

Speeding along Main street in Wayne nearly claimed a victim Friday night as Mrs. Frank Morgan narrowly escaped being struck by a motorist, driving at such speed that she was forced to flee out of his way although the car was nearly a block and a half distant when she started to cross the street.

Volume 1, Number 1 of the News Advertiser, latest addition to the publications serving Wayne, will make its bow throughout this city's large trade territory Friday morning.

Science teachers of Northeast Nebraska met Saturday at the college, formed a permanent organization and selected Mervin Feddersen as chairman.

Interesting features of the program included a demonstration by Miss Louise M. Wendt, Wayne college teacher, and one of her students of semi-micro analysis technique for qualitative analysis; a talk and demonstration by Dr. John Moore of the college on latent slide making; a demonstration by John Littlejohn of Laurel of a vacuum tube he made as a sensitive relay in a photo-electric current; a talk by K. N. McGregor, Home High teacher, on the place of science in the Nebraska high school, in which he stressed the need of a science course in Nebraska grade schools, which would prepare children properly for instruction in science in high school and a talk by Miss Tyrell on promoting a science club in a high school.

Hall Addition To Be Ready September 8

Contractor Planning To Beat Schedule

Construction of the $100,000 addition to Connett hall at Wayne State Teachers college is under way under the direction of the general contractor, John L. Soderberg of Omaha, who will supervise the entire project.

Mr. Soderberg, who was given 170 days to complete work under the contract, hopes to finish the job in 150 days or by Sept. 8. Work was started Wednesday of last week.

Excavation work on the project was completed Dec. 31, but work was halted then until the general contract was let and a work order issued. Eric Erickson of Omaha is carpenter foreman and Lester Anderson, brick foreman.

The U-shaped building will incorporate Connett hall as its east wing and will increase the housing accommodations for both students and faculty members.

Employment will be direct by the contractor who will hire only men referred to him as eligible by the Nebraska State Employment Service.

REA Lines Being Staked

Work Progressing Steadily On First Power Project

Staking of lines for the first Wayne county Rural Electrification project will be continued during this week with actual construction work due to get underway within the next two weeks.

RE requirements are that 75 miles of line must be staked before lines are started. Tree trimming is also progressing steadily.

Hopes for an immediate allotment for the second funds would likely be granted during the next few months. However, officials are confident that finances will be provided later.

The meter contract was let Thursday night to the General Electric company.

More than a score of farm homes have been wired and contracts have been let to wire at least an additional score, so this phase of the work is progressing more rapidly than usual.

Man Fined And License Suspended On Car, Rum Charge

Herman Bronzynski was fined $25 and costs and ordered not to drive a motor vehicle for 30 days in county court at Wayne last Wednesday.

Bronzynski, who was represented by H. E. Siman, local attorney, withdrew his not guilty plea to a charge of operating a car while under the influence of liquor and plead guilty. The fine and license suspension were ordered by Judge J. M. Cherry.

Highway Patrolman E. L. Schottler made the arrest and was present to testify in the case.

Wayne Girl To Be Honored

Miss Heidenreich, a senior in the School of Nursing, is one of 36 who rank in the upper 3 per cent of their class or have ranked in the upper 10 per cent of their class for four years.

Oswald Garrison Villard, noted publisher, will address the group on "The Spiritual Defense of Democracy".

Rabbi Speaks Here

Rabbi Hyman Rabinowitz of Sioux City is being presented by the Jewish Chautauqua society in addresses given in Wayne this week.

Schoolmen Meet Here

Storm Cuts Attendance; Rabbi Speaks

The late spring storm which invaded Wayne Monday limited attendance at the Northeast Nebraska Schoolmen's annual meeting in Wayne Monday to about 60. Nearly twice that number had been expected.

Interesting and informative sessions were held, however, which were climaxed by a dinner at the Wayne college cafeteria Monday night at which Rabbi Hyman Rabinowitz and Lieutenant Governor Johnson were the principal speakers.

Superintendent of Schools E. W. Smith is president of the association this year and Theodore Skillstack, principal of the Norfolk high school, was in charge of the panel discussion Monday afternoon. All sessions were held at the Wayne State Teachers College.

The topics discussed and the speakers follow: "Should three kinds of high school graduation certificates rather than one general certificate"

Methodists Prepare For Historic Union

Special Services To Be Held Here; Seymour Is Delegate

April 26, 1939, will go down as a significant date in modern Church history. That date marks the beginning of the United Conference of American Methodism.

After a century of separation and more than half a century of unavailing efforts to achieve union, the three main Methodist denominations in the United States of America are to become one. Up to now they have been, in order of size, The Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church.

After this historic conference, the name of the united church will be The Methodist Church, with a full membership of eight million, not including preparatory members of baptized children, and a young people's society (name still to be determined) of nine hundred thousand members. Its Sunday School enrollment is about six million members.

New Era In Christianity

Far more significant than the numerical strength of the new Church is the spiritual value of this long step toward the removal of divisions in Protestant Christianity. As Dr. Oscar E. Maurer, Moderator of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches, phrased it in his message of congratulation: "This union will mark the beginning of a new era for American Christianity, and it will be an incentive toward unity throughout Christendom."

The sessions of the Uniting Conference will be held in the great Municipal Auditorium of Kansas City, Mo. The nine hundred

Crowds At Jubilee Of Church Here

Impressive Services Are Conducted Sunday

Despite unfavorable weather Sunday, large crowds attended the Golden Jubilee of Our Redeemer's Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday including many who have played major roles in the history of the church here.

The services opened in the morning at the church which was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants. Such a large crowd attended that it was necessary for some to be seated in the church basement and a loud speaker was used.

Speakers Listed Speakers at the morning services were Rev. R. Moehring of Grand Island, who was pastor here from 1912 to 1919, Rev. A. Graber, who served here from 1896 to 1901.

Bouquets were received from the Wayne Ministerial Alliance and several friends of the church and a special bouquet was presented Rev. W. F. Most, pastor since November, 1936, by D. Hall. Among the honored guests was Mrs. J. F. Mueller, wife of the first pastor who came to Wayne as a bride in 1839, and who now resides in Fremont. She was accompanied by Mrs. Hanson of Fremont.

