Heat aid

Kermit R. McMurry, director of the Nebraska Department of Social Services, has announced that the department has funds available for heating assistance this winter. This assistance is available through the Nebraska Low Income Energy Assistance Program. Applications may be made at the Wayne Social Service Office and other local social services offices across the state.

The program provides assistance to eligible, low income Nebraska households in paying their heating costs. A household of one is eligible if their total gross income for the year does not exceed $7,150. The maximum yearly income for a household size of four is $14,560.

The household would also have to be responsible for their heating costs and their resources could not exceed $5,000 for any size household.

Recipients of last year's program will receive an application in the mail. Other interested households may request applications by contacting their local Department of Social Services office.

Applications must be received by March 31, 1988.

Fire call

The Winside Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call at the Marvin Fuoss farm home two miles north and one mile east of Winside. The call was received Wednesday, Jan. 6, at 9:30 a.m. where firemen found a chimney fire.

Minor damage was reported by they remained on the scene for about an hour.

Wayne's fire department was called before 8 a.m. last Wednesday morning to answer a fire alarm at the Region IV facility on South Main in Wayne.

No smoke damage or fire was reported.

About waste

People of Laurel interested in learning about the low-level radioactive waste disposal issue are invited to attend an informational meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 13, 7:30 p.m. in the VFW Clubrooms at Laurel. The meeting will deal specifically with the disposal issues effect on the state of Nebraska.

The main speaker is Deb Wragge of the Creighton-Bloomfield area, who is co-chairman of the Northeast Nebraska Committee for a Safe Environment and is active in the state-wide drive of Nebraskans for a Right To Vote Committee.

The committee is concerned with placing an initiative on the 1988 ballot to require the approval of Nebraska voters before any low level radioactive waste facility can be constructed within the state.

Non-alcohol college event scheduled

The first non-alcohol party at Wayne State College of Nebraska was so successful that a fraternity may sponsor at least one "dry" social event each month.

Approximately 250 WSC students attended "Dry Bar Night I" last fall, and a flood of positive comments requesting more non-alcohol parties flowed into a campus suggestion box, according to Eurt Frye, associate dean of students.

"Our first party was very successful," Frye said. "Students, including many who were underage, wanted the opportunity to socialize on campus — so we provided a bar-like atmosphere without alcohol."

"We made it real accessible on campus which allowed quite a few dormitory students to attend."

The first party was sponsored by student services. However, Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will sponsor upcoming events.

"If the attendance continues to be good, and if the event is perceived well, we'll try to offer non-alcohol parties at least once a month," said Mike McMorrow, vice-president of TKE.

"We believe these events provide a two-fold purpose: They promote an alternative to drinking and they provide an excellent student activity. All of us (in the fraternity) see a real need for them."

McMorrow said his fraternity responded to the need after reading favorable comments in the suggestion box and the student newspaper. Subsequently, the group is developing a plan to hold several dry nights during the second semester.

"Dry Bar II" is scheduled Friday, Jan. 15 from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. in the student center.

A disc-jockey will play popular music, mocktails (non-alcoholic drinks) will be served by bartenders, and the north dining room will be decorated like a lounge.

"Right now, the only roadblock we face is funding," McMorrow said. "But if we can find funds like we did this time (the student senate donated $200) and if interest continues, we'll probably offer this non-alcohol alternative for a long time."

Close one in the .01 pound weight class...

WHAT HAPPENED, actually, is that a Creighton wrestler lost a contact lens in the dual meet against the Blue Devils Thursday night. Wayne won the dual 26-23. Helping to find the lens are Creighton Coach Randy Kliment, Referee Bruce Asmussen of Plainview and Wayne Coach John Murtaugh.

President selection winds down

The process of selecting the next Wayne State College president will wind down this month, according to the schedule that was presented to the local Review and Comment Committee.

Members of the Review and Comment Committee are J. Alan Cramer, Shane Giese, Tom Carsey, Dr. Steven Dinsmore, Dr. Dennis Linster, Dr. Russell Rasmussen, Dr. LeRoy Simpson, Vicky Skokan, and Dr. Jay O'Leary, all of Wayne; John Binning of South Sioux City; Dr. Helen Morten of Vermillion, South Dakota; Joan Burney of Hartington; Bob Cox of Norfolk; Rhonda Carstens of Emerson; and Darrell Curry of Newcastle.

Last November, the committee had recommended at least 10 candidates among the long list of applicants, through matching of profiles and what they wanted in a candidate such as age or background, to the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska State Colleges.

Those board of trustees members representing the president selection committee are Thomas L. Morrissey, Tecumseh; Gretchen Hirschbach, South Sioux City; Celia Ann LeGreca, Omaha; and Pete Kotsiopoulos of Kearney as ex-officio.

At least three candidates, narrowed down from the list of 10, were to be interviewed by the board of trustees presidential selection committee between Jan. 11 and 17. Also during that time, the local Review and Comment

Committee was to orient the candidates to the Wayne community and Wayne State College, and report their findings to the board.

The board of trustees president selection committee will make their recommendation of a candidate to the entire board of trustees in late January.

The entire board of trustees will then approve, or disapprove, of the recommendation in late January or early February.

Former Wayne mayor invented incubator?

