THE DUEL ON THE MOUNTAIN.

It was a beautiful day in the month of May, and the sun shone brightly upon the mountains. The air was fresh and pure, and the birds were singing in the trees. A young man and a young woman were walking together on a path that led up the side of a mountain. They were both dressed in simple, practical clothing, and they were both looking at each other with a look of affection.

"I have a great deal to tell you," said the young man, looking at the young woman with a serious expression. "I have a great deal to tell you," said the young man, looking at the young woman with a serious expression. "I have a great deal to tell you," said the young man, looking at the young woman with a serious expression.