More than 400 persons attended the afternoon meeting at the City Auditorium. This followed a dinner program, which was sponsored by the Ladies Aid with the co-operation of members of the congregation. Among the visiting pastors attending either the morning services or the dinner and afternoon program were Rev. and Mrs. R. Shipwright of Pender, Rev. and Mrs. Hugo Welch of Emerson, Rev. Fisher of Wayne, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Teckhaus of Tekamah, Rev. A. Graber of Nashua, Ia., and Rev. R. Moehring. The visiting pastors were seated with Rev. and Mrs. Most, and their daughter with the church council members and their families and the charter and old members of the congregation. A picture of the entire group was taken by the Wayne Photo company.

AAA Ruling Is Modified

Good Stand Requirement Is Reduced

A good stand requirement of legumes or grasses when sown with a nurse crop of flax, wheat on nonwealth allotment farms, barley, rye, vetch, speltz, or mixtures of these crops is modified, according to Wayne officials of the A.A.A.

The amendment, as announced from the Regional Office, provides in each instance that where a good stand of such legumes or grasses is not on the farm at the time of final checking of performance, a good stand will be considered as having been established if the county committee finds that such legumes or grasses were seeded in a workmanlike manner and

(a) failure to secure and maintain a good stand was due to flood or drought conditions which prevented the establishment of a good stand on farms generally in the community, or

(b) failure to have a good stand was due to grasshopper or other insects and the farm operator has made every reasonable effort to prevent damage by such insects including in any event cooperation in the insect control programs of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in any area in which such programs are in effect.

No inspection of any farm will be made for the purpose of determining the extent of performance under the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program unless there is received on or before May 1, 1939, by the County Committee for the county in which your farm is located one of the following: first, a Farm Plan for Participation, which is NCR-303, for your farm duly executed by a person's eligibility to make application for payment with inspection to such farms, or second, a letter from the landlord of such farm indicating that he is participating in the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program and requests an inspection of his farm in this county.

Quiet has apparently been restored to Terrace Hall after some difficulty there which was aired at length in some of the metropolitan newspapers.

Damage to property was slight and no trouble has been encountered recently nor is more expected by college authorities. Some members of the hall have expressed their regret for joining the leaders in the outbreaks that necessitated prompt action by the authorities in charge. However, a comparatively small percentage of the residents of the hall were involved.

School authorities are still investigating the matter and are ready to take whatever action seems required in case of any further outbreaks, which are not anticipated at present.

Here Comes The News Advertiser

Friday will be the birthday of a new publication to serve Wayne and its large trade territory—first edition of the News Advertiser will go to press Thursday night and be distributed to every house throughout the trade area Friday morning.

Despite the fact that the field is obviously over-crowded, we have great hopes for the future of this infant brother of The Wayne News. We believe it will play a major role in expanding Wayne's trade territory through completely covering this area with a readable, printed publication every Friday morning.

The excellent response resulting from the improvements made in The News during the past two and a half months indicates that both local advertisers and readers want good coverage of news and a publication which prints facts, whether or not they are of a controversial nature. The Advertiser will not detract in any manner from your News. Additions are being made to the staff to handle the new publication and new features will be added to both publications as rapidly as possible.

The News Advertiser will make its debut as a free publication but it will be one of which the community it serves may be proud. We hope you like it.

Welcome To Wayne

The Wayne State Teachers College will play the role of host to more than 2,000 students from more than two score schools in this district Friday and Saturday when the contestants meet here for the musical event of the year.

It is no small job handling these contests successfully as they have been conducted in the past. On the shoulders of Professor K. N. Parke rests the heaviest burden of responsibility, which is shared by other college officials, who have handled the difficult task with great credit to WSTC in the past and have made the same thorough preparations this year.

Value of these music contests to Wayne as well as the numerous other special events staged during the year at the college could hardly be overestimated. The pupils bring additional business here and many return later to attend the college. It is the duty of Wayne's citizens to extend a hearty welcome to these visitors. As individuals we should make them feel that we are glad to serve them and to help make their visit as pleasant as possible.

It pays to be a good host and a town is able to serve best in that role only as its citizens contribute as individuals. Let's all be courteous, friendly hosts.

Politics Out

National politics should play no role in community affairs, especially in towns of less than 5,000 population.

Because you may not agree with some of the policies of the national or state administration is certainly no reason to either support or oppose some project, which affects primarily the welfare of your community.

We doubt that many persons will deny that loyalty to their community should come first particularly when issues involved have little or no national significance. Those who examine every suggestion and proposal from a partisan standpoint and sacrifice the best interests of their community in the mistaken belief that they are being loyal soldiers of the party for which they vote are being stubborn stumbling blocks to a community's progress.

Yet, there are such persons. Fortunately, the old idea to which many formerly held of voting tickets straight even though they knew that some of their candidates were far less competent than the opposing entries of the other ticket and in some cases dishonest, is passing. But, unfortunately there are still those who read in every move some political conspiracy, which lacks foundation in fact, and are governed solely by this consideration.

County Supt. F. B. Decker deserves commendation on his plan to sponsor a spelling contest in which the best spellers in this section of the state will compete in Wayne, May 19. The contest idea is sugar coating for education, which makes it far easier to take and results in more generous doses.

'Today's Topic'

Last week's "Today's Topic", which was the question of whether or not Wayne stores should remain open more than one evening a week to serve the farmers in this trade area, aroused more than the usual interest. We found it being discussed rather heatedly in several stores and were both praised and condemned for mentioning the question in the paper.

While we had no thought of launching even a verbal battle over the topic and published it only as a question and answer affair without advocating adoption or rejection of the proposal, we are firmly convinced that it does no harm to have open discussion of such community questions. Far better to have them aired in public print than to have only one side of the question presented in street corner debate.

It's a poor solution to a question that isn't able to weather an open and free discussion. The light of public opinion has accomplished far greater good than all the laws of the land and it will always be so in a democracy.

What Editors Say---

To Conserve The Soil

Nebraska land owners are apparently awakening to the advantages to be derived from the formation of soil conservation districts. In a referendum held in the Cedar river watershed in Greeley and Wheeler counties Saturday, the vote was practically unanimous for the formation of such a district. Hearings on proposals to organize districts are being held in Douglas and Buffalo counties Tuesday and Wednesday.

