Farmers Of State, County Set Record

Outlook For Nebraska Is Best In Years

The brightest Nebraska farm picture in years was painted by State-Federal Agricultural Statistician Anderson last weekend as he reported figures on the food-for-freedom production progress to the state USDA war board.

On the basis of July 1 condition, Anderson estimated that corn crop at 169,032,000 bushels—11 million more than last year and 35 million bushels above the 1930-39 average.

This bright state-wide farm picture is echoed in Wayne and bordering counties. The small grain harvest is being rapidly completed now in this county with most farmers, especially in the southern section of Wayne county...

Corn prospects also remain generally bright. A few fields have been damaged somewhat by hail storms but these were scattered and caused comparatively little loss.

New Campaign For Music For Camps Launched

A new campaign was launched in Wayne county Monday as a part of the nationwide drive sponsored by the Legion and Legion Auxiliary to provide music for America's fighting men.

Members of the local Legion and Auxiliary posts will canvass residences of Wayne Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week in search for all the disc or cylinder records which residents are willing to give to this drive.

How Quotas Set Quotas in this campaign are based on 25 records for each Legionnaire and Auxiliary member as a liberal response will be necessary to reach that figure.

Local residents who are missed or those living in rural areas and neighboring towns and communities which are not being canvassed are requested to leave their records at a business house in Wayne.

Phil Wigton of the Sioux City traffic bureau, William Marriot, secretary of the Sioux City grain exchange, Walter S. Whorton, manager of the trains department of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, testified to the need of maintaining daily service due to recent business increases and the outlook for the future.

The protesting group took sharp issue with the railroad's contention that the change would release equipment for defense, pointing out that agriculture needed this service for its most important part in the defense program.

Captain Louis P. Mittlestadt, brother of Mrs. J. M. Strahan of Wayne, now located in Spokane, Wash., is recovering from a serious ailment. He will be in the hospital for two weeks treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown returned Sunday from a two weeks vacation spent in Holdrege.

Commission Conducts Two Day Hearing

Fate of weekday train service on the Bloomfield-Wayne and the Crofton-Wakefield branches, which the railroad company is seeking to replace with tri-weekly service, rests with the state railway commission, which was presented with a mass of arguments and data at a two-day hearing last Wednesday and Thursday in the district courtroom here.

However, regardless of the decision of the commission, it is likely that the case will finally land in court since it has been indicated by both company officials and the 14 towns, which organized to protest the application, that they would appeal in case of an unfavorable decision.

Wayne Dressler represented the railway company as attorney, and General Superintendent Cagdon of St. Paul, Auditor O'Hearn and Sioux City General Agent Thomas were the principal witnesses for the plaintiff. Their chief contention was that the branch lines as now operated are losing money.

C. W. Peasinger of Randolph was attorney for the protesting group and C. A. Ross of Lincoln, rate expert for the commission for 24 years, was one of the principal witnesses and assisted the attorney. Mr. Ross gave a technical analysis of the railroad's statements of revenue and expense to show that losses were not as great as the company maintained.

John Carhart, W. C. Swanson and D. Hall, all Wayne shippers, and Tom Roberts, AAA county chairman, were chief local witnesses. All other towns on the two branch lines were represented by one or more witnesses with the exception of Wakefield and Magnet.

The protesting group took sharp issue with the railroad's contention that the change would release equipment for defense, pointing out that agriculture needed this service for its most important part in the defense program.

They also stated that inbound shipments during the same period had increased from 15 to 35 per cent.

Estate Case Is Appealed To Supreme Court

Permission to appeal the suit of Doris Fay Carlson et al against Russell Bartels, administrator of the estate of Nels Carlson, deceased, to the supreme court has been granted Mr. Bartels by District Judge A. E. Wenke of Stanton.

AMERICA

IN WAYNE
Friday July 17

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Garand semi-automatic rifle, which is the standard issue today for the U. S. army, is superior to the old Springfield rifle in many respects. We literally need millions of these fast shooting powerful rifles to equip our army. They cost $85 each and are being manufactured at the rate of one a minute. They fire sixty 30-calibre shells a minute.

Every one of the 40,000,000 employed persons in America could easily buy one of these rifles for the army. Not that we need that many, but the reserve could go into shells and other much needed supplies. Buy more and more War Bonds and top the quota in your county by investing at least ten percent of your income every pay day.

