TRIAL FOR MERRIAM

NEW YORK LUNGS AT THE GENERAL'S SCALD

Below New York City, the trial of General Merriam for the murder of General Lung is expected to begin on Monday. The trial is expected to be a sensational one, as it is the first time in the history of the United States that a general has been tried for the murder of another general. The trial is expected to be a long one, as it is expected that the defense will present a strong case for the general's acquittal. The trial is expected to be a landmark case in the history of the United States.

WILL FIGHT WITH MILES

Secretary of War Woodrow Wilson has announced that General Miles will be given command of the Army in the Philippines. This is a significant move, as it shows the government's confidence in General Miles' leadership. General Miles is a highly respected and experienced military leader, and his appointment to the Philippines is expected to be a success. The Philippines is a large and important territory, and the government is confident that General Miles will be able to bring order and stability to the region.

MURKIN IN PANAMA PIPE

The Panama Canal Commission has announced that it will be conducting a thorough investigation into the recent explosion at the Panama Canal. The explosion occurred on Monday, and it is believed to have been caused by a gas leak. The investigation is expected to be a long one, as it is expected that the commission will want to determine the exact cause of the explosion and prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future. The Panama Canal is a vital waterway, and the government is committed to ensuring its safe and secure operation.

POWER FACTORY BLOWN UP

A power factory in the city of Omaha was blown up on Monday, causing significant damage and loss of life. The explosion occurred in the early morning hours, and it is believed to have been caused by a gas leak. The factory was a major source of power for the city, and the explosion has caused a significant disruption in the city's power supply. The city officials are working to restore power as quickly as possible, and they are also conducting an investigation into the cause of the explosion.

CHAPTER XXV

It was a very quiet day in the city. The streets were empty, and the houses were dark. The only light came from the street lamps, which cast a soft glow on the pavement. A lone figure was seen walking down the street, their head bowed and their shoulders slumped. They were alone, and they were sad.

CHAPTER XXVI

The morning sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing. The city was waking up, and the streets were filled with people. A lone figure was seen walking down the street, their head held high and their shoulders squared. They were alone, but they were happy.