The prevention of soil erosion and the conservation of moisture as well as the proper drainage of land are ruling factors in the production of crops and these facts are being more and more brought home to the owners and tillers of the soil. That they should take concerted action to bring about these ends is just as apparent as that action should be taken.

Had the farmers and land owners of a generation or more ago been able to foresee the results of their neglect of conservation of moisture and soil many millions of dollars would have been added to the wealth of Nebraska, and untold suffering and privation would have been averted. As the matter now stands it will take many years to regain what has been lost; but with united and intelligent effort this may be accomplished. It will be fully worth the cost.—Lincoln Star.

Senator J. Ham Lewis

One of the senatorial traditions belongs to J. Ham Lewis, whose death occurred over the weekend. He was the most fastidious man in personal dress and appearance of this present generation in public life.

The distinction, perhaps, did him an injustice. He was a man of ability and particularly devoted to his party and to his country. His long service in Washington was characterized by a consistent voting record as a democrat, during which he supported liberal measures in the main, but his position as a liberal came from his votes and not from militant advocacy.

The senate will remember him as the kindest of men, and the most companionable, the most considerate and courteous to those who opposed his views. His gallantry toward an opponent was real and genuine, as flawless as his attire, and the latter kept the senate and its gallery in perpetual anticipation of what was coming next.—Lincoln Star.

All editors say the same thing about arming for defense. The only difference is that the ones we don't like are lying.—Buffalo

"TURNING BACKS DARK TOO"

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

New York, Apr. 18—BUSINESS—Hopes of a spring rise in business seem to be fading, with unrelieved European tension considered chiefly responsible. On the other hand, there appears no reason for great alarm because industry and trade, by merely holding to present levels from now to July 1, still will be 30 per cent better than during the second quarter last year. Government spending will not reach a peak for 1939 until mid-summer. This means expanding buying power for millions of consumers in the next three months and could be a powerful recovery influence if the fate of Europe can be settled peaceably soon. Arrival of better weather is expected to stimulate retail auto sales since rain and cold in recent weeks have delayed inquiries from many prospective purchasers. Pre-Easter promotions on the retail front have been reasonably satisfying, with sales of Easter and spring clothing approximating $500,000,000, a gain of 7 per cent over last year.

Research Stations Proposed

Washington—Latest proposal for helping small business comes from Secretary of Commerce Hopkins. He wants congress to appropriate money for the establishment of research stations in every state which small companies may lean upon for trade information and solution of technical problems. The proposal recognizes the importance to business success of scientific research and adequate knowledge of consumer demand, price and market trends, trading areas, effects of taxation, store location, local building codes, capital requirements and other developments. Sponsors of the idea point out that government research facilities for the benefit of the farmers have been available for many years, and they see therefore at least a 50-50 chance of passage of similar legislation for small business at this season.

NO PLUTOCRAT

To show that the average stockholder of American corporations is not a plutocrat, a survey by the Contain Corporation covering more than half its 8,000 shareholders concludes that the typical stockholder was graduated from high school but not college, is married and has children, is 48 years old and dependent on a salary, owns an automobile and his own home, and for hobbies prefers gardening and fishing.

Things To Watch For

A new "All-year system" for providing hot water from the same anthracite-burning equipment that heats the home in winter . . . A golf ball in 480 different color combinations to lessen chances of players getting wrong ball after driving over a hill . . . An all-metal electric fly trap that electrocutes flies and deposits their bodies in a removable tray . . . Puncture-proof Seal-o-matic inner tubes built by scientists who studied the structure of the human skin and modeled a three-ply tube with plastic inner layers which "grow" over and "heal" cuts, changing dangerous blowouts into safe, slow leaks . . . Possible appearance of a three-cent air-mail lettergram, consisting of one sheet of paper folded up and having a weight limit of half an ounce; it is being considered by the Postoffice department . . . A carbonated beverage whose main ingredient is the tropical fruit papaya . . . A folding camp chair with back that can be raised or lowered to fit the contours of a human being.

'Silent' Tuberculosis Being Sought

A search for "silent" tuberculosis among apparently healthy persons is urged by Dr. Kendall Emerson, managing director of the National Tuberculosis Association, which during April will carry on its twelfth annual Early Diagnosis campaign in conjunction with its affiliated state and local organizations throughout the country. Dr. Emerson lays particular stress upon the necessity for protecting young persons, especially young women, to whom tuberculosis is still a health problem of dangerous proportions.

"Help find early tuberculosis, we ask you this year," said Dr. Emerson. "Systematic search for tuberculosis among outwardly healthy persons has produced as many as eight early cases for every ten found. The patient with early tuberculosis is much easier to cure than those with advanced disease.

"We are making a special appeal to leaders, to leaders of youth, to community leaders, and to leaders in industry to cooperate in bringing to light those hidden, symptomless cases of tuberculosis which constitute such a menace to the community as a whole."

The Nation's Leading Letter by J. E. Jones, Washington, D. C.

Washington, D. C., April 18—Democratic Leader Senator Barkley and many of his followers in the New Deal reversed their position when they finally voted on relief. For six years they have yielded to the wishes of the President, but the time came when they cut 50 million dollars off a WPA relief bill.

Economy has won its first great victory—for that is what the vote means. Congress has made it perfectly clear that it is satisfied to vote all necessary money needed for relief, but it has been just as emphatic in saying that there are too many officers and officials who promote extravagant methods in administering relief.

Senator Barkley, the democratic chieftain of the senate said: "If the course I have pursued and the vote I am going to cast here today subjects me to criticism, I accept it from whatever source it may come, whether on the inside of this Chamber, or on the outside." That was defiance from the prince of New Deal senators. It was a direct contradiction to the letter of April 11 from President Roosevelt to Senator Pepper, saying that the reduction of the appropriation would deprive 300,000 or 400,000 relievers from receiving aid, and also dash the hopes of 700,000 or 800,000 people on the waiting list. Congress has declared for economy in relief administration, and not economy in relief.

Evidently the economy fight has begun in real earnest.