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Up until now, the annual Chicken Show had been celebrated with the question: Exactly what does the chicken industry have to do with the city of Wayne, Nebraska?

If anything, the chicken capital of Nebraska should be Wakefield, the home of the Waldbaum Company, which is over 12 miles away from the Wayne city limits. Farmers around Wayne raise livestock such as cattle and hogs and grow crops that include corn and soybeans. Chickens, one might say, are commonly used to supply the dozen or so fresh eggs designated specifically for the breakfast table.

So what possible ties does the poultry industry have on the Wayne community?

If the city of Wayne ever needed a reason to celebrate the Chicken Show — they might have one now in the name of John Kate, an inventor of sorts who was part owner of a clothing store in Wayne, and a mayor of this community, during the early 1900's.

THE CHECK that was presented to Todd and Mary (right) by president Murray Leicy (left) is in the amount of $3217.40.

Jenkins receives benefit check

Members of the Aid-Association for Lutherans (A.A.L.), Branch No. 3019 at Carroll, raised $1,608.70 to benefit 23 year old Mrs. Todd (Mary) Jenkins of Carroll.

She has recently undergone radiation treatments for Hodgkin's disease. The money was raised through donations and a benefit luncheon that took place recently at the Carroll Auditorium.

The Hilltop Larks Social Club of Carroll assisted with the serving of the luncheon conducted Saturday, Nov. 29.

The A.A.L. members were participating in the A.A.L. program, Helping Hands, Caring Acts through fund raising of service. Money raised locally was matched by A.A.L.'s Home Office in Appleton, Wisconsin.

The total amount of the check presented to Mary Jenkins Friday afternoon at the Carroll Public Library was $3,217.40.

The 52,000 A.A.L. members living in Nebraska are offered volunteer opportunities to help others in their own communities.

The Rev. Dr. Josephine Auner Barnes, granddaughter of John Henry Kate, firmly believes that her grandfather invented the incubator which "released hens from the drudgery of sitting on the eggs."

IN A RECENTLY submitted letter to the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce, she nominated John Kate as the honored past founder of the egg and chicken festival "for his dedication to liberating hens from the monotony of egg sitting."

Barnes of West Des Moines, Iowa, saw Wayne Chicken Show National Cluck-Off clucking and crowing winners (John Agler and Judith Kluge) on a recent "Best of Carson" television show.

A glance at past Wayne Herald issues revealed that John Kate and his brother-in-law John Hufford came to Wayne from Audubon, Iowa in September, 1899 and opened up "The 2 Johns" store, calling it "Wayne's only exclusive clothing store, with employees that speak German and Swedish."

"We were located in Audubon, Iowa for 21 years and we hope to live that long in Wayne," said an advertisement in an 1899 edition of the local newspaper.

This was a store where one could purchase Kuppenheimer Warrent Suits from $10 to $22; Duchess Pants (if a bottom falls off, you get 10 cents or if they rip you get $1, otherwise they sell from $2 to $5); Busby Gloves-Buckskin, priced from $1.50 to $2; Selz Men Shoes, priced at between $2 and $4; Overcoats from $10 to $18; Atwood Suspenders from 25 cents to $5; and Tiger Hats priced at $3 each.

Advertisements revealed that John Kate sold the store April 4, 1912. Between 1899 and 1912, he had taken off a year at the store to satisfy his urge to invent.

KATE THEN established the Radio-Round Incubator factory in Wayne, in partnership with Ed Raymond, former Wayne druggist. The publicity drawings of the factory in Wayne depicted two large oblong buildings that featured the X-Ray Incubators and Brooders.

In a sales catalog featuring the X-Ray incubator, Kate writes: "It's 19 years since I pounded together my first incubator — the original rough model which was, you might say, the grandfather of the present X-Ray incubator machines. At that time I had some ideas about incubators and mighty little else."

"Artificial hatching was really a science to be studied and worked out as such, and that right hatching principles were more important to be studied," he wrote.

In publicity reports, Kate (who was mayor of Wayne from 1911 to 1913) said the Wayne factory is "undoubtedly the largest incubator factor in the world, dedicated exclusively to manufacturing of high class incubators and brooders."

HE FURTHER writes: "Our factory is fortunately located in Wayne, Nebraska — the city most centrally located and so admirably situated that our X-Ray machines can be shipped to any section of the United States quicker and more satisfactorily.... Nearly everyone of our workmen — those men employed in our big new factory at Wayne — have their own homes and are intensely interested in the raising of chickens and further improving artificial hatching."

Throughout the sales catalog, letters addressed to the X-Ray Incubator Co. of Wayne appear which praise the product which Kate and his workers produced.

These incubators sold anywhere from $16.50 to the deluxe models priced at close to $50. One of the X-Ray incubators has been preserved at the Wayne County Historical Museum in Wayne.

Kate, as mayor, was influential in building the Wayne city hall and in making other improvements. His obituary stated that "Mr. Kate liked to be progressive in appearance and management."

HE MOVED THE factory to Des Moines, Iowa in 1913. Five years later, Kate sold his interest in the incubator business to Raymond. He retired from business, moved to Lincoln and later in his life, went to California for the remainder of his life. He was born in June of 1854 and he died at the age of 80.

