

CONVINCING WILLIAM.
A LITTLE FELLOW.

To the Hon. Wm. Brewster, Secretary to the President, Washington, D. C.

What a capital job you have done in your report on the food situation! It is a masterpiece of clear-headedness and common sense. I have read it with interest and pleasure. It is a model of what a government report should be. It is clear, concise, and to the point. It is a credit to you and to the government.

I am sure that your report will be of great value to the people of this country. It will show them the true state of affairs and the steps that must be taken to meet the emergency. It is a masterpiece of clear-headedness and common sense. I have read it with interest and pleasure. It is a model of what a government report should be. It is clear, concise, and to the point. It is a credit to you and to the government.

NO CERTIFICATE.

The fact that a man is a member of a certain organization does not mean that he is a member of any other organization. It is a common mistake to assume that a man is a member of all organizations to which he belongs. This is not true. A man may be a member of one organization and not a member of another. It is important to know the facts in each case.
