WAYNE REPUBLICAN.

Published at the Publisher's Office, Wayne, Nebraska, on Tuesday, December 23, 1897.

Another bond issue of from $30,000.00 to $100,000.00 is contemplated.

Patent suits against "Ipsa" reported. Over 700 cases are pending in the city.

Internal machines were sent to George M. Fullerton and J. B. Aronson lately.

Ex-Congressman W. A. McKinley died at the Red Cloud sanatorium, Dec. 22.

The excess of expenditures for the government over its revenues for the past year are $120,000,000.

The expense to the United States government for interest on its debt for the year 1896 has been $200,000,000.

The German National Bank of Lincoln closed its doors on the 18th. Capital $100,000, liabilities, $100,000.

The Scribner Journal predicts that if Alton is nominated for president it will have a minority in favor of a hundred thousand. In that the States City Journal.

To 1897 under the McKinley law our exports were $140,000,000. In 1898 under the Wilson bill they are $203,000,000. How we are capturing "the markets of the world."

Secretary Carlisle in his report to congress advocates the retirement of the treasury note and the greenback and the loaning for that purpose of 4 per cent bonds.

The average price for wheat in 1897 to 1898 was 90c. from 1892 to '95 the average price has been the per bushel. The first under Republican administration the second year broke up about.

Attorney General Chandler in the Wisconsin case declared that the publication of the Nebraska is divided between McKinley and Alton. States City Journal.

President Cleveland finds dirt hunting much less odious than the duties of his executive office. Does not think people $100 per day or over for one hour an hour.

Contract the currency by retiring the greenbacks and treasury notes and retire the national debt by bond issues drawing interest to retire these debts the policy advocated by the present administration.

Referring to details of the republican national convention the Star, a Record defiantly exclaims: "This nation has prospered and will prosper because it has the right of self-determination."

Without admitting her student contempory he kind enough to point out to his readers how they have been "defeated" by history and other things. It is not the first time she has done this. Let her come in another month, let her come in another month, let her come in another month.

Tom Mays is said to have an eye on the nomination for governor in this state next fall. Doubt you do not find a lot of the fellows stayed by you two years ago and we found a "wild" had work. They're straightened, straightened, and from the sounds that emanated from the stump the last time we have you've got the horses at any rate you've got to lead in a race that has.

Some of these days while the Christian nations of the north are dealing with the Sultan he will slip out of Constantinople, and declare that "God is God and Mohammed is his prophet" and call upon the followers of Islam to raise the old cry of "Accept the Koran or the sword" the latter of the two will be filled with the blood of those that do not.

All American churches of North and South America, will inevitably sympathize with any people in the east world who are trying to get rid of European rule. It has always been tyrannical. Great Britain has been the most liberal. Spanish rule has been a greater burden to American colonies. Spanish rule has been interestingly favorable to American colonies.

High German satellites are of the opinion that England is the only country in the world in which the rule has been an aggressor on the territory of the southern republic. There is one thing certain and that is she is about at the end of her string so for an extending her territorial lines are concerned in any of the American. The United States is not large enough to get a clock on her good and we believe she will do it.

Quite a number of papers throughout the state seem to think that Judge John S. Robinson will be the demagogic candidate for congress in this third district this year. We don't believe that our brethren see John so properly. He is a pretty shrewd individual, not one of the fellows that come to head a foreign issue anywhere, and he is not a demagogue like the "Scribner" that outwore the leading light of the party outside of the fraternity not being particularly sweet on him. John is not at all certain of even his nomination. You may bet he will not hang onto his $200,000 judgment in preference to following in the "Jack of Ladders" class. John's no fool.

The kindly intention to judge, the village and insurance the highest Americans without any apparent effort on the part of the Turkish authorities to prevent it. It seems as though civilization's history has to be written in blood and in no other way will that of the first Christian civilization prevail in the domain of the Sultan it must be broken down by the sword and the war-making the nations of the world come to recognize that fact. The law will be the cost to the Christian world promises to be broken down and crushed. Broken down by the sword and the war-making the nations of the world come to recognize that fact. The law will be the cost to the Christian world promises to be broken down and crushed. Broken down by the sword and the war-making the nations of the world come to recognize that fact. The law will be the cost to the Christian world promises to be broken down and crushed.

Have you ever noticed that a big crop of corn and the big crop of wheat appear to be less common. Our observation has been that when there was a big crop of corn and the price low, that the same thing would be true for wheat. The natural inference, that is, would be that the big crop of wheat and the big crop of corn would be the same thing. The natural inference, that is, would be that the big crop of wheat and the big crop of corn would be the same thing.