So it appears that Wayne has an even greater reason to celebrate the annual Chicken Show — with the efforts of John Kate an addition to the national attraction.

Come home to roost!

The area Chamber of Commerce and Chicken Show Committee have received a $2,000 grant from the Nebraska Tourism Council to be used in financing activities for a week-long big homecoming in Wayne.

For months, the state tourism council has been promoting "Celebrate Nebraska '88" — a promotion which encourages people to return to Nebraska to visit or stay where they had previously lived and worked before moving elsewhere.

Communities across Nebraska, including Wayne, will be sponsoring homecomings and have scheduled events that tie in with the special celebrations.

Wayne has labeled its celebration as "Return To The Nest." During the week from July 4 to July 9, activities are being planned in response to the "Celebrate Nebraska '88" promotion.

"The emphasis will be for people to return to Nebraska and spend some time in Wayne," said Jane O'Leary, a member of the Wayne Chicken Show Committee. "That includes people who lived here before moving on, former Wayne State College students and family reunions."

"People are encouraged to write to their friends and invite them to Wayne [during July 4-9] and ask them to participate in the activities," said O'Leary.

O'Leary said the annual Wayne Chicken Show has been scheduled for Saturday, July 9, adding to the "Return To The Nest" week.

Some events, currently listed as tentative, include a golf tournament, a possible black tie gala dinner and dance, a band concert in the park and other special activities, she mentioned.

Feeling blue? Here's why

Everyone has a bout of mild depression from time to time. Did you ever wonder what causes the blues and what will make them go away? Here are some answers to some frequently asked questions:

Are the blues catching? Yes. Researchers at the University of California demonstrated that being near a person who is feeling down can cause you to feel vaguely disturbed. In fact, just listening to tape recordings of voices of depressed or anxiety-ridden people can quickly produce a negative mood in the listeners, studies show.

Can one's job affect the frequency of the blues? Yes. Studies at the Institute for Social Research in New York showed high correlations between the blues and certain job characteristics.

Researchers have found that comfort, money and convenience do not in themselves insure against the blues. The crucial factors have to do with work performance and accomplishment! According to a study: "The blues were combated by such job features as a chance to use one's skills; having enough help to do one's best work; a chance to be creative; a chance to learn new things; having enough tools to do the work best; and having a supervisor who knows his job well, leaves his subordinates alone unless they require help, and maintains high performance standards in his own work."

Is it true that drab surroundings can affect your mood? Yes. Studies have shown that men and women tend to respond negatively to purple, gray and black, and that these colors are associated with feelings of despondency and general lowering of spirits.

A study of thousands of men and women at the University of Basel, Switzerland has shown that when a person is depressed, overcast, rainy or foggy weather can have a devastating effect on his or her outlook.

Are the blues associated with any particular time of year or weather? Yes. Down-in-the-dump periods were found to occur most frequently among subjects in the fall. Next highest incidence was in the winter and spring. The most depression-free time of year: The summer months.

However, humidity — most noticeable in the summer — has a depressing effect on many people. Studies at Kansas State University show that a humid condition which has a negative effect on a man has to get appreciably worse before the average woman is bothered by it.

Studies also show that when people are feeling depressed, their mood is reinforced by such weather conditions as warm, dry winds and cold fronts.

Are premenstrual blues myth or reality? They are real. At Wake Forest University, researchers studied 98 coeds and found that they were much more likely to display negative, downbeat attitudes during the premenstrual phase. Hormonal changes are to blame. It's also noted that psychological factors play an important part, especially in women who associate menstruation with pain and inconvenience.

What proven ways are there of banishing the blues? Give yourself a special treat such as a fine meal or shopping spree. University of Wisconsin studies show that common depression responds favorably to a simple technique: Force yourself to participate in some form of positive activity. This may be anything that will stimulate you and give you no chance to brood.

Pierce records win

Bears struggle in loss

The mark of a good team is how well they rebound after having a bad game. For Mark Hrabik's Laurel Bears, the verdict will come against Wayne this Tuesday.

Laurel was manhandled in a game they never led in, by visiting Pierce Friday night, 68-55. "This was the first game all year that I was displeased with the way we played," Hrabik said.

It didn't help Laurel's cause when Pierce came out in the first quarter and hit its first three out of four shots from the floor. All three just happened to be 3-pointers.

Laurel bounced back to trail by five after one period of play, 19-14. Pierce's hot shooting continued in the second quarter, and at intermission, the home team Bears trailed by 14, 38-24.

The second half was virtually even, as Pierce outscored Laurel 31-30, but unfortunately for Laurel, the outcome was never in doubt.

"Even though our kids never give up, I could tell they were struggling," Hrabik said. John Schutte led the Bear attack with 21 points, but Hrabik felt even though he scored a lot of points, he didn't play up to his potential.

Scott Marquardt added 15 for the Bears in a losing cause. Pierce out rebounded Laurel by a convincing 42-28 margin.

The loss left Laurel with a 3-5 mark on the season.

Trojans rocked by Pender

Things didn't go well for Wakefield in the first round of the Post Holiday Tournament at Emerson-Hubbard. The Trojans played Pender for the second time this season and the result was relatively the same, with Wakefield coming up on the short end, 74-53.

