Miscellaneous Matters Relating to People and Towns Not Far Away.

Mrs. J. L. Criss and daughter, Miss Nina, of Wayne, spent Thursday in Pender as guests of Mrs. C. L. Day.—Pender Republican.

THE WAYNE REPUBLICAN wants some of its contemporaries to stop throwing cold water on town enterprises and try drinking it for a change. Cotteridge Blade.

Captain J. H. Brown, of this place, and Judge Fales, of Ponca were elected delegates to the M. W. A. state meeting.... The Wayne high school nine crossed bats on the home diamond yesterday afternoon. Score, 17 to 8 in favor of Wayne.—Wakefield Republican.

A. N. Swanson spent Sunday at Wayne.... Walter Williams, of Wayne, was in town Monday.... A fast young catcher, from Wayne, is expected to be here Friday for a trial. He knows the game from A to Z, and may be signed.... Mr. Coyle was checked in supply at the Omaha depot Wednesday and Mr. Kayser was checked out. The letter will go to Sioux City.—Randolph Times.

Colonel Wilson and Left Holte were passengers for Wayne Monday.... J. W. Turner, an experienced hotelman and formerly of Wayne, was in Laurel on business the first of the week.... Mrs. L. J. Coyle and children left for Wayne Wednesday, where she will visit for a time while Mr. Coyle arranges for their future home at Randolph.... Now that spring work is on in earnest the town lawyer must "tie him to the back counter" and grapple with the rustic pitchforks and the sturdy mule instead of the billiard cue and the bowling ball.—Laurel Advocate.

Roy Manning visited Wayne on Saturday afternoon.... Dr. Phillips went to Sioux City Wednesday.... Aug. Lohrborg went to Wayne on Wednesday.... Joe Taylor and N. Emich went to Wayne yesterday.... Rev. Manufel was a county seat visitor.... The creameries at Dixon and Concord have both been burned by incendiary fires within the past fortnight.... W. R. Mick his split his most market together with the buildings to Troutwein Brothers, of Wayne, who will take possession May 1st. The new proprietors are both experienced butchers, having worked for several years for their uncle, J. H. Goll.—Carroll Index.

One of the firm of Weber Bros., of Wayne, was in town last week looking up a location for a grist mill, but we do not know how far the investigation went. Of course Winside will have a grist mill and the first one to go at it will have a bonanza, but we believe that Sidney Price will be that one. It has been his calculation ever since his other fine mill burned down to rebuild, but he has been waiting to make arrangements with the town to put in sufficient power to pump water for a standpipe and run a dynamo. But he cannot afford to take chances much longer or someone else will step in and fill the "long felt want."—Winside Tribune.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chase was the scene of a very pleasant gathering last Saturday evening. Mrs. Chase was invited out for the day. Upon her return she was greeted by a number of intimate friends who had come by invitation of Misses Willa and Jessie in honor of Mrs. C's birthday. The plans made by the young daughters were successfully carried out and the surprise was complete and thoroughly enjoyable. The little ladies gracefully served a dainty luncheon in the dining room. Progressive dinch was the entertainment of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chase, of Wayne, were the out of town guests.—Stanton Picket.

A woman in Bay City, Michigan disguised herself as a man and clerked for a year in a store and then applied for membership in the Knights of Pythias and was initiated. During the work in the third rank her sex was discovered. It seems that in that rank they have an India rubber rat and a celluloid snake which run by clock work inside and which are very natural indeed. The idea is to let them run at the candidate for initiation to try his nerve. When the snake ran at the girl she simply sneered, but when the rat, tried to run up her trouser leg, she grasped her imaginary skirts in both hands and jumped on top of a refrigerator that was standing near which is used in the work of the fourth rank, and screamed bloody murder. The girl is a member of the order, however, and there is no help for it.—Fullerton Post.

A heated controversy seems probable between editor Goldie and editor Gibbon, over the needs and practicality of Wayne getting a slice of the Carnegie library money. A library is a mighty nice thing but it takes money to keep it up, and as Carnegie never gives one worth less than $15,000 and makes the town guarantee 10 per cent of the amount yearly to support it, it is a question whether such a gift would not be a load on the tax payers of the town. A glance at the tax levy after $1,500 has been added to the expenses item of the town will convince the people that Mr. Carnegie's gift is dear property after all.—Winside Tribune.

Bye pardon, Brother Eckor, but Tax

REPUBLICAN understands $10,000 libraries are a specialty for young western cities, a number of that size having been donated, and either $1,000 or $1,500 tax for Wayne to keep up a library would not be noticed. Wayne is able to go up against such a tax any day and not stretch a suspended. This city will be twenty-one years old this summer and is going to do something to celebrate it—if not a Carnegie library, why it won't be the fault of a number of our best citizens who are in favor of it.

Resolutions.

Wayne Nebr., April 10, 1902.

WHEREAS, in the providence of God, our worthy brother, August Piepenstock, has been called from earth to his final reward, and Whereas, he was a faithful member of our Lodge. Be it resolved that while we sorrow not at those who have no hope, we commend the virtues of our brother, and trust that all will seek to emulate them. Resolved that we tender to his widow and family our heartfelt sympathy in their hours of sadness and commend them to him who alone can render true comfort and consolation.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge and a copy furnished to the family and the Wayne papers.

MRS. W. B. HUGHES. MRS. R. WARNOCK. MRS. A. JUELLEN

A Lawn Mower That Mows

There are imperfect lawn mowers and perfect ones. We have the perfect kind. A little determination, a little push and the mower does the rest. No trouble about repairs. It is so simple it almost keeps itself in repair. Self sharpening, too, with plenty of comfort in its use.

Keep the Food Pure

The purest of food if not properly cared for and preserved from contamination, instead of ministering to life may minister to death. The moral is plain:

"Use a Herrick Refrigerator"

Easily cleaned and kept clean; no time hanging to rot out, no dampness, consequently no mould. Milk, butter, meats, cabbage, onions, bananas, musk melon, all kept in the same refrigerator without tainting the milk and butter in the least. We have one kept in our store on exhibition. Look at it, it will please you.

