The Gibson style shirt waists being the go this year, the REPUBLICAN editor is liable to come out in something of that order about strawberry time.

C. J. Randall says the republicans are not in favor of education because they stole the school fund, which is come us a proof of it. You can't come us a proof of it.

E. E. Gumbel, a sympathetic doctor at Ponca and formerly of Wayne, is making a grand success of his work up there and making money for himself. He is a liberal user of printers' ink—if he wishes to state a fact that the people should know he has it printed in the county papers instead of dreaming over it in a 14th century way called "professional ethics" that bury alive many a good man. Mr. Gumbel is doing as much in one year as "professional ethics" can do for a man in three times as long, and his success is his own creation.

Another Golden rule is a queer pen-on-it reeks with epical, cutting remarks directed at just people of whom only good should be spoken. Again the pen displays erratic judgement and confounds the things that should and should not go into the inner circles of a home of refinement—a home where ladies blush and children wonder at the awful, awful pen. Now it is sermonizing—dips in things reverential, like the semi-annual "jiner" at the camp-meeting, by the time julep season comes the pen will be backslidin some, and by the time Tom-and-Jerry's come again the pen will exhibit donkey ears enough to decorate a palace stock car. This pen is prone to the sensational. Those things take—the people will lay aside a Sunday school paper to glance at the Police Gazette, it's human nature. Goldie's pen is catering to these fellows, they live in Wayne county, plenty of them. It is bowery style, forged in the metal, cheap imitations of pens better, pens worse—a mixture amusing, but not a mixture of very good metal. Such peas tell a story of fellows who loath noble deeds, the way to fame is too slow that way, they simply crave notoriety. They would rather kick a pascoose and be big injun in a tepee than brush the laurels off a rival warrior on the open field of battle. That pen betrays the pusher of the Ram-Cat Alley, 5-cent novel class of heroes; the kind who feel mean and pose as bad men, but who never get very far west; a very poor specimen of the "Three Finger Pete" and "Handspike Bill" class, yet much to bad to pose as steady members of good society; still in the A B C's of truth and moral courage, at the 1 X 1 are 1 in the habit of paying bills when due, still pressing the boom of his pants upon Mother Earth at the foot of the ladder of good example to youth and culture. If that pen were only a microbe to insinuate itself into the festering sores of other people's business, it were better bathed in a strong solution of golden rule bichloride of mercury.

The Board of Education has shown its appreciation of the work done by Prof. Snodgrass, by re-electing him for another year.

Mr. Howard, so long connected with the schools of our city, resigned his position as principal of the ward school and has been succeeded by Miss Hyde, of Vermillion, South Dakota.

Arrangements for commencement exercises are fast nearing completion. The Board of Education has decided to secure a speaker for the occasion, instead of the usual program of orations by the graduates.

School reopened Monday with a full attendance. Several high school students who have been absent because of sickness, returned, and many new pupils were enrolled in the lower grades. Both teachers and pupils are much refreshed by the week's rest.

The Wayne schools were represented at the North Nebraska Teachers' Association held at Norfolk, by Prof. Snodgrass, Misses Barrett, Morgan and Stocking, and Mrs. Phillips. Others attending the contest in which our school was represented by Miss Osa Albee, were Mr. and Mrs. Albee, Mrs. Grothe and daughter, Manda, Misses Feather, Theobald, Warrach, Perrin, Bryant and Anita, and Mr. Harry Craven. All were justly proud of our candidate, Miss Albee, who would have brought home first honors, had not the executive committee protested her selection as too dramatic to be considered in the oratorical class. This decision is generally held to be unjust since the same selection has taken not only the district medal but that of the state is well, and that in the oratorical class.

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some Sensible Advice to Women by Mrs. E. Sailer.

"DEAR Mrs. PINKHAM:—When I passed through what is known as change of life, I had two years' suffering—sudden heat, and as quick chillings would pass over me; my appetite was variable and I never could tell for a day at a time how I would feel the next day. Five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed all that, my days became days of health, and I have enjoyed every day since—now six years.

We have used considerable of your Vegetable Compound in our charitable work, as we find that to restore a poor mother to health so she can support herself and those dependent upon her, if such there be, is truer charity than to give other aid. You have my hearty endorsement, for you have proven yourself a true friend to suffering women."—Mrs. E. Value of a Cabinet Post.

A cabinet officer, who not very long ago retired to private life, started to build up anew his law practice. A corporation case was sent to him by a brother lawyer. Meeting that lawyer later the ex-cabinet minister asked what he ought to charge.

"What did you think of charging?" asked his friend.

"Well," the reply was, "I thought $1,000 would be about right."

"My dear fellow," the other lawyer responded, "if you do that you will never get another case. Ex-cabinet ministers are a luxury, if they are worth anything. Send a bill for $5,000 retaining fee and you will get a check to-morrow. Then adjust your regular charges at your leisure."

The thing was done, with the result predicted. It is said that the gentleman in question made in a month as much as the sum of his salary during his lifetime official term.—New York Evening Post.

Business Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed the mucus that it contains becomes thick and it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. This can be done and is guaranteed by Catarrh, which is a medicine that restores the condition of the mucous surfaces. It costs only one dollar for a box of Catarrh, (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

THE WHITE CAPS.

Old Organization of Lynchers Has Given Place to Mutual Benefit Society.

THERE is said to be in certain parts of Southern Indiana an oath-bound mutual benefit society which has grown out of that famous—and infamous—organization which in days gone by struck terror into the hearts of all who came under its ban—the dreaded Whitecaps.

The society has its secret meeting places, its signs, grips, passwords, etc., and as a direct descendant of the organization which for years killed men and whipped women in Southern Indiana and Ohio. It is claimed that its members elect men of their own stripe to all the important offices, so great is the society's strength; that when a trial is on in which any member is interested, his fellows are always placed on the jury; that it is a society formed for mutual protection in any way which may be imagined, but especially when their members are in trouble.