Trade Losses

Barter deals with Germany, Italy and Japan are destroying the leadership of the United States in the Mexican machinery market, says a statement issued by the United States Department of Commerce a few days ago. The official survey reveals that the United States supplied 74 per cent and Germany 16 per cent of the imports in 1937, and that Germany switched the orders so that the first six months of 1938 the United States had 63 per cent and Germany 25 per cent of the business. "A further reduction in the shipments of machinery is anticipated this year," is a significant conclusion of the Commerce Department. By translating pesos into American dollars it appears that the German barter inroad is taking away approximately $15-600,000 in commerce from United States manufacturers and transferring it this year to Germany.

The Circus

There is only one great circus in the United States, and that is Ringling Brothers. Last year a labor strike, hard times and the high cost of entertainment closed the show. The circus has opened again for a tour of the country. The indications are that business conditions are more favorable for a successful season of the circus.

If the professional circus makes good in 1939 all our little private amateur circuses ought to get through the year better than we did in days of "recession" and depression.

Neutrality

Under the practices and precedents of government the American congress has the power to declare war. But in the past the challenge to aggressors and enemies has always remained in the hands of the President. McKinley and Wilson appeared before congress declaring that "a state of war exists".

The situation at the present time is such that President Roosevelt might, under circumstances that may transpire, lead the nation straight into another World War. He is the key to the situation, by virtue of his office.

In consequence proposals are being discussed in congress for a commission of about 15 national leading officials to act with the president in reaching an agreement before any declaration of war is decided upon.

Nearly every year the proposal comes up in congress, and it is about to appear again, providing that war shall not be declared until there has been a referendum of the people. Congressman Ludlow, Indiana, has rallied extensive support to this proposal. However, if a crisis approaches, this measure may be swept aside. Strange as this seems, congress has always voted down referendum plans after discussions. The legislators have always considered that the referendum is slow and clumsy in its processes, and the people not sufficiently acquainted with all the facts in deciding questions of going to war. All they have to do is fight and die.

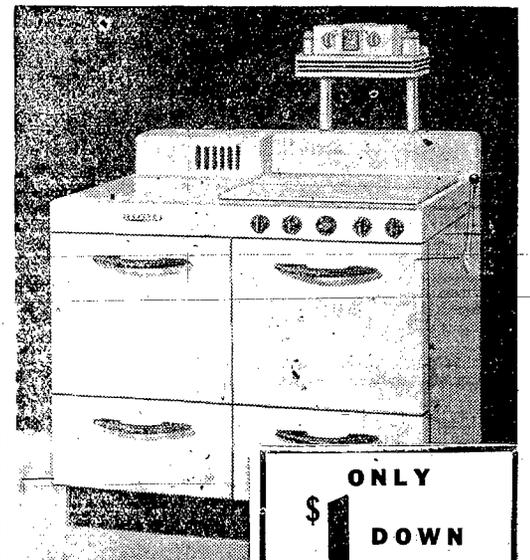

The statesmen say that the complications that lead to war must be weighed by experts—and they are the experts.

Queen Minnie At The World's Fair

It's almost as hard for a cow to get into the World's Fair as it was for the famous camel to squeeze through the eye of a needle. "Amos' Minnie", owned by Henry W. Leeds of Atlantic City's famous boardwalk hotels, will be the first Guernsey cow from New Jersey to be admitted to the great event of TODAY-TOMORROW that will celebrate the 150th anniversary of George Washington's inauguration.

(Special to the News)
Announcement of the Nebraska prize winners in the annual press and publicity contest sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune in cooperation with the General Federation of Women's Clubs was made in New York City last week by Mrs. Grace Allen Bangs, director of the Herald Tribune Bureau for Club Women.
Mrs. E. L. Trosper, of McCook, representing the fifth district of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs has been awarded the first prize blue ribbon and Miss Idamae Hunter, of the Ralston Junior Woman's Club, the second prize one.

Mrs. Trosper's entry, a news-story on the achievement of the Benkeman Woman's club in establishing a public library in that community, was adjudged Nebraska's best by the committee of judges made up of experts on the staff of the New York Herald Tribune. Miss Hunter's entry which brought her the Herald Tribune's second prize ribbon, was the news-story on the establishment by the Ralston Junior Woman's club, of the Ralston Recorder, as a bi-weekly newspaper.

Mrs. Trosper's prize-winning entry will now compete with the other winners in forty states in a national contest for three cash awards to be made at the council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in San Francisco, in May.

Legion To Form Team

Post Votes To Hold Memorial Day Program

Steps toward the organization of a junior league baseball team were made by the Wayne post of the Legion at its regular meeting Wednesday night, when Prof. M. C. Bloss was named chairman of a committee of nine in charge. The plan is to organize one or two teams to qualify for state league play.
The post also voted to sponsor the annual Memorial Day services in Wayne and Prof. E. G. Dale, chairman of the committee in charge. Mr. Dale will be assisted by Paul Mines, J. J. Steele, Allen Cook and G. A. Renard.

Tentative plans are for services to be held in the college willow bowl at 10 o'clock the morning of May 30. A. J. Hyatt is the only Civil War veteran residing in Wayne now and he will be honored at the services.
Cub scout troops are being organized under sponsorship of the Legion at both schools. Prof. K. N. Parke is directing the cub group at Wayne prep, and such a troop will also be formed at the city school. The two regular scout troops will continue their activities.

For the program Wednesday 81 boy scouts and their fathers were guests at the Legion. Coach J. H. Morrison gave an interesting talk on health and exercise. Prof. Parke showed motion pictures, "Inland Waterways", also some comics. E. E. Galley, Frank Heine and Frank Griffith had charge of serving lunch.

College Mile Relay Team Wins Event

Wayne Athletes In Fair Showing At Hastings Meet

Handicapped by a wet track, the seventeen men who represented Wayne State Teachers college in the meet at Hastings last week made a good showing in most events.

The mile relay team took first place and was awarded a trophy. M. Rembold placed third in an exceptionally fast two miles. Joe Lindahl placed fifth in the shot and McClaren tied for first in the high jump and placed fifth in the broad jump. Bob Cunningham placed sixth in the javelin and Simpson qualified in the 100-yard dash but failed to place in the final race.

Grid Relay Team Third

The football relay team, which was composed of members of the football team, placed third in their event. Both the 880-yard relay and two mile relay team failed to place.

The unfavorable weather is proving a real handicap to Coach Jim Morrison in his efforts to get his track squad in shape for the busy schedule ahead.

