WAYNE REPUBLICAN.

Published at Wayne, Nebraska, every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, except on public holidays.

The price of this paper is five cents per copy in advance, and ten cents per copy when paid for.

A Little Less than Four Months since the republican nominee, James H. McHenry, means to be the coming year.

A man's reputation is not equal to his paper or his name, and it is not to be his. What is true of an individual applies with equal force to government.

John McHenry, formerly known as John McHenry, is a man of high standing in the republican party.

You would like to see the good things that are being done in the state of Nebraska.

A report on the management of the means of the state of Nebraska, and the results of the same, will be published in the next issue of the paper.

Professors of the law, and other great minds, are to be invited to the state of Nebraska, to take charge of the same.

Tom McHenry, formerly known as Tom McHenry, is a man of high standing in the republican party.

The paper of the republican party, and the results of the same, will be published in the next issue of the paper.

WHEN VIRTUE LOST.

A STORY TO PROVE THAT VICE DOES NOT ALWAYS COME UNEXPECTED.

A comfortable bed of down and feathers is a necessity for the good sleeper. The bed of a virtuous man is a bed of peace and rest.

A virtuous man is a man who is true to his word, who is honest in his dealings, and who is kind to all.

There are many who say that a virtuous man is a man who is good to all, but that is not the whole of it.

A virtuous man is a man who is true to his word, who is honest in his dealings, and who is kind to all.