Wakefield Head Coach Paul Eaton noted that Pender's quickness was the key to the Trojans downfall. "They have some very quick people," Eaton said. "They didn't press us, but their aggressive man-to-man defense cost us some turnovers, which in turn led to easy baskets."

Wakefield got outgunned from the beginning. In the opening quarter, Pender, (Rated 9th), outscored the Trojans 15-6. Even though Wakefield fared better in the second by scoring 14 points, Pender also fared better scoring 19, to take a 34-20 lead into half time.

Things gradually got worse for Wakefield in the second half. Pender scored 40 second half points, to Wakefield's 33 to account for the 21-point deficit.

Scott Lund scored 14 points to lead Wakefield, while Stuart Clark added 12.

Wakefield, in the midst of its six game road swing, will travel to Walthill this Tuesday, and on to Winside Saturday.

JASON COLE doesn't allow his Creighton foe to escape.

Frosh win at Wakefield

Wayne-Carroll's freshman basketball team got by Wakefield recently, winning by a 36-15 score.

They were led in scoring by Craig Dyer with 10 points; Brian Lentz, eight points; Casey Dyer, seven points; Craig Sharpe and Cory Thomsen, each with four points and Glenn Johnson with three points.

Wayne was 13 of 38 from the field and 10 of 20 from the free throw line. The win puts the freshman record at 6-0.

On Monday, Jan. 11, Wayne-Carroll freshmen will host a girls game and a boys game against Wisner-Pilger. The girls game begins at 4:30, followed by the boys game, which will be held at the city auditorium.

Wayne grapplers get big win

By Chuck Hackenmilller

Wayne-Carroll's wrestlers proved they were a power to be reckoned with as they got a confidence-boosting 26-23 win Thursday night over Creighton.

Creighton was ranked among the state's top five teams in the Class C ranks coming into the dual against the Blue Devils.

The meet was exciting all the way to the final seconds of the second period in the 189 pound match between senior Brian Nelsen and Creighton's Gene Zimmerer.

At the time Nelsen and Zimmerer squared off, the Blue Devils were down 23-20. Wayne needed a decision win by Nelsen to at least tie Creighton. But they got more, to the delight of the Wayne wrestlers and local spectators.

Nelsen, who trailed by as much as 6-1, tied Zimmerer at 6-6 in the second period, pulled ahead 8-6 on a reversal, and then finished it off with a pin over Zimmerer. The pin gave the Blue Devils six points and the win over Creighton.

Blue Devil Head Coach John Murtaugh, ecstatic about the Wayne win, said Nelsen's strength is primarily his toughness, endurance and dedication to hard work — more so than technique.

"The whole team did a fantastic job. Normally after the Christmas break, it's usually tough for us. I didn't know how the kids would react after the long layoff," said Murtaugh.

"But they worked very hard during the Christmas break and proved they were a committed team. Last year, Creighton had defeated us 58-12," he added.

The Blue Devils also got a pin from 125 pound freshman Jeff Struve, at 5:18 in his match, as he defeated Tom Meyer. His pin gave Wayne a 13-4 lead in the dual following a 3-0 decision win by Chris Janke and a major decision win by Mike DeNaeyer.

Creighton took over the lead (14-13) as Bulldog Chris Nielsen won a major decision over Blue Devil Cory Wieseler (at 130) and Wayne forfeited at 135 pounds. That weight is normally wrestled by Greg DeNaeyer, who will be out of action for a few weeks while he recuperates from a knee injury he suffered at practice.

The Bulldogs widened their lead to 17-13 when 140-pound Van Brocklin decided Tom Etter.

However, Blue Devil Shane Geiger evened the score at 17-17 with a major decision win at 145. After freshman Jason Ehrhardt lost a close decision to Darren Stacken at 152, Jason Cole came through with a decision over Chris Fritz at 160 pounds.

Cole battled Fritz to a 4-4 tie. At the buzzer, Fritz was called for interlocking his hands around Cole. The Wayne wrestler was awarded a point and the win.

Chris Lutt, wrestling at 175, spotted Bulldog Jerry Sukup a 5-0 first period lead and lost his match by a 9-4 margin and Creighton led 23-20.

Nelsen recorded his pin to preserve the victory for Wayne. Both teams were open at heavyweight.

In reserve action against Creighton, Jesse Brodersen won by decision, 7-4 and lost by decision, 4-7; Rusty Hamer won by superior decision 13-0; and Tom Sievers won a decision by a 4-1 margin.

Final varsity results are as follows:

- 103 — Chris Janke (W) won by decision, 3-0, over Shaun Waldow.
- 112 — Mike DeNaeyer (W) won by major decision, 15-6 over Rob Polak.
- 119 — Trevor Wehrer (W) lost by major decision, 11-2, to Ken Kuhlman.
- 125 — Jeff Struve (W) won by pin (5:18) over Tom Meyer.
- 130 — Cory Wieseler (W) lost by major decision, 11-0, to Chris Nielsen.
- 135 — Wayne forfeited to Kory Young.
- 140 — Tom Etter (W) lost by decision, 6-0, to Garrett Van Brocklin.
- 145 — Shane Geiger (W) won by major decision, 18-10, over Larry Weyhrich.
- 152 — Jason Ehrhardt (W) lost by decision, 4-2, to Darren Stacken.
- 160 — Jason Cole (W) won by decision, 5-4, over Chris Fritz.
- 171 — Chris Lutt (W) lost by decision, 9-4, to Jerry Sukup.
- 189 — Brian Nelsen (W) won by pin (3:50) over Gene Zimmerer.
- Hvy — Both teams were open.

