

WAYNE REPUBLICAN.

Published at the Presses of Wayne, Nebraska, at the residence of the publisher, Mark U. Hill.

The Standard of the State is the Standard of the Nation.

The Cuban people are suffering around Havana and have the sympathy of the world.

The board of directors have issued a statement saying that the next meeting will be on the 15th of the next month.

The National Congress committee has announced that they will be holding their annual convention.

Greene's war is the grandest. He is fighting for the cause of the oppressed and the oppressed are cheering him.

It is very much to be regretted that the congressional committee for the relief of the Cuban people has not yet reported.

The people of the world are cheering the Cuban people and their struggle for freedom.

Germany is doing nothing for the African people in South Africa. It is only interested in its own interests.

DEATH OF TOMMSEN.

POINTS ON A QUESTION THAT HAS LONG BEEN IN DOUBT.

The Father of the Old Indian War, a noble Indian hero, whose life and death have been the subject of many legends.

The following account of the death of the great Indian hero, Red Jacket, was found in the papers of the late General J. C. Carter, editor of the New York Herald, and was published in the issue of the 23rd of July, 1755.

When called, the following list of names called the names of the men who were killed in the battle of the Clouds on the 26th of July, 1755.

My father said that when he was in the army in 1755, he had seen the body of the great Indian hero, Red Jacket, in the hands of the British.

PEARLINE

Better use them this way, if you don't use Pearline. Give your tired arms and aching back a rest, sometimes when you're scrubbing and cleaning.

"An assured idea!" Of course. But when a person has cleaned house with Pearline, year in and year out, and knows how much work it saves, and time and rubbing, nothing seems more absurd than to try to clean house without it. Pearline—no soap with it—just Pearline—makes house-cleaning easy.

Millions now use Pearline

A Sufferer Cured
Every season, from the time it was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The hopes were almost that they would be lost, and several of my fingers are now crooked from the disease. One day I heard I carry large bars, which, but for AYER'S Sarsaparilla, would have proved a life-long cause of suffering. Light bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me, so that I have had no return of the disease for more than two years. The first bottle seemed to reach the spot and a persistent use of it has purified the cure. - D. C. Davis, Westboro, Wis.