Next Saturday an open meet will be held here with track stars from Yankton, Southern Normal, South Dakota State, Morningside, Hastings, Chadron, Midland, York, Nebraska Wesleyan, Omaha University and the local college competing. The meet is scheduled to open at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Records Fall

Four meet records were broken and another was equalled in the annual Hastings relays as Nebraska colleges won three of five relay events, took first place in two events and shared honors in another.

Nebraska Wesleyan led in the college relays with Yankton second, Kearney third, Wayne fourth, Chadron fifth, Fort Hays sixth, Hastings seventh, and Western U. eighth.

Harold Frese, who has spent the past four months in California, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kingsley have returned to their home in Wellington, Kansas after visiting the past week in the home of their son, R. J. Kingsley.

Dining Around The World
New York—Blini from Russia, kebabs and honey desserts from Albania, wine-soaked strawberries from Luxembourg will be among the foreign delicacies served to visitors to the New York World's Fair 1939. France will offer poudr supreme, canard nantais a l'orange and other gastronomic creations. Mexico will send her best chili con carne. There will be 24 restaurants in the foreign section alone.

A few cents for a News Want Ad opens the doors to Wayne county's market.

Track Meet Scheduled For Wayne Saturday

Chadron, Yankton, Morningside, Omaha, Hastings, Midland, Southern Normal and South Dakota State will be guests of Wayne State in a track meet to be held next Saturday beginning at 10 a. m. All events except those in running will take place in the morning.

This meet is the first of several in which the Wayne boys will participate. They plan to go to Aberdeen April 28 for a meet of relays. From there they will go to Mitchell, S. Dak. to an invitation meet, April 29. Later in the season Iowa State Teachers College is sponsoring a meet which the boys also expect to attend.

Wayne High Enters Meet

April 28 is the date set for the annual invitational meet at Norfolk which is usually one of the best meets in the state. It includes approximately 25 to 30 towns not only in Northeast Nebraska, but also through central and southern parts.

In addition to training for track several boys are out learning the fundamentals of kicking, passing, punting, and other technicalities of football. Coach Morris expects to use these boys on his team next fall.

Wakefield Wins Meet

Wayne Prep Places Third In Event Here

Wakefield scored 66 points to win the Wayne invitational track meet here last weekend. Wayne Prep's team placed third in the meet with a total of 24 points as Winside's athletes walked away with second honors with 28 to their credit.

The event winners follow:

Faculty Association Offers Social Contact

Charity Work Also Performed Each Year

Editor's Note—Following is another of the series of stories describing Wayne's organizations, their accomplishments and plans for the future together with a complete list of officers and members. This article deals with the Faculty Association of Wayne State Teachers college.

One of the leading Wayne social organizations is that made up of the members of the faculty of the local college.

This organization has been in continuous existence since about 1926. Its chief purpose is to offer social contact to its members.

Activities Listed
Committees of hosts plan the entertainment and refreshments for the meetings which are held four different times during the year. Dinner meetings are held either at the College cafeteria or at one of the hotels; general meetings in the Industrial Arts building on the campus or in the recreation room of one of the halls. During the summer a picnic is one of the most enjoyable events, anticipated by all.

At the opening of school sessions in the fall and in the summer the Faculty Association plans and holds a reception for the entire student body. For a number of years this has been held in Pile Hall and is more or less of a formal affair on the part of the teachers.

Besides these social activities there is some charity work performed each year. Last Christmas this consisted of donations, the purpose of which was to pay for dental work of certain unfortunate children in the Training school.

Officers And Members
The officers at the present time are: Russel Anderson, president; Dr. Kathryn Hugarin, vice president; Lottie Scott, secretary; and A. G. Carlson, treasurer.

Members of the association are: J. T. Anderson, Russel Anderson, M. C. Bloss, O. R. Brown, Jessie W. Boyce, James E. Brock, Albert G. Carlson, Raymond Cherry, Enid M. Conklyn, Allen Cook, George W. Costerisan, M. Lois Crouch, F. G. Dale, Esther P. Dewitz, Florence M. Dralac, Verna Eloffson, Ida E. Fisher, Harold D. Griffin, A. F. Gulliver, H. H. Hahn, Howard H. Hanscom, Clara M. Heyimun, E. Marie Hove, Kathryn Hugarin, J. R. Johnson, John R. Keith, Louise Kimmel, Alwine W. Luers, Mamie McCorkindale, J. Q. Owen, Ruth A. Paden, K. N. Parke, Cella Pearson, Ruth L. Pearson, Lenore P. Ramsey, Beulah Rundie, Isabel B. Rust, Pearl Rutherford, Margaret C. Schemel, Lottie Scott, Martha Smith Smith, Maude J. Smith, Jessie Stephen, Carol Stoddard, Richard R.

Stuart, Arline Sutherland, Stella Traster, Louise M. Wendt, W. A. Wollenhaupt, Harriet Hazinski, J. A. Moore, Jim Morrison, Raymond Shriner, Kathryn Steins, and Mary F. Davis. The husbands and wives of these are also considered members although they are not given the name of regular members as are those listed.

Overdue Spring Finally Reaches College

Although no one has too high hopes, general activity indicates spring is in the air at the college.

It began two weeks ago one sunshiny day when some of the campus workers decided to remove the straw beds from the roses in the formal garden. However, about the time they had the boards stacked a piercing north-gale came blasting down upon them, and they left the job incomplete.

Just before Easter vacation, as though extending an invitation to Old Man Weather, the restless workers brought out the somewhat obviously worn WSTC benches that have a pronounced tendency of sagging in the center. Still the Old Man shrugged a cold shoulder and made faces at Sol.

Not until Wednesday of last week did everyone seem to take heart again. Since then there has been almost a dare in the atmosphere—sometimes in the form of the pungent odor of burning leaves, sometimes in the form of a song. The contractors, surveyors, and WPA workers commenced their respective jobs in the construction of the new student union building with a decidedly sincere swing; the previous vain attempt to release the roses from their long winter confinement was again made but this time with success.

So the spring of 1939 has been hailed and welcomed!

* FASHION PREVIEW *

Spring Concert Well Presented

All Selections By Training School Popular

The training school spring concert held last Thursday night in the college auditorium was well presented.

Under Professor Keith's direction the orchestra gave a fine interpretation of three movements of the Haydn Symphonies arranged by Glenn and Ippolitow-Iwanow's Procession of the Sardon.