Three-pointer dooms WSC Wildcats

Wayne State College found out just how prolific the 3-point field goal can be in its 63-62 loss to Sioux Falls College last Tuesday.

The Wildcats led by nine in the middle of the second half, before succumbing to Sioux Falls, the home team. Wayne State Head Coach Steve Aggers saw his team miss the front end of two key one-and-one's.

"We had our chances to win," Aggers said. "Obviously a lead is never safe when you have the 3-pointer."

Incidentally, this was the first game for the Wildcats, since mid-December, and more importantly, it was the first game the Wildcats played without Byron Haas. Haas was ruled academically ineligible for second semester, putting a damper on the inside play of Wayne State.

Aggers knows that the loss of Haas, statistically hurts his team. "Anytime you lose a player who is second on the team in scoring and rebounding, you're bound to feel the effect."

Not only was Haas an asset in the statistical category, but his size gave Wayne State the height advantage on most teams they play.

With 37 seconds remaining in the game, Wayne State's Steve Dunbar stepped to the line for a one-and-one. Dunbar missed the front end, but Mike McNamara, tipped the missed shot in, and the Wayne State lead was three at 62-59.

Sioux Falls was fouled and made both of its free throws, making it a 62-61 game, with 12 seconds remaining in the contest. Once again Dunbar was fouled and sent to the line for a one-and-one attempt. Dunbar missed, and this time Sioux Falls got the rebound, and took it down court and proceeded to hit an 18-foot jumper with two seconds left on the clock, for the 63-62 win.

Scott Hurley led the Wildcat attack, as he netted 14 points. Hurley connected on three 3-point field goals. Russ Rosenquist added 13 for Wayne State. Bobby Parker, 6'5", junior from Phoenix Arizona, filled in for Haas, and scored eight points.

Dunbar led the Wildcats in rebounding with six. Rosenquist and Parker each added five.

Wayne State committed 19 turnovers, compared to 17 by Sioux Falls.

The loss left the Wildcats with a 3-8 record on the year. However, Wayne State has only had one home game at the time this story was written. The Wildcats will be in the midst of a four game homestand, when the paper is mailed.

Wildcats sidetrack Beemer, do better job on boards

After being out rebounded by 22 in the game against Walthill, Winside shifted gears as they traveled to Beemer Friday night. The result was a Winside victory, 77-71, and the rebounding was in Winside's favor, 49-46.

Winside Head Coach Randy Geier was elated by the way his team improved defensively, from the game before. "We did a great job of blocking out on the boards," Geier said. Beemer didn't get a lot of cheap baskets off easy offensive rebounds."

Winside and Beemer seemed like they were trading baskets in the first quarter, with Winside taking the lead 19-18, at quarters end. In the second, things pretty much repeated the same as the first, with Winside clinging to a three point lead at intermission, 37-34.

Things got a little tight in the third quarter as Winside jumped out quickly, and pushed to a 12 point lead, before Beemer made a strong comeback.

Geier's Wildcats led 58-46, at one point in the third quarter, but with less than one minute remaining in the third quarter, Beemer, trailing by 12, made up seven of those points. "They were trapping us, and as soon as they would steal the ball, it was a lay up," Geier said. "This all happened with 51 seconds remaining in the third quarter, and I didn't want to use a time out and waste one, because then, I would have been short one in the fourth quarter if I needed it."

Beemer eventually took the lead early in the fourth quarter. Geier pulled his troops to the side during a time out, and simply told the players to keep their composure, and that it was going to take a team effort to win the game.

The Wildcats responded, came out and regained the lead, and never relinquished it, to notch their record at 3-5, on the season.

Winside's Tim Jacobsen had another all-world performance against Beemer. The 6'1 Junior hit for 19 points, four of the baskets were 3-point field goals. Jacobsen also accounted for 12 rebounds, five assists, and 7-8 from the free throw line.

Steve Heinemann, not to be out done from the 3-point range, hit five of them, en-route to his 18 point performance. Chris Nau was the only other Wildcat in double figures with 10, but he was also in double figures in rebounding with 12.

Winside hit 9-14, from the 3-point range, for an unbelievable, 64 percent. The Wildcats also sank 16-23 from the free throw line for nearly 70 percent.

Winside will be looking to string a couple wins together, as they play host to Wakefield, this Friday night.

Emerson tops Wakefield

The Wakefield Lady Trojans scored the first two points of their game against Emerson-Hubbard in the Emerson-Hubbard Post Holiday Tournament Thursday night.

But that's all the points the Lady Trojans could muster in the first quarter as Emerson scored 13 and dominated the remaining three quarters in coasting to a 56-19 first round win.

Wakefield Head Coach Ellie Studer said her team was hurt by turnovers and the Emerson attack on the offensive boards.

The young Lady Trojans had committed 40 turnovers in the game, compared to Emerson's 33.

