MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR THE LATE SENATOR JAMES H. HAYNES

Norfolk expects another big day to the west and many of the South City people think that the day will be the best of the year. It will connect Norfolk with Virginia, South Dakota. The right of way has already been secured and work will be commenced very soon.

Col. Bryan wishes to quit and understand that he is not on the D. & W. band wagon. He joins in the welcoming chorus with the feeling: "Nothing is so true as that done to prove to him and the world that his distinguished services are appreciated by his countrymen."

Mr. Bryan wishes to quit and understand that he is not on the D. & W. band wagon. He joins in the welcoming chorus with the feeling: "Nothing is so true as that done to prove to him and the world that his distinguished services are appreciated by his countrymen."

South Dakota politicians are looking for an opportunity to get George Johnson, a Democrat, to the position of Chief of State. When he was broken out of the position, he was serving out an accepted term as Justice under an appointment from the Cleveland administration. He preferred to serve his country in the field and enlisted with the South Dakota volunteers. While still in the service his commission as postmaster expired and the office was filled in the presidential election. The president has now called on the opportunity to show his appreciation of the services of a man who volunteered by giving back the expanded office to Mr. Johnson.

Who? Governor Johnson? He is a republican in his politics, but he approves of the president's action. He has not to see the trouble on any side.

Who? Governor Johnson? He is a republican in his politics, but he approves of the president's action. He has not to see the trouble on any side.

Senator had received a number of offers for a position of high rank in the government. He has declined them all, saying that he would like to see the country through to the end of his term.

The well-known fact that he has never been elected to any office in the state is a matter of record. He has never been elected to any office in the state is a matter of record.

Children are very important. When they are sent to school, we always remember that they are not discriminating buyers and we take special pains to see that they get what both you and they want.