By the way, we nearly forgot to tell you that we have all kinds of Garden Seeds in bulk which is a great deal the cheapest way to buy them, also have all kinds of Garden Tools which we are selling very cheap, a good Garden Hoe for 25 cents, and a good Rake for 25 cents. You can start in the gardening business with a capital of 50 cents for tools.

E. P. OLMSTED, Hardware, Implements and Buggies.

Restaurant for Sale.

A good restaurant, ten to twelve boarders and transient trade, furniture of same and the several rooms in connection with a good street location and a good place for the ice-cream and confectionary trade just opening, to be sold at once if at all, as owner has a chance to go into business where he can be with members of his family, and in no way is it on account of any fault in his present business which is good. A snap that will not last. Address this office and we will place you in communication with the party at once.

Resolutions

Whereas, in the providence of Almighty God, our brother, August Piepenstock, has been called from this life to rest and reward in heaven. Therefore be it resolved that in the passing away of Brother Piepenstock our lodge has lost a faithful and esteemed member, and the community a citizen of the most sterling character.

Resolved that we the A. O. U. W. Lodge No. 103 of Wayne extend to the wife and children of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their bereavement.

Resolved. That these resolutions be furnished the Wayne papers for publication, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother, and the same be spread on the minutes of the lodge.

HERT BROWN L. C. GILDERSLEEVE Com. E. HUNTER

Adopted by Wayne Lodge No. 103 A. O. U. W. at the regular meeting held April 3, 1902.

Honors to Veteran Cunningham.

Mr. B. Cunningham is in receipt of a letter from an old comrade in arms who is one of the committee in charge of the dedication of Soldiers' Monument at Indianapolis, May 15th, detailing Mr. Cunningham to be one of the color guards of ten persons to carry the colors of the 19th Indiana and Volunteers. He feels highly honored to receive this invitation to so auspicious an event in the history of Indiana and will certainly go if possible. The 19th Indiana was one of the first regiments organized at the commencement of the Civil war and saw services from the time of the arrival of this train in Baltimore where they were fired on by the rebels—the first infantry action of the war, and the boys of their regiment—one of the five composing Gen. Bray's famous Iron Brigade. Mr. Cunningham carried the colors of his regiment from Antietam to Gettysburg—nine months, was wounded at the siege of Petersburg and fell under the colors at Gettysburg. If he goes to the unveiling of the Indiana Soldiers' Monument he will meet many of the boys of the Indiana 19th, and we hope he will not miss it.

Volpp Bros.

The sale of the Goll meat market to Volpp Brothers, Fred and Louis, a few weeks ago thereby consolidating the business of these two firms and reducing the expenses of the business to the minimum, puts the meat market business in the hands of Volpp Bros. and Roe & Fortner, two splendidly equipped markets and Wayne will receive advantages by the progressiveness of these gentlemen. It seems "like old times" they say to see Fritz back of the block and he has not lost any of his easy ways in handling the knife and cleaver. But it is only in the evening we may see Fritz in the white apron. Louis is the back bone of the business now. The time was away back in '89 when Fritz was in business in Emerson and later in '90 when he established the Volpp market in this city. Fritz was the whole thing and Louis was apprentice put in 1897 Fritz was elected to the county Treasurership and Louis became partner and the one upon whom the care of the business fell while Fritz passed out tax receipts and smiles up on prosperity hill. He is just as good a county treasurer as his brother and it looks as though the people of Wayne county would keep them manufacturing—Fritz tax receipts and Louis wheelbarrow—regardless of politics. They have arranged their market place which is the one purchased of Mr. J. H. Goll, painted, papered, grained and gilded until it smacks of neatness and brightness.

"I do not know much about civilization," said St. Armand, rising to his feet. "But I always thought that ladies liked to be loved, and to be told of it."

CHAPTER VI.

The gray dawn was stealing into the valley when Guide Whitman rose from his bed of furs, to find that Col. Leroy was up, and that Tony, the black man, was busy about the fire, which was momentarily growing dimmer.

still sleeping. Bless the boy, there is no gnawing thought to eat in on his slumbers; and the waking exuberance of youth demands longer periods of rest. You are still too young to understand this."

"See whom?" "Charles Nodine!" "Nodine? Where?" Mabel Fleming did not need to answer, Captain Richmond was distinctly visible, and his object could not be a matter of conjecture.

A SACRIFICE.

THE young man stood with his back to the fire and his hands thrust into his trouser pockets. Mrs. Langley sat on the lounge sobbing hysterically. Her husband, Colonel Langley, strode up and down the room, angrily displacing various chairs and tables, while the boy's cousin, for he was not much more than a boy in years, tried to pacify the trio.

BEE HUNTING NEAR NEW YORK.

Insects Baited and Followed to Their Tree After Style of a Century Ago. Within forty miles of New York City men hunt wild bees to-day after the manner of a century ago. Among the mountains of Rockland County one may still see bees in the old style "gums," whose owners never think of taking honey without first killing the swarm.

THE OLD HOUSE.

It stands in a desolate, weed-grown garden. Where once the rose and the lilac grew, and the lily lifted a waxen chalice. To catch the wing of the summer's dew. The grass creeps in o'er the mossy thresholds.

THREE NEW SHIRT WAISTS.

The new shirt waists show great variety of style. Many are cut with yoke, but almost as many are without. Some have the yoke both in front and back. The fashionable shirt waist is unquestionably the white one, both thick and thin ones, made in great variety.

LOST HIS RHEUMATISM

By the use of a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. SERGEANT JEREMIAH MAHER, of Antrim, Royal Irish Constabulary, was taken ill by rheumatism in the back and joints for the last four years, during which time he has employed many different methods of treatment, but obtained no relief.