Emerson had 43 rebounds to Wakefield's 33, with 23 of the Lady Pirates rebounds coming off of the offensive boards.

Studer said Julie Greve played aggressively throughout the game, scoring seven points, and the second leading rebounder with seven. Wakefield's leading rebounder was Kudi Nelson with 12 rebounds.

The Lady Trojans hit 7 of 39 field goal attempts and were 5 of 11 from the free throw line. Emerson connected on 26 field goals and made good on 4 of 8 free throw attempts.

Eagles win consolation

With one point separating the Allen Lady Eagles from earning a berth in the championship game of the Ponca Post Holiday Tournament, Head Coach Gary Troth's Eagles took it out on Bancroft-Rosalie in the consolation game, winning 44-23.

Allen, 3-5, on the season, will play Bancroft-Rosalie again in its next game. However, Troth does not think his girls will be overly confident when they travel to Rosalie Tuesday night.

"I think the girls realize they can only take one game at a time," Troth said. "I really don't think they will believe they already have the game won before they play."

Allen jumped out to a commanding 16-8 lead after one quarter and never looked back. At intermission, the score was 26-11.

Troth's squad tried to do several different things in the second half with the lead they had established. "Basically we were trying different offenses, and it wasn't working," Troth said. Allen outscored Bancroft-Rosalie 18-13 in the second half.

Allen's MVP of the tournament had to be Candace Jones. In the two games combined, Jones scored 36 points, 20 of which coming against Bancroft-Rosalie.

Other leading scorers for the consolation winners included Lana Erwin with 10, and Amy Noe netted eight. Allen hit 33 percent of its shots on 18-54 attempts.

Allen did cut down on the number of turnovers it had committed the game before. The Lady Eagles turned it over 24 times to Bancroft-Rosalie 28. The rebounding proved to be all Allen, as the Lady Eagles hauled down 34, compared to 28 for the opponent.

Defense good but Wakefield loses to Pender

The Wakefield Lady Trojans played better in the consolation round against Pender, than they did against Emerson in the first round game of the Post Holiday Tournament at Emerson-Hubbard.

You might recall that the Lady Trojans could only muster 19 points against 10th-rated Emerson. However, they did score 33 points against Pender, unfortunately, it was a little short as Pender claimed the consolation victory, 45-33.

Wakefield trailed only by two at the end of the first quarter, 11-9. The Lady Trojans did rally in the second quarter, and outscored Pender, 10-5, to take the lead at intermission, 19-16.

The lead was short lived however, as Pender came on in the third quarter to lead by four, with one period remaining. Wakefield was out-gunned in the final period 18-10.

Wakefield Head Coach Ellie Studer was a little more pleased about her team's performance Friday, than she was on Thursday. "We played better defense against Pender," Studer said. "We still need to work on the boards quite a bit, and cut down on our turnovers," Studer added.

Studer hopes her team gets some inspired incentive from its positive showing against Pender, for the rest of its games.

The Lady Trojans play Walthill this Tuesday.

Eagles downed by Ponca

The Allen Eagles, looking to improve an earlier defeat at the hands of Ponca, was looking to rebound and return the favor Friday night in the first round of the Ponca Tournament. It was not to be however, as Ponca destroyed the Eagles 85-38, leaving Head Coach Dave Uldrich, with an uneasy feeling.

"We didn't play well at all," Uldrich said. "We let Ponca have too many offensive rebounds, which they in turn scored on the second and third try."

In the first period, Allen played aggressively, but it seemed a little too aggressive. Four of Allen's starters had three fouls each in the opening quarter of the game. Plus Ponca hit a 3-pointer at the buzzer to boost the lead to 18-8.

Uldrich was forced to go to the bench early, with the foul trouble he was in, thus allowing Ponca to continue its full court press. Ponca used the press to gain several easy lay ups en-route to a 22-8 thrashing in the second quarter to put them up 40-16 at intermission.

Uldrich said that the fouls took Allen out of its basic game plan, which was to be aggressive and physical. The Eagles did lead Ponca in one category at half time. They had 17 fouls to Ponca's five.

When it rains it pours. That adage had to be going through Uldrich's head in the third quarter, because it was almost a repeat of the second quarter..... only worse!

Ponca, already with a 24 point lead at the half, continued with the full court press, and the result was much of the same, only this time, the Eagles were outscored 30-8 in the period, making the score 70-24 heading into the final stanza.

Allen gave up a total of 31 offensive rebounds in the game. They were out rebounded as a team 57-39. Allen also turned the ball over ten more times than its opponent, 27-17.

Uldrich's squad only hit on 4-17 from the charity stripe, compared to Ponca's 15-26.

Wildcat gals fall to Beemer

For three quarters, the Winside Wildcats girls basketball team was in control in a home game Thursday night against Beemer.

But it was a disastrous first quarter that spotted Beemer a 20-9 lead which led to a 44-40 Wildcat loss.

Winside was able to outscore Beemer 12-10 in the second quarter, 9-5 in the third quarter and 10-9 in the fourth quarter, but they couldn't make up the difference from Beemer's early lead.

Wildcat Head Coach Jill Stenwall said the Winside post and center players had problems of getting positioning in the game. Two players, Kristy Miller and Lisa Janke picked up five fouls and had to exit the game early.