Where the meetings places of the society are, not one of them will tell. The organization's members are found in the political conventions of city, township, county, district and State, though holding the interests of any politician. It never sells its votes, but it has developed, has been many a time a power which has turned the political scale one way or the other, greatly to the mystification of the bosses.

As a rule, though coming of an organization which was nothing unless a violator of the law, the present society is not composed of lawbreakers, at least in the ordinary sense. However, when one of its members is in trouble, his fellows stand by him until the last, a fact which has often been demonstrated in law courts. Frequently, in trials, it has been noticed that there was some mysterious influence at work on the jury, but what it was could not be discovered.

Origin of the White Caps.

The beginning of the Whitecaps dates in Indiana years to the early settlement of Indiana, at a time when the State was covered with desperate characters who had fled from Ohio and Kentucky, the southern part from its contiguity to the Ohio, being especially the haunt of horse thieves, robbers and counterfeiters. In the river counties of Indiana there was for years a continuous reign of terror. When the residents of these counties finally banded together for protection, the criminals fled further to the north, where their advent was met with the organization of a band of regulators, of which every decent citizen was a member. There was little law in those days. Might made right and there was no one to gain say the right of the regulators to take the law into their own hands. There are those yet living who have often seen men ride by at night with white sacks, in which were eyeholes, over their heads. It was never known in one locality from what other locality these men came. It was only known that they were "on the march" but the next day a ghastly body hanging from a limb, or a shady character with his back slashed up with hickory gads, or the tale of some person missing would solve the mystery. People who had no business out of doors stayed inside when the regulators were out. No questions were asked and no comments were made.

This was the original Whitecap organization. It served its purpose well and when the thieves and thugs were all driven out of Indiana it ostensibly disbanded.

It was in 1857 that the Whitecaps again became prominent, but their character was decidedly changed. Edward Bingham, a constable who had in some way incurred the ill-will of the gang, was the first victim. He was called out of his home at night, tied to a horse and carried into the woods, where he was stripped. He was then bound to a tree and each member of the gang took turns in applying hickory switches until he became unconscious. Then the man was carried back to his home and thrown brutally over the fence into the yard. Bingham died next day and the community arose in rage against his murderers. Indictments were brought against several men who were known to be in the gang and three of them were sentenced to imprisonment. The Whitecaps had such powerful influence that the convicted men served but a small part of their sentences.

From 1858 to 1874, there were occasional whippings of both men and women, but nothing of a nature as to call for special action, but in the latter year a lynching by Whitecaps once more drew attention to the organization. Fear of the gang was so great, however, that nothing was done. In 1876, the Whitecaps broke into a jail and lynched a man awaiting trial on charge of murder, of which his innocence was later proven.

In 1883 a prominent farmer was whipped. He had the gang arrested, but the jury disagreed and the men escaped. From that time on for many years Whitecap outrages were frequent. They became so common that at last the people of both Indiana and Ohio were aroused and an attempt was made to root out the organization. Whipping and tarring parties were of their most nightly occurrence, and the people were worked in a perfect frenzy of terror.

Members of the original gang of Whitecaps were rarely arrested and more rarely convicted. If a Whitecap fell into the hands of the law, it was almost invariably because of doing business independent of the original organization.

UNJUST AND UN-AMERICAN.

Any Reciprocity Which Displaces Domestic Production. In 1896 the Republican party stood pledged to establish reciprocity equally with protection. That pledge was incorporated into the tariff act of July, 1897. That act authorized the President to enter into reciprocal agreements as to certain specified articles.

The second subdivision of Section 4 of that act authorizes the entry into negotiations for reciprocity by tariff reductions upon any imported article of not more than 20 per cent; by transfer to the free list of any article that is a natural product of any foreign country, and, at the same time, set a natural product of the United States.

That act met the understanding and desire of a majority of the American people, not even the radical Democracy interposing objection.

This same Section 4 leaves nothing in doubt to the intention of Congress that some industries should be closely protected and exposed to no peril by reciprocity, and likewise it made clear that home labor is to be protected from dangerous competition. At the same time the purpose of advancing our export interest and broadening our foreign markets is forcibly expressed.

So far as the immediate products of the soil are concerned there can be no doubt whatever that the intention of the houses of Congress which adopted the Dingley bill was to closely and jealously guard and protect them. The very fact that only non-competing soil products can be transferred to the free list makes this clear.

The proponents of a general and dangerous reciprocity reply that there are now no products of the soil in the United States which do not compete with some products of foreign soil; therefore, to narrow reciprocity to such limits means to destroy the principle entirely. It matters very little whether that is a sound conclusion or not. This one thing we know: that any reciprocity treaty that the admission of foreign products of the soil which come in direct competition with products of the soil of the United States to the extent that the latter can no longer be produced is a reciprocal plan that is in antagonism with the best interests of home producers and should be downed. It is un-American, unjust and suicidal.—Sacramento (Cal.) Record.

Too Busy for Tariff Tinkering.

It is safe to say that the Ohio Democrats will not feel any great amount of confidence in the value of the suggestion made by some of their free-trade friends in other States that tariff revision be made the Democratic battle cry in the next Presidential campaign. Their experience has not been such as to incline them to look on it as a winner. In the platform on which they fought their recent State campaign, they declared unqualifiedly for tariff revision, and they went down to crushing defeat. According to Representative Grosvener of Ohio, the Republican victory was greater than was expected, and, in making this statement, Mr. Grosvener called attention to the fact that tariff revision had been made a prominent issue. There is a lot of talk about tariff revision being made just now, but it is coming from the same old free-trade source. The solid business men of the country have too much to do in filling the orders which prosperous customers from all over the country are sending in to them and in meeting the demands generally which Dingley law prosperity puts upon them to do much talking. It is to be noted, however, that when they do say anything on the subject, the burden of their remarks invariably is, "Let wall enough alone."—American Economist.

Free-Trade Ingratitude.