It is figured the Boer war tax of millions will fall on everything possible to levy on and we will be forced to pay three cents per bushel of it on all wheat exported to England. We are expected to not complain of this on the ground that England is a good customer.

Gen. Miles is slated for retirement at the age limit. He seems to be in the way and the war department has arranged to rid itself of what is said to be "the army scandal." Schley-Sampson faction, and any disposed to hinder the best interests of the army, and the administration is giving all the help it can to this end. Roosevelt has no time for foolishness.

Savage still insists that he expects to be "it" the 18th of June and if not supported by the railroads at this end, will call the state legislature in extra session to revise the tariff on the freight and passenger traffic. Savage may expect the railroad support—he may have been promised it—but will he get it, and if he does what will it amount to? Savage will not be nominated. If he calls the legislature in extra session it should impeach him.

The Boers wish to vote on the peace proposition and about three weeks will permit them to do this. Probably the war is over. It will be a peace concluded by two tired antagonists under the moral pressure of the world. Both Briton and Boer will have a voice in the government, but the British are the real gainers on the points in contention, however at an awful cost. In point of cost, though, that can never be estimated—the whole world has contributed to that.

The state convention of the republican party having been set for June 15th the central committee of the several counties are arranging to call early county conventions to name the delegates. Now the few county officials to be named this year can be nominated at the same time very well. The delegation to the state senatorial and congressional district conventions should be named at this time too, thereby finishing up the whole thing at once. Chairman Chace has decided to call the central committee together, at once to take action on this matter.

Bryan will be the fusion nominee for governor this year. This is given out flat by New York democrats who are in touch with Nebraska. The plan is, they say, to make Bryan governor of Nebraska and thereby a certain candidate in 1904 for the presidency. If these New York democrats are friends of Bryan they may be telling us of Bryan's plans, if they are only saying this, hoping it will be so, to get a chance to sacrifice the barn dweller in 1904, there may need be a sanction from Mr. Bryan. It is expected, however, that this gentleman will head the fusion state ticket.

The Nebraska State Record is just twelve weeks old and from this on it will be semi-weekly. If you want to keep posted on state politics send a dollar to the Lincoln office—you won't regret it. At first it was a question with THE REPUBLICAN whether the State Record's expressions were the kind that would be best, they might have been prompted by political malice, but it has proven to be a purely business sheet—its business is in harmony with the independent voters of the state. The facts and figures, the truth that cuts in the telling kind of editorials, these make good reading for one sincere in the study of state issues this year—and by the way, dear friends, we are living in this year yet. From June 15 to November 3 we will talk politics some here in Nebraska.

The splendid index of the swinging of the majority pendulum on Father Time's big clock, is the large number of aspirants for office where the honors are greatest in the republican camp. Fully a dozen of the best judges, jurists and business men of the Third district are after Robinson's congressional seat and that gentleman feels in honor bound to stick to it rather than admit he has little chance, as his constituents feel that if they cannot elect him they surely cannot elect anyone else. In the state the same way—the republicans have a dozen of the state's ablest sons aspiring for the governor's chair, the demopops must use their best timber even if it is second handed presidential timber and a little too cross-grained for good democrats, it is proposed to make Bryan get into the field and make the race. There is something maybe in this, if he can't get the presidency try for the governorship, if he can't get that try him for some county or township office. Where the soil is good he would hardly stand a chance, but if he has the office itch hard enough he might move into a county where saunders and populists are thick enough to get a majority. These things show the way the pendulum swings.

Why Beef Prices Are Higher.
 New York Tribune: R. F. Butler, a cattleman from Haxley, Idaho, was in this city yesterday. "I have been engaged in the business of raising, feeding, buying and selling cattle for thirty years," he said. "Since I came east I have observed the clamor which some newspaper are making against the so called beef trust, on the ground that it is to be blamed for the present high price of beef. I do not believe that there is any such trust. If there is I am opposed to it on general principles, for I am a westerner. Nevertheless, give the devil his due, and don't paint him any blacker than he is.
 "Why is the present price of beef so high? In the first place, for several years prior to 1896 the price of cattle was unusually low. Besides this, the encroachments of settlers and especially the enormous increase in the number of sheep, caused a great many cattlemen to go out of business. From these and various other causes the stock of cattle in the country was very much reduced, while the great revival of industry which began in 1896 caused a great increase in the consumptive demand, with which the supply has never yet been able to catch up.
 "On top of all this came the unprecedented failure of the corn crop of the west last year and the consequent high price of corn. Besides this the steer himself, before he ever tastes an ear of corn, eats the feeder nearly twice as much as he used to do in the 'halcyon days' of low prices. This I know by experience, for I sold steers in Omaha in December for $4.12 a hundred and I sold the same kind and weight of steers at the same place last week for $5.35. I handled cattle before the present dressed beef system came in vogue, and I learned by repeated experiences that the big packers could and did pay more for the beef on the hoof than the local butcher, and they are able to do so because they utilize the offal at a profit, all of which the butchers permitted to go to waste.
 "The alleged beef trusts gets abused by both sides. When cattle were cheap the farmers and ranchers insisted that the trust was to blame, while the customers rejoice in cheap meat. Now, when the pendulum has swung the other way the customers are blaming the trusts, while the farmers and ranchers are rejoicing in getting good prices for their cattle, and in the meantime the corn raisers of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota, who happened to have a fair crop last year when other parts of the country had none, are the ones who are getting most of the money.
 "The truth of the whole matter, then is that the present high price of beef is caused principally by the high price of corn consequent from the short crop of last year, and if there is a good crop of corn raised in the west this season the price of beef will decline to about the figures of last year and the year before."

