CHAPTER XXX
The morning after the battle of Almonmouth, the British army was in a state of confusion. The British general, Clinton, had been defeated, and the Continental Congress had fled to Lancaster, then to York, and finally to Philadelphia. The British were pursuing the Continental army, and the British general, Clinton, was in a state of confusion.

I Bought Health
I first used Ayer's Serravallo in the fall of 1888. I was broken in health and completely dissipated. My blood was impure, and I felt the dull ache of rheumatism. I felt in my every spring a cold, blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine. I always say, "See how your health is getting on, if you want to be a doctor, a bottle of Ayer's Serravallo is worth ten dollars."
S. W. French, Wichita, Kan.

Buy Yours
If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old-time Ayer's Serravallo.

Sudden and Severe

Neuralgia

St. Jacobs Oil

Do not Doubt.

The first neuralgia attack for which you can get relief is the most distressing. It is a sudden, sharp pain, which may be felt in the forehead, temple, eye, or in the face. It is a sharp, lancinating pain, which is often described as a "stabbing" or "burning" pain. It is a pain which is often described as a "stabbing" or "burning" pain.

The treatment for neuralgia is a simple one. It is a matter of using St. Jacobs Oil. This oil is a powerful remedy for all forms of neuralgia. It is a natural product, which is derived from the fish-liver oil of the cod. It is a pure, unadulterated oil, which is free from all impurities.

TRAINED WILD ANIMALS.

The Constant Fight to Which They Are Subjected.

These animals are trained for the purpose of performing various feats of strength and agility. They are subjected to a constant fight to overcome their natural instincts and to perform these feats. This is a process of training and conditioning, which is often described as a "fight" between the animal's natural instincts and the trainer's commands.

COST OF BOER WAR.

EXPENDITURES NEARLY EQUAL TO REVENUE SINCE 1895.

From the Bureau of Finance, Washington, D. C., a report is published showing that the expenditures of the government since 1895 have nearly equalled the revenue.

The report shows that the total expenditures of the government since 1895 have amounted to $1,000,000,000, while the total revenue has amounted to $950,000,000. This shows a deficit of $50,000,000.

The report also shows that the expenditures of the government have increased steadily since 1895, while the revenue has remained relatively stable. This is due to the increasing cost of the Boer War and other military operations.

The report further shows that the expenditures of the government have increased in every year since 1895, while the revenue has only increased in some years. This has resulted in a growing deficit.

The report concludes that the expenditures of the government have nearly equalled the revenue since 1895. This is a significant increase in the deficit, and it is expected to continue in the future.

But we sell the goods and the reason for it is that we always keep

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT

Then, again, we never ask a fancy price for the finest of goods. Our principle of doing business is many sales and a small profit from each. We don't expect to make excessive and a big profit from any single sale, but a little on each one and the aggregate will keep us out of the line.

THE GROCERY BUSINESS IS OUR BUSINESS

And if you are a customer of ours you know it, and if you are not, it will pay you to become one. Remember the price.