This is America—this view you see from your window. America is the green lawn that stretches to the sidewalk; it's the street in which small boys play the baseball game they should be having in the playground; it's the rows of comfortable small homes, many of them newly built; it's Wayne's back yards on Mondays where hang so many family washings.

You can find America in the thousands of parking lots and the millions of cars that cover them—more cars than in any other nation in the world. You can find America in the crowded public conveyances where men and women read a free press that gives them news. You can listen to America over family dinner tables. Or over millions of feet of telephone wire—from Ed Corey's ring-box, two - longs - and - a - short, to the conference hookups in any big business office. Or you can hear it from early morn to after midnight in the pulse of heavy traffic, the movement of industry.

America Is First. It sets the pace for the world to follow. It leads the way in living standards, in luxuries, in production—in all kinds of progress. It moves at a tempo scored 165 years ago by the signers of the Declaration of Independence. "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness..." America holds the answer to satisfactory living.

Believing this and wanting to preserve these American heritages, Wayne merchants are uniting in observance of American Heroes Day, honoring our home town heroes of all wars by buying the armaments to win this war through the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps. They join in urging YOU to help make it a glorious tribute to our heroes, breaking all records in the sale of Bonds and Stamps.

PROGRAM IN WAYNE

3 p. m.—Parade and Concert in business district by Wayne College Band.

3:15 p. m.—Patriotic address by Harry Simon in business district.

4-H Clubs Join Drive For Scrap

Ak-Sar-Ben Offers Prizes In New Contest

The weight of Nebraska's 20,000 4-H Club members was thrown behind the state's great scrap metal and rubber salvage campaign with announcement today by President J. E. Davidson that Ak-Sar-Ben, Omaha's famed non-profit civic organization, will offer $250 in prizes for a special competition among the clubs of the state.

These prizes are in addition to the $50 in war stamps offered by the Omaha World-Herald to the junior organization delivering the largest poundage.

Food For Freedom "Ak-Sar-Ben has pledged its resources, efforts and energies to help our country win the war," Davidson pointed out.

Ak-Sar-Ben is also sponsoring a "Food for Freedom" campaign among the 4-H clubs of Nebraska and western Iowa as one of its war-time activities.

Rules for the Ak-Sar-Ben contest were drawn-up by the state 4-H club office, under whose direction L. I. Frisbie said credit will be given all clubs for the scrap collected in a previous drive, conducted from June 14 to July 18.

Ten points will be allowed for each 10 pounds of scrap rubber and each 50 pounds of scrap metal turned in by July 18.

Farmers Of State, County Set Record

Outlook For Nebraska Is Best In Years

The brightest Nebraska farm picture in years, as painted by State-Federal Agricultural Statistician Anderson last weekend as he reported figures on the food-for-freedom production progress to the state USDA war board.

You have to thumb back to the early 1900's to find a better wheat yield per acre in this state. The crop will be between 55 and 60 million bushels and the quality is excellent.

On the basis of July 1 condition, Anderson estimated the corn crop at 169,032,000 bushels—11 million more than last year and 35 million bushels above the 1930-39 average.

This bright state-wide farm picture is echoed in Wayne and bordering counties. The small grain harvest is being rapidly completed now in this county with most farmers, especially in the southern section of Wayne county, finished cutting.

Corn prospects also remain generally bright. A few fields have been damaged somewhat by hail storms but these were scattered and caused comparatively little loss.

Returning to the state picture, farmers will have more hay or hand this winter than in the past; a large increase in alfalfa accounting for the forecast of 1,755,000 tons.

The spring pig crop is the largest in a decade, an increase of 54 per cent over last year. It is estimated at 3,106,000 head and follows a fall pig crop of 1,071,000 head.

Egg production during the January-June period amounted to a billion, 70 million eggs, a gain over 1941 production for the same period of 225 million eggs.

In two other vital war crops, soybeans and sugar beets, Nebraska registered sharp gains. Soybean acreage is 55,000, the greatest in history and estimate of beets for harvest is 77,000 acres compared with 60,000 in 1941.

A patriotic address delivered by Harry Siman and selections by the college band in the business district were the chief features of Wayne's observance of the day.