 "I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well myself over the results." For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

Resolutions.
 Whereas Brother Wm. Vincent, a Past Grand of this lodge, has reached the end of life's journey and gone to that Celestial Lodge above and the last physical office which this lodge can minister to our departed brother has been rendered, be it, Resolved, by Wayne Lodge, No. 118, I. O. O. F. That there be dedicated a memorial page on the records of this lodge upon which there shall be inscribed the following brief attestation of his life and sterling character:
 Brother William Vincent was made an Odd Fellow in Valley Lodge of Hancock, Iowa, in 1882, and became a member of this lodge by card April 22, 1890, and has ever been a true and faithful brother among us. He had a warm and sympathetic heart and open hand to all who were in sorrow and distress. He was just and true man; in his family a loving and kind husband and father and in our Fraternity ever ready to exemplify the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth, and hasten to the relief of those in distress.
 His life was a clean one and proved that he was an Odd Fellow in spirit and in truth. He will ever be missed by his family, his neighbors and our Fraternity, but memory will ever recall that he possessed in an eminent degree the virtues which make the kind husband and father, the helpful member of society, the good citizen and neighbor and the true Odd Fellow. But he has gone from us. His genial face and pleasant smile, his hearty hand and kind advice are lost to us this side of the grave.
 Be it further Resolved, That we extend to his family our fraternal sympathy in their deep affliction; that a copy of these resolutions, under seal of the Lodge be delivered to his widow; that the charter of this Lodge be draped in mourning and that the members of this Lodge wear the mourning badge of our order for thirty days in honor of our departed brother.

Suckers.
 The sucker is a lazy fish. With soft and downy fins. Its meat just like a pudding filled with carpet tacks and pins. "It just beats nothing." That is all a hungry man will say. But a man that is a sucker is the sharper's fondest prey.

THE SUCKER
 Is the fellow who believes there are a lot of philanthropists in the world who hire high priced men to travel through the country selling wares a great deal cheaper than an up-to-date merchant can. It is apt to be machinery or stoves but occasionally you find a fellow selling groceries, too. When a factory makes a line of implements that prove to be worthless and that can't be sold through the usual channels they get out a "nice catalogue" and make some "warm" prices. Then the sucker's money rolls in and the implements roll out. After the freight is paid the implement is tried and found to be "no good." Now the average fellow is a little ticklish about letting others know he has been "hooked" and he didn't say much about it, but it leaked out after a while. Now if anyone had to send off for what he needs there would be some excuse for being "taken in" occasionally, but there isn't any use of it. Any fair dealer will give better value, quality considered, than the average foreign house. The catalogue houses are not worrying us. We are here to give you full value for your money and we are doing it. When you wish anything in groceries, fruits, confectionery or seed potatoes, come to my store and you will get the worth of your money. My special sales are creating considerable interest. Every Saturday I have special sales—watch my window on that day. Each time staple articles are placed on sale at price just half what you have been paying. It will pay you to keep your eye open for these sales, don't miss them, and remember, no other days than Saturdays. Produce taken in exchange at highest market price.

 Foaled March 23, 1889, imported in 1890, sire Briard 5317 (1630), dam Robin 5697. Villiers is a jet black, weighs over a ton, and for many years stood at the head of the stud of Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, the famous Illinois Percheron importers and breeders. As an individual he is without doubt one of the grandest horses that was ever in the United States, as a producer of the best there is in horse flesh he is easily at the top. He will make the season of 1902 at the barn of his owners in Wayne.
 Is a deep iron grey, foaled April 5th., 1889, imported by Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman in 1900, sire Navarin (42555), dam Birche 23002. He is certainly a splendid type of the Percheron family, being only four years old yet weighing a ton, and is an animal with splendid action and abundance of life and good disposition. We believe that in Colmar we are offering to the breeders of this section of the state of Nebraska a horse they will appreciate and we have faith to believe he will prove himself a noble sire.

Don't Be a Goose.

When a goose builds a nest it is impossible to move her. No matter how much you abuse her, she will continue to sit on the same nest. When we were boys we used to fill the nest with stones, but the old goose would sit on top of the stones and seemed to enjoy it, just because she got her nest located there. Rather than sit on a new nest a goose will refuse to hatch.

Don't Be a Goose.

If your trade is located and you find a better place, move. Don't continue to pay more for clothing than it is worth just because you have been trading at the same store for years. Look around and you will find that we sell better clothing and for less price than they do where you have been trading.

Don't Be a Goose.

If you are being abused where you are trading because your merchant sells goods on time and makes you pay what he loses, try us and you will find better clothing and for less money because we lose nothing. Some people will continue to buy clothing where they have a small stock and high prices because they are located. No matter if we sold gold dollars for fifty cents, they would not make a change. We have more and better clothing than any store in Wayne county and sell it for less money. Don't be afraid to move and give us a trial.

Don't be a Goose.

If you find the place you are trading has high rent to pay, buys goods on time, sells clothing on time and has other high expenses, don't be like a goose and continue to stay there because you have located your trade there. Move and you will find this store has no rent to pay; buys and sells goods for cash, and will save you money on clothing. We give you better treatment because we sell everything at one price and warrant everything to be satisfactory. Try this store for clothing and shoes the next time you need them.

The Wayne third nine played ball at Wakefield on last Thursday and played it—in good earnest—too—the score standing 7 to 18 in favor of Wayne. This is the first game of the season and if the boys keep up their grit, we will have a nine to be proud of.

Showing adjustment for moving soil to plant
The easiest guided cultivator made

The Janesville Disc Cultivator is not cline from a level to being raised at either only a good corn worker, but is just the end.
That means that you can throw any amount of soil to the plants that you wish.
And that you can instantly change the angle of the gangs without leaving your seat.
And any change that you make in the angle of the gangs does not change the Shields and Levers.
Pretty good point, that hand lever—don't you think so?
The disc gangs swing free, the shields and levers swinging with them.
By connecting the gangs of discs to the arch by a slide connection the gangs can be drawn together or spread apart to straddle any space desired, or to cultivate as close to the plant as wished.
And don't forget that the gangs are hung on springs.
That is a feature that helps you to operate the cultivator because you can do the guiding of the tool by foot pressure instead of the old way—shoving sideways.
And another thing that denotes a good cultivator is that every part must be absolutely perfect.
That's the Janesville every time.
And another thing that denotes a good cultivator is that it must be adjustable in all its parts.
That's the Janesville every time.
In fact, it's extraordinarily adjustable.
And here's a string of its adjustable points—and are all good ones too.
By using our hand levers you can set the gangs at any cutting angle, at any in-

HORRIBLE DISASTER

STEAMER CITY OF PITTSBURG BURNED ON OHIO RIVER.

