WAYNE NEWS

WAYNE, NEBRASKA, JANUARY 21, 1941

FIRST With The News In

Wayne County Number 7

The city's pulse has been taken, its chills and ills thoroughly diagnozed by scores of amatuer community physicians who participated in the community clinics last week and the head doctors are now seeking to combine the suggested remedies into pills which may be swallowed by diligent effort during the coming year. The hope is that the patient will grow with the speed of a boom town in size, prosperity and happiness. Seriously, there were a wealth of excellent suggestions advanced for Wayne's future via the Chamber of Commerce and the clinics have doubtless proven valuable through stimulating more general interest stimulating more general interest in the Chamber of Commerce.

As a climax for the clinics, pre-parations are being made for the first annual membership banquet of the organization which will be of the organization which will be held at the Municipal Auditorium Friday evening, Jan. 31. Messrs John Carhart, Clarence Wright, Chet Walters, Armand Hiscox and Dr. L. F. Perry, who are doing the preliminary work, aided by one Win Swett and Russell Larson, have a bangup program planned which every member and his wife should attend. Better have your $1.50 pieces ready—that admits two—because you'll be visited by determined ticket salesmen soon.

News has been breaking rather rapidly around the city recently and from the schedule of events stated for the remainder of this month and the first of next, it looks like anything but the dull beason. For example Monday night the fair board gathered and the firemen received a lesson in battling blazes; tonight, its basketball at the auditorium; Wennesday evening, the Chamber of Commerce directors gather for session; Thursday is the big free show for the farmers sponsored by the Meyer and Bichel company; Friday, basketball and more basketball. Next week, it's the President's Birthday Ball, and the armual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce which take the spotlight with plenty of other events scheduled.

Speaking of the President's Birthday Ball, it's one New Deal

Speaking of the President's Birthday Ball, it's one New Deal party that staunch democrats and republicans alke unanimously support with good reason. Infantile paralysis draws no party line and if the President lends his birthday to such an excellent cause, we should all rally 'round. Wayne and the entire county has responded generously in past years to this cause and the local fund, which recovered only a portion of the $200 which was donated from it as Wayne's share in the purchase of two iron lungs for use throughout this area, needs your help again this year along with the national fund. Remymber, half of that dollar your spend for a ticket, which will armit two to the big frolic at the Municipal Auditorium. Thursday evening, Jan. 30, remains here for any emergency in this county. Henry E. Ley is county chairman this year and is giving freely of his time to make the affair even more successful than those or past years. Let's plan to do our party years. Let's plan to do our party years and send feet.

Hendrickson Disbarment

Order Based On Charge In Albert Pick Case

The supremy court issued an order Friday disbarring Clarence H. Hendrickson, well known Wayne attorney. While the charges against the local attorney embraced several matters, the court picked out the Albert Pick company accusation as the principal one and based its disbarment action on that one and based its disbarment action on that.

I Judge Rose, who wrote the findings, said that "the misconduct under consideration-betrayed the attorney's client, violated established standards and codes of professional ethice and none and cast reproach on the courts and on the bar. On facts conclusively established by the evidence, the supremy court has no alternative but disbarment".

Albert Pick Charge

In the Albert Pick Company court ruled, recowered a judgment in the company's favor, against Francis C. Jones, but without the authority or consent of the client, he sold the judgment to another client, James W. Wright, who used it to satisfy a judgment Jones had against Wright. Neither Wright nor the attorney paid anything to the Pick company on the judgment until after Mr. Hendrickson had tyen informed of the inquiry into his misconduct, according to the ruling or the court.

two copics were published in France in April and May of 1918.
Junior high pupils found them very interesting. He also brought a post card album of European views and a scrap book of pictures of planes, tanks and gunsused in the first World war.

The pupils completed the reading unit emphasizing the main ideas and important details. They took a speed and comprehension test to test their application of the skills studied and the results were gratifying.