Due to illnesses the string, sextet was reduced to a quartet but in spite of the shortage did a noble job of Rondo from "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" by Mozart. Next came selections from "Stradella" by the brass quintet, which was also reduced to a quartet.

The girls' sextet became a quintet and sang one number, "Babes Are Sweet" by Anderson. This was followed by a flute Paschedag, and a string trio, in which again one member was absent, playing Pizzicato Gavotte.

A good male quartet is always popular on any program, especially when they sing the old Negro spiritual, Climb Up, Ye Children, Climb. The training school boys quartet gave an excellent performance of that number. The audience was exceptionally enthusiastic and applauded for more. In humorous "boy fashion" the young gentlemen returned and "took a bow". With this the audience had to be satisfied.

The clarinet quartet played Serenade by Haydn and Menuet by Schubert. A drum medley, an especially novel number featuring three snare drums, a bass drum, and a cymbal was well executed. The last instrumental selection was Comrades played by a cornet trio.

The girls glee club directed by Marian Seymour sang Early Morn by Rae and Spring Rain by Gould. This was followed by concluding numbers, As Torrents in Summer, Elgar and Legend. Tchaikowsky sung by the mixed chorus, under direction of Frank Gamble.

CCC Camp Row Shifts To Winside

Some Support, Others Oppose Location There

Editor's Note—The following article regarding the location of a CCC camp, interest in which has now shifted to Winside, was published in the Winside Tribune last Thursday and should be of interest here because of the recent discussion over the proposed location of the same camp here.

(From The Winside Tribune)
Members of the village board and a number of business men have been active the past few days in trying to get a CCC camp located in Winside. The opportunity came when Wayne, after some of its leading citizens have been trying for two years to get a camp located there, turned down the proposition because of opposition among college officials and residents.

Most active of those working for location of the camp here is C. E. Benschopf, who already has signed papers, so we learn, to lease 10 acres of his land adjoining town. The terms, so we learn are $7 per acre for 10 acres for a 3 to 10 year period.

A number of other business and professional men are working hard for the camp here because they feel it will bring a considerable amount of business to Winside and live up the town. One business man's statement was that it "would put Winside on the map". Herman Podoll, head of the Wayne County Farm Bureau also has been active here.

According to Martin Ringer of Wayne, who formerly was behind the move to get the camp located in Wayne, and who says that it might yet be located there, stated that the camp if located in Wayne county, will be a new one and that about 208 boys will be located in the camp. About 25 new buildings will be erected and at least some of the materials will be purchased locally. Meats and fresh vegetables, fruits, etc. are also purchased locally it is said and a local physician and dentist appointed for the camp.

The town board met Tuesday night to vote on sewer and water extension to the camp and to set a water rate. The rate set was 40c per 1000 gallons per 20,000 gallon quantities.

Clerk E. T. Warmemunde said officials estimated that $60 worth of water would be used by the camp each month. The camp would provide its own light it is said.

Opposition To Camp
Almost immediately with the announcement of the attempt to locate a camp here, opposition was started against the move. Word reached here of Wayne's reasons for opposing the location of a camp there and many local residents were indignant that a camp would be located here without local people being given a chance to voice their sentiment. Resentment was also felt in some business circles because only certain business men were asked to sit in on the many meetings that were held, others were not.

A telegram was sent to Representative Karl Stefan at Washington Tuesday informing him of opposition to the camp and asking what might be done to stop the camp from being located here. The opposition group was referred to certain CCC camp officials and the matter taken up with them. Petitions opposing the location of the camp here were circulated Wednesday and signed by many residents and business men. Many more are expected to add their names to the petitions before the end of the week as opposition to the locating of the camp have continued to grow.

Most CCC boys come from good homes and good families and opposition to the camp should not be misinterpreted. Main opposition is the result of misconduct and rowdiness by "black sheep" of the camps, a few of which are apparently in every camp in spite of rigid discipline.

Some of the most bitter resentment felt is over the fact that the whole deal was "rail-roaded" through before most people in town were aware of it and had the backing of the town board officials.

State Wheat Shows Slight Improvement

Nebraska's April Crop Report Issued

The condition of winter wheat improved slightly since December 1 and the April 1 condition indicates an average yield of 11.5 bushels per seeded acre as compared with 11.2 bushels a year ago and 12.2 bushels the 1928-37 average, according to the state crop report. The prospective April 1 abandonment was 17 per cent, which accounts largely for the low indicated average yield per seeded acre. The condition has been unfavorable in a large part of southwestern Nebraska, the greater part of the central and south central area and much of the western portion of the east central district. The indicated abandonment in this area is quite heavy. There may be some abandonment to comply with the AAA quotas.

A shortage of moisture since early fall is responsible for the low condition and marked abandonment. Southeastern and the Panhandle counties have a promising condition with very little abandonment expected. The prospects in the Panhandle counties are the best for nearly a decade.

The April 1 estimate of production is 43,976,000 bushels against 52,824,000 bushels harvested last year and 44,023,000 bushels, the 1928-37 average.

Rye And Pasture
The condition of rye is 76 per cent as compared with 79 per cent a year ago and 77 per cent the 1928-37 average. Conditions are quite favorable for rye over the greater part of the rye areas of the state. The condition of pasture is 66 per cent against 52 per cent a year ago. Pasture is advanced to about its normal stage for this date. The soil moisture condition is quite favorable over a greater part of the Sand Hills and extreme southeastern and extreme western Nebraska.

Grain Stocks
Farm stocks of corn total 60,849,000 bushels against 30,486,000 bushels last year and 66,213,000 bushels, the 1928-37 average; Wheat, 13,928,000 bushels against 6,134,000 bushels last year and 7,935,000, the 1928-37 average; oats, 23,683,000 bushels against 11,760,000 bushels last year and 21,325,000 bushels, the 1928-37 average. The low price of wheat had a tendency to hold wheat on farms. More barley and oats are being fed and this, together with considerable quantities of sealed corn, accounts for fairly large stocks of corn, considering the low production last year.

Bill To Raise Game License Cost Revived

The organized efforts of Nebraska sportsmen to convince the legislature its agriculture committee made a mistake in killing LB 409 providing for an increase of 50 cents in the annual hunting and fishing license fee, paid dividends recently.

