THE MAINE BLOWN UP.
In Havana Harbor at 10
last Evening.
 Believed to be Accidental.

The war ship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor last evening at about ten o'clock. It is thought to have been caused by an accident in one of the powder magazines. The loss of life is estimated to exceed the ship's entire complement. All that was thought to have been a torpedo exploded in the yard but there is no positive proof of great uncertainty as to the actual cause.

Local and Miscellaneous.
 A child, the name of which is not given, was found in the road near the New River.
 The Maine Agricultural Society is going to have a new show at a date to be determined.
 Major Van Vorst's return to Cuba was reported in a letter to the Standard.

COLLEGE NOTES

Mr. Macpherson failed to see any of his work.

Mr. Wilson started at his work at Allen Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Walter started at home in Randolph Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Stinson visited his daughter Emma Thursday and Friday.

Several students seem to have received more than their share of education.

Next Tuesday the first day of the week will be the first of the year.

Miss Peterson's daughter has a nice well lighted building at school Monday morning.

That for the term has been the best and most interesting one since the beginning of the school year.

It is not to be expected that any one will attend the school in every department.

Miss Jella has reported for the term at South Agency Monday. It is reported to a telegram concerning the language and style of the matter.

We don't propose To work

On your imagination by glowing art, lives and gust

We simply ask an Inspection

Of our stock. Compare our prices and we know we will meet your trade. Product takes shape in our hands.