A marked increase in the sale of bonds and stamps will be required during the remainder of the month if Wayne is to reach its heavy July quota, officials said.

New Campaign For Music For Camps Launched

A new campaign was launched in Wayne county Monday as a part of the nationwide drive sponsored by the Legion and Legion Auxiliary to provide music for America's fighting men.

Members of the local Legion and Auxiliary posts will canvass residences of Wayne Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week in search for all the disc or cylinder records which residents are willing to give to this drive.

The Winside post of the Legion is conducting a similar campaign for records in that area and tentatively has arranged for a dance, the admission price for which will be a number of records or a small cash payment which will be used to purchase recordings.

Quotas in this campaign are based on 25 records for each Legionnaire and Auxiliary member so a liberal response will be necessary to reach that figure.

The war production board and the Osborn and Davis committee which handles morale and recreation problems of the armed forces, have endorsed this campaign and the co-operation of all residents of Wayne and vicinity is requested by the local posts of the Legion and Auxiliary.

Local residents who are missed or those living in rural areas and neighboring towns and communities which are not being canvassed are requested to leave their records at a business house in Wayne.

In war the advantage is on the side with the best weapons. The work of scientists in America's research laboratories, developing new materials and new equipment, means a lot to our fighting men.

1. It takes years to build up and equip a large, organized, and able staff for research. Fortunately, industry did this long ago.

2. Long before Pearl Harbor, laboratories like General Electric's were serving their country—solving technical problems of war.

3. History repeats! In the last war "wireless" was developed for military needs—to become, with peace, a giant broadcasting industry.

4. So it will be this time. Research will help to win the war, and its many wartime discoveries will help to build a better future.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, today made public the official War Bond Quotas by States for the month of July, which places the nation on a Billion-dollar-a-month basis to aid in meeting the War cost.

"Everybody, every pay day ten percent" is the Treasury slogan which is expected to place one of the attractive new window stickers in every American home.

Witnessed one or more cases where homes and buildings have been burned. In the majority of such cases, the tragedy could have been prevented.

I recall one instance when a few years ago a neighbor used tractor fuel for starting a fire. The fire was started, the person severely burned and the house, furniture and practically all the family's belongings were destroyed.

There are many fire hazards. It would be a good idea for every family to think of themselves as fire "inspectors" and completely go over every building on the place.

Anyone who had the valuable experience of being raised on a farm can recall any number of times that he took a chance and won—often by a small margin.

Nearly everyone can recall an instance where a relative or neighbor has been painfully burned or scalded. We have all

Increased poultry numbers in Nebraska and the requirement that this poultry be cared for properly if the needed production is to be reached make housing more important than ever.

Hitler's Women Spies Called Cleverest Secret Agents

HITLER'S New Order calls for blitzkrieg technique in spies as well as warfare. To accomplish this end the women who have served as der Führer's cleverest secret agents no longer conform to the Mata Hari pattern.

Gone is the category of spies whose activity was based on their "social graces". The women who helped effect Hitler's entrance into the now occupied territories of Europe are the very opposite of the Hollywood spy with long eyelashes, long cigarette holder and elegant gowns.

Best trained of all Hitler's women spies, Hilde writes, is Countess Henriette Kessler. Before engaging in military espionage she made her living as a school teacher, dress designer, salesgirl and writer.

Even more typical of the new type of political spy is twenty-seven-year old Countess Maria Redern. In outward appearance, Hilde reports, she belies the popular idea of a Mata Hari. Blond, with tow-colored, almost invisible eyebrows, this woman agent was stout and homely even at twenty!

have an accident sooner or later. I recall one case, that a neighbor was found mangled beneath a tractor which was stuck in a field.

Evidently he had attempted to put a post under a wheel that was spinning. Another bad accident happened to a friend of mine a few years ago when he forgot to lower the curtain over the tractor radiator.

Everyone who operates machinery will sooner or later grow careless. I recall instances of oiling a combine while it was running and being pulled across the field.

Farmers Get Extra Sugar

Special Allowance Being Given For Harvest Workers

Extra-sugar is being given farmers who board harvest hands at the rate of a half pound a week for each hired hand under special regulations sent out by the OPA.