"Four years more of Grover" was a delinquent, but "three years now of Teddy" doubly discounts it in ingratitude.—Mt. Vernon (Ill.) News.

Yes, indeed. Under Grover free-traders conspired themselves that plants were shut down and more than two million wage earners, out of a job, were facing semi-starvation, while under Teddy bread winners can obtain work and wages all over this broad land. If there is anything that fills the circumambient atmosphere with lugubriousness in the mind of free-traders it is the noise of humming spindles, the racket of looms, the shriek of locomotive whistles, the smoke issuing from manufacturing plant chimneys or the song and whistle of workmen with full dinner pails. Yes, yes; the free-traders' outlook is indeed somber.—American Economist.

The Passive State.

"The art of selling," said an old book agent at the St. James Hotel, "is simply the science of hypnotism—unconscious hypnotism. The merit of the object you offer, your personality, your conversation or manner have little to do with it. The most strong-minded, obstinate man is as susceptible of buying a gold brick; if you catch him in the passive state, as the Southern negro who buys hair straighteners.

"Why does a man purchase a red necktie when he entered the haberdashery fully determined to order a blue one? Simply that he's in a passive state and the clerk exerts his unconscious mesmeric power to work off the red ones, of which he is overstocked. "The force trick" with playing cards is nothing but quick hypnotism. The personal magnetism of certain actors, preachers and orators is the same thing. If people understood this more they would be cautious in permitting themselves to fall into the passive state, and many abuses would be avoided.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Cold Comfort.

Her Father—No, young man, I shall never consent to your marriage with my daughter.

Young man—Ah, how can I live without the dear girl?

Her father—Well, if it is absolutely necessary that your existence be prolonged you might hunt up a job and go to work.

Good Reason.

Dr. Pills—What's the use of operating, when you know it won't help him?

Dr. Squills—Why, he's got the money to pay for it, hasn't he?—Judge.

Take care not to wound the feelings of a sensitive person.

Only a Lawyer's Gift.

"Now," said counsel conducting the cross-examination, "will you please state how and where you first met this man?" "I think," said the lady witness, "that it was—" "Never mind what you think," interrupted counsel. "We want facts here. We don't care what you think, and haven't any time to waste in listening to what you think. Now, tell us where and when it was you first met this man?" The witness made no reply. "Come, come," urged the lawyer. "I demand an answer to my question." There was still no response. "Your honor," said the lawyer, turning to the Judge, "I think I am entitled to an answer to the question I have put." "The witness will please answer the question," said the Judge, in impressive tones. "Can't," said the lady. "Why not?" "The court doesn't care to hear what I think, does it?" "No." "Then there is no use questioning me any further. I am not a lawyer—I can't talk without thinking!"

IMPURE BAKING POWDER SEIZED.

The New York Board of Health Find It Contains Alum and Rock, Declare It Dangerous to Health and Dump It Into the River.

The New York papers report that the Health Department of that city has seized as dangerous to health nearly two tons of cheap mixtures sold for baking powders and dumped them into the offal scow to be destroyed. More of the powder was found in a Sixth avenue department store. The report of the analysis of the Health Department stated that it was "an alum baking powder" containing alum and pulverized rock.

The different Health Authorities seem to have different ways of repressing the sale of bad baking powders. In England they have prosecuted the grocers under the general law and broken up the traffic. In Missouri the sale of alum baking powder is actually prohibited by law. In New York they seize the unwholesome stuff and cast it into the river, without any discussion. The latter way is certainly effective.

The alum baking powders are usually offered at a low price, ten to twenty cents a pound, or with some prize, as a temptation to the housewife.

Consumers can protect themselves by buying only high-grade baking powder of established name and reputation. Do not be tempted by the grocer to take something else as "just as good" or "our own brand," for the trials show that the grocer himself is often deceived by unscrupulous makers and is selling an alum powder without knowing it.

There are several good powders on the market; let the housekeeper insist on having what she knows is right, and not be induced to risk the life of the family for an imaginary saving of a few cents.

Smallest Watch in the World.

A watchmaker at Zurich is exhibiting in his shop window a wonderful piece of Swiss workmanship—the smallest watch that has ever been manufactured. The watch, which is in the shape of a rose, is so minute that a magnifying glass is necessary to read the hands, and when winding up the tiny article it is necessary to use a specially prepared contrivance. The manufacturer refuses to sell the watch, which keeps excellent time. One rich customer offered $200 for the curiosity, but this sum was refused.

DEPOPULATION OF FRANCE.

Parliamentary Commission at Work on a Serious Proposition. The extra-parliamentary commission on the depopulation question commenced its labors to-day in Paris, says the Pall Mall Gazette. Simultaneously with this inquiry has sprung up a variety of leagues and associations with which to combat tendencies harmful to the public health. There is, for instance, the league against adulteration—"Pour la Vie Humaine" is its title—started by the Matin, which is waging war against the dishonest milk sellers who have the habit of "doctoring" their wares. The tradesmen, on their part, have replied vigorously to the somewhat sweeping denunciations of the newspapers, and one has had the amusing spectacle of posters upon the hoardings couched in the form of "Codlin's your friend, not Short!" "Of course, there are dishonest people about, but the undersigned has always been noted for his strict integrity," and so on.

Now comes the announcement of another organization, "La Ligue Contre la Mortalité Infantile." Two well-known doctors are the secretaries and another is the treasurer. This society proposes to form itself into a sort of consultative body, by reason of its researches into the causes and the prevention of infantile mortality. When one considers that 150,000 children die every year in France under the age of 1 year it is high time that scientific attention was directed to the question. This, indeed, is one of the terms of reference of the newly appointed committee.

Prof. Blank is something of a crank in the matter of correctness of speech, and occasionally makes himself unpleasant, not to say disagreeable, to those about him by calling attention to their lapses from good English.

