HAVANA GETS A SCARE

INSURGENTS ATTEMPT TO DESTROY AQUEDUCTS.

Disunion Republicans have finished through to reach the streets. Attempts to cut off the water supply—Sanitation and Police.

Havana Gets a Scare

Havana was recently visited by a special delegation of the D. R. in the name of two groups of republicans who seek the freedom of Cuba and the destruction of the aqueducts. The aqueducts were destroyed through a series of explosions which caused a panic in the city. The aqueducts were destroyed through a series of explosions which caused a panic in the city.

THE LOWLY CLOVER.

ITS PLACE IN SUPERSTITION AND LEGENDS ABOUT IT

Many clover flowers are said to be woven into the crown of the King's hat, and the legend is that the little Prince is never to be seen again.

The most popular version of the story is that of the clover that grew in the garden of the King's wife, and which she gave to her little Prince as a gift.

The clover is said to be a symbol of good luck, and it is believed that those who wear it will be protected from evil spirits.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of love, and it is believed that those who wear it will find true love.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of hope, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose hope.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of faith, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose faith.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of courage, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose courage.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of wisdom, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose wisdom.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of justice, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose justice.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of mercy, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose mercy.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of kindness, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose kindness.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of generosity, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose generosity.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of compassion, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose compassion.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of patience, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose patience.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of perseverance, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose perseverance.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of determination, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose determination.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of strength, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose strength.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of courage, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose courage.

The clover is also said to be a symbol of wisdom, and it is believed that those who wear it will never lose wisdom.
