One Hundred Men Converted

During the last two months we have converted over one hundred men to wear Staley Underwear. Now we don't have any back-slayers. Once a Staley man, always a Staley man. Any man that will wear Staley all-wool underwear in this climate will find he enjoys better health, feels more comfortable, and don't fear cold weather. It is a real pleasure to be out doors in cold weather if you wear Staley underwear. If you have Rheumatism ask your doctor if you should wear Staley all-wool underwear? He will tell you "Certainly." Nearly every doctor in Wayne county wears it. All recommend it. Why not wear it? Over half the men in Wayne county are wearing it. Join the crowd and keep well and comfortable. Price $2 for $3 a suit. All sizes up to size 50. Made to fit. Not like any other underwear.

One Hundred Soles Saved

We have saved hundreds of soles in Wayne county by convincing men that our Pure Gum Arctics will wear longer than any other kind sold in Wayne. ## A Tale of the Early Settlers of Louisiana

BY AUSTIN C. BURDICK

CHAPTER I

It was a fine morning in the month of May, 1765, when the sun shone brightly upon the waters of the Mississippi river. The air was fresh and cool, and the birds were singing in the trees. A small boat, with a single man at the helm, was gliding down the river. The man was a young man, with a fair complexion and a high forehead. He was dressed in a simple, but neat, suit of clothing. He was looking towards the shore, where a small settlement of white people was visible. The settlement was situated on a high bank, and the houses were built of brick and stone. The man in the boat was looking at the settlement with a look of interest and admiration. He was a Frenchman, and he had just arrived in Louisiana from France. He was a young man, and he was full of life and energy. He was looking at the settlement with a look of interest and admiration. He was a Frenchman, and he had just arrived in Louisiana from France. # COUNTRY IS PROSPEROUS

Prosperous, as a result of the success of the cotton and sugar plantations.

When the cotton and sugar plantations were first established in Louisiana, the country was a wilderness. The only people who lived there were the Indians. The French and English settlers came to the country in the 17th and 18th centuries, and they began to plant cotton and sugar. The cotton and sugar plantations were successful, and the country became prosperous. The French and English settlers brought with them the tools and techniques of agriculture, and they taught the Indians how to plant cotton and sugar.