By a vote of 35 to 4, the senators overrode the committee action and placed the bill on general file where some 130 bills are now awaiting the attention of the members.

Motion to raise the measure came from Senator Ernest Adams of Omaha, and chief arguments in favor of the bill centered on the idea that more money is needed for the propagation of game and fish. The license fee, if the bill passes, would be $1.50 instead of a dollar.

Even Senator A. M. Johnson of Doniphan, who said he was the committeeman who moved to kill the bill last week, expressed mild friendliness. "I've got enough bull-dog tenacity," he said, "to back up and go with you in raising this bill".

DOAN'S PILLS

To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste

Your kidneys help to keep you well by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys get functionally deranged, you fail to remove excess impurities, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-wide distress.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance. You may suffer from nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eye-lid, weak, nervous, all played out.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. A multitude of grateful people recommend Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Get those up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. # Radio Artist Gives Concert

Seagle In Popular Program At WSTC

John Seagle who has a worldwide reputation as a result of his transcribed program, "The Church in the Wildwood", presented one of his concerts at Wayne State Teachers College last Tuesday night. The program was divided into four different parts. The first section was sacred music of an early period: Oh God, Have Mercy by Mendelssohn, Dank Sei Dir by Handel, and Bussied by Beethoven. As an encore Mr. Seagle sang Malotte's Lord's Prayer.

Sacred music of a later period made up the second part of the program: The Legend of the Sage from "Le Jongleur de Notre Dame" by Massenet, La Procession by Cesar Franck, Pilgrim's Song by Tschalkowsky, and Oh Divine Redeemer by Gounod.

Negro Spirituals

No American musical would be complete without the much loved negro spirituals. Every Time I Feel De Spirit, City Called Heaven arranged by Hall Johnson, Land of Degradation, and the ever-popular Shadrach were Mr. Seagle's contribution in section three.

A variation consisting of Sweet Little Jesus Boy and Roof's by McGimsey, The Ninety and Nine by Sanky, and Help Me to Pray by Tosti brought such applause from the audience that Mr. Seagle came back twice, first with Daniel by McGimsey, then with Exhortation by Cooke.

General explanations concerning some of the numbers by Mr. Seagle made the performance one of especial interest.

John Seagle, who was christened Jean de Reszke Seagle, was born in France and came to America during the World war while still a little boy. It was then that his name was Anglicized to John. He learned the English tongue rapidly and spent three years in the Cathedral Choir School of St. John the Divine in New York, where the famous English director of the choir, Dr. Miles Farrow, made the young lad the boy-soprano soloist of the cathedral. It was here that John became familiar with the best in sacred music, oratorio, chorals, hymns, a love that has never left him.

When Mr. Seagle grew to manhood and the boy soprano voice had changed to a rich baritone, he entered radio as baritone of the Cavalier quartet, then with the Palmolive Music Box Theater and for eight years as baritone of the Cities Service quartet with Jessica Dragonette and the Countess Olga Albani. He also began his recording career for Victor, Decca and Columbia records, which graduated him into his present capacity as the singer on "The Church in the Wildwood" programs, which brings him the widest radio audience of his career.

Ideas For Civic Improvement Given By Speaker

Red Motter of Fremont, district secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, presented some excellent ideas for civic improvements at the last meeting of the Wayne Men's club, which are being considered here.

One of Mr. Motter's proposals was for a survey of residents of the trade area through the questionnaire method, which has revealed in some other places the principal faults of business firms. One of the chief faults listed has been that of the failure of clerks to know their merchandise and prices; another the apparent lack of interest shown by them in serving customers.

Mr. Motter's talk was the feature of the meeting at which the club delayed action on proposals that it sponsor the annual college track meet in Wayne.

red official delegates will include equal numbers of ministers and laymen. Nebraska Methodism will be represented by four ministerial and four lay delegates. Mr. Edward Seymour, who is the Wayne Methodist Church's representative in the Nebraska Methodist Lay conference and treasurer of that body, is a reserve delegate to the Uniting Conference.

Mr. Seymour last week attended a preparatory meeting of Nebraska and Iowa delegates in Omaha, and he hopes to give next week some of the interesting findings of that group with reference to plans for the new Church to be worked out for adoption at the Kansas City Conference. Rev. Carl G. Bader, pastor of the Wayne church, said. At the Norfolk district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is being held at Ponca today and tomorrow, Mr. Seymour will speak on "The Opportunities and Benefits Of A Layman's Association". His address is scheduled for 11:20 Wednesday morning. Laymen are urged to attend the conference and Wednesday, the second day, has been designated as layman's day and their presence is especially desired on that day.

Day Of Prayer

Next Sunday, April 23, has been designated as a day for special counsel, prayer and communion in all Methodist Churches, in preparation of the hearts and minds of all Methodist people for the epochal conference convening the following Wednesday. In keeping with this Church-wide observance, a special program is being arranged for the First Methodist Church in Wayne, next Sunday, with both morning and evening services. All who are interested will be welcome, and it is hoped that all members of the Church, especially, will be in attendance. The present local membership is four hundred and seventy-five.

For more complete details than can possibly be carried in the newspapers concerning the personalities, events and decisions of the great Uniting Conference, the Christian Advocate, which appears weekly, and the special "Daily Christian Advocate" which will give a verbatim stenographic report of every session, both published at Kansas City, are recommended. The April 13 issue of the regular "Christian Advocate" is a special "Uniting Conference Edition" of 64 pages replete with pictures and verbatim information and inspiration concerning the uniting churches, personnel and program of the Uniting Conference, and facts concerning Kansas City and its entertainment plans.

Afternoon Session

Mayor Martin Ringer presided at the afternoon session at the auditorium, which was featured by talks by Mrs. Mueller, Rev. Graber, Rev. Moehring and Rev. Teckhaus and the following musical program: vocal selections by Herman Baler; piano numbers by Delores Frevort; piano duet by Sophie and Ruth Damme; vocal selections by Mrs. Baler; selections by a quintet consisting of Mrs. H. Kahler, Mrs. Baler, Sophie Damme, Minnie Denking and Erna Meyer; numbers by a piano trio including Helen Vath, Mildred Ringer and Marcella Frevort; a reading in honor of the pioneers of the church, written by a Wayne woman and presented by Marlon Vath. Mrs. Ringer accompanied the singers and Miss Vath on the piano. During the dinner, a string quartet furnished musical numbers, which were also enjoyed.