Sixty-Five Persons Said to Have Perished—Some Burned to Death and Many Drowned—Most of the Passengers Were Asleep.

A special from Cairo, Ill., says: One of the worst disasters in the history of river navigation occurred shortly after 4 o'clock Sunday morning near Ogden's Landing, not far from this city. While almost all aboard were asleep, the steamer City of Pittsburgh was discovered on fire and in a few moments was burned to the water's edge. The loss of over $80,000 on the steamer does not include the cargo, both being a total loss.

The latest estimates are that there were 150 passengers aboard and not more than half of them were saved, many of the latter being burned or injured. As the register of the steamer was burned not list can be given, either of the victims or of the survivors, and in the confusion it has been impossible to get complete lists.

Capt. Phillips admits that the death list may reach sixty. Earlier reports stated that 65 lives were lost, and that many more were badly burned and otherwise injured. Every available craft from this city at once went to the scene of the disaster.

Most of the passengers were in bed when Second Clerk Oliver Phillips gave the alarm. The engineers at once started all the pumping engines, while the crew brought all the hose into play. Amid the streams of water on all sides, the flames from the tower deck and dense clouds of smoke, the passengers rushed from their staterooms and a frightful panic ensued. The appeals of officers and crew could not appease the terror-stricken crowds that interfered with those throwing water on the flames as well as with those working with the life boats. Few could adjust their life preservers or do anything for themselves. The smoke was stifling. Great clouds floated through the blazing steamer, choking the passengers and adding to the terror. Children cried pitifully, begging that they be saved. Life boats were manned and every effort was made to save the passengers from the floating wreckage of flames. Sturdy boatmen rowed as they never rowed before, in their heroic work of rescue.

Boats were sent from the shore to help in the work of rescue, but the raging flames rendered it impossible to save all whom they were intended to save. The burning steamer was quickly headed to the bank, but the passengers had a jump off the stern, and in trying to swim ashore through the swift current many were drowned.

Capt. Phillips said: "The fire caught in the hold. The night watchman claims to have been in the hold five or ten minutes before the fire was discovered. The pilot headed the steamer directly into the bank, and the sharp bow stuck in the mud, the boat lying quartering with the bank."

The burning steamer was quickly headed to the bank, but the passengers had a jump off the stern, and in trying to swim ashore through the swift current many were drowned.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Dallas, Tex., Suffers Loss of at Least $370,000.

A Dallas, Tex., dispatch says: Two persons fatally injured. Fire Chief Magee prostrated and a property loss of $370,000 is the result of several fires which occurred shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday morning. At that hour an alarm was turned in from the Dorsey printing establishment on lower Elm Street and in a short time one of the fiercest conflagrations which has visited Dallas in years was in progress. To add to the troubles of the firemen, several other alarms from different parts of the city were turned in in quick succession. After fighting the fire for two hours Chief Magee was prostrated and command was turned over to an assistant. The chief was rescued from the flames by the police and was unconscious for several hours.

Advices from Brussels state: A serious riot occurred at Louvain, near Brussels. The socialists held a demonstration in front of the residence of M. THE RAILROAD WON.

Damage Case at Fort Dodge, Ia., Finally Settled.

Some time ago Attorney George E. Clark of Algonia, advertised property of the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad to be disposed of at sheriff's sale to satisfy a judgment of $5,000 which had been obtained against the road by Bridget Gorman as damages for the death of her son, Thomas Gorman, who was killed while acting in the capacity of brakeman for the road in 1887. The case had already been appealed by the attorney for the road and an injunction was secured by them to restrain the sale. The supreme court has just returned a verdict reversing the decision of the lower court, and absolving the railroad company from damages, and the case has been definitely closed and the injunction dissolved.

The decision also ends a case with a remarkable history. The suit was first brought by Robert Gorman, father of Thomas Gorman, who was killed, who recovered damages in the sum of $5,000. The railroad company appealed, and before a decision had been returned by the supreme court Robert Gorman died. His widow, Bridget Gorman, took out letters of administration on the estate of her husband, supposing, as it was afterward claimed, that she was taking out letters on the estate of her son. Supposing that she was the proper party, Mrs. Gorman was substituted as plaintiff in the suit and as the administratrix of the estate of her son was given damages to the amount of $5,000, the railroad not appearing in the case, knowing that she was not the proper person to bring the suit.

Later, the railroad instituted proceedings to set aside the $5,000 claim, which were successful, and a new trial was ordered. In May, 1900, the case again came up, and Mrs. Gorman was given the $5,000 judgment which has just been reversed by the supreme court. The case is considered one of the most hard fought which has ever come up in Iowa railroad litigation, but is now definitely closed.

MURDER CAUSES REJOICING.

Russian Radicals Pleased Over Killing of Siplagone.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says: Although M. Siplagone, minister of the interior, who was assassinated Tuesday, was not actually the leader of the reactionary party in Russia, he was the tool of those who in the opinion of many were responsible for the prevailing situation. His assassination is easily explicable in the present political condition, and was hailed with joy in radical circles.

For a month there have been daily rumors of Siplagone's impending resignation, owing to disagreements with the governor general of Moscow, Grand Duke Sergius, who has been supporting a novel policy toward the working classes, which includes the organization of labor unions under police control.

The murdered minister's name was also mixed up with stories of financial irregularities alleged against so many officials at present. The deceased was by no means talented, and owed his position to influential friends.