Defense In Local Terms

itles must be given more atten-tion than in the past. In man tion than in the past, in many Nebraska counties associations have been set up in cooperation with local medical groups to attend to the proof year-round medical care for farm families ordinarily financially unable to obtain adequate medical attention. FSA makes loans to these families to pay required annual fees in the local associations. No such association operates in Wayne county. Ward's information is that nearly one out of three army re-operates in Wayne county.

Ward's information is that nearly one out of three army recruits are found physically unfit. This bad situation applies also to the civilian population and exists in rural as well as city areas; and in both places much of the trouble lies in faulty diets. Good health of civilians is nearly as important, from a national defense angle, as good health in the army, he indicated.

FSA Helps

The "live-at-home" emphasis of Farm Security is bringing about some correction of the poor health status, Ward reports, Mr. Verzal said he is sure it is helping in Wayne county. Some families unable in recent years to produce and keep for their own use the necessary fruits, vegetables and meats, as well as adequate dayy and poultry foods, are now doing so in accordance with farm and home management plans. These plans are worked out in connection with rehabilitation loans, Mr. Verzal said, and the beneficial effect on family health is easily apparent.

Wayne county farmers, business men and others may well think of national defense in local terms, according to Ray L. Verzal, Farm Security Supervisor for this county.

"We have a national defense problem right here in Wayne county. It is hooked up directly with adequate food diets and with the general health of those who don't have too much with which to buy food", Ray L. Verzal said.

He pointed out that while prople usually think of such problems on a national scale, perhaps because reports on such things usually come from Washington, yet the national situation is an accumulation of conditions affecting smaller units such as counties and townships.

Projects For Wayne

A wide variety of projects to be undertaken by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce were proposed and discussed at the series of clinics held last week. The program committee faces a difficult task in selecting from this number those which may be carried out during the year since virtually all are worthy of careful consideration but only a limited number possible of realization within the next twelve months.

tion but only a limited number possible of realization within the next twelve months.

Major suggestions include building of public restrooms in shopping district, illuminated signs at entrances to Wayne, road signs advertising Wayne, more gravel feeder roads in the Wayne trading territory, soft water service for Wayne, sponsoring 60th anniversary celebration, additional paving projects in city, program to stimulate use of locally produced products, establishment of free employment bureaus, study of local ordinances in order to safeguard residents against rackets and fake promotions, sponsoring series of dances at auditorium, sponsoring recreation program at auditorium, preparation of folders and obtaining publicity for Wayne, fostering industrial growth of Wayne by obtaining new industries particularly those which use agricultural products as their source of raw material, making thorough community survey to list the resources of Wayne, creation of marketing research committee, sponsoring retail promotions, organization of goodwill tours in Wayne trade territory, promotion of county fair, obtaining municipal swimming pool and golf course, sponsoring electrical show, sponsoring diversified agricultural program including such projects at Feeders' Day trip to Lincoln, county completing contest, demonstrational test plot, co-operating with 4-H clubs in numerous projects and sponsoring contests for the various clubs, arranging a long-time tree program for the Wayne County Fair grounds in co-operation with the fair board; encouraging the growth and popularity of the farm sales days at the pavillon here, promoting-a winter fair and similar projects.

It is significant that the outstanding accomplishments of the st year may be credited to the agricultural committee. The vast jority of suggestions for work along this line echo accomplishments of the past year. That is, we believe, as it should be since a city is and probably always will be chiefly dependent on agriture.

It is obvious that Wayne does not have either the transportation facilities nor the surplus labor and housing to offer many inducements to a large industry. It is also true that a variety of small industries, ones which could make use of agricultural products as raw materials and the part-time labor available through the employment of college students, might find this an ideal location. Certainly a community survey which would list these special resources of this city would seem to justify its small cost if and only if it is used as a basis for further effort to obtain such plants.

The winter fair idea has merit through the very fact that it would be different and would be staged at a time when Wayne county was not competing with the fairs of neighboring counties as is the case during the summer.

Several other projects are obviously worthy but probably ald, if properly carried out, claim a prohibitively large share the annual budget.

The program finally adopted will doubtless include some projects which each of us favors and some which we do not believe are as important as other suggestions. It will succeed only, however, if, regardless of our personal desires, we give it full support and co-operation. Judging by the interest shown in the clinics, it is assurred of that.