"What is the use, Cornelius," said his wife to him on one occasion, "of your trying to reform people's way of speaking? A language is like a great river. It takes its own course, and you cannot control it." "Ah, but you can," replied the professor. "You can—at the mouth. Look at the Mississippi jetties." "This effectively closed the mouth of his good wife.

A Catch in His Back.

Palmer, Oregon, April 14.—W. J. Upendahl of this place has had a great deal of trouble recently with his back. Every time he went to do the least bit of lifting he used to have what he called "a catch" in his back. He says: "It did not have to be very hard work to give me such a severe pain that I could not move." "I suffered quite a long time before I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used four boxes and now I can work as hard as any one and my back is as stout and strong as it ever was.

"My wife used some of the pills, too, and she thinks there is nothing that beats them.

"I can positively recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone who has a pain in his back, for I know they will cure it." does not whip nor murder people. Some of its members may violate the law, but the organization does not, as an entirety. The knowledge of the existence of such an organization, however, has much effect on the morals of several communities, for there is really no telling when it might call a special session of the court of Judge Lynch.

THE WHIPPING OF BINGHAM.

Recognized Their Old Friend.

The love which English people, especially British soldiers, feel for Florence Nightingale has been shown at many times and in many places. A new and striking instance of it was recently given by the Sunday Magazine.

The late Sir John Steel, sculptor to Queen Victoria, was modeling a bust of Miss Nightingale, when an officer of one of the Highland regiments which had suffered so cruelly in the Crimea heard that the bust had just been completed, and was in Sir John's studio. Many of the men in his company had passed through the hospital at Scutari, and he obtained permission from the sculptor to bring some of them to see it. Accordingly, a squad of men one day marched into the big studio and stood in line.

They had no idea why they had been summoned in so strange a place. With out word of warning the bust was uncovered, and then, as by one impulse, the men broke rank, and with cries of "Miss Nightingale! Miss Nightingale!" surrounded the model, and with hasty cheer chattered the figure of their devoted nurse until the roof rang.

So spontaneous and hearty and so inspiring was the whole scene that in after days Sir John Steel declared it to be the greatest compliment of his life.

Volcano Dwellers.

There is no more interesting or curious sight than that of the crater Aso San about 30 miles from the city of Kanamoto, in Japan. The crater has long since ceased to belch forth cinders and lava, and is now inhabited by 20,000 people, who live and prosper within its vertical walls, 800 feet high. The inhabitants rarely make a journey into the outer world, but form, as it were, a little nation by themselves.

Clean up Your Yard.

It seems natural when spring comes for every one to clean up around the house. The women demand that the yards be raked and the carpets cleaned, and some will demand that their husbands buy new clothing. I don't know if a man would ever think of buying new clothing if his wife did not compel him to get a new suit. When you are compelled to buy a new suit don't make the mistake that many do in going to some dry goods store for clothing. Dry goods stores are alright, but they don't give the clothing business enough attention to keep up with the times and consequently they don't buy the right kind of clothing. Then again, you may make a mistake in not looking around and see what others have to sell. You may trade at the best clothing store, but how do you know that unless you have been here and have seen what we have to sell? Now, we don't ask you to buy your clothing here, but we do ask you to see our stock before you buy. We will let you be the judge as to who sells the best clothing for the least money. We believe that we can easily convince you that we not only have more and better clothing than any other store in Wayne, but that we sell it cheaper. Will you give us a chance to save you money on clothing? Remember that our clothing is warranted to give satisfaction.

We buy for cash,
We sell for cash,
We pay no rent,
We beat all competition.

If you trade here you will get better clothing, and get it for less money than others ask. All goods marked in plain figures and sold only at one price.

The Wayne Republican

W. H. GIBSON, PROPRIETOR.

Subscription Price, One Dollar Per Year

Hurrah for a Wayne boy for Oxford! Cecil Rhodes provided for two scholarships to each one of the states, five from Germany and quite a number from England, to enhance a "good understanding between these three countries that will serve the peace of the world."

Wayne wants the republican congressional convention of this, the third district. Two years ago Norfolk had it and most of the other leading cities of the district have had the honor of entertaining the delegates at some time. We will treat the visitors right and we believe that the winner can best be named from this fair city of inspiring environments.

Speaking of the Hon. John D. Haskell, of Wakefield, who has been very favorably spoken of as good timber for the republican nominee for Governor, the Wakefield Republican says:
No better, truer, more worthy man can be elected to this high office. Mr. Haskell is an honest, upright christian gentleman and would lend dignity to the office. There is no question but that he would receive his full party vote in Dixon county. Mr. Haskell is not a candidate for governor nor for any other office for that matter but the Republican accepts that he can be induced to accept the gubernatorial chair if the republican party calls him and the people of Nebraska will have every reason to feel highly honored with their chief executive."

Liquor men in session last week at Lexington, Kentucky admitted that they had formed a combine of a "secret society" nature for political purpose. Leonard B. Shouse, president of the Kentucky Liquor Dealers association said: "We will not allow past political affiliations to govern us. We will support only men who are friendly to our interests," he said. "We will control more than 3,000,000 votes." Action of this kind on the part of the liquor men and to the extent they propose, will arouse an antagonism of the prohibitionists in which many will join who have heretofore been in favor of license. A class of people in any industry overstep due bounds when they seek to influence legislative or political bodies.

STANTON AND WAYNE FOR AXEN.

THE WAYNE REPUBLICAN insists that Agge Axen is a candidate for state treasurer. Perhaps he is. We have heard the statement made before but have no direct knowledge of his being a candidate. This is probably due to the fact as alleged to have been stated by Mr. Axen shortly after his first election as county treasurer that he did not think much of newspaper notoriety, and that "The Picket did not elect him. I elected myself." Let this be as it may. Mr. Axen made an acceptable county treasurer, is a home man and for these reasons if for none other the Picket believes the delegation from the county should be instructed to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.—Stanton Picket.