SIoux INDIANS LOSE CASE.

Denied Injunction to Stop Leasing Land on Reservation.

Prineau and others, representing a tribe of Sioux Indians of the Standing Rock reservation, for an injunction to restrain the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of Indian affairs from leasing certain portions of the unoccupied land of the reservation for grazing purposes. The petitioners represented that they had agreed to lease the land in question to certain cattlemen at the rate of $1 for each head of cattle placed on the range. When the terms of the lease came to the office of the commissioner of Indian affairs the wording of the paper was so changed that it fixed the rate at $1 per acre instead of $1 per head of cattle. The Indians, therefore, sought relief through injunction.

In one hand he clutched the handle of a pocketknife, with which a strip of handkerchief was twisted tightly about the neck. The face was dark blue in color and blood oozed from the nose and mouth, showing that death had been caused by strangulation. A bottle of strychnine was found on the body.

THE CROP BULLETIN

WEATHER HAS BEEN FAVORABLE FOR FARM WORK.

Crops, Except Grass, Doing Well—Winter Wheat Shows Only Slight Damage During Winter and Spring and This Only in Limited Areas.

Lincoln, Neb.: Following is the weekly bulletin of the Nebraska section of the climate and crop service of the weather bureau for the week ending April 14:

In this first issue of the weekly climate and crop bulletin for 1902 a brief summary of weather and crop conditions for the last fall and winter is given. It presents a more complete view of the crop conditions at the opening of the season. Subsequent numbers will contain a chart of precipitation for the week ending Monday mornings and a summary of conditions for each county, as was done last year.

August—The rainfall during August, 1901, was slightly below the normal, but the ground was generally in good condition for seeding the last part of the month.

September—The rainfall during September was very heavy, more than twice the normal. This placed the ground in excellent condition for plowing and seeding. A large acreage of winter wheat was sown during the month.

October—October was also a very favorable month for plowing, seeding and the germination and growth of fall sown wheat. The temperature was high and the seed bed was in a very good condition. Some early sown fields were pastured to prevent too rank a growth. Sowing winter wheat continued very late, some fields being sown near the end of the month. A slight increase in acreage sown to winter wheat occurred generally in the western and northern counties, and a very large increase in most of the counties along the western and northern borders of what has been called the winter wheat belt.

November—The precipitation was below normal in most of the wheat belt. The temperature was high and wheat continued to grow well throughout the month. There was some snow in some places

BARB THE CHINESE.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO RE-ENACT GEARY LAW.

Final Vote Is Unanimous, with Single Exception of Senator Hoar—Plan Provides Against Deportation of the Chinese—Ran Until Dec. 7, 1904.

Exclusion of Chinese laborers from the United States, such as exists under the present law, will be continued until Dec. 7, 1904, according to the bill passed by the Senate. The Platt amendment, extending the present exclusion act until that date, was passed by a vote of 76 to 1, the only man voting against it being Senator Hoar. By a vote of 48 to 33 the Senate adopted the Platt amendment as a substitute for the House bill, which provided for the exclusion of Chinese indefinitely.

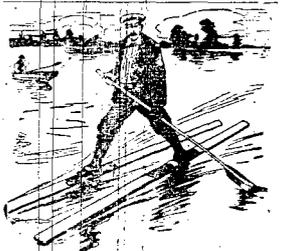

The present laws relate only to the coming of Chinese into the United States proper, but the new bill extends their provisions so as to apply to the insular possessions. The Chinese in the East Indian possessions of Uncle Sam cannot, under the provisions of the measure, be deported, but those residing in one group of islands can go from one island to another of the same group.

Article 6 of the Chinese treaty provides that the convention will remain in force for a period of ten years, beginning with the date of the exchange of ratification, and, if six months before the expiration of the period of ten years no other government formally gives notice of its final termination to the other treaty party, it shall remain in force for another period of ten years. The bill now provides that in case the treaty be terminated as provided in article 6 the exclusion laws now upon the statute books and the legislation adopted will not be extended and will remain in force until a new treaty regarding the coming of Chinese persons to the United States has been concluded and laws are passed carrying into effect the provisions of the new treaty.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make rules and regulations for the collection of duties on the Chinese laborer. Under the laws now in effect every Chinese laborer who is admitted to remain in the United States is required to secure a certificate from the government, showing that he is entitled to remain here.

THE UNITED STATES HAS THE MOST TERRIBLE GUN EVER MADE.

DESTRUCTION BY A SHELL.

The United States has just developed a cannon that will be the despair of foreign gunmakers. A gun has been built, weighing only four tons and with only 4 1/2-inch caliber, which, the experts figure, will throw a 550-pound shell 25 miles. After 17 years of experiment the new gun has finally been perfected. It is called the "Brown regimental wire tube-rapid-fire" gun. The shell starts with a velocity of 4,000 feet per second, sails five miles into the air and strikes the earth 25 miles away, all in one minute and 45 seconds. It requires only 32 pounds of powder to accomplish this.

The tube and foundation of the gun are made of steel, one-seventh of an inch thick. Ten miles of wire is wound into each gun, giving a tube that will stand the unburied pressure of 90,000 pounds to the square inch. The range and energy of this gun are attained by using a comparatively big powder chamber, together with a long barrel, and a special carriage has been designed to stand the recoil that comes from firing the gun at an angle of 40 degrees.

This was when it was considered that New York, owing to the batteries at Sandy Hook and on the island, was impregnable to the guns of a hostile fleet. Now, a foreign fleet armed with such a gun has this might lie out of sight of Sandy Hook and blow New York off the map.

HOT TIME IN BELGIUM.

POLITICAL DISTURBANCES CULMINATE IN OPEN RIOT.

Little Country in an Uproar Which May Mark the Turning Point in the General Evolution of the Universal Suffrage Principle.

