference title.

The Allen reserves lost their game Thursday 22-16. High scorers for the Eagle JV team was Des Williams with six points and Beth Stalling with four.

Wayne Girls Unmarried By B, C Competition

The Wayne girls basketball team remained undefeated against Class B and C foes, by whipping Emerson-Hubbard 63-33 Thursday night at home.

Wayne coach Curt Frye played 11 players in the game and all of them scored as the Blue Devils had an easy time on the court. Wayne led 13-5 after the first quarter and 28-11 at half as the team used a balanced scoring attack to up its record to 11-3.

Jolene Bennett scored 13 points to lead the Blue Devils, followed by Peg Pinkelmann with nine and Lesa Barclay and Julia Dorsey with eight each. Shelly Davis added six and the rest of the team scored between two and four points.

"Again, I was pleased. Everyone who played contributed and we received help off the bench," Frye said. "We looked sharp and hit a high percentage from the floor. We really pushed the ball and got the quick shot before they got set." Wayne shot 42 percent from the field.

In the opening games, the Wayne reserves won 43-26 and the freshmen lost 24-20. The reserves now sport a 7-1 record and the freshmen are 4-2. Reserve scorers: Shelly Davis, 9; Jean Koll, 8; Lynn Surber, 8; Stacy Jacobmeier, 6; Jenny DeTurk, 6; Ann Lisksa, 5; Tammie Thomas, 1. Freshmen: Kris Proett, 6; Jill Zeiss, 5; Terry Johnson, 5; Francis Praher, 4.

Wayne hosts Wisner Pigler tomorrow at 5 p.m. and opens districts at Platte College Monday.

Winside Downfall: No Free Throws

The Winside girls didn't get a chance to shoot a free throw all night and as a result, Clark Division champion Harrington took a 43-36 decision from the home team Thursday night.

Winside took a 12-11 lead after the first quarter but slipped behind in the second period when Harrington scored 14 points to their eight. Kathy Thomas and Kathy Thies supplied the one-two offensive punch for Winside but Harrington committed only five fouls in the entire game and none were shooting fouls.

Thomas and Thies finished with 10 points each in the rebounding department. Marci Thomas pulled down 12 rebounds and Thies followed with 10. Andrea Mann made four assists. Winside shot 33 percent from the field to 36 percent for Harrington.

"We kept the pace from the field but it hurt when we didn't get to shoot free throws," Winside coach Kathy O'Connor commented. "We played extremely well. Harrington is a fine team."

"Winside was without the service of starter Laurie Gallop, who was ill. The loss drops the host team's record to 8-5 at completion of the regular season. Winside is the number two seed in district action and meets Norfolk Catholic tonight at 8:30 in Norfolk High School.

Bears Win Last Seven

The Laurel Bears made it seven wins in a row by ripping Madison on the home court 61-46 Friday night.

Steve Anderson led the scoring for Laurel as usual with 21 points followed closely by Paul Guern with 18. The Bears shot 47 percent from the field to 36 percent for Madison to up their record to 10-6.

Russ Gade led the rebounding department with 10 and Anderson made nine rebounds. Madison's high scorer was Bob Gey with 16 points.

"Paul Guern had his best game of the season tonight," Laurel coach Joel Parks said after the game. "Lon Swanson also did a good job for us."

Guern scored his 18 points and grabbed eight rebounds while Ron Gadenek set out much of the game in foul trouble. Swanson hit four of five field goal attempts for his eight points.

Laurel is scheduled to play at Osmond Thursday and will host Walthill Friday at 6:30. Coach Parks said that his team is looking forward to playing Walthill again after dropping a close decision to them earlier in the year, but added that Laurel can't overlook Osmond.