Wayne county would certainly join Stanton in a good full delegation for a state treasurer of the Axen caliber. We don't want to have to apologize for any one of the nominees this fall and with Axen on the ticket one of the two important places will be provided for. Count on twenty counties of this part of the state solid for Axen.

We have noticed: That McCarthy of Dixon county is conceded to be a strong congressional candidate.

That Axen, of Stanton, is the best man in the state for state Treasurer.

That Northeastern Nebraska has too many candidates for governor—we won't get it with three men in the field.

That the Bartley-Savage business will cut little figure in June, less in November.

That the farmers and business men—the independent voters—are too busy making money to talk politics, but they are not too busy to read the papers and form opinions. The party that whitewashes up things will look silly after the independent voters have fixed it.

That there are few professional office seekers who do not need watching, but there are plenty of men of unquestioned integrity of character who will serve the people if they were pushed to the front by the independent voters, and this class of officials alone are in demand this fall.

Every demo-pop paper in the third congressional district has for months published the Washington letter from the pen of Harry A. Austin, secretary to John S. Robinson, and said letter has been one great big boom of said Robinson for re-election. It is Congressman Robinson did this or that, spoke, introduced a bill, etc. until the voters of this district are supposed to be duly impressed that Robinson is a greater man in Washington than the several hundred others who have the chance of periodically worrying over the coveted honor of retiring. Robinson has no doubt discharged his duties as congressman conscientiously, that is no more than was expected of him when elected. We elect men to do us honor, we pay the salary, we expect the services. The Hon. John S. Robinson will contest the election with a well laid scheme and a good acquaintance with the ropes, but he is not real sure of securing the third term; the majority against him is too much to overcome if a good man is pitted against him and on that score the fusionists will get little satisfaction. The Hon. J. J. McCarthy of Dixon county will insure success of the republican ticket. Nominate him.

Severely Injured

Wm. McCune, the agent of the Standard Oil Company at this place and one of Wayne's popular young men and a member of the volunteer fire company of the city, met with a severe accident Sunday during the run to the fire at Prof. Durrin's Marble works. He was thrown against a telephone pole in some way by the force of the hose cart and sustained what his physician said was known as traumatic shock to the spinal cord. He seemed to be paralyzed in the lower extremities though no contusion of the flesh was found. At this time he is much better and Dr. Williams says he will recover rapidly.

SUCKERS

The sucker is a laxy fellow
With soft and downy skin,
Its meat just like a pudding filled
With carpet tack and pins.
"It just beats nothing." That is all
A hungry man will say.
But a man that is a sucker,
Is the sharper's fondest prey.

THE SUCKER

Is the fellow who believes there are a lot of philanthropists in the world who hire high priced men to travel through the country selling wares a great deal cheaper than a stamp-to-date merchant can. It is apt to be machinery or stoves but occasionally you find a fellow selling groceries, too. When a factory makes a line of implements that prove to be worthless and that can't be sold through the usual channels they get out a "nice catalogue" and make some "warm" prices. Then the sucker's money rolls in and the implements roll out. After the freight is paid the implement is tried and found to be "no good." Now the average fellow is a little ticklish about letting others know he has been "hooked" and he didn't say much about it, but it leaked out after a while. Now if anyone had to send off for what he needs there would be some excuse for being "taken in" occasionally, but there isn't any use of it. Any fair dealer will give better value, quality considered, than the average foreign house. The catalogue houses are not worrying us. We are here to give you full value for your money and we are doing it. When you wish anything in groceries, fruits, confectionery or seed potatoes, come to my store and you will get the worth of your money. My special sales are creating considerable interest. Every Saturday I have special sales—watch my window on that day. Each time staple articles are placed on sale at price just half what you have been paying. It will pay you to keep your eye open for these sales, don't miss them, and remember, no other days than Saturdays. Produce taken in exchange at highest market price.

By the way, Chairman Mark Hanna of the G. O. P. has not, by any means, been put on the retired list by his party as was done with chairman Jones of the democratic committee. On the contrary his usefulness increaseth, he wareth strong and great. He shapes legislature and maintains his political leadership. Besides all of which he is potent in the field of arbitration as a member of the Civic Federation, which was organized to harmonize capital and labor. This difference in the character of the chairman of the two committees well illustrates the difference in the two parties. It is the logic of events that the two party organizations should have leaders of such distinct types.

A "Fifty Cent Fire."

That is what it looked like and Prof. R. Durin called it that, but a few minutes would have fixed it so it would have taken three or four thousand times that to cover the loss. The fire company made one of their immediate responses to the alarm and they quickly had the water turned on but the fire was out and the water shut off in less than two minutes. The cause is uncertain but probably caught from the curtain or some other innocent thing near it, that hung in the room. The loss will not amount to much and all repairs can be replaced for less than ten dollars, but it is with extreme satisfaction to the Professor he views the matter that this is so. He was wholly without insurance and if the entire building had burned it would have been a loss of about two thousand dollars worth of finished and partly finished stone. Prof. Durin does a nice business in this line and turns out some of the nicest monuments. His work is largely home orders and those of towns nearby and he could at the low prices he sells at, extend his trade to a large degree if he wished to increase his facilities, which he may do before long.

THE Imported Percheron Stallions

Foaled March 28, 1889, imported in 1890, sire Briard 5317 (1630), dam Robin 5697. Villiers is a jet black, weighs over a ton, and for many years stood at the head of the stud of Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, the famous Illinois Percheron importers and breeders. As an individual he is without doubt one of the grandest horses that was ever in the United States, as a producer of the best there is in horse flesh he is easily at the top. He will make the season of 1902 at the barn of his owners in Wayne.

Is a deep iron grey, foaled April 5th., 1889, imported by Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman in 1900, sire Navarin (42555), dam Birche 23002. He is certainly a splendid type of the Percheron family, being only four years old yet weighing a ton, and is an animal with splendid action and abundance of life and good disposition. We believe that in Colmar we are offering to the breeders of this section of the state of Nebraska a horse they will appreciate and we have faith to believe he will prove himself a noble sire.