Winside was outrebounded, 44-41, by the Beemer team. "They shot well from the outside," Stenwall said. "We were flat-footed on defense. I think the Christmas layoff hurt us, too," she mentioned.

Two players for Winside shared scoring honors. Miller and Carmen Reeg each finished the game with 11 points.

Winside was 12 of 42 from field goal range and 16 of 29 from the free throw line. Beemer scored on 17 field goals and 10 of 22 free throws to accumulate their total 44 points.

The next game for the Winside girls is Friday, Jan. 15 as Wakefield comes to town.

WSC explores NCC

Wayne State College has formally applied for membership in the North Central Conference, according to Joseph Fleck, interim president. Wayne State has been exploring a number of possibilities and our application to the NCC is just one of the paths we may take," Fleck said. "We have been pursuing membership in a conference in an effort to solve some of the problems caused by the break up of the Central States Intercollegiate Conference," Fleck added.

Four schools in the CSIC, Washburn, Pittsburg State, Missouri Western and Missouri Southern, have announced their intentions of joining the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. That move means the CSIC will disband in 1989.

Wayne State's NCC application was received by the conference and sent to its long-term planning committee. A study of a possible east-west or north-south split in the conference is planned.

The 10 schools in the NCC are members of the NCAA at the Division II level. Last August Wayne State applied for membership in the NCAA as well, but will retain its National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics membership.

"Wayne State will continue to look at all the options available for its athletic program, but membership in the NCC is a viable course for us to pursue at this time. We're pleased the conference has taken our application under advisement," Fleck said.

A decision on the application is not expected until April.

If Wayne State is accepted into the NCC, they will have to wait one year before they can be eligible to participate in post season tournaments, thus it is possible that Wayne State would have a dual membership with the NCAA and the NAIA.

Allen upset bid falls short at home

In what was Allen's best game of the season, the Eagles came up seven points short in its upset bid over Wakefield, succumbing in the final minutes, 51-44.

Not only was this the Eagles closest game of the season, but Allen actually had its chances to win the game.

Allen Head Coach Dave Uldrich, was pleased with the improvement of his team. "We played pretty well, but we ended up putting more pressure on ourselves, by missing too many free throws, forcing us to take a 3-pointer, which is basically out of our game plan," Uldrich said.

Uldrich believes his squad outplayed Wakefield for 90 percent of the game. Wakefield Head Coach Paul Eaton did not undercut Allen's performance. "Their kids played a great game," Eaton said. "Maybe they can build on that, and improve a little each game."

The two teams traded baskets pretty much in the first half, with Wakefield hitting a 3-pointer at the buzzer to take an 11-10 lead into the second quarter.

The second quarter was all Allen, as the home team Eagles exploded for 20 points, to take a 30-23 lead into intermission.

Uldrich said that sophomore playmaker guard Matt Hingst was sick at the half with the flu, but he refused to be sat down, and played the whole game.

Wakefield closed the gap on Allen in the third quarter and with eight minutes remaining in the game, Allen had a slim one point lead, 36-35.

The fourth quarter saw both teams see-saw the lead back and forth. Wakefield did take a four point lead, with under three minutes remaining in the contest.

Hingst connected on a 3 pointer to close the gap to 43-42, in favor of Wakefield, with just over two minutes remaining.

That was as close as Allen would come to upsetting the 4-2 Trojans. After a 12-foot jumper by McQuistan, for a 45-42 lead with 1:31 left in the contest, Allen lost a key player in Todd Hohenstein.

Hohenstein fouled out, and sent Wakefield's Stuart Clark to the line for a one-and-one. Clark missed the front end, but fortunately for the Trojans, Brian Larsen got the offensive rebound and made the follow shot for a five point lead with under a minute remaining.

Allen was forced to foul, thus accounting for the seven point victory.

Eaton was pleased with the way his team overcame a seven point deficit at half, to win the game. "We didn't shoot well in the game, but I was pleased with the way we bounced back," Eaton said.

"We're 4-2 now, which exceeds our expectations of where we thought we would be at this time. We are in the midst of a six game road schedule, which will be a challenge for us," Eaton said.

Wakefield will turn its attention to the Emerson-Hubbard tournament this Thursday-Saturday. The Trojans will play Pender at 8:00 p.m. Friday. With a victory, Wakefield will play at 8:00 p.m. Saturday. With a loss, the Trojans will play at 5:00 p.m. Saturday.

Allen will also be playing in a post holiday tournament at Ponca. The Eagles will be playing the host team in the first round. Ponca soundly defeated Allen in the first meeting of the season between the two teams, 75-35.

Wayne speed clips Laurel

Two area girls basketball teams, Wayne-Carroll and Laurel, battled it out on the Laurel court Thursday night, and the speed of the Lady Blue Devils won out as they defeated the Lady Bears by a 49-43 score.

Wayne went ahead after the first quarter, 11-8. The Lady Bears kept pace in the second quarter, outscoring the Lady Blue Devils 15-13 as Wayne held only a 24-23 lead at the half.

A 16 point third quarter for Wayne widened the Lady Blue Devil lead to 40-35 at third quarter's end, and they went on to hold Laurel to eight points in the final eight minutes to pick up the win.