The spirit of unrest has broken out in Brussels. The visit of a delegation of Spanish republican deputies was the signal for demonstrations by the socialists. When the Spaniards were ordered out of the country indignation took the form of a riot at the railroad station as they were leaving, and when King Leopold happened by from Biarritz a forest of red flags greeted him, and he barely escaped a mobbing. Since then the little country has been in an uproar that may not culminate without a serious clash between the soldiery and the people. The labor situation is ominous, while the cry for universal suffrage has become more and more imperative.

Apparently Belgium is about to furnish an interesting test of the extent to which the idea of universal suffrage is making headway in monarchial Europe.

After months of violent political disturbances, occasionally leading to open riot, the Belgian government confronts a serious crisis. The socialists, with the support of the liberal party, are demanding a revision of the election laws and the adoption of the "one man one vote" principle. Ostensibly Belgium has universal suffrage now, but the restrictions as to voting are such that one man may cast three ballots where another casts but one. A Belgian may vote once if he has no property, twice if he has a little real estate or a certain sum in the bank and three times if he has both property and certain educational qualifications. In all of those reported being passed in 1911, a total of only 1,400,000 voters. To complicate matters still further, the Belgian parliament in 1899 adopted an intricate system of "proportional representation" which has the effect of perpetuating the present party in power and preventing coalitions among the socialists, liberals and radicals.

A dispatch from Liege, a town in the province of Hainaut, announces that in accordance with the decision of the labor leaders a general strike has been begun in the coal mines, glass works and factories of the central districts, including Mariemont and Bascoep.

Advices from Liege say that a general strike has been started in the coal mines of the Seraing district, and at the Kettin foundries at Solvay. The quartermen of the Amblye Valley also have struck. From Mons, Belgium, a dispatch states that in accordance with the decision of the labor leaders a general strike has been begun in the coal mines, glass works and factories of the central districts, including Mariemont and Bascoep.

The Chinese exclusion bill occupied Monday in the Senate, Senators Foraker and McLaughlin (S. C.) making extended speeches in opposition to it. Mr. Foraker contended that the measure was violative of the treaty with China and was calculated to prevent America's commercial expansion in the far East. While strongly supporting the policy of the government to exclude Chinese laborers, he maintained this could best be accomplished by an extension of the present law. Mr. McLaughlin held that the drastic provisions of the pending bill would cut off America's cotton trade with China and wreck the cotton industry of the South. Mr. Teller briefly responded to Mr. Foraker, urging that the right to abrogate treaties was fully recognized. Interest in the Cuban reciprocity debate seemed to wane as the day wore on. The bill was passed by a vote of 55 to 40.

The Senate devoted Wednesday to consideration and final passage of the Chinese exclusion bill. The measure was passed by a vote of 55 to 40. The bill is now in the hands of the President for his signature.

Thursday in the Senate was mainly occupied by a speech by Mr. Morgan on the Nicaragua canal bill. The resolution offered by Mr. Cushman (Texas) directing the Secretary of War to send to the Senate a statement of money paid by the United States on account of the Philippine commission and a statement of the amount of money expended for sending troops to the Philippines and for their maintenance were agreed to. The Senate Chinese exclusion bill was substituted for the one passed by the House in order to facilitate consideration of the measure. In the House the subject of the Cuban reciprocity bill occupied most of the day, the feature being a vigorous speech by Mr. Cushman (Tex.), who, against the measure. Mr. De Armond (Mo.) delivered a forcible speech in favor of tariff reduction on that subject. The other speakers were Messrs. Lacey (Iowa), Davenport (N. Y.) and Lacey (Iowa) for the bill and Messrs. Jankin (Wis.), Gaines (W. Va.), Warner (Ill.), Gardner (Mich.), Jones (Wash.) and Lord (Cal.) against it. Mr. Lord declared that directly and indirectly Cuba already had cost the United States $1,000,000,000.

SEASON BACKWARD IN SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY.

Government Report Winter Wheat Outlook Shows General Improvement, but Hails Needed in the Ohio, Central Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys.

The semi-monthly crop report issued from the crop division of the weather bureau shows that although New Year's eve the normal order of the northern portion of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, the season is reported as backward in these districts, except in New England and New York, where it is from one to two weeks earlier than the average. The season is also backward in the Southern States.

The week ending April 14 was cold in the central valleys and over the interior portions of the Atlantic coast and east gulf districts, although milder temperature prevailed during the latter part of the week in the last named districts. Rain is much needed in the Ohio, central Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, over the western portions of the lake region, in northern Florida, and the Rio Grande valley, including parts of Texas and Colorado. Frosts occurred as far south as the northern portions of the east gulf States and the interior of the Carolina, causing no serious damage. Warm and dry weather is badly needed on the north Pacific coast.

Corn planting is nearing completion in the west gulf States and has made favorable progress in the south Atlantic and the Gulf States and Tennessee. This work is general in Kansas and Missouri, and preparations in Iowa are unusually well advanced.

While the growth of winter wheat has been slow, a very general improvement is reported from the principal winter wheat States, although the crop has deteriorated slightly in central and northern Illinois and is suffering for rain in northern Missouri. On the Pacific coast the growth of winter wheat is slow in California and a heavy crop is promised. Spring wheat seeding is well advanced in the southern portion of the spring wheat region and a little has been sown in southern North Dakota.

Oat seeding is well advanced in the States of the Missouri valley, but has made less favorable progress in the Ohio valley. The early sown is looking well in Oklahoma, Kansas and the southern portion of Nebraska. The progress of germination has been slow in the Ohio valley and the crop has sustained some injury by frosts in Indiana.

Cotton planting is well advanced to the westward of the Mississippi and the early planted is coming up to satisfactory stands in Texas. Eastward of the Mississippi planting, although late, is well under way over the southern portions of Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina. But little cotton planting has yet been done in Mississippi. The fruit outlook, except for peaches in some districts, is promising. Frosts have caused injury to peaches in Kentucky, Tennessee and the Carolinas.