The Winside Tribune took our genial Sheriff Mears to task for coming down Winside after a harmless old man with straight jacket and other instruments of torture and would have the people think that Mr. Mears was a novice at the work in hand and made a ridiculous spectacle of himself. Maybe the Tribune has a candidate in the grooming for the position now held by Mr. Mears? We learned upon inquiry that the telephone message said that they had an insane man at Winside who had been tied with ropes all the previous night. As it was train time Sheriff Mears lost no time in ceremony but took along the straps usually used to bind people violently insane as a precaution. Having them in Winside for use if necessary would only be a matter of course and much more to the point than to go without them. The old gentleman never saw the straps, he was taken in charge and treated kindly by Mr. Mears at all time and a piece of wrapping paper concealed the awful things the Tribune saw, from the eyes of the poor old man as he left his old home and old friends.

A Pleasant Farewell.

The ladies of the M. E. church accompanied by their husbands, in honor of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ran Frazier, of which church the latter has long been an earnest, faithful worker, gathered at the D. C. Main home Monday evening, in a "surprise" on the above named, who departed this morning for Silver City, Ia. near which place they will make their future home. A hundred or more were present and the M. E. pastor, Rev. Bithell in a short speech presented a set of silver spoons, a silver tray and a fine picture of the M. E. church. The party broke up at ten-thirty after singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", and a picture that will always be with the absent ones is that one of sinners regrets in the leave taking. The Fraziers were old settlers here and Mr. Frazier was a stock buyer here for several years.

William Vincent

Deceased was an old settler of this county and recently retired from farming to the quieter life in Wayne, he is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter. A very pleasant man, a familiar figure in Wayne, Mr. Vincent will be missed indeed.

The bridal party is now enjoying a honeymoon trip, but will be at home to friends in a few days in Hoskins where they will commence housekeeping.

RESPIRE IS TOO LATE

DOCUMENT ARRIVED AFTER THE HANGING TOOK PLACE.

Negro Executed at St. Louis Thirty-Five Minutes Before the Reprieve Was Received—It Meant Fifteen Days More of Life for Him.

St. Louis, Henry Fletcher, colored, was hanged Friday for the murder of Louis Roth, the 16th of August, 1900. Just thirty-five minutes after the drop fell a telegram was received by the sheriff from Gov. Dockery granting a respite of fifteen days.

At 11 Thursday night Circuit Attorney Folk telegraphed the governor, recommending a ten days' reprieve in order to investigate more fully some testimony that had been received in self defense when he killed Roth.

A reply to this message reached Four Courts at 2 a. m. Friday. Folk not being there, the sheriff received the dispatch. It was from the telegraph office at Jefferson City, and stated Folk's message had been delivered to the governor's mansion.

The sheriff concluded this meant no interference, and went on with his preparations for the execution. Fletcher was told of the circumstances, but evinced no surprise at the outcome. He lost all hope at midnight. At 5:50 Sheriff Dickmann told the condemned boy to prepare for the march to the gallows. With Fletcher was Rev. Mr. Roberts, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. chapel. The next five minutes were spent in prayer, Fletcher praying aloud in a firm voice. When he finished he turned to a deputy and placed his arms behind him, and a rope was tied over his shoulders.

VALUE OF ARMOUR ESTATE.

Worth Over Fourteen Millions and Includes Bank Stock.

Chicago: The total valuation of the late Philip D. Armour estate in Chicago and New York has just been arrived at. It amounts to $14,731,105, and to a large extent consists of personal property. In addition to the above named sum there is some real estate in Illinois and elsewhere, the value of which has not been ascertained. Mr. Armour left practically all of his estate to his widow, Maria, and his son, J. Orden Armour. Included in his personal property were 63,234 shares Milwaukee elevator, 82 shares Continental National Bank, 100 shares National Trust Company, 150 shares Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, 250 shares Wisconsin Marine Bank, 470 shares Interstate Bank, Kansas City, and 405 shares Union Stock Yards National Bank, South Omaha.

HOD CARRIERS TO STRIKE.

Will Stop All Building and Throw 8,000 Men Out of Work.

Chicago: Fifteen hundred plasterers and bricklayers' helpers have decided to go on a strike for an increase in wages of 2 cents an hour. The strike will cause a suspension of work on all buildings under construction in Chicago. The men demanded 30 cents an hour, commencing June 1, but the contractors' association refused to consider the proposition. The strike will be inaugurated by the men as individuals, the officials of the hodcarriers' union having refused to sanction the request for the desired increase. The strike will throw 8,000 men out of employment, as the other building trades will find it impossible to continue without the hod carriers.

BIG CONSOLIDATION.

A $4,000,000 Mining Property Deal Effected in Colorado.

Colorado Springs, Colo.: The largest consolidation ever put through in the Cripple Creek district was announced Friday by the Western Treatment Company. The deal amounts to $4,000,000 and embraces all the properties of eight mining companies along the line of the United Mines tunnel, which penetrates the hills of the Cripple Creek district, a distance of 9,400 feet. A new company is being incorporated under the laws of Colorado with a capital of $4,000,000. Of this stock $3,944,769 shares have been issued in payment for the properties taken by the merger.

Taps a Rich Coal Field.

Jacksonville, Ill.: The Burlington system is said to have purchased the Jacksonville and St. Louis road, running between Jacksonville and Centralia, Ill., 111 miles. The road taps a rich coal field.

St. Louis Plant Closes Down.

St. Louis: Fifteen hundred employees of the Shickel, Harrison & Howard Iron Company in East St. Louis are idle as a result of a shut down of the works. The company announced that the works had been closed for repairs. The men attribute the closing of the works to the recent agitation which they have encountered in favor of a higher wage scale.

Fire in Illinois Town.

Sycamore, Ill.: The Wilkus block, a three-story wooden building, was burned early Friday morning. Loss, $15,000.