KRISTY HANSEN finds an open shot during Wayne's six point victory at Laurel Thursday.

The height of Laurel gave the Blue Devils problems throughout most of the game. Center Becky Christensen, who finished the game with 12 points for Laurel, had several offensive rebounds that led to some layups.

However, Wayne tore up the nets with a 50 percent shooting mark in the second half.

The Lady Blue Devils were led by Dana Nelson who scored 14 points. Sophomore Heidi Reeg also ended the game in double figures with 12 points.

Wayne Head Coach Marlene Uhing said the team's man-to-man defense was successful in containing the Lady Bears' attack. They were able to rebound Laurel by a 32-29 margin.

Leading all Wayne rebounders were Reeg and Holly Paige, each with eight.

Uhing said the skip pass for Wayne was effective, as was reversing the basketball on offense. But she said areas which her team needs to improve on were handling the changes in defenses and keeping consistent.

Laurel Head Coach Pam Thies said her team was looking to go inside on the night, if possible, or kick it back out for the open shot. She said Amy Adkins played pretty good defense for Laurel.

Leading all scorers in the game was Laurel's Dawn Addison with 16 points. Christensen pulled down 16 rebounds for the Lady Bears.

"We'd like to have won. But we played a good game," Thies said.

On the free throw line, the Lady Blue Devils were 6 of 15, while Laurel finished the night hitting on 5 of 12 attempts.

Saturday night, the Lady Blue Devils, now 5-2, travel to Sioux City to take on Sioux City West.

Laurel's record is now 4-6. They play Randolph Monday night at Randolph.

In the junior varsity contest, Wayne-Carroll defeated Laurel.

Concord, 36-26. Leading scorers for Wayne were Deanna Schluns and Jennifer Hammer, each with seven points.

Blazing shooting helps Laurel win

The wind chill outside of Laurel gymnasium was far below zero Friday night, but inside the cozy confines of home, Laurel's Lady Bears were on fire.

Laurel shot over 45 percent from the field in its one point win over Pierce, 47-46, as a semi-packed house looked on. The win upped the Lady Bears record to 5-6 on the season.

The game started on an even tilt, as both teams traded baskets in the first quarter, ending with a 9-9 score.

The second quarter is one the Lady Bears Head Coach Pam Thies would just as soon forget. "We just didn't do a good job of blocking out on the boards," Thies said. Pierce scorched the nets for 18 second quarter points, while Laurel could muster only six, and at intermission, Pierce was definitely in control, with a 27-15 lead.

Thies simply told her team at half time, that they could play with the Pierce girls, if they would just play their game, instead of Pierce's.

The Lady Bears responded in the third, as they overcame a Pierce full court press, and outscored the opponents 16-7, to trail by only three at the end of three quarters of play.

Amy Adkins played her best game of the season, and the third quarter may well have been hers alone, as she broke the press by continuously outrunning the Pierce defenders.

Adkins finished the night with 20 points to lead Laurel.

In the fourth quarter, Laurel knew what it had to do, and they did it. Mostly the play of Adkins and McCorkindale on the offensive end, and the rebounding of Dawn Addison, proved to be impossible for Pierce to retain its lead.

The precision play of Laurel, and the scrappiness of Pierce led to a most interesting final minute of play.

With 15 seconds remaining in the contest, Laurel fouled, thus sending Pierce to the line for a one-and-one opportunity to tie or go ahead in the game.

Pierce missed the front end, and due to poor boxing out on the boards by Laurel, Pierce was able to tie up the ball and force a jump-ball situation. With the arrow pointing in visitor's direction, Pierce had yet another chance to win the game with very little time remaining.

With one second left, Laurel gave Pierce new life, a foul sent Pierce to the line for two shots, with one tick of the clock remaining, and one point separating the two teams, 47-46.

The first shot was long, and to put more pressure on the Pierce shooter, Laurel took a time out. Pierce stepped to the line and calmly missed its second attempt, to ice the victory for Laurel.

Creighton is Laurel's next foe, Jan. 15.

For those people in the Laurel community who are avid walkers or interested in taking up walking, the Laurel-Concord school will be opening up its doors for walkers during the cold winter months.

This will be done on a trial basis and if all goes well could be continued. The hallways will be measured and mapped out starting at the senior high office, and the map will be posted on the bulletin board for all to see. Seven trips around this walking course is approximately one mile.

The hours to walk are from 6:30 to 7:30 a.m., for the early birds, and from 6 to 8 p.m. on the days school is in session. There will be a place to hang your coats, and a chart will be provided to log your name, date, time, time spent walking and number of miles.

The money you spend helps your community grow & prosper

A part of everything you spend in local stores goes to make your town a better place to live for you and your family. Merchants pay taxes, make charitable contributions and support local institutions. The merchants are your neighbors and they want to work with you to improve and support the good life in your community. You'll be helping your neighbors and yourself.

When you shop locally, everyone benefits. It's more convenient so you save gas and time. You get friendly, knowledgeable service because local merchants "know" you and appreciate your business. They depend on you to keep their stores going strong. And some of what you spend goes back into the community in the form of taxes and charitable contributions paid by the merchants.