Members of the string quartet are Joyce Miller, Lois Thompson, Helen Tapken and Mildred Ringer.

Corsages were presented by Fayth Ann Most, daughter of the pastor, to charter and earliest members of the church who are still members of the congregation. Mrs. Most and Mrs. Ringer, church organist. Flowers were also presented wives of the visiting pastors. Following this, Sophie Damme closed the program, with a vocal number.

Milo Kremke, a member of the first confirmation class and still a member of the church, as well as several other first members of the church were recognized.

Emerson, Pender, Winside and Wisner congregations were represented.

Following the program, lunch was served in the auditorium and services were held at the church at 8 o'clock Sunday night at which Rev. Teckhaus and Rev. Graber spoke. The latter stressed the fact that members should rededicate themselves to Christ, pointing to deplorable conditions abroad. The organ of the church was formally dedicated by the pastor, Rev. Pearson and Rev. Heidenreich of Wayne attended the evening services. "Savior, Breathe An Evening Blessing" was the closing hymn.

Pictures of nearly every confirmation class as well as those of various church groups and activities were on display at the auditorium and won much favorable comment.

Wayne On Parade

we are listing elsewhere on this page the boys who will be in charge of circulation in the four leading towns which are being blanketed by the News Advertiser. If you fail to receive your copy, just call the boy in charge of circulation in your town and one will be delivered to you. Other residents throughout the county and the additional trade territory will be served through the regular mail routes.

We know it will pay you to read it. We believe you'll like this baby brother of your News, who promises to be a husky and helpful youngster.

Many factors enter into the building of a community and columns of type have been published on the fact that when you look behind the scenes of any modern city and study its past history, you will find men who have devoted much of their time and effort to its progress. Sometimes, their contributions are recognized and they are showered with credit; often their only reward is the satisfaction which unselfish service brings.

Wayne has many citizens who have helped to build a bigger and a better city. Some have contributed their bit by confidently investing in real estate and business institutions, which are a credit to the city. Others have given freely of their time and money to obtain improvements for the city, or assisted its educational and religious institutions. Naturally, at times, these leaders have disagreed as to what course was the best for Wayne to follow. Some efforts have failed; many have succeeded. There have been mistakes, but the important thing is that steady progress has been made.

This all leads to the fact that it ill becomes a newcomer to criticize adversely what has been accomplished in the past and it is not in the spirit of criticism that the following suggestions are advanced as a tentative program for the future.

Even as individuals, communities should at times pause to survey what is ahead and center their efforts on major objectives. Needs are often more evident to one whose survey of the picture as a whole is not marred by varied sidelights of past experience in that particular field.

So, humbly the News presents its general program for the future of Wayne.

First, the highways extending through Wayne's trade territory, particularly those which serve the large area north of this city, should be improved. They should be made good all-weather roads, an improvement which would benefit both farmers and local merchants.

Second, Wayne needs a Chamber of Commerce or employment of some competent civic worker to serve in the same capacity as the usual C. of C. secretary. Perhaps, the Wayne Men's club or the Kiwanis club could be nucleus for such an organization which would devote its entire efforts to the building of a better and greater city here. At any rate, it should include as large a percentage of the men and women in all lines of work and stations in life as feasible.

Third, Wayne needs a community celebration of some type which would appeal especially to the city's neighbors and farmers, one which would create good will and stamp Wayne as the leader of the cities in northeastern Nebraska.

Last but not least—if you'll pardon a trite expression—Wayne should never forget that in a large measure, its prosperity and future depend on the prosperity and progress of the farmers and stockmen in its vast trade territory. We believe that Wayne realizes the value of its excellent college—it is an institution of which a city many times the size of Wayne could well be proud—and we would not detract in any way from its great contribution to the city's past and future. But, we are listing needs, now and there would be no conflict of interests here.

Probably many believe that there are far more important general objectives for the city and we will gladly print their views if they desire to submit them in the form of a letter to the News' Public Forum.

We specialize in quality printing at reasonable prices. The Wayne News.

YM, YWCA Sponsor Many Campus Projects

History And Activities Of Organizations Listed

One of the most widely-known organizations in the United States is the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association. Such an organization was begun at Wayne State Teachers College quite some time ago in the early years of the state school. Miss Kingsbury was responsible for the YWCA at that time. In 1923 Mrs. R. R. Smith became sponsor and except for two years during which time she was away from the college she has been a sponsor ever since. Miss Ruth Pearson has also been a sponsor for several years. Recently Mrs. Howard Hanscom and Miss Stella Traster have also been working with the group. Dean Hahn was a leader of the YM for many years; at the present time Mr. George Costerisan is sponsor of the men.

The YW is divided into study groups or commissions such as the creative leisure group in which the girls do fancy work, study drama, do choral reading, give book reviews and the like. Other groups are personality, etiquette, history of religion and religious philosophies. YM does not have these divisions. Both organizations have weekly meetings; usually there are two devotional meetings a month, one social, and one to which some speaker is invited to come and talk and discuss problems with the members.

The purpose of the association is three-fold. Betterment of mind, body, and spirit make up their symbol which is the triangle.

Some of the finest activities on the campus are sponsored by the YM and YW. They have been instrumental in bringing prominent and worthwhile speakers to the college; every year they have charge of an impressive convocation program. In addition to these things in connection with the college, they perform charity work. Every Christmas they adopt certain unfortunate families and seek to make the Yuletide season a happy one for all. They assist the Christian Student Federation, and assist poor students throughout the world.

Each year for several years the YMCA has been responsible for the very helpful student directories at the college.

This year after many years of careful saving the YWCA has accumulated enough funds to erect a picnic shelter and outdoor clubhouse on the campus. The construction will be done through the help of the WPA. There will be a fire place, picnic tables, and provision for cooking. Plans are complete now, and building will begin as soon as possible, probably about June 1.

Officers And Members

Membership is larger now than it has been any year heretofore. There are approximately 210 girls and 70 boys who are signed members.

Officers of the YM are Werner Welchert, president; Leland Flora, vice president; Vernon Ja-