Alleged Defrauders Arrested.

Chicago: W. W. Bristol, secretary and manager of the strictly Unitarian Trust Company, was arrested Friday, charged with having defrauded Gen. J. R. Prime of Des Moines, by use of the mails.

Transport Ashore.

Manila: The United States army transport Hancock has run aground in the mud near the Zamboanga province, about 100 miles north of here. She is not believed to be in danger.

TWO AWFUL CRIMES.

Detroit Police at Work on Horrible Murder Cases.

Detroit: A girl, who was horribly murdered Wednesday night on Thirteenth Street, was identified Thursday morning as Carrie M. Jennett, daughter of Jas. B. Jennett, a cabinetmaker. Miss Jennett attended a meeting or Rebekek lodge in a hall not far from where she was murdered. It was a most brutal murder. The girl was stabbed and pounded to death. Her throat was cut from ear to ear, a knife was thrust into her brain behind the ear and a dent in her forehead showed that she had been clubbed.

A resident of the neighborhood, Harry Jewell, heard cries and screams, and looking out saw a man strike a girl down. Jewell notified the police, who found the girl dead.

The police Thursday arrested James Miller, a music teacher. Blood was found on his clothing, and when asked for an explanation Miller faltered. Miss Jennett was a pupil of Miller's.

The wheat was raised on 52,588,573 acres. Of the 5,729,657 farms in the nation 272,913 raised barley, cultivating 4,471,228 acres, upon which were produced 119,632,827 bushels, of a farm value of $47,130,846; 209,190 farms cultivated 801,435 acres of hops, producing 11,277,047 bushels of a farm value of $5,748,341; 4,697,700 farms cultivated 94,916,808 acres of corn, producing 2,646,428,270 bushels, of a farm value of $830,257,726; 2,114,559 farms cultivated 25,539,547 acres of oats, producing 943,387,575 bushels, of a farm value of $217,098,584; 108 farms cultivated 2,054,269 acres of rice, producing 25,700,357 bushels, of a farm value of $5,700,357.

CAUSES AGITATION IN EUROPE.

Advantage to United States in the Philippine Tariff Act.

Washington: Secretary Root, after consultation with the treasury authorities, has issued instructions to Acting Civil Gov. Wright of the Philippine Islands, to give effect to that part of the Philippine tariff act which provides for a rebate of the export duties on goods shipped from the Philippines into the United States. This matter is realized to be one of great importance, and has caused much agitation in Europe, and especially in London, where the vast manilla rope industry is threatened with a severe blow by the advantage that will be given to ropemakers in the United States through the remission of the export duty, which will be collected in full from European shippers. Aside from hemp the regulations apply to all raw materials coming from the Philippines which export duties are levied.

STRAINED RELATIONS.

Italy and Switzerland Have a Little Misunderstanding.

Berne: Diplomatic relations between Switzerland and Italy have been ruptured. This action arises from the refusal of Switzerland to give satisfaction regarding an article published in Geneva insulting the memory of the murdered King Humboldt. The Bundesrath has sent the following communication to parliament: "Regrettable misunderstandings have occurred between us and Signor Silvestrelli, Italian minister. We have felt constrained to request the Italian government, in the interests of the good relations of the two countries to recall Signor Silvestrelli. The Italian government having refused to do so, we broke off relations with Silvestrelli, whereupon the Italian government, on its part, has now broken off relations with our minister at Rome. We shall publish the documents relating to this conflict."

To Build Connecting Line.

Billings, Mont.: The Billings and Northern Railroad Company will be incorporated in this city May 1. The purpose of the organization will be to construct and maintain a central railroad from Billings to Great Falls. This extension will result in a connecting link between the Burlington, Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railroads.

Lukban Is Sent to Prison.

Manila: The insurgent general, Lukban, who surrendered to Lieut. Strober, of the Filipino scouts, February 22, in the island of Samar, and who was brought to Manila, has been sent to the Malindi prison.

LIVE STOCK FOR BRITISH.

Three Transports at New Orleans Loading Horses and Mules.

New Orleans: There are three British transports loading horses and mules at this port, and the only delay is due to a strike of ship liners, who want $4 a day instead of $3. Army officers and secret service men are supposed to be making investigations for the government, but none has been seen. United States District Attorney Howe was at Chalmette Tuesday night, but he was only showing some friends the city and received no instructions from Washington.

There seems to be no idea that the traffic will be interfered with. It averages about half a million dollars a month, and about $30,000,000 have been spent here so far.

London: The Associated Press understands peace negotiations are progressing satisfactorily, so far as the Transvaal are concerned, but the latest indications are that there is some probability of the Free States surrendering in a body. Congress.

After passing the Indian appropriation bill consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill was resumed in the Senate on Saturday, occupying the rest of the session. A bill to supply additional urgent deficiency appropriations, carrying $300,567, was reported from the committee on appropriations and passed. The usual executive session preceded adjournment. In session occupied the entire day. Mr. Taylor (Ohio) from the committee on elections presented the report on the Horton-Butler contested election case from the Twelfth Missouri district, which declared the seat vacant. The minority members were given three weeks within which to file their views.

Discussion of the conference report on the withdrawal of the reduction bill occupied most of Monday in the Senate. The report, which removes the tax on bucket shops, the chief bone of contention, was adopted by a vote of 36 to 20. A bill was passed appropriating $55,000 for a public building at Sterling, Ill. Consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill was then resumed. Mr. Simmons said he expected to vote for the bill, but was reluctant to do so, especially because the cotton manufacturers of his State and of the South generally were appealing against its enactment. They fear, he said, that it will lead to retaliatory action on the part of China and that their market in the Orient might be checked if not destroyed. He explained that he did not agree with the cotton manufacturers and therefore, as people of the Pacific coast and other sections were demanding the bill to be passed, he was voting for it. The bill was read at length and then the Senate adjourned. In the House the Chinese exclusion bill was passed after several amendments were adopted, the conference report on the war-revenue tax reduction bill was accepted and the Senate bill extending the charter of national banks twenty years was passed.