Ice And Skill

Judging from the fancy skating effects staged by some local residents on icy covered sidewalks recently without even the benefit of skates, some of the more popular ice stars had better watch their steps or the floodlights will soon leave them in the dark. Fancy driving has also been very much in evidence here recently as motorists are becoming skilled in herding their cars over the ice, the skill attained by plenty of practice.

sales days at the pavilion here, promoting a winter fair and similar projects.

Obviously, even the most ambitious Chamber of Commerce could not hope to accomplish all of these projects, worthy though they may be. Some progress has been made on several of them and others were on the program last year but were never carried out. Some would seem to be too cceptly for the likely resultant benefit compared with other suggestions. These are problems which the program committee must face and solve, taking into consideration many factors including the popularity of the proposal as shown in the thought survey and by members attending the clinics, its value compared with others and the cost involved.

Since that committee, E. H. Merchant—they are well qualified through past work for the organization and through leeping in close touch with the desires of the members as revealed in the clinics to work out the best possible program.

It is interesting, however, to note that progress has been made on several of the projects which won the greatest support at the clinics including more graveled feeder roads in the trade territory, sponsoring a recreation program, promotion of the county fair obtaining more publicity for Wayne, organizing goodwill tours in the trading area and sponsoring a diversified agricultural program, and regulate production and supparative of suggestions for work along the late of the projects.

Both General Motors and General Electric now boast of having a President Charles E Wilson. But they are two individuals, not the same man. They are not related but have been friends for some time.

There are other coincidences, Each started his career at the bottom, the General Electric Wilson as a student apprentice. Each entered his respect tive company through a subsidiary.

Their promotions to executive positions have closely paralleled one another. The General Motors president has just assumed that title, just a year after his General Electric Company through a subsidiary.

Road Dragging District No. 3 Shall comprise an extraction in the 3d Commissioner District and shall be under the supervision of Wm. J. Misfeldt.

County Commissioners as Overseers of their respective road dragging districts are to receive no extra compensation.

It is bereby resolved that the Board allow the following wages for road work for the year 1941:

40c (forty cents) per hour for man and team.

55c (fifty-five cents) per hour for man and two teams.

30c (thirty cents) per hour for single man.

And further that Oversers shall show their dates the work is done on the receipts, and also show location as to where work is done, also show just where all lumber purchased by them is used, also to account for all old lumber.

All oversers are hereby notified to purchase lumber from party with whom the county has a contract, also sign for all lumber before leaving the yards.

The County Board hereby adopts the following rules and regulations to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious, infectious or malignant diseases, and for the purpose of safeguarding the public health and preventing nuisances and unsanitary conditions.

1. That a Board of Health for the County be appointed by the County Board, the same to consist of three members, one of whom shall be a practicing physician.

2. That said Board of Health be and they hereby are empowered to enforce such regulations as may be adopted by this board to prevent the introduction of contagious, infectious or, malignant diseases into the unincorporated territory of the county, and to enforce quarantine rules made for that purpose by it or the board of county commissioners.

3. That in case in their judgment it shall become necessary to establish a pest house and if the pest house be established by the

5. The expenses of said board of health which are not properly chargeable to the persons affected with such contagious diseases or persons occupying the premises where the same exist shall be paid from the county treasury upon bills duly allowed by the board of County Commissioners in the same manner as the other indebtedness against the county. The compensations of the members of this Board of Health shall be mileage at legal rate and for the examination and quarantine of each family $2.00. They shall be allowed by the county board and paid from the county treasury, in the same manner as other bills against the county.

The following Rules and Regulations in regard to Disinfection hereby adopted.