Reports from States. Illinois—Except in parts of the south central district, where work has been delayed by frost, the season for carrying on farming operations during the first two weeks of April. # CONDITION OF CROPS.

SEASON BACKWARD IN SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY.

Government Report Winter Wheat Outlook Shows General Improvement, but Hails Needed in the Ohio, Central Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys.

The semi-monthly crop report issued from the crop division of the weather bureau shows that although New Year's eve the normal order of the northern portion of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, the season is reported as backward in these districts, except in New England and New York, where it is from one to two weeks earlier than the average. The season is also backward in the Southern States.

The week ending April 14 was cold in the central valleys and over the interior portions of the Atlantic coast and east gulf districts, although milder temperature prevailed during the latter part of the week in the last named districts. Rain is much needed in the Ohio, central Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, over the western portions of the lake region, in northern Florida, and the Rio Grande valley, including parts of Texas and Colorado. Frosts occurred as far south as the northern portions of the east gulf States and the interior of the Carolina, causing no serious damage. Warm and dry weather is badly needed on the north Pacific coast.

Ludwig Zeimer died at his home on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, April 16, 1902. This takes from our community one of our oldest settlers of Wayne county coming here in the spring of 1879. He was a kind husband and father and always had a cheerful word for those who associated with him. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Lutheran church and he was laid to rest in the Hoskins cemetery. Ludwig Zeimer ments on the place in general and make it look homelike.

EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.

Per F. C. Oldenburg, Manager.

Chas. Culler, of the Dakota City schools, was an over Sunday guest of his sister, Miss Eta.
Mrs. Emil Weber is in Omaha undergoing treatment at the St. Joseph's hospital for stomach trouble.
Mrs. Tom Fritz is at the Samaritan hospital in Sioux City where she will undergo an operation for gall stones, from which she has been a great sufferer for some time.
By the change of $3500 from one pocket to another Walter Weber became the possessor of the Grimesley home on Main Street, Mr. and Mrs.
Weber know a good thing when they see it.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, of Whiting,
Iowa, have been the guests of Walter Weber and wife for the past week. They always receive a warm welcome from friends here, as they were residents of this place for years.

Miss Nettie Zeimer, of Monroe, Wisconsin, arrived in the city Thursday for an extended visit with the family of her uncle, Mr. Crayon. Miss Zeim-er will be a welcome addition to the young people of the place.

A busy place in Wayne is the blacksmith shop and wagon shop south of the depot operated by Messrs. A. A.
Wallard and R. J. Roush respectively.
These gentlemen find it very convenient to handle their work in connection with each other but maintain separate businesses.

The Literary meeting of the City Federation of Clubs at the College on Friday evening was one of the most interesting held by that organization.
The program was somewhat shortened by the absence of some. But the numbers rendered were fine and highly appreciated. Mrs. Duerig, president of the Federation rendered a very pleasant address, this with music by Mrs. Marion Fry and Miss Weisler, and a reading by Mrs. Dan Harrington made up the program, which although short was none the less enjoyable.

Dr. J. J. Williams and John Keast were Norfolk visitors last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Eph Beck-nbauer are the proud parents of a 9-pound boy.
The families of Robt. Warnock and Ike Waidon are under quarantine for small pox.
Finely improved half section, splendid farm 14 miles from Wayne, $60 per acre, easy terms. E. R. SURBER,

Mrs. Tom Fritz who underwent an operation for the removal of gall stones a few days ago at the hospital in Sioux City, is not in a most hopeful condition but it is believed she will recover if she passes the crisis.

Fire destroyed the Dixon creamery last week, but not the one at Concord as reported. Bad feeling was the probable cause of the fire which was supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Mr. John Harrington returned from a five weeks' trip through the west on Thursday. He seems to be fairly satisfied with Wayne and Wayne county even yet. Mrs. Harrington returned with him from her visit to friends in Tekamah.

J. W. Wingert was around this week with a paper to see how badly the people of the business district want the streets sprinkled. He says he can't do it for less than $50 per month. In some places the city council pay a part of such expense, but in Wayne the whole is paid by those who get the service.
A Reverend Williams, of Sioux City, was in Wayne Monday raising funds for Rescues Home work their. He was a very pleasant gentleman to talk with and among the things he said was those asked to give to such charities should insist upon knowing the authority of the solicitor for the cause he represented as imposters are on the road.
He also stated a fellow with a bogus arm is in the country somewhere—look out for him.

Mrs. Willis Howard is very sick of gastritis
Fasok Tracy, of Winside, and Grace
Jones will be married May 1st we understand.
Chas. Neiman arrived last Thursday for a visit with his father, Doctor Neiman, of this city.
P. L. Miller left Wayne Thursday via Chicago for a two weeks visit with his mother in Monroe, Wisconsin.
Mrs. J. M. Pile and Miss Jessie Austin start today for Los Angeles, California to attend the National Club meeting. They intend making a tour of the west before coming home.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Ethel Tucker, daughter of A. L. Tucker, of the Citizens Bank and H. J. Feiber, the druggist at Laurel, at high noon May 1st.

In the scrap last week in which Lottie Larson complained of Geo.
Owens and caused the arrest of Owens on a charge of assault and battery, the latter was fined $20.00 and costs before Judge Hunter, and appealed to the District Court. It is a case of doubtful merits and the jury that has to listen to the mess will wish it could just fine em both and go home to plow corn.

T. Steen has been making things assume a busy appearance at his place of business the past few days. They have assembled the implements of the ice-cream brigade—from the dainty quarrete tables to the latest thing out, a mould that turns out ice-cream sandwiches. They will manufacture ice cream this season with a gasoline engine for power and will serve it by the dish, gallon or ton—to please the appetite of any girl in town who has a "real nice" bean. Their fine display of confectionery is both pretty and well chosen to insure purity and wholesom-ness as is the fine line of bakery products always on hand. Only a few days ago they secured one of the finest peanut and popcorn machines in the country.