Most of Tuesday in the Senate was devoted to debate on the Chinese exclusion bill. When the session opened Mr. Simon, rising to a question of personal privilege, explained that had he been present when he voted on the ship subsidy bill he would have voted against the measure. Mr. Hoar secured the passage of his resolution providing that rule XIX be amended by inserting at the beginning of clause 2 thereof the following: "No Senator in debate shall directly or indirectly say or propose or send in writing to another Senator, or to other Senators, any conduct or motive unworthy or unbecoming a Senator; no Senator in debate shall refer offensively to any State of the Union." Thirty-nine private pension bills were passed. The House passed a bill to protect fish and game in Alaska and devoted the rest of the day to debate on Cuban reciprocity.

Throughout the session of the Senate on Wednesday the Chinese exclusion bill was under consideration. Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Duffelton opposed it, and Mr. Turner supported it. Mr. Fairbanks reported favorably from the committee on immigration the Chinese exclusion bill passed by the House. It was placed on the calendar. Mr. Patterson offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for certain regulations regarding the exclusion of Chinese. In the House Mr. Henry (Conn.) asked unanimous consent to disagree to the Senate amendments to the Chinese bill. Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) objected, and the bill went to the committee on agriculture. The rest of the day was devoted to continuance of the debate on Cuban reciprocity.

In the Senate on Thursday the Chinese exclusion bill was under discussion during the entire session, except for about an hour in which time the postoffice appropriation bill was considered and passed. Three speeches were made against the Chinese bill in its present form. Mr. Pillsbury, a conservative reformer, and Mr. Hoar, standing side by side, opposed the bill. Mr. Stewart said he would vote for the measure if it was the best that could be obtained, as he favored the exclusion of Chinese laborers, but he was opposed to many of its provisions. Mr. Hoar, with considerable feeling, announced his vigorous opposition to the bill, declaring he never would vote for it. An amendment was accepted to eliminate section 56 of the bill and substituting a provision that nothing in the act should be construed to prevent any foreign exhibitor from any country from bringing to the United States such assistants as might be necessary to enable him to make an exhibition at any fair or exposition authorized by the Two Very Fine Horses. A few days ago the writer strolled around to the Perry & Porterfield barns just south of the railroad where they have eighteen acres of ground in a small pasture and commodious feeding lots for their stock, and large numbers have usually been fed there. In their stables there are kept two horses as fine as equine flesh is moulded. Both are of foreign birth, having first seen the light of day in sunny France, both are of the famous Percheron family, and incidentally, both were imported by the well known firm of Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, the Illinois Percheron horse importers and breeders who have handled the greater number of good horses brought to this country. In name and color they differ, Villiers being black as a raven, weights 2500 pounds. Colmar is a deep iron grey and weighs 2230. Even one unacquainted with horses does not have to look long to see that the points supposed to be ideal in a breeder's eye are embodied in the depth and breadth of chest, the closely coupled quarters, the shapely legs that have strength and action quite necessary in a heavy horse else you breed for "Jumbos" and get elephants instead of horses. Mr. Porterfield remarked on the kindly disposition of the horses and this was evidenced by the eye, the key to a depth of intelligence almost human. He said they only cared to consider the breeding of a class of mares that are top-notch and owned by men of good, responsible standing.

We hope and in confidence expect this to be appreciated by Hoskins men. It helps them; it helps Mr. Zelmer, it helps THE REPUBLICAN to give the people of Hoskins and the county a good paper.

Prof. Gregg's Lecture.

Last Thursday evening the first of the new lecture course under the auspices of the young people of the Baptist church was a decided success, the seats being well filled with an audience capable of appreciating the depths of scientific problems and they gave Prof. Gregg their attention for an hour and a half while he led up to the latest discoveries and illustrated them by appropriate experiments, that are known in the world of research and discovery in electricity. He covered the historical part of his lecture by interesting allusions to the early discoveries of electricity and its uses and in this way prepared his audience for the better understanding of the adoptions he made in the later part of the evening. The Normal students showed their high opinion of the professor by attending in good numbers. Prof. Gregg is a deep thinker and puts in a most interesting way those things we learn of with most reverential awe. It was a wise course to have this gentleman open the lecture course and the committee feels duly appreciative of the hard work of preparing for this in addition to his regular school work at the Nebraska Normal.

"Peter Funked."

Z. G. Funk's store was closed Monday by Polderton & Stetson, of Sioux City, since when the key has been turned. At this writing it is not known what disposition will be made of the stock. Tolerton & Stetson have had charge of the store for several months, and kept it open in the hope of affecting a settlement.—Laurel Advocate.

The Funk store at Laurel is closed at last. For over five years the mystery of commercial circles has been, "when will it occur?" and to all real business men who have done a reputable business in good goods at living prices. It was known the end was inevitable. It was said "old man" Head, father-in-law of the prodigal Zack backed the kid for several thousands at the various stages of the game when it took four to five story figures to recover from the clutches of unwise creditors. At last, it was said, the "old man" who has a bank up in South Dakota and who knows a freak spender-thrift on sight even if a relative by chance, the "old man" refused to "do it again" and the money in the Funk store at Laurel representing many thousands of his cash, daddy Funk retired and sounly jabbed away at "yeast foam two for 5c, soda 3c, 'Best' 'Em All' 18 bars for 25c." The grocery house with whom they had bought the yeast foam, soda and soap assumed a formal receivership for its own protection, and now, after the time when many merchants with an idea of what business principals are, are prospering the freak Funk will move. It is a matter of pride with a merchant of reputable merit that he gets enough out of his business to keep it going. He is under no obligation to low prices for the sake of hurting neighbor merchants and giving customers goods at less than they should be willing and are willing to pay for them. That the Funk store has funkled out is no surprise to any one.