"Distriction"
The word "Premises" used in this section shall mean all places where it is necessary to disinfect.
DISINFECTION INCLUDES:

(A) Concurrent Disinfection.
(B) Terminal Disinfection.
NCURRENT DISINFECTION: Is required during the existant of the following diseases:

CONCURRENT DISINFECTION: Is required during the cases of any of the following diseases:
Chickenpox, Diptheria, Influenza, Measles, Meningococcus, Meningitis, Mumps, Pheumonia, Poliomyelitis, Rubella (German Measles), Scarlet Fever, Septic Sore Throat, Smallpox, Tuberculosis (pulmonary), Typhoid Fever, and Whooping Cough.
CONCURRENT DISINFECTION: Is the collecting of the communicable discharge of the patient during the course of the disease, the burning of same, or the application of a disinfectant solution to render same inert. Concurrent disinfection is of the greatest minimum portaine, for the organisms which cause communicable diseases are for the most part parasitic and depend upon their residence in the human system for their propagation. outside the body the bacteria of human disease will not grow and noon die. The communicable discharges, therefore, must be collect ed in covered receptacles. Bed linens and linens such as night-gowns used by patient should be changed at least every forty-eight hours, where this will not interfere with the well-being of the patient, immediately placed in a disinfectant solution such as 2 per cent liquor cresolis compound U. S. P. 5 percent solution carbolic acid, or an equivalent disinfectant solution.

TERMINAL DISINFECTION:

It is now generally accepted that terminal disinfection is much better and in more accord with modern scientific research than

THEREFORE FUMIGATION IS NO LONGER-REQUIRED IN

THE FOLLOWING DISEASES:

Chickenpox, diptheria, influenza, measles, meningococcus meningitis, mumps, meumonia, poliomyelitis, rubella (German measles), scarlet fever, septic sore throat, smallpox, typhoid fever, and who Chickenpox, diptheria, influenza, measies, meningococcus meningitis, mumps, preumonia, poliomyeitis, rubella (German measivs), scarlet fever, septic sore throat, smallpox, typhoid fever, and whooping cough.

When a Board of Health having jurisdiction is satisfied that a firson who has suffered from any of the foregoing named diseases is no longer a source of danger to others, it shall see that the following procedure as to terminal disinfection is carried out before such persons, or premises, is released from placard or quarantine.

First: The patient and those in contact shall be bathed with an antiseptic solution. This should be done by bath of warm water and soap, then washing of the body with a mild antiseptic solution. Bichloride of mercury in strength of 1 to 5000 is recommended for this purpose, care being taken that patient does not get the same in mouth or eyes.

Second: Everything in the sick room or that has come in contact with the patient and that is of no special value (papers, magazines, clothes, wooden toys, etc.) should be burned.

Third: Before removal from patients' room, washable clothling, linens, used by patient and by those in contact shall be immersed in a 2 per cent solution liquor cresolis compound U. S. P. 5 per cent solution liquor cresolis compound U. S. P. 5 per cent solution for half an hour, then boiled for half an hour. Fourth: Blankets and other articles presenting free surfaces and not too thick can be made safe by exposure in the open air to direct sun rays for three or four days, or sufficiently long to get fully twenty-four hours of direct sunshine. Such articles as rugs, carpets, etc. treated in the same way should, in addition, be brushed with a 2 per cent solution liquor cresolis compound U. S. P., a b per cent solution carbolic acid, or an equivalent disinfectant.

Fifth: Thorough washing of the wood work, wood and metal furnishings with hot water and soap, combined with disinfection through the use of a 2 per cent solution liquor cresolis compound U. S. P., or a 5 per the board.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE: The County, City, or Village Board of Health within the jurisdiction of which the premises are, is primarily responsible. The Board may use its discretion as to permitting this to be done under the supervision of the attending physician; provided, that in all cases the Board within whose jurisdiction the case is, has the right to supervise the disinfection.

COST-OF TERMINAL DISINFECTION:

This is to be borne entirely by the people who reside in the premises.

NOT NECESSARY TO DISINFECT PREMISES FOR THOSE IN CONTACT:

NOT NECESSARY TO DISINFECT PREMISES FOR THOSE IN CONTACT:

Whenever anyone is to be "Quarantined out" after having been in contact with a communicable disease it is not necessary to disinfect the premises at that time; provided that the disease still exists in the premises. In these cases, disinfection is only necessary when the patient is to be released from quarantine.