Farmers desiring such extra sugar must state in their applications that the war ration books of his hired men have been or will be surrendered to them or that the hired men have no books. This will prevent the granting of extra sugar for a hired man, who could also use his ration book to obtain sugar.

This special order is designed to care for threshers, corn pickers and other workers whom a farmer boards temporarily during the harvest season. Applications for this special sugar allotment are being accepted now by the Wayne county war price and rationing board with offices in the basement of the postoffice.

Allowances are limited to the time that the extra harvest hands are employed on the farm.

FSA Cautioning On Buying Land At High Prices

Right now the wartime problems center around the need for agriculture. Considerable thought however, must be given to the matter of post-war agricultural problems, warns Ralph W. Hutchinson, Lincoln, Farm Security regional chief of farm debt adjustment and tenure improvement, in a recent communication to Ray L. Verzal, FSA county supervisor for Wayne, Pierce and Stanton counties.

One of the big post-war problems, Hutchinson said, will have to do with farm tenure and will center around security of occupancy of both tenants and owners; and will tie directly into land values and the debt structure in relation to post-war farm prices.

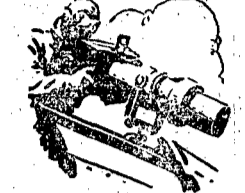

Hutchinson believes this statement can be used as a guide post, he said, points away from inflationary land investments, and definitely points to the sound general practice of reducing debts now rather than increasing them. This means that land purchases today should be based on probable returns over a long-term period instead of on the high prices for farm products prevailing today.

Old Settlers Meeting Slated

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

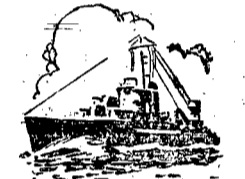

The Aerial Camera for use on Scout and Observation and Reconnaissance planes is essential to both the Army and Navy air forces in planning battle formations and in obtaining information on enemy fortifications and movements. They look something like a cannon, and cost about $3,400 apiece.

The aerial cameraman can plot wide territories in bold relief so that Army or Navy intelligence can make accurate measurements of enemy territory. We need many of these cameras so necessary to the air arms of the Army and Navy. You can help buy them with your purchases of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day, and help your county go over its War Bond Quota.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Ships of the Destroyer type comprise the bulk of our fighting ships in the American Navy. Their average displacement is about 1000 tons, and they are fast, powerful, and hard hitting. They have been particularly effective in convoy duty and gave a good account of themselves in the Coral Sea engagement. They cost approximately $3,600,000 each.

Every Navy shipyard is turning out Destroyers in record time. They are essential for our two-ocean Navy. Purchase of more and more War Bonds will assure all-out production of these vital units for the Navy. Buy every pay day. If everybody invests at least ten percent of his income in War Bonds we can do the job.

What are we fighting for The Four Freedoms

FREEDOM FROM WANT

"Freedom from Want" is more than just an expression by a great humanitarian. It is the release of mankind from the hopeless struggle of scratching the bare earth for subsistence. Too long have there been too many human beings doomed to hunger, privation and mere creature existence in a world supposedly civilized and at peace. These people, of all colors and nationalities and faiths, must have the foods and the goods of the world made accessible to them if the dignity of man is ever to reach its full stature.

No nation on earth enjoys the bounty with which our country has been endowed. We have everything for a comfortable and full life. Our riches of the earth and the products they yield have offered incentive and reward to our people. They have enabled us to make America a land of homes and to establish the highest standard of living ever known.

It has always been thoroughly American to consider that the resources of our land belong to all of the people and that all should benefit from whatever should be derived from them. This is the democratic principle behind the belief of the big majority of Americans that our country must offer a fair opportunity to work and sufficient sustenance for all.

The wealth of our nation and the resourcefulness of our people are ample to provide the necessities of life for those who are in need. Our country is the most productive one there is in a world where all countries have become interdependent and where international commerce is ever more necessary, especially if further strides in America and greater world progress are to be realized. The peoples of all nations must therefore have access to the ample resources of the world and be free to enjoy them.

When nations can be freed from economic want they can flourish as we have, and then individual wants for the basic necessities of life can and will disappear from the world. This freedom will lift men all over the world still higher above the animal kingdom and establish man's full dignity everywhere. America points the way and will win the triumph to preserve it.
